Reciprocity has made a market in Cuba for over a million barrels of American flour every year. In the year 1890, the value of exported hams to Cuba was only $24,899. Under reciprocity, however, in November, 1891, these exports amounted to $40,854. The farmers of the West and Northwest can appreciate these facts, as wheat and pork are the principal things they have to sell.—The Wilson (Kansas), Echo.

Charlie Hamilton aged about 6 years had the end of the middle finger of his right hand cut off at the first joint a day or two ago by Samuel Rollman, Jr., aged about 6 years. The Rollman boy was cutting a hole in the ground with a hatchet and the Hamilton boy was sweeping the ground away with his hands and neither of them knew of the blow that cut the finger till one of them noticed the blood. Dr. Wm. Banks gave the case the surgical attention it required.

Arat-proof floor for chicken houses can be made by mixing coal ashes and freshly slacked lime. Take twenty or thirty bushels of ashes just as they come from the heap, and mix with one bushel of lime. Mix thoroughly with a hoe. Make a floor a foot thick, or even thicker. The stuff is cheap. Ram hard with a heavy rammer at least three times, on different days. This same process carefully performed will make a cellar floor that can be scrubbed.—Ex.

Harriet E. Hall of Waynesboro, Ind., says: "I owe my life to the great South American Nerve. I had been in bed for five months from the effects of an exhausted Stomach, Indigestion, Nervous prostration and a general shattered condition of my whole system. Had given up all hopes of getting well. Had tried three doctors with no relief. The first bottle of the Nerve Tonic improved me so much that I was able to walk about and a few bottles cured me entirely. I believe it is the best medicine in the world. I cannot recommend it to highly." Trial bottles, 15c. Sold by L. Banks & Co., Nov. 14-ly.

Rebecca Wilkinson, of Browns valley, Ind., says: "I have been in a distressed condition for three years from Nervousness, Weakness of the Stomach, Dyspepsia, and Indigestion until my health was gone. I had been doctoring constantly with no relief. I bought one bottle of South American Nerve which does me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every ready person to use this valuable and lovely remedy. A few bottles of it has cured me completely. I consider it the grandest medicine in the world." Warranted the most wonderful stomach and nerve cure ever known. Trial bottles 15 cents. Sold by L. Banks & Co., Millintown, Pa. May 14-ly.

New Port Ledger:—On Monday a tramp made an assault on a Mrs. Kister, who lives at the old farm, while she was returning to her home from town. Some gentlemen, encountered above town, rescued her from the villain. * * * While playing a few days ago, a son of James M. Newlin, of Juniata township, turned up a nest of nineteen rattlesnake eggs. He destroyed all the eggs but three which he brought to Danmore's drug store on Monday. One of the eggs was broken to see if it was fertile, when out popped a lively little rattler, and seemed ready for a fight. It took but a moment to put it in a phial of alcohol. The other two eggs are yet at the drug store.

George H. Innes, son of Samuel Innes died at the home of his parents in McAlisterville, on the 21st inst., aged about 45 years. He had been teaching and editing a paper at Staunton, Dauphin county but some time ago lost his health, and recently came home to visit his parents. Charged with Murdering his Wife. Charles W. Swengle son of Rev. J. G. M. Swengle is in the Snyder Co. jail on the charge of having taken the life of his wife by means of strychnine. The husband bought strychnine in Middleburg one day. The next day the wife took what she supposed was a morphine powder to relieve neuralgia. She immediately sickened and died before a physician came. Her body was raised and its stomachs taken out and sent to Philadelphia for analysis. What the husband's defense will be or whether he will present any does not appear from this distance. The case promises to be an important one. One of the important features of the case will be the identity of the stomache that was analysed in Philadelphia. It is said it was not officially labeled as having come from the corner of Snyder county.

WOODS MEETING. There will be a Woods Meeting in Schweier's woods at Millintown, on Sunday, September 4, 1892, under the auspices of the A. M. E. Church of Lewistown, Pa., to last one Sunday.

No pains will be spared to make the meeting a success. The object of the meeting is two fold. First—To afford all churches and creeds an opportunity to come together and serve the Lord in God's first temple.

Second—We hope during the meeting to secure assistance from our many friends. Eminent ministers will be present to conduct the meeting. Good singing to entertain the audience. Come one, come all and help us. Preaching at 11 o'clock A. M., and 2:30 P. M., and 7 P. M.

O. T. Davis, Pastor. Proceeds for the support of the Church.

DIED. HEINBACH.—At Millintown, Pa., August 27, 1892, Mrs. Martha Jane Heinbach.

Mrs. Heinbach was a daughter of John Robinson deceased, late of Fayette township, Juniata Co., Pa., and was born on the farm of her grand father David Davidson, in East Creek valley, Juniata county, August 25, 1837. She married to George E. Heinbach, July 4, 1867. She was a member of the Presbyterian church as have all her father's people, been since they first came into this valley which was in 1751. She was a modest, faithful, loving Christian wife, and domestic in her tastes and habits. Four weeks previous to her death she came from her home in Atanson, Clarion county where her husband is employed in railroad service. Her health was greatly impaired when she came to visit her sister Mrs. B. F. Schwier and family. Despite the closest medical attendance, and personal attention of her husband and other relatives she grew weaker until at 4 o'clock on the morning of August 27, while sitting in a chair, she sank into the arms of her husband and without a sign or sound her soul passed from its earthly tenement into the better world.

Interment in the Presbyterian graveyard in Millintown on Monday, August 29, 1892. Rev. J. R. Henderson conducted the funeral service.
