Daily news—a gossip. Methodists are preparing to build a church in McAlisterville.

The Lancaster county primary election was a clear sweep for Quay. Indiana and Bedford county primary elections are claimed by Daizeil people.

We know we can show you a better line of building hardware than you can get elsewhere. Call at McClintic's hardware store on Main Street.

Winnie Russell, a two-year old child of Joseph Butt, of Patterson, died on last Friday, and was buried in the Presbyterian Cemetery on Sunday.

An Atlanta girl committed suicide by shooting herself with a revolver because another girl of the same town did not love her as she desired to be loved.

Clothing merchant, Ferd Meyers wants it distinctly understood among the Democracy, and among other people, that he is not a candidate for Legislature.

A four year old son of Ed Shover, of Millford township, was seriously poisoned last Wednesday by drinking oil of sassafras. Dr. W. H. Banks is attending the case.

Mrs. Sarah A.rl, wife of Sheriff A.rl, deceased, died in Lancaster county, on the 5th inst. Her remains were brought to this county and interred in Spruce Hill.

It was 8 o'clock on the morning of the 6th, the day after the election at McKees Rock, Pa., when the election board finished counting the votes under the Baker ballot law.

Peter Brown, a prominent citizen of Fayette township, died about 3 o'clock on Monday morning, April 11th, 1892, aged 63 years. Mr. Brown's sickness was cancer of the stomach.

Itch on human and horses and animals cured in 30 minutes by Woolford's Sanitary Lotion. This never fails. Sold by L. Banks & Co., Druggists, Millintown, Nov. 13, 1890-ly.

The Lewistown Sentinel says: "It is rumored the dam in the river is to be removed." What a power it would be to run an electric light plant for Lewistown and an electric railway to Reedsville and Millintown.

ment of the evening. The only unpleasant feature of the occasion was that their host was slightly indisposed, having taken a chill, but before the evening was over he was about again.

Horse Sale. L. Banks Wilson, of Creston, Iowa will conduct his fifty-second horse sale at the Jacobs House, in this place, at one o'clock sharp, in the afternoon, on SATURDAY, APRIL 23, 1892. This lot will embrace single and double driving and heavy draught horses. Terms: Sixty days on note; 1 per cent off for cash.

An Imposter Around. William Weand, state secretary, sends out the following information: "Notice has been received at state camp headquarters of the Patriotic Order Sons of America, to the effect that a person representing himself as W. H. Ward, of camp No. 83, of Philadelphia, is traveling through the state soliciting aid from the members of the order wherever he goes, and has recently been operating in Dauphin, Mifflin, Juniata and Huntingdon counties with considerable success.

Primary Election Day. The Republican county committee met on Saturday, and fixed Saturday, June 4, as the day on which to hold the primary election, and Monday, June 6th, as the day for the return judges to meet and announce the result of the election.

Early Oats Sowing. On the 6th inst., the SENTINEL and REPUBLICAN, published an item from the Lewistown Gazette of how a citizen of Mifflin county sowed oats, on the 22nd of March, thirty-three years ago, which item has brought a response from Wooster, Ohio, as follows:

On Thursday the 14th inst., delegates from all the counties of the 18th congressional district will meet in Lewistown to select a delegate to the National Republican convention and attend to other business that pertains to the politics of the district.

Interesting public meetings were held in the Court House to raise money for the "starving Russians" in Europe. Subscription papers were drawn up, and ladies carried them to solicit money contributions, $53.25 was raised and sent to the central committee in Philadelphia last week.

On Monday forenoon, immediately after Atlantic Express, east passed bridge No. 5, about two miles west of Spruce Hill, a dynamite blast was set off, which threw a ten-ton rock on the railroad bridge across the river. The bridge was wrecked, and travel and transportation of all kinds was brought to a halt. The bridge was sufficiently repaired to pass trains on Monday evening.

On Tuesday of last week, William Kyke, son of Henry Pyke, a New Kingston, Cumberland county, butcher, died from the effects of the bite of a hog, and on Sunday a second son, Samuel, died of scarlet fever. The mother is dangerously ill of scarlet fever and the grandmother and two daughters are also ill, the girls of measles, and Mr. Pyke is the only one of the family not afflicted. The one son was eighteen and the other sixteen years of age.

Men and women, maidens and young men, big and little, married and single in all, about seventy-five, of the fun loving spirits from Mifflin and Patterson, journeyed to Port Royal on a special train in charge of Train Master, W. D. Cramer, last Friday evening. The object of the trip was a surprise party at the home of Hon. W. C. Pomeroy, at Port Royal. They were joined by a large party from that place and together they took possession of the Pomeroy mansion and proceeded to enjoy the occasion. The party furnished their own refreshments, and passed the hours away in card playing, charades, singing, and in other social ways until time for Oyster Express, when the Mifflin and Patterson party came home highly pleased with the enjoythe products on which he lived was concerned. He fished and hunted wherever he pleased and his right to whatever he secured was not questioned. The white man is no communist where ever he drives his stake or settles, he secures an individual ownership and all he raises upon his possession belongs to him individually. He builds roads for common use, establishes courts or places where disputes between individuals may be settled by 12 men who have the matter in dispute, so that no general fight may result from the quarrel. He provides places in which courts convene and title papers for the lands he owns are kept, all of which are paid for by a common tax. Is there any question as to which the Indian or white man gets most out of this life.

Tribute of Respect. Resolutions adopted by East Salem M. E. Sabbath School: Whereas, God in his all wise Providence has removed from our midst a zealous, affectionate and faithful member in the person of John W. Auker. Whereas, in his death, the family mourn the loss of a kind and obedient son, a loving brother and a sympathetic friend, and our school an earnest scholar the memory of whom like some passages of scripture glows with the poetry of heaven and immortality.

Resolved: That we as a school tender our heart felt sympathies to the bereaved family in this their hour of grief that they may look upon death as robbed of its sting and the grave as a place of rest. Resolved: That these resolutions be placed upon the minutes of the school and a copy be sent to the bereaved family, and that they be published in the county papers.

For a Time. I will now reduce the price of my $3.00 cabinet photograph to $1.50 per dozen. This reduction will continue as long as there is sufficient trade to warrant them. I have the longest gallery in the county, and the latest improvements usually kept in a first class gallery, such as Fine Scenic Backgrounds, Beautiful Draperies and Fine Accessories, that would do credit to the large cities. We propose during this reduction to let our work speak for itself and have no hesitancy in saying that taking into consideration the quality of work, these will be the cheapest cabinet photographs ever made in Juniata county. Respectfully, JOSEPH HESS, Millintown, Pa., Jan. 22nd, 1892.

MAKRIED: HENKE-SIERA—On the 5th inst., by the Rev. G. W. Lender, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. Albert Hinkel, of St. Louis, Mo., and Miss Blanch M. Sieber, of McAlisterville, Juniata Co., Pa.
