Test The Water.

The force of the water to throw a stream over the highest house in town has been tested, but it is not known how long the water supply will last when drawn upon by four pay an annual sum of money for a ty supply of water to extinguish fire now is the time to test the water supply. It would be the right thing day to do to attach four hose and let the water run two and a half or three

Death of John A. Hardy.

John Hardy, died at his residence in Roanoke, Va., on Sunday, October 23, 1892, of cancer of the stomach. Mr. Hardy was aged about 50 years, and was born in this county not far from Mifflintown. He entered the railroad since years ago, was superintendent of the Schuylkill Valley Division of the P. R. R., and at a later date assistant to train Master George R. At the time of his death he was superintendent of the Bradford division of the Norfolk & Western railroad. A wife and daughter survive within the past week. him. His remains were brought here in a sprcial train on Wednesday, and after appropriate services in the Presbyterian church, they were laid away in the Presbyterian Cametery, where four generations of his forefathers are entombed. Rev. Mr. Cambell of Roanoke, came with the remains, and delivered an imprassive address. Rev. A. H. Parker made appropriate remarks relative to his deceased friend, and the lesson that his life teaches. The floral decorations were elaborate. There were had her shipped here last week. many friends from the home of his adoption in the church.
