A few shad have been caught in the Juniata at Millersburg dam, from a human standpoint it is a query why providence did not wash out the river dams when it washed away the canal in the June flood of 1890 thereby again providing for restocking the streams with fish straight from the sea.

As far as heard from some 300 people have been drowned and over 5000 rendered homeless by the western floods last week. The scenes that were enacted along the Juniata river by the 1899 June flood, were enacted in many times multiplied scale. The districts flooded would cover half of Pennsylvania if they could be put together.

Banks Wilson had a valuable horse killed the other day. The two horses latched to a land roller in turning on the crest of a hill became entangled in trace chains and in that way lost their back hold on the roller. The roller shoved them down the hill till they became frightened and then they ran. One of the horses struck a tree and was killed.

Lewistown Gazette.—The township auditors of Wayne township were down to Ryde last week settling with Captain Jenkins and Wm. B. Bratton for the sheep the dogs killed for them. They gave orders to parties who own dogs that are down to run and kill sheep to kill their dogs, or they would be held responsible for some sheep. It was a sour pill for some but they had to swallow it.

Lewistown Sentinel.—While engaged in cutting wood on the ridge near McVeytown, Andrew Hambricht was bitten by a copperhead snake on Monday. His great toe protruded through his boot and upon it the copperhead fastened his deadly fangs. Medical aid was at once summoned and antitoxins administered, and we hope they will prove effective. At this writing the young man is resting comfortably.

In another column of this issue of the SENTINEL and REPUBLICAN the reader may clip for himself and a friend or two each ticket for the republican primary election to be held on Saturday June 4, 1892. On the ticket is the name of Matthew S. Quay, for United States Senator, only one of each can be voted, and a blank for any other name the voter may prefer instead of Senator Quay. That is only one name for the State Senate and one name for the United States Senate can be voted.

Liverpool Sun.—A certain young lady of this town who was desirous of securing a beau in a romantic sort of way applied her inventive genius to practice. She wrote her name and address on a slip of paper and a request that the young man that would find it should call on her, put it in a bottle and sent it adrift on the water. At or near Crow's Ferry it was fished out by a citizen of this town, a Comrade of the G. A. R., who is at present enjoying single blessedness, and not old in years and the best of all—he had been casting admiring glances at the same young lady out of the corners of his eyes, and perhaps calling on her, for all we know. You can bet your bottom dollar that he completed the request with the greatest alacrity.

Officer Sprout and Edward Himes of Fayette township brought Frank More, of Lehigh county, to town on Sunday evening, and delivered him to Sheriff Lapp, as a prisoner for having broken into Harry Shellenberger's house on Saturday night, for stealing therefrom a satchel, clothing, watch and so forth. His capture and identification was brought about by young Mr. Shellenberger coming home on Saturday night. The thief was frightened by the appearance of the young man to such a degree that he ran away and left his satchel. Some time during the day children playing about Mr. Allister's barn discovered a man without shoes, and his barefooted condition led to his arrest and to his judgment in Castle Lapp. He confessed the crime and surrendered the goods.

Ex-Sheriff Loudon saw a sight the other day, while on a tour of inspection on his land north of town. He saw two birds excitedly flying in a small circle uttering plaintive notes, he rode as closely as he could to the place. A fence however intervened and kept him some distance from the spot but he was near enough to see the cause of the trouble among the birds. It was a large black snake that was at the bottom of the flutter. The reptile was at a nest of young birds. The sheriff looked on long enough to see two of the little birds disappear down the snake's throat but he could not get off his horse to save the balance. Seeing some boys at a distance he hastily rode there and got them to come to the rescue but when he and the boys arrived upon the scene every living thing had disappeared and there was nothing to mark the spot excepting the empty bird's nest, and all search on the part of the boys to find the snake failed.

Robison-Crawford Wedding.

On last Wednesday evening the interior of the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Crawford on third street was beautifully festooned and decorated with evergreens and flowers upon the occasion of the marriage of their daughter Rebecca, to General J. K. Robison, of Mifflintown.

The house was filled with invited guests at 8 o'clock when Mrs. Maggie Irwin commenced playing the wedding march, "The 16th Regiment March," a piece of music composed by the performer and dedicated to the General. The 16th Regiment being the regiment commanded during the war by the groom. It is a new and pleasant piece of wedding music and easier to march to than some of the doleful and dirge like wedding marches that are popular because they have been composed by musicians who have pushed themselves forward to prominent place in the musical world.

The bridal party in the following order entered the parlor: Martyn P. and Drewitt Crawford, brothers of the bride, and acting as groomsmen; Mattie Gray, Belle and Alma Robison as flower girls; Mrs. Gray of Philadelphia, maid of honor; and the bride leaning upon the arm of the groom.

Rev. Henderson of the Westminster church performed the ceremony. It was one of the largest home weddings held in this community nearly one hundred and fifty guests being present.

After the reception refreshments were served. The bride and groom left for Washington at midnight train and will visit Philadelphia and New York before returning.

On account of the prominence of the contracting parties, the wedding attracted a great deal of attention, and everybody extends their congratulations and well wishes to General and Mrs. Robison.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents.

Among the guests from a distance were General and Mrs. Hastings of Bellefonte, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Crider of the same place, F. F. Robm, of Harrisburg, Miss Florence Selheimer and Miss Sarah Means, of Mifflin county.

Harriet E. Hall of Waynetown, Ind., says "I owe my life to the great South American Nerveine. I had been in bed for five months from the effects of an exhausted Stomach, Indigestion, Nervous prostration and a general shattered condition of my whole system. Had given up all hopes of getting well. Had tried three doctors with no relief. The first bottle of the Nerveine Tonic improved me so much that I was able to walk about and a few bottles cured me entirely. I believe it is the best medicine in the world. I cannot recommend it to highly." Trial bottles, 15c. Sold by L. Banks & Co., May 14-17.

Half Rates to Gettysburg via Pennsylvania Railroad.

On Thursday, June 2d, 1892, the "High Water Mark" Monument will be dedicated on the field of Gettysburg. This monument marks the highest point within the Union lines reached by Pickett's troops in the memorable charge of July 3d, 1863. The monument has been erected under the auspices of the Battlefield Memorial Association. The dedicatory ceremonies will be highly interesting, consisting of speeches, poems, music and military exercises. A large number of veterans, both officers and privates, will be gathered on the historic field and the occasion will be a most memorable one.

For the benefit of those desiring to attend, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will, on June 1st and 2d, sell excursion tickets from all principal stations on the lines to Gettysburg at a Single fare for the round trip. Return coupons will be valid for use until June 4th, inclusive.

For a Time.

I will now reduce the price of my $3.00 cabinet photograph to $1.50 per dozen.

This reduction will continue as long as there is sufficient trade to warrant these prices and no longer. This gallery is filled with all the latest improvements usually kept in a first class gallery, such as Fine Scenic Backgrounds, Beautiful Draperies and Fine Accessories, that would do credit to the large cities. We propose during this reduction to let our work speak for itself and taking into consideration the quality of work, these will be the cheapest cabinet photographs ever made in Juniata county. Respectfully, JOSEPH HESS, Mifflintown, Pa., Jan. 22nd, 1892.

A Cure for Constipation and Sick Headache.

Dr. Silas Lane while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that when combined with certain herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick headache in one night. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for the clearing up of the complexion it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50c a package.
