The Bridge Debt.

IF Mr. Woods is returned to the Senate it is highly probable that he will be able to get a bill passed that will relieve the tax payers of several thousand of the flood bridge debt that has run up the indebtedness of the counties of this Senatorial district to an appalling sum. Citizens of Juniata this single point, alone, is worth more to you than all the political party pride that you can load up with, so vote for Woods regardless of of politics and at least do what you can toward unloading the monsterious bridge debt.

WHEN you cast your vote for Wilson for representative you know it is cast for a good unassuming man, who will be glad to see you when you visit the legislature. He will not dodge you there as some times members do. He will stand up for fair and equitable laws, that all can live under. Vote for Wilson a man of good old fashioned views under which the republic has been built.

VOTE for Woods and Wilson. A United States Senator is to be elected by the next Legislature, and it is of the highest importance that no back tracks be taken on the tariff for the money that pays the pensions comes from the tariff. Wilson and Woods will vote for a United States Senator, and if you wish to keep the pension list, and the debt paying revenues on a safe line you will not fail to vote for Wilson and Woods.

TRY and reduce the bridge debt that was caused by the flood by voting for Woods for Senate. Mr. Woods had a bill almost through the legislature last session that would have stricken several thousand dollars off the bridge debt from the shoulders of the tax-payers of Juniata. Take no risks. Vote for Woods and he will renew the just battle in the Senate. The loss by the flood was not a loss by the act of man. It was a loss sent by Providence and under such circumstance the state can properly come in and lift the burden of debt.

How to Vote.

Chairman Reeder of the Republican State Committee has issued a warning to the party organization throughout the state not to permit voters to become imbued with the idea that there is anything difficult or confusing about the marking of the ballot under the new law to those who have not studied the subject. This is really the simplest part of the new system of voting. That fact should be impressed upon every voter. The greatest complaints that have been raised against the new law relate to the conflicting provisions of various sections of the act, which is very crudely drawn, and the unnecessary and complicated machinery required in the certification of nominations and the printing of the tickets and the substitution of the party rules for the laws of the commonwealth.

MARKING THE BALLOT IS SIMPLE.

No one who has studied the law will say that there is anything difficult about the marking of the ballot. In fact as far as the voter is concerned the new law presents many advantages over the old system. The impression that has gotten abroad that voters who go to the polls for the first time will experience trouble in marking their ballots properly is entirely erroneous. If the matter is not explained it is calculated to keep some citizens away from the poles, from timidity, or a fear that they may appear ignorant. Chairman Reeder suggests a simple method of instructing Republicans how to vote for their party nominees.

"Place a cross mark in the square to the right of the word Republican whenever the word Republican appears on the ballot," says General Reeder, and you will vote the straight Republican ticket."

"If the voter desires to vote the STRAIGHT PARTY TICKET, or in other words for all the candidates on the Republican Ticket, he can do so by making a cross mark, thus X, in the square or margin opposite and to the RIGHT of the word Republican at the head or top of each Republican group. This single mark or cross will be equivalent to a cross mark against every name in such Republican group, and will be counted as one vote for each Republican candidate named. Each group in the Republican column must be similarly marked with a cross.

"This year (1892) there will be the following groups in the Republican ticket, to wit: 1. State ticket embracing candidate for supreme court judge, two candidates for congressman-at-large, and thirty-two candidates for electors. 2. Candidate for congress. 3. Candidate for State Senator (where such official is to be elected.) 6. County candidates. To vote the full Republican Ticket a cross must be made for each of these groups. A single cross at the top of the ticket simply votes for the State ticket or those in the first group. Such a ballot would not be counted for the candidates for congress, state senator, etc.

What Fishermen Want.

A number of amateur fishermen in the Juniata Valley will ask the next Legislature to change the fish law. They want the salary of the fish wardens raised so that they can devote their time to the prosecution of the violators of the law; they want outline fishing free to all. and the heaviest of fines levied on those who explode dynamite in the rivers, and those who run saw-dust and alkali into the streams. They will also recommend that the trout season be extended from April 1 to August 1, instead of April 15 to July 15.

EXECUTOR'S SALE

OF

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE

The undersigned executors of the estate of Peter Brown, deceased, late of Fayette township, Juniata county, Pa., will sell on the premises in Spruce Hill township, at 1 o'clock, P. M., on Saturday, October 29, 1892,

A valuable tract of land known as the Half Moon Farm, containing eighty six acres more or less, situate in Spruce Hill township, Juniata county, Pa., adjoining lands of William Evans on the south and west; Samuel McLaughlin on the north; and Tuscarora creek on the east, together with twenty acres more or less of wood land, adjoining lands of Samuel McLaughlin.—Kurtz and others.

The improvements on the farm are a good two story frame house, and frame bank barn 40 by 80 feet and out houses, wagon shed, corn crib, and so forth, good apple orchard and a variety of fruit. A well of good water near the door.

This is a desirable property.
