Some time during last Friday night, thieves entered the post office by prying the double front doors far enough apart that the lock opened. From marks on the door, a chisel was the implement used as a pry.

A child's sack was found on the floor of the post office, and that in conjunction with the fact that a heavy sledge and brace and bit and other smith tools were that night stolen from the shop of Wagner and Robison, has led to the expression which the thieves meant to blow open the post office safe, and that the child's sack was part of the goods they had with them to muffle the safe to deaden the sound, though none of the black smith tools were found about the post office.

A Cure for Constipation and Sick Headache. Dr. Silas Lane while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation.

Doomed. A Chicago engineer has figured out that his city will be destroyed in 1893. He says Lake Michigan has washed out the soil of the city so that the strip of earth upon which Chicago stands has a thickness of only 16 feet, and is too weak to sustain the weight of the colossal exposition buildings.

Matchmaking. A lecture entitled "Matchmaking," will be delivered in the new Evangelical Church at Mexico, Thursday evening, Feb. 11th, 1892, by Bishop Stanford of Harrisburg.

Send 50 cents to Bond & Co., 576 Rookery, Chicago, and you will receive, post paid, a four hundred page advance Guide to the Exposition, with elegant Engravings of the Grounds and Buildings, Portraits of its leading spirits, and a Map of the City of Chicago, all of the Rules governing the Exposition and Exhibitors, and all information which can be given out in advance of its opening.

For a Time. I will now reduce the price of my $3.00 cabinet photograph to $1.50 per dozen. This reduction will continue as long as there is sufficient trade to warrant these prices and no longer.

Hold it to the Light. The man who tells you confidentially just what will cure your cold, is prescribing Kemp's Balsam this year. In the preparation of this remarkable medicine for coughs and colds no expense is spared to combine only the best and purest ingredients.

FALL & WINTER GOODS. I would inform the public that I have now in my new millinery store at my place of residence on Water street, Mifflintown, second door from corner of Bridge street, a full stock of Fall and Winter millinery goods, all new, and of the latest styles.

Does this Catch Your Eye? If so, get the whole of the story. It is short and may be as valuable to you as to us.
