Sumiata Sentinel sont and

B. F. SOHWEIER

THE CONSTITUTION-THE UNION-AND THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAWS.

Editor and Proprietor.

Republican.

VOL. XLVI.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENNA., WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1892.

NO. 38.

DAY BY DAY.

BY MUS. N. R SANGSTER.

give us tids day, dear Lord, our daily bread; i on the junner, day by day, are fod,

Give us this day the patience that we need, any little things our spirits try; s the word with eager love to head, ent, although our wish Thou may'st give us this day Thy wisdom; when perplexed We know not how to turn nor what to do; Save us, we pray, from being weakly wexed, And lead us, hour by hour, this one day income we us this day the courage and the cheer To face. Thy loes, and ours, with look sevene weal thyself so constant and so near. That we shall see Thee, not a cloud between

Give us this day more loyalty to Thee, More haired to the sin that wounds The heart; dore grace Thy loving followers to be, tho sing in Thee, for aye, the better part.

laive us this day our own light cross to bear. As though it here us on to heights divine; Give us to realize. Thy cross with the, That still the heaviest end, dear Lord, is Thine.

Give as this day our daily bread i Thou knowest all our wants. That want we

And in thy footsteps, Savior, as we tread, We half Thee Master and we crown Thee

-Christian Int Bosness

Original

FOR A' THAT.

BY A PHOENIX.

Helen Graham had gone up into the ally regions of her native State, to witness the novelty of a spring breakup. The graphic p charge her cousins drew of the wild fierceuess of the floods, arcused her curiosity, sufficiently to draw cer away from the gayety of the in time for the first premonitions of coming spring.

* Ob! cousen Fred, this alone is worth over the showbound road, into fields and out again, over drifts like small thils, and again skirting the edge of the pleasure? I will not 1 t him," she frozen creek. "This is my first real declared to herself. "He knows no sleightide with all the appurtenances, and miles of snow. How can this little stream become the demon you have des ribed. I must be very early for the show, am I not?"

"No, we are a little late this year; in fact there are signs even now of a thaw. Just notice, H. Ien, the appearance of the pine woods; they seem enveloped in s noke; that is the forerunner of a thin, and it is really not so cild as it a em-; the growing hund lity of the atmosph-re is harder to bear

'I was just feeling glad that I had plenty of wraps. I wouldn't mind if thought. we had a week like this, if I could have such a sleuchride every d.y.?

at least a mile. 'We may have, but I doubt it;

hastily; she wanted to go down where she , will not be gone long; then we will go | seeing who it was, put out a hand say- IIUMOROUS SELECTIONS. ! could get a good view of what was home." said Lou. going on, but dreaded meeting Geofrey King. The went down to the edge of Fred, saying she would walk slowly. Helen got tired of waiting and left Fred, saying she would walk slowly. Could get a good view of what was home." said Lou. "I am glad you have come at lest; did not feel quite sure. Miss Graham." "O die sure of what? and you are to the bank, not withstanding, ice surged and wait at the landing which was in everywhere, an1 but for the level sight, with the boat rocking back and colline Helen." above, nothing would have stood in its forth. When she reached it, she way; here the angry torrent found a thought she should enjoy the motion, place to toss the seeming vic- and pulling the boat in, she got in, lims of its wrath. It was a literal field shoving it off again, with all her force, of ice. by a push on the state. "How long will this last?" she Alasl the stake, water soaked and asked. sked. "We usually watch the bridge and and before she could think she was dam two or three days, but the water a lrift among the ic-rocks. is very high for ten days or more She screamed, and Fred, though he before it subsides. As soon as it is could not hear, knew by t e frantic safe, we will go up to the gorge in a movements of her han is that some-boat; we do every spring, it is like thing was wrong, and dashed toward Graham's pride died on his lips. Such rowing on a lake, once you get out of her but too late; the boat yielding to a kis in it she gave herself to him, the current." The gorge was a narrow pass between fast approaching the bed of the stream. the rocky hills two miles above, through If he plunged in it would avail naught, which the ice was thrown by the madthe only hope was that she would be seen by the watchers on the bridge and own. saved. He sped to Mr. Gray's, where "W dened stream like rocks from glants Helen did not see Geofrey in the Lou had gone, and drove home in fraucrowd, so she ventured near the tic haste.

bridge. "I should think it would get to be an saw death approaching. Once she old story, Frei, repeated as it is every grazed the side of an immense year, but it seems that every one in your little village is out." "I suppose it is like watching a battle, Helen. It is a conflict of the elements you know; resistance, coercion hands,

and nearly overturned it. In despair and submission are here displayed, and she crouched as low as she could, not in the midst of it, man seems a mighty daring to look over the sides, expecting weak creature." each moment that the boat would cap-

"Everything we accomplish is done size. at a great loss of strength and energy After what seemed an age to her, to overcome opposition in some form, Fred, so I do not wonder that life is called the great battle," she said thoughtfully. "Helen, a gentleman, a stranger, has preparing to do all they could, and she been regarding the back of your head raised her hands in an agoniz d plea in apparent deep thought. Such a for succor, as the boat shot under the handsome fellow, too," whispered bridge; while but a rod below the ty early in March, that she might be Lou. "Do see if you know who it waters tossed in a seething mass over the dam.

"No, indeed, I shall discourage his When the bout was first sighted they impudence at once by returning to the thought it was empty, and a fear arose coming for," she cried, as they dashed house," replied Helen, divining who it lest the occupants had been drowned, for they soon recognized it as the one WIN. 'Why is he here to spoil all my

Fred had taken in the morning. "Get ropes ready, anyway," was the cry that had roused the girl. Graham can stoop to marry beneath them, even though they have hearts, among them recognized H-len. With agony, Geofrey King, standing "Quick, take hold," he cried, throw-which he does not suspect," Ab! Hel-n, lovers are not blind, if love is.

"I am going a little way down the wait to see if they obeyed but climbed gulf road all by my elf." she announced over the railing and seizing an iron rol "I know the way so well, that was fast to the bridge, shot like a after dinner. that it is selfish in me to expect you all to dance attendance." tlash to the level of the water, and none too soon, for the boat darted out as if She felt that she must walk off the thrown from a catapult, poised an inexcitement that was fast possessing stant on the edge of the catacact and her. It she met him she was resolved than much colder weather, if dry and to give him a piece of her mind, but as and his self passession nearly deserted suddenly determined not to, him. Where was Helen?

"That would let him see that he has power to make me uncomfortable," she She walked on unmindful of mud for

"Oul" she thought suddenly, will ask me about the condition of the it breaks that is the end of it, and and mad, and where the water comes, up the bank, and how much ice there is in the stream, and I do not believe I have heard its roar." Helen was an intense creature, with nervous fibres always strained, one to wear out soon at the rate she was living and feeling. She turned to go above. ck, and as she did so, swept the river with her eyes, noting every aspect in a distant woods wearing their veil of glance. The roaring of the waters preblue, like nuns, silent and grim with vented her hearing aught else, and she was startled beyond measure, when a horseman rode up abreast of her, and sprang down beside her. Almost with relief she recognized Geofrey King. rescuers. "I frightened you Miss Graham; parlon me, I forgot that the noise prevented you hearing Marquis' steps." She was very while, and his heart throbbed with an exquisite tenderness for her that he dared not show, yet he read her better than she thought. Even the horse greeted her with tokens of recognition, and bent his head for the touch of her hand, which she involuntarily bestowed. the plunge as if swimming. Many "You see Marquis has not forgotten rushed along the bank to aid him if you, Miss Graham, How do you happen possible, and in a moment they had to be in M?" "I came to witness the floods" replied finding her voice; and you-Ohl the house sent me this way to him ashore he said faintly: look after its S ring interests. I came down from Treaton, Saturday on my came unconscious. supply a cotton mill, and yearly the flats way to II --- but I find I am cut off for several days; at least till the water subsides, and I dislike to risk the Marquis limbs climbing these icy hills placed to her hps. It was partly for an outlet. If you do not mind -"O certainly not, why should I mind. Do not refuse yourself the hospitality of this town on my account." quiet" said the doctor. "I did not know but the sight of me might remind you of my wild presump-

ing. - "I am glad you have come at h st; " "Q dite sure of what? and you are to "That you were alive. I shall be very glad if you will again permit me to call you Helen." "You are to call me Helen, always," ionately, but faintly. "I do not want pity, Helen "

"P ty," s.ornfully. "Nor, gratitude, your life was dearer than my own."

A burning red mantled her face, but she came to yield. A lit. le deprecatory gesture, and the last remnant of Helen the force of the downward current was feeling that neither wealth nor station, weighed aught in the bal nce. "My darling," he whispered, holding her there with her face beside his

"What will papa say?" she asked. "He bade me 'God speed' a year age, Helen."

"Then he knew the worth of the Helen, feeling that life was so sweet, jewel I so scorn'ully spurnet. Forgive me if you can, for I loved you so dearly all the time G ofrey, and I cried out for cake of ice, and the poor girl, you when I caught at that saving bar, knowing her doom at the dam, in frantic haste sought to stay the away from me. I did not think you were so near. I thought you must have gone; driven away by my jerverse boat by clinging to its slippery side spirit, 1 shall hate myself if you love me less," His whispered assurance satisfied her, but her regret was not so easily ove come. When she lef, the chamber made a confession to her aunt. "You see he is poor, Aunty, and has o position in the society I have made She could see they had ropes, and were think what a mistake I nearly made. I boy?"-Life.

had to be brought face to face with death before my pride was crushed." "But how will your father like this Helen?"

"I can understand that papa has furthered it all he could, by allowing me to have so much of Geofrey's society. I had only to say I wished a canter in the park and Mr. King was sent up from the store to accompany me, and if papa could not take mama or me ng a rope to the m n, and winding the where we wished to go, Mr. King was other end about his body. He did not delegated, so you see, aunty, I looked upon him as something like a servant at fir 1, and I forgot ""A man's a min for a' that,""

> Substitution of Glass The substitution of glass by a new was gone. He saw that it was empty hemically prepared substance, the details of which have lately been published, appears to have taken a defl-

H- looked under the bridge expect- nite form and is expected to take its ing to see her struggling in the waters: place among the practical industries. but no, midway of the arch, and It is produced by dissolving from four clinging to what he now saw was a to eight parts of collodion wool in continuation of the bar by which he parts, by weight, of ethe

GATHERED BY OUR PATENTED REAPER.

Jokes of Preachers, Lawyers, Doctors, and Editors-Some of Them Very Dry and Others Somewhat Jaky-They Will Ald says a writer in the Louisville Com-Digestion if Perused After Meals-Do Not Read Them Upon an Empty Stomach.

Birds of a Feather.

"What is an idle brain?" was one. "The devil's workshop," was the prompt response. Then there were ago, was, like Lady Macdonald's widow, several more till this one came: "Birds a native of Jamaica. "Yes," he conof a feather do what?" "Lay eggs." piped a small boy before anybody else had a chance to speak .-- Detroit Free Press.

Row It Hurt Him.

Senator (indignantly)-The report zoing about that I am one of the best poker pla ers in the country is doing me a great deal of harm. Senator's and knew the boat had been swept Wife (southing)y)-"I don't see why t should, my dear. People pay very little attention to what they read in the papers. How does it harm you? Senator-I can't get anybody to play with me!"-Texas Sifting"

Economizing.

"How is it, my dear, you used never o give me cigars that cost less than $16 or $20 for my birthday? But my god. I have been spoiled by flat-tery, and am not half good enough for them the better." "Why, don't you him, yet I was weak enough to think remember saving that we must econothe stooping was on my part. If mar- mize when you gave me the diamond riage is ordained of God, I tremble to necklace, you dear, inconsistent old

¢Υ,

AN APE IN REGIMENTALS. PHILOSOPHY OF THE GIZZARD. Che Ludlerous Incident Which Led to a How It Aids the Ostrich to Display Fa-Duel in Jamaica. traordinary Digestive Ability.

I was talking with an old West A fowl's gizzard, where so many Indian ex-planter, a man not long past iost articles tura up, is a curious trap his three-score years and ten, who as well as a necessary vital organ of left Jamaica somewhere in the '50s, the fowl. D amonds, pearls, coin, buttons, tacks, orange peel and about mercial: everything else, save dynamite, have "I see," said he, "there is some been found in the gizzards of fowls. Paul get the same salaries.

talk of raising Sir John Macdonald's A study of the organ is interesting. widow to the peerage. If it should Experiments have demonstrated that prove true she will be the first native what may be called the gastric juice The teacher had b en giving a class West Indian to come in for such an in fowls has not sufficient power to f youngsters some ideas of adages honor, at least in a great number of dissolve their food without the aid of and how to make them, and to test years. Indeed, I do not remember the grinding action of the gizzard. er training she put a few questions. that the thing has ever happened be- Before the food is prepared for difore, although Cowan, the composer. gestion, therefore the grains must be XIV.

who received a baronetcy some time subjected to a triturating process; in this manner, before passing into tinued, "I remember her father well. the gizzard, are there reduced to the 'Monkey Bernard' they used to call him, and probably no white man, ex-The action of the gizzard is, in this teet in height. cept Charles Darwin himself, the respect, mechanical, this organ serving anostle of the monkey ancestral business, ever more closely resembled an and then, by means of its powerful next year. ape in the face. There was a young muscles, pressing it gradually into buck, however, who had a narrow the intestines in the form of a pulp. on drink only one cent is expended on ascape from paying dearly for his The power of this organ is said to be education. laugh at Bernard's physiognomy. sufficient to pulverize hollow globules "John X. (that was not his name, but it will do as well as any other) solid masses of the same substances and it led to bis arrest, was walking along Port Royal street, in a few weeks. The rapidity of this Kingston, one fine morning when a process seems to be proportionate crowd of idle negroes attracted his generally to the size of the bird. A that and gown at Commencement. attention. The center of amusement chicken for example, breaks up such proved to be a good-sized ape, which a substances as are received into its

Spanish sailor held by a rope fastened stomach less rapidly than the capon, around his body. X was at once while a goose performs the same opstruck by the likeness-so he told me eration sooner than either. Needles afterward-to Bernard, and the result and even lancets given to turkeys was that he then and there handed have been broken in pieces and voided religious instruction by the teacher. over two gold doubloons to the sailor | without any apparent injury to the and became the proprietor of this stomach. The reason, undoubtedly, the Zoological Gardans, Regent Park, living caricature, Bernard was a is that the larger species of birds have London, for 52 years without a drop of large planter and a man of some thicker and more powerful organs of water. wealth and held a Major's commis- digestion. sion in the Jamaica militia. The It has long been the general opinfates so willed it that there was a ion that from some deficiency in the grand inspection of the militia ap- digestive apparatus fowls are obliged pointed to be held within a few weeks to resort to the use of stones and after this zoological investment of gravel in order to enable them to dis-

X.'s and the father of the mischief posed of the food which they conprompted him to avail himself of the sume. Some have supposed that the ceasion for an act of the most outuse of stones is to sheathe the gizzard ageous devilment. in order to fit it to break into smaller

"He had the ape fitted with a comfragments the hard, angular subolete suit of regimentals, such as stances which might be swallowed. worn by the major in the Jamaica They have also been considered to allitia, bought a little tin sword, and have a medicinal effect. Others pent hours in traluing the brute to have imagined that they acted as abwalk upright with the drawn sword in sorbents for undue quantities of acid his right hand. The secret was well in the stomach, or as stimulants to Bournemouth, England, cept until the day of the review. digestion, while it has even been rowds of negroes surrounded the race gravely asserted that they contribute pond in Maine recently and sent to the ourse just outside of Kingston, where directly to nutrition. The Hartford United States fish commission as a the troops were to march past. Pres- Times claims that repeated experi- curlosity. ently Bernard's regiment marched on ments, however, have established

-In California, peach trees are suche ground and wheeled into line. At that pebbles are not necessary to the cessfully grafted with rose buds, thus he same moment there was a shout trituration of the hardest kinds of producing groves of red, white and rom hundreds of lusty negro throats, substances which can be introduced pink roses. "Lookoo, Monkey Bernard!" and X's into their stomachs; and, of course,

-The largest pyramid in Egypt is 437 feet high.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

-Philadelphta is now to have a college of undertakers.

-lapanese children are taught to write with both hands.

-Male and female, teachers in St.

-A hospital patient in New York City slept himself to death.

-To find the area of a circle, square the diameter and mustiply by 0.7854.

-It is said that envelopes were first used in France in the time of Louis

-A vocabulary of the Eskimo lan and such as are not sufficiently bruised guage has been compiled by M. Ryberg.

-There are 360 mountains in the proper state by its natural action. United States each exceeding 10,000

-The first railway to Jerusalem will as a mill to grind the feed to pieces, probably be opened in the spring of

-For every dollar spent in England

-A Philadelphia burglar left a vest of glass in a very short time, and button in the house he had broken into,

> -The members of the Yale Corporation have voted to wear the academic

-Terrapin frequently fetch $2 apiece within ten miles of the waters in which they are most abundant.

-In all England there are only seven school boards which do not provide for -A pariot is sail to have lived in -A violent gesture made by an Atlantic lawyer, to emphasize a remark during a speech, caused a dislocation of his arm.

-Many persons will not allow the rocking of an empty chair, because they say it is the forerunner of death in the family.

-It is now proposed to rear insects for ornamental purposes, just as plants and flowers are acclimatized in hothouses and gardens,

-The heart of the poet Shelley is preserved in the house of his son, Sir Percy Shelley, at Boscombe Manor,

-A blind black eel was found in a or three days will tell the tale. The West Canada has such a fall that when things lying loose in its way."

As Fred predicted, a slow, drizzling rain began falling in the night, and the next day Helen voted the dreariest she had ever passed, though full of fascination from her surroundings. From her uncie's porch she could look up across the valley, miles away. In the break between the showers she could see the the intervening space, one unbroken sheet of show.

She extracted a melancholy enjoyment out of the sombre scene, that was very much in harmony with her feelings, perhaps, for Helen had been less gay the past winter, and something of this may have accounted for her willingness to accept her uncle's invitation

- was a picture-que little village M with its abrupt, climbing streets and sudden declivities, close to the banks of the so-called creek, which annually became a tempestuous river. Below the village the gorge suddenly narrowel, leaving but a slender road way between the banks and the wall, often too narrow for teams to pass each other; hence places the wall was hewn away to supply the n ed. During the spring reshet this road was impassable, often for several days. A' M- the stream was dammed to ove were converied into a lake; a bridge supp rted by three stone arches, spanned the stream at its height, and in the centre span the water was of considerable depth even in summer. Here the village youths had arranged iron bars for accobatic performances, with the water to break unlucky falls; below this the water flowed over a dam to reck its i vel and darted on its rift tion, and make you uncomfortable,' strewn way.

As Helen sat in Church the next day trying to fellow the preacher in his Il course, she was conscious of a strange -mation, such as one feels when realling a presence they do not see. She looked around her but saw nothing to explain it, toll she came out of church, when sile noticed, walking not far in front of them, a gentleman, whose Ha name die did not need to ask. alead as if to let them pass, and she lasted and paled beneath her veil, b to can flashes of heat and coll. She ing?" could not slacken her pace without exphilling to her cousin, who was anxious ist in out of the cold, damp air. there was no help for it, so with averted face, and chatting volubly as if she did not know this man, who had power to move her as none other, she walked m. She longed in a moment to turn and beg ids pardon, but her pride had separated them, so, now, that pride should know them apart. How had he happened there, she wondered, of all men and all places, and Geofrey King asked himself the taine question concerning her. Fred came in at nightfall and told them the water was rising slowly, and already the ice in the dam was swelling Windler. the pressure. When Helen awoke in the morning, she knew by just rising upon as wild a scene as for mooring the boat, and took the oars Imagination could well fancy. In twelve hours the placid, icebound waters had changed to a seething, bolling should send them afloat, for the waters piled upon the meadows in many places vehemence. n immense heaps, like irregular marble palaces, where the night before all had been whiteness and parity. The lofty perch of the village alone saved it from destruction. She was filled with awe. Who should stand in the course of the torrent or withstand the flood? She guid hear the thunder of the buge engaged there, keeping the tunnel open is her uncle had told her. She dressed he sai ', so gently, that her heart be it suffocatingly. She shook her head unable to control her voice. "Please forget it Miss Graham, and be my friend and comrade, just as we were in the oll park drive last sumreplied her aunt. mer. Let me lift you on Marquis' back, he will be proud to bear you through this mud.'

"No, no, please ride on. - What would people think, after my refusing to resuffered more, had it been real, and, ognize you yesterday and this mornmoving," I believe it has left me stiff in my joints." "True." And with manly politeness he left her. "Bah! she cried, as she walked along.

"I unhappy? It is in no one's power to accomplish that miracle, 1 will forget it all." One morning, a few days later, Fred announced his determination to take "where is he?" them up to "the gorge." "There is considerable ice on meadows yet, but it will add to the illusion that we are seeking the North Fole, though I am afraid the northwest passage is too rough to undertake a voyage to the open polar sea." voyage to the open point sea. transpired since she fainted on the Helen wanted excitement, she didn't | bridge; of Fred's frantic home coming, mind if the undertaking were atrended with some danger. Out and in among the stationary blocks they went, with the sport of children on an imaginary voyage of work; she sprang quickly from her bel and ran to a window commanding a view of the unservice of the unservic view of the upper valley. The sun was over the stake that had served years as this?" from the rowlocks and carried them ashore, lest some motion of the boat her, and when Helen was ready chaldron of teebergs. They were still lapped the shore with considerable The ground was bare, and the pine needles strewel the surface like a carpet; it seemed incredible to Helen that the snow could have melted so soon, They loltered and explored, threw sticks in at the upper end of, the pass and ran down to watch them come out below as children do; and they ate their lunch sitting on boughs that Fred out supported himself, was his dear girl. or alcohol, or acctic ether, and with "Let out the rope" he should, and hand over hand he approached her, and this are intimately combined from 2 to 4 per cent. of castor oil or other drew himself up on the rock beside her. pil that is non-resinous, and 4 to 10 No word was spoken, the girl was chilled to the mirrow by the icy water. per cent. of Canada baisam or some other soft resin balsam. This com-Quickly loosening the rope he bound her loosely to the rod, so she could be pound, when poured upon a glass plate and subjected to the drying drawn along by the willing hands action of a current of air of about 50 degrees Cent, solidities in a compar-He pulled on the rope and they drew the door to look in upon her.

remember going to the gorge?'

saving my worthless life?"

cost him?"

ing she whispered, - atively short time into a transparent. her to the end, he following, still hand glass-like sheet or plate, the thickover hand. Once there he loosened her from the rod an i fastened the r pe uses of which may be regulated as resecurely about her, supporting her in auired. The sheet or plate obtained his arms above the flood while he dil in this manner is found to possess subit; for she was held and she was stantially the same properties as drawn up, to faint in the hands of her glass, it being capable of resisting the action of salts and alkali and of The brave fellow was numbed with diluted acids, being also transparent cold yet attempted to climb up as he like glass, and is without any odor. On came down. No one chald tell how it the other hand the neguliar advanhappened, but as they watchel bls tage is cluimed for this new article efforts to pass from under the bridge, of being pliable or flexible and inhis hands slipped, and in an instant the frangible to a very considerable dewaters were carrying him toward the gree, and an additional quality in its dam. He knew what was before him, favor is that its inflammability is for no swimmer could stem that curmuch less than the ordinary collodion rent, and made a brave effort to take substitutes.

A Queer Peach Tree.

Did you ever see anything like the satisfaction of seeing him throw this?" said Mr. E. E. Kirby, ticket out far below and making a fceble agent of the East Tennessee road, as effort with one hand. As they drew he held up a peach seed as large as a

"My arm is broken I think," and beman's fist. "Well, I know you haven't. There's a peach inside of Helen's first uncon-clous act, was to the seed, and the tree on which the sleep, sleep, for thir.y-ix hours, peach grew is the only peach tree scarcely rousing to receive the l quid that I ever heard of that, instead of the growing the seed on the inside of the effect of cold and shock, partly opiates peach, grows the peach on the inside "She will recover sooner it kept of the seed. Some years ago while 1 perfectly quiet, even if it is an enforced was visiting in Southern Georgia I When she first really awakened, she cherry tree. The twig bore fruit, but raised herself on her elbow and looke the fruit apparently was nothing but around the room, as her aunt opened seeds. It was not disturbed, however, until they had grown very large "Am I awfully lazy, auntie," she asked brightly. "No, dear, lie down again, and when one of the seeds was pulled and broken open. On the inside was a perfectly-formed green peach. After when you feel that you want to get up, some ore will come and help you, that none of the seeds were disturbed until they had changed color from "Come and help me! That's fine: light brown to black. Then one of how long sluce you turnel ladies' them was broken open and a ripe maids? By the way auntie, I've hid peach of a light yellow color was the strangest dream, I coul in't have found inside.

"Hustle" and "Rustle."

From the West we have caught "Is it possible, Helen, that you do not the word "hustle." but we use it humorously, not seriously, as the She was interrupted by a low scream Westerners do. To hustle with them handsome presents as you used to. as Helen hid her face in the pillow. It means to work, and to work hard. had all come back in its horible real-The word always jars upon the ear those you give yourself .-- Life. of an Eastern man when it is seri-

"Aunty," in an agitated voice, ously spoken, but it is preferable to "Here, Helen, in this house, you did that other expression once dominant not think we would let him be taken in the West, but now all but abanisewhere, after what he did for you?" doned. That was the word "rustle." "Oh!" sho cried, "was he injured in which despite its euphonious sound ble?" low."

expresses an evil intention. The cow-Mrs. Graham told her all that had boys invented it and applied it to transpired since she fainted on the cattle-thieves, rustlers being the swift raiders who stole upon the and their anxiety over her and the hero grazing cattle on the plains, and in the adjoining room. "I must go to him," she declared slipping out of bed. "No use trying rustled off with as many head, or trousers. Tailor-When shall I come beasts, as they could get away with. round to collect my bill. Travers-Therefore rustle is the worse word of Every day if you like .- Black and to prevent me, aunty, I am a Graham, the two. But both imply a lack of White. and when I will, I will you know, What can he think of me, when he reconsideration for others-a fogetfulness of everything save self -- which members, I once spurned such manhood makes their case objectionable. Her aunt thought she wandered in "PA," said a five-year-old son, "can mind, but that it was best to gratify a rope walk?" "I think not my son." would carry you off by daylight. she answered the father, "but it might if it were taut.

took her to the room where her lover lay maimed and bruised in her service. sweepings or buildings used as musts "Oh" she thought in self-contempt, "what have I dony in refusing such are always very valuable, and a story love as this? I can not humble my self comes from Berlin that gold dust to enough to this prince among men, the value of $25 was recently found in but will he love me now, after what I have the soot taken from the chimney of the royal mint in that city.

With trembling hands she closed the In the war between France and Gerdoor and advanced to the bedside. It many, in 1871, France last the greater was a noble face, she owned, as stoopteen 150,000, bat many died from "'nk- 'rone him.'

-Puck.

The Rooster-Oh, you can laugh, but if you'll just train down to my size, I'll break your neck for you .--Exchange.

> He Knew Her. Husband-I am not ready to go out of fashion in those days, or at any valking yet. Wife But 1 am, and we rate, not in Jamaica. Of course, ustgo immediately. Husband-But, apology would have been ridiculous, ay dear, your hat is not on straight. 50 X, had to accept Bernard's chalshrewd husband completes his work.) [principals had the right of 'reserving] That Was His Luy.

"Can you beat a carpet?" said the adv of the house to the tramp who isked for something to eat. "Don't know, mum," he replied. frankly: 1 aever tried. But I guess mebbe I can, fer I've beat most everything else in this town."-Detroit Free Press.

A Useless Errand. "Why did you send for me, Mrs. Nupop?" asked Dr. Paresis. There s absolutely nothing wrong with the haby." "Oh, I'm so glad. Doctor."

"But what made you think there was?" "Why, Doctor he hasn't ried a bit all the morning."-Jester. clined."

Mrs. X-You don't give me a

Mr. X-No; but I have to pay for

A Good Reason.

She Had Him There.

Mr. Watts-You never notice any of this 99-cent nonsense in stores for the sale of men's goods. If a dollar article there is marked down, they take off the whole 5 cents. Mrs. grafted a peach tree on an Australian Watts-Yes. Just the price of a zlass of beer.

> The Difference been proud of his nickname." N SA

"What became of the ape?" -1 forgot what befel that famous laughter, to Canada."

A Tribute to the Irish Girl.

Do you know how very pretty a signifies courtship; but when a man pretty Irish Girl is? She is like a keeps the lion's share of the article glass of fine, clear Chablis. She and gives the lady the groppings it hasn't the champagne sparkle of the indicates marriage. To carry an um-American girl, the beery tranquility, brella under the arm at an angle imof the German fraulein nor the ver. plies that the individual following mouth suggestiveness of mam'selle. our French cousin.

does she soothe, nor yet inspire, but woman." Lastly, the loan of an umbrella is synonymous with an act of she allures you.

Hunker-Hello Ricketts, when is your marriage to Miss Munn coming evanescent and fleeting, and it draws off? Ricketts-It has been indeff- you on and on. She is like a draught nitely postponed. "What's the trou- of pure, sparkling spring water that "Oh, she married another fel- refreshes and never palls. She is tall.

slender and round. Crisp little black curls lie against All the Same to Him. Travers-I want you to come creamy or peachy about her skin; it is around every week to crease my clear red and white. Her teeth are as white as the driven snow. Her

> News. Sisterly Sweetness. NEVER give up. If, however, you > > erday.

She-The man I wed must clope with me at the midnight hour. He -I don't think any man with ever

NO GENTLEMAN.

"The man down there at that table," said the waiter, glaring at somebody at the other end of the room, "is no That's all I've got to gentleman. "What's the matter with him?

asked the cashier. "He's breaking them lemonade who fell in ba the is estimated to have straws so we can't use 'em again, dogstrutted out toward the ranks. I ever, serve a useful auxiliary purpose. feet above the sea level. suppose that, with the exception of When put in motion by the muscles Bernard himself, there was not a man they are capable of producing some on that ground who was not convulsed | affect upon the contents of the stomwith laughter. The military evoluach, thus assisting to grind down the tions had to wait until the ape had grain and separating its parts, so that 000. been recaptured by X's groom. the digestive fluid of gastric juice "The duel had not quite gone out comes more readily in contact with it. Deserved Reproof. People who have had reason to re-

card the umbrella as a dangerous Wife-Dear me! Isn't it? Walt a lenge. The weapons, as was usual weapon in the hands of some other minute till I go to my room and fix it. with us, was the old-fashioned, people, will doubtless appreciate the Exit wife for half an hour and her singled-barreled dueling pistol. The their fire'-that is, though tiley might | seeing in Berlin, was wandering along, | period, not fire until the word was given. with his umbrella sticking out besither of them might take time hind him almost at a right-angles, after the word was given to aim when he suddenly feit a blow upon it County, Mo., recently, and was trying more deliberately. X was an ac. which sent it to the ground with a to carry her off when he was frighte complished duelist, but I suppose grash. Looking around in some away. he saw the enormity of first labori- vexation as well as surprise, he enously insulting an unoffending man countered the stern gaze of a citizen and then shooting him. Otherwise I of Berlin, who, on discovering the have purchased a rite of one hundred can't account for his missing Bernard | gentleman's inability to understand | acres.

as he did, for, if I remember right, German, explained with some diffsulty in broken English that he had annual meeting held recently in Lonthe distance was only twenty paces. Bernard reserved his fire. Then, with only followed the law of the city. "I don, reported a total circulation of his pistol still pointing to the ground, see I have you astonish," he rehe said to X , who was quietly await- marked, with severity; "but it is the ing the event: 'Young man, I am aw in this our city; it is not allow so not going to take your life, but I will to carry a stick," and, with a bow, he teach you what I could do if I felt in passed on. The American learned by of rats. They come in drov s into the "X. was standing closed to a tree n which a ripe lime fruit hung encouraged, by the authorities to within a vard of his head. Bernard strike down an offending walkingraised his pistol, and with the bullet stick or umbrella in this way whencut that fruit from the branch it ever he sees it, and the one whose hung on. If anyone ever deserved to property receives the blow had best bear the motto, 'handsome is as hand- accept the reproof with good grace, -Thomas Sumter was the last sursome does,'it was 'Monkey Bernard,' is popular opinion is against him, viving general of the American Revo-and I think from and after that day and his complaint would elicit no he and all his family ought to have sympathy.

> Umbrelia "Talk." To place an umbrella in a rack at gress. ape," said my old friend, "but the a club indicates that it will shortly pistols they used-a pair-have found change owners. If a cotton one is their way, I believe, like Bernard's substituted for a silk, it means exis the owner of a remarkable human change is no robbery. An umbrella monstresity, a male child, sixteen inches long, weighing nine an i one-half held over a lady, with a man getting pounds, its head the perfect counterall the raindrops from the points, part of that of some gigantic serpent. -The biggest tree in Northern Vermont stands on the main street of Derby Line. Its height by careful measurement is 102 feet. Three feet from the ground its circumference is will lose an eye, while to hold it just exactly 20 feet, while at 5 feet it is 18 nigh enough to injure passers' eyes feet and 2 inches.

She does not intoxicate, neither and men's hats, signifies "I am a

There is something enduring yet egregious folly.-Atchison Globe. Home.

Cherish the home with infinite tenderness. You cannot love it too much nor give it too much time and thought. Remember, life has nothher white neck. There is nothing ing better to offer you; it is the climax and crown of God gifts. Make when enamelled and finished by a every day of life in it rich and sweet. It will not last long. See to it that lips are as rubies and her smile cap- you plant no seeds of bitter memory; that there be no neglect and no harsh-to insure safety.

are alone, the night is dark, and the A MAN's love for his kin. Is someother fellow has a nistol. It may be thing like the love he has for his prudent to rescind this rule. duty.

COULDN'T SIT ON 'EM. A GOOD TITLE. Farmer Hornypalm-What's become f your new hired man?

Author [to friend who has just fin-Farmer Longrow-He quit work yes ished reading MS. ]-Can you suggest a ed, that 25,000 natives in Alaska are title for my story? Something appro- threatened with starvation owing to "What was the matter? priate.

"Said he didn't know when he hired His Friend-Well, judging by the to me that fences were all made of way the characters are killed off in the last hapter, I think 'The Undertaker's wrbed wire." Paradise' would be as appropriate as

If there was but one potato in th any. vorid a careful cultivator might pro-Once every eight years all locks on the United States mail bags are changed are often overcome by imhaling the Ince 10,000,000 from it in ten years. and that would supply the world with med again.

Lookoo, Monkey bernard, and white, the usual food of fowls can be bruised ated at the highest elevation of any with its tin sword well shouldered without their aid. They do, how- town in the United States, being 9000

-Rome, in the time of Augustus was surrounded by a wali twenty miles in circumference, pierced by thirty gates, and had a population of 2,000

-One of the Ameer's latest acts is to order that funeral expenses be cut down, because of a verse of the Koran which ondemns prodigals to the lower world.

-Miss Hannah Fairchild of Westport, Conn., has been a church memfollowing story: A careless and un- per for fly-five years, and has not suspecting American, who was sight- missed a single service during that

> -A bald eagle fixed his talons in the hair of a little girl in Johnson

> -The Presbyterians are about to es tablish a college in Salt Lake city, and -The Trinitarian Bible society at its 382,362 Bibles, Testaments and por tions,

-A German paper says that Berlin has lately been suffering from a plague inquiry that such is the universal several wholesale warehouses of the case. Every one is permitted, even city, and were of extraordinary size.

> -In the United States every 200th man takes a collegiate course; in England, every 500th man; in Scotland, every 600th, and in Germany, every 213tb.

lution. He was a native of Virginia.

leaders of the South. He represented

South Carolina in both houses of Con-

-A Marion County, Iowa, physician

-A resident of Plumstead, Penna.

has a turkey hen which is very aquatic in her habits. She recently hatched and is now caring for, fourteen ducklings. When they take to the water

she wades in after them, and keeps as

-Dolls' heads of thin Iron are now old in the fancy shops in London. The heads are said to be well cast, and handsome head of hair, a very good-looking, if rather heavy-headed doll is the result. The bodies are made of kid

-Considerable astonishment was recently excited in a zone of Sweden and Russia, comprising the towns of Stockholm, Eisavtgrod, Pinsk, Kovno and St. Petersburg, by the appearance in the air and the eventful deposit on the ground of large clouds of powder of a

It is not quite true, as has been stat-

Opium is the dried juice of the poppy.

and the flower gets its reputation for putting people to sleep because it contains so much of this narcotic. A story comes from Turkey that people stopping the destruction of the salmon.

near them as possible.

peculiar appearance.

as heretofore.

drug.

and became one of the ablest partisan and the second second second second