From the Hollidaysburg Register:—William L. Stewart, of Canoe Creek, on a patch of fifty square rods on his farm, raised 27 bushels of raspberries, which he sold a $3.20 per bushel. Good crop and good price for the space of that much land.

The telescopic views of Mars last week have not resulted in confirming the statements made some time ago that canals the work of people, are plainly to be seen through the telescope, however, all the astronomers agree in the belief that the planet is inhabited.

The platform on which Cleveland stands says:—"We denounce Republican protection as a fraud." So that you know that before you go to the polls that when you vote the Democratic ticket, you vote in favor of tearing up the present protective tariff system.

Have you tried South American Nerve—the gem of the century? The great cure for Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Nervousness. Warranted the most wonderful Stomach and Nerve Cure ever known. Trial bottles 15 cents. Sold by L. Banks & Co., Druggists, Millintown, Pa. Nov. 14, 1892.

The probability is the next Legislature will be called on to add another brigade or two to the National Guard of Pennsylvania. It is an unpleasant outlook when a certain class of citizens deport themselves in such a way that they can only be kept from becoming a despotic force by the army.

The work of laying water pipes to Macedonia was suspended at the Epeneschade farm north west of town last Thursday evening because the pipes could not be supplied fast enough, but that did not retard the work, for the whole force was brought to town on Friday morning and put to digging trenches for the pipes in town.

Colonel Streator went before Judge Ruppert and waived a hearing for trial before Judge Ruppert on the charge of assault and battery in Pittsburgh. He gave bail in the sum of $500 on each charge and was released.

Some of the democratic candidates before their party for nomination next Saturday, had solicited republicans to vote at the primary election. The solicitations are made by letter. The indignant part of the circulars may be found where the reader is cautioned against candidates who solicit votes. It is just a little to funny that a candidate should solicit votes through a circular and at the same time denounce personal solicitation.

The election in Alabama last week resulted in the election of Jones, the democratic candidate for governor. The negroes in large numbers voted for him, and white democrats in large numbers voted for Kolb the Alliance candidate. The Republicans had no candidate in the field. Democratic editors in the north are pointing to the election and triumphantly using it as an evidence that the Democracy permit the negro to vote his choice of candidates which is all very true when the colored man's choice is a Democrat.

Rebecca Wilkinson, of Browns valley, Ind., says: "I have been in a distressed condition for three years from Nervousness, Weakness of the Stomach, Dyspepsia, and Indigestion until my health was gone. I had been doctoring constantly with no relief. I bought one bottle of South American Nerve which done me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely remedy. A few bottles of it has cured me completely. I consider it the grandest medicine in the world." Warmed the most wonderful stomach and nerve cure ever known. Trial bottles 15 cents. Sold by L. Banks & Co., Millintown, Pa. May 14, 1892.

W. V. SMITHS, Chairman, Oakland Mills, August 3rd, 1892.

Harvest Home. The Pannebaker Island Harvest Home held last Saturday was attended by a large concourse of people. It was a day of recreation and social enjoyment and good cheer for the thousands who were there. If the number of people keep on increasing a piece of the main land will have to be set apart for the accommodation of the horses and carriages of the people in their attendance at the annual harvest home gathering.

Harvest Home. Rev. Mr. Adair, Rev. Mr. Davenport, Rev. Jesse Barclay, of Iowa, Editor John Speedy, Professor Allman and Sheriff Knouse each delivered an address.

Signaling Planet Mars. A London Astronomer proposes to try and open communication with the inhabitants of Mars by the aid of "looking glasses." They will have to be smart people on planet Mars to understand the meaning of reflected objects thrown on their globe by the red mirror.

For a Time. I will now reduce the price of my $3.00 cabinet photograph to $1.50 per dozen.

This reduction will continue as long as there is sufficient trade to warrant these prices and no longer. This gallery is filled with all the latest improvements usually kept in a first class gallery, such as Fine Scenic Backgrounds, Beautiful Draperies and Fine Accessories, that would do credit to the large cities. We propose during this reduction to let our work speak for itself and taking into consideration the quality of work, these will be the cheapest cabinet photographs ever made in Juniata county. Respectfully,

JOSEPH HESS, Millintown, Pa., Jan. 22nd, 1892.

"A young man of Lawrence County, Ga., started to go to Dublin, Ga., one day last week to get a marriage license, but on reaching Burton he was informed that the supply of marriage licenses was exhausted. He invested his money in a pair of shoes and went home perfectly satisfied."

Newport Ledger: H. B. Cambler, in Miller township has drilled his house and tramway dented the barn. While the new house is in course of erection the family will live in the barn. He expects to have the new structure completed about the middle of October.

"The iron ore mines above Millerstown above the pike that have been operated since 1864, have been abandoned and all the operating tools and tramway taken out. These mines were opened by George Mans, and have been operated almost continuously up to the present, and many thousands of tons of ore have been taken out, and many thousands of tons of ore have been taken out and shipped to various furnaces, but chiefly to the Winfield furnace, Union county, Beaver, Marsh & Co., succeeded Mr. Mans, with James Rousley as Superintendent, but of late years Mr. Rousley has been operating the mines for himself. When these mines were in active operation there were quite a number of men employed, and Millerstown experienced a great financial benefit."
