Your distressing cough can be cured. We know it because Kemp's Balsam within the past few years has cured so many coughs and colds in this community...

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

Depew, a Harrison man, was making a Harrison speech in the Minneapolis convention. He was talking about the record of the administration and asked:

"Who will be credited with a share of the brilliant record of the administration?"

The question was promptly answered "Blaine" and then the shout for Blaine went up.

Again after Depew had proceeded further with his speech, he asked:

"Who carried New York in 1888?" The answer was promptly given—Quay!

Half Rates to Cincinnati, O. via Pennsylvania Railroad.

For the benefit of delegates and visitors to the Prohibition National Convention at Cincinnati, O., on June 29th and 30th, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Cincinnati, O., from all principal stations on its line at a single fare for the round trip. The tickets will be sold June 27th and 28th, good going only on date of sale as stamped on back, but not later than for trains leaving initial point of ticket June 28th. The return coupons will be good to return on date stamped on back, by agent at Cincinnati, but not good for return passage to initial point after July 5th.

For a Time.

I will now reduce the price of my $3.00 cabinet photograph to $1.50 per dozen.

This reduction will continue as long as there is sufficient trade to warrant these prices and no longer. This gallery is filled with all the latest improvements usually kept in a first class gallery, such as Fine Seaside Backgrounds, Beautiful Draperies and Fine Accessories, that would do credit to the large cities. We propose during this reduction to let our work speak for itself and have no hesitancy in saying that taking into consideration the quality of work, these will be the cheapest cabinet photographs ever made in Juniata county. Respectfully,

JOSEPH HESS, Mifflintown, Pa., Jan. 22nd, 1892.

The Rev. DeGoode—I cannot allow my sermon to go out of my hands. If you will come to church on Sunday, you can hear it and take notes.

Reporter (with dignity)—I do not work on Sundays, sir.—N. Y. Weekly.

It keeps the average man with eyes wide open to run a farm properly in Pennsylvania, but in Massachusetts William M. Davenport, of Leydon, is quite blind, but notwithstanding this disadvantage manages to run a 700-acre farm of his own, and not only buys his own stock, but can tell all that he wants to know about the qualities of a milk cow simply by passing his hands over it. There is no fooling him about the age, build or quality of an animal.

A lot of Democrats were quarreling in harmony: "Shut up," growled an old wheel horse. "What's the matter with the party, is there are too many 'ites' in it."

"'ites' queried the crowd, "what are 'ites'?"

"That's it; you don't know what's the matter with you," he chuckled. "It's the Cleverness, and the Hillites, and the Gormanites, and Boiesites, and the gang of them that is doing the harm."

Mrs. Edison, wife of the great inventor, uses tallow and sperm candles in her house. It is the old story told of the shoemaker, "that no family wears as poor shoes as the family of the shoemaker."

The Hollidaysburg Register says a party of citizens of that town went out fishing the other night. A rain came on early in the evening and continued all night. Thirteen sickly little cels were caught. On their way home they felt disgusted and discouraged, and counted the cost of the excursion and learned that each had cost seventy five cents. The cost they blamed to storm damage.

A musical entertainment given by the Society of Young People's Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian Church of McAlisterville, in the church in that place, last Saturday evening was largely attended. The Mifflin Banjo Club was in attendance and rendered fine music. "Home Sweet Home," was played on the banjo by John J. Patterson, Jr., and was greeted with applause.

It used to be a common thing for men to advertise their wives when they left the bed and board of husband. A Perry county woman has turned the table and requests the newspapers to notice the straying away of her husband near Mifflintown. Mrs. Theodore Height is the name of the woman who advertises her husband. She however holds out the olive branch and invites him back.

On Monday afternoon while Joseph Cannon was searching for a piece of lumber, at the old saw mill at Mary Ann Forge, he discovered a huge blacksnake. He did not kill it, like most persons would have done, but with the nerve and bravery of a lion he caught it back of the head. Mr. Cannon brought the "pet" to town and gave it to Druggist Innes, who put it in a cage, and it now occupies part of his show window. It measures 6 feet 7 inches in length. It attracted a great deal of attention in its new quarters.—Bellewood Bulletin.

Harriet E. Hall of Waynesburg, Ind., says "I owe my life to the great South American Nerve. I had been in bed for five months from the effects of an exhausted Stomach, Indigestion, Nervous prostration and a general shattered condition of my whole system. Had given up all hopes of getting well. Had tried three doctors with no relief. The first bottle of the Nerve Tonic improved me so much that I was able to walk about and a few bottles cured me entirely. I believe it is the best medicine in the world. I cannot recommend it to highly." Trial bottles, 15c. Sold by L. Banks & Co., May 14-ly.

The Huntingdon Journal of June 10th, tells first as follows.—Harry Leister and Chas. Kline are the lucky fishermen of this place. On Monday they took with them their nets and went to Hatfield's dam, and after fishing a few hours came home with twenty five pounds of German Carp. Leister had one that weighed over seven pounds and Kline had one that weighed six pounds and one smaller besides having several others which weighed one, two and three pounds respectively. They were exceedingly proud of their game. * * * A party of fishermen from this place, Saturday last caught 132 eels, fifteen catfish and two "snappers" in Stone Creek. This is what we call a pretty good day's work.

Bloomfield Democrat of June 8:—On Friday a terrific storm passed down the Raceoon Valley, in Tuscarora township, doing considerable damage. A cloud burst just over James S. Krammer's barn yard and about half the manure in the yard was washed away, together with fence and everything that came in the way. It also struck the house of James Leonard in Millerstown during the same storm, but did very little damage. * * * The valuable horse of William Hench, who resides in Whentfield township, met with an accident on Saturday which resulted in its death. The horse was grazing in the yard when it stepped upon the platform covering the well and the boards being decayed, the animal broke through and fell to the bottom of the well, a distance of thirty-one feet. Strange to say the horse was not slightly hurt by the fall, but after every effort was made by Mr. Hench and those who came to assist him, the animal could not be gotten out, and after working for three hours the horse was shot and killed and its body then drawn up with a rope and pulley.
