

TERMS. Subscription, $1.50 per annum in advance...

SHORT LOCALS.

Christmas only 10 days away. In Barneah women propose to men...

Several weddings are booked for the near future in town.

A full grown elephant is capable of carrying a load of two tons.

John Bitser has moved into John Hamilton's house on Cross street.

The weather the past week has not been the best for the growing grain.

Miss Lizzie McCauley has returned from a visit to friends in Philadelphia.

Snow blizzard raged in the west last week and snow fell here on Tuesday.

Frederick Espenschiede killed a hog on Wednesday that weighed 430 pounds.

Remember the Fisk Jubilee Singers in the Court House this Wednesday evening.

John J. Patterson, Jr., Esq., was in Liverpool, one day last week, on legal business.

Trunk, hand bags, satchel telescopes all styles and prices at Hollibaugh & Son.

The way to get expressmen to handle an egg box carefully is to mark it "Dynamite."

A man who reads the weather far ahead says "look out for a deep snow on the 31st of January."

One of Emery McCahan's mules died last week and put his team off work a number of days.

Township auditors should familiarize themselves with the requirements of the new election law.

Stop immigration of all people who cannot show the means of self support for a period of a year.

Remember the Fisk Jubilee Singers in the Court House on Wednesday evening.

J. G. Halleman, of Thompsonstown, has bought the Bonner farm near the town named, and will turn it into a dairy farm.

The letter in the Mifflintown post office received for a 10th inst., was for John Falger, and a postal card for Mr. Elwood Morgan.

When it comes to hats, neckwear, fine dress suits, fine overcoats and fine shirts, Hollibaugh & Son laps all the rest in the shade.

Do you want a pair of Overall that will not rip that fits you like a pair of pants? Buy the Sweet Orr, Hollibaugh & Son sells them.

Dr. J. H. Staumaker, who years ago conducted the school at Academicus, has opened a law office in Chambersburg, Franklin county.

Carlisle Sentinel, 30th ult. There are about 50 tramps in jail, and the Sheriff is complained to board them at the rate of four and a half cents per day.

John Gushard, has bought a house and lot on Main street from the Jacob heirs. The property was formerly the residence of Squire George Jacobs, deceased.

Messrs John Garman and W. L. Hibbs, now resident in the Wyoming valley, were in town last week. Mr. Garman is District Attorney of Luzerne county.

Everybody but a few politicians favor the election of a president by a popular vote. They favor the election of a United States Senator by a popular vote.

Water so hot that it does not seal applied to a bleeding wound is recommended as good to stop the flow of blood, it soon stiffens and hardens the blood over the wound.

When the flames burst through the bottom of a 164 feet deep well, in Wisconsin, several days ago, the diggers ran away and said Bob Ingersoll's theory is no good.

Isaac Weaver, who spent some time in Lancaster county has returned to his home in Walker township. While in Lancaster county he was engaged in tobacco raising.

The worst act of the many vile acts unfolded at Homestead is the conspiracy to poison the food of the militia and the food of non-militia men. Wait till the returns are all in.

Daniel Reitze came over from Snyder county some days ago, and says he has a notion to come back to Juniata. He likes the lay of the land better in Juniata than in Snyder.

Lewis Democrat and Sentinel.—J. H. Fry, of Mifflintown, who is a practical deborner of cattle, is doing satisfactory work in that line in Mifflin county and will remain here until the end of next week. He is stopping at the Kline house.

Ladies Misses and childrens gum boots away down in price at Hollibaugh & Son.

Agriculture employs 3,000,000 Italian women.

The Empress of Austria will make a short tour through India this winter.

Three hundred thousand turkeys were eaten in one day in New York last week.

Four hundred and sixty-three women are employed to sort the mails in Pennsylvania.

The 4th of March comes on Sunday. President elect Cleveland will be privately inaugurated on that day and the public inauguration will take place on Monday.

The boys and girls are longing for a good old fashioned snow, while the older blooded people are shivering and saying oh! no! It is long till spring and the boys and girls may get their wish.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church are packing a box with clothing and so forth, to send to the needy. Persons desirous of contributing can do so, by calling or sending their contributions to the church building in this town, this Wednesday afternoon.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Robert Humphrey, of Delaware township, died on Monday afternoon after an ailment of a number of months, aged about 50 years. He was prominent in political circles, but when he ran for office, the political tide of his party, the Democratic party, failed to land him in the places he was nominated for. His friends all speak well of him.

Large Hogs.

Thaddeus Zimmerman, of Ikesburg, Perry county writes us: "The smallest hog weighed five hundred and twenty-one pounds and a quarter. The largest one weighed six hundred and ninety-two pounds and three quarters. They were seventeen months old."

Plenty Game.

The Lewistown Free Press of the 7th inst., says "Some days ago a company of hunters invaded Cooper's Gap week before last, and returned on last Friday, bringing along as trophies of the hunt five deer and three bears. Mr. Morrison killed two deer and one bear, Mr. Gearhart two bears, and Messrs. Hoffman, Wherry and Wertz one deer each."

Winter Excursion Book of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

A very valuable book for those contemplating either an extended winter trip or a short visit to the sunny South has just been issued by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. Many useful suggestions and information are contained in the little volume, which is copiously illustrated and provided with a valuable map of all the territory under consideration. Copies may be obtained at the ticket office of the Company, or upon application to Geo. W. Snow, Assistant General Passenger Agent, 233 South Fourth street, Philadelphia.

February Election Nominations.

Under the new election law such a ticket getting up a ticket the night before election day cannot be done, for all officers to be elected in boroughs have to be nominated and their names certified and recorded to the auditors at least ten days before election day in boroughs and at least seven days before election day in the township.

Time by the Forelock.

The Philadelphia Record has taken time by the forelock and issued its almanac for the year 1893, in this present month of December. The almanac is replete with information of a substantial and valuable nature. The picture representations of the Columbian exposition to be held in Chicago the coming summer are valuable as pointers to visitors and stay at home for by the pictures they can familiarize themselves with the appearance of the buildings that during a period of months will contain many of the wonderful hand-craft articles of the world. As a book of reference and digest of many things the Almanac is a good thing to have all the time within easy reach.

Early Chickens.

Selingsgrove Tribune: M. L. Snyder, Esq., who several months ago turned his inquiring mind to chicken raising by inquiry, purchased a patent incubator, and on Friday and Saturday out of seventy five fertile eggs out of one hundred placed in the incubator, succeeded in successfully hatching seventy lively chicks. This is a pretty good showing, and the Squire can get his month ready for early spring chicken, if the rats, or the gaupes, the cold, the roup, the cholera, the cats, and, well, pretty much everything else, don't carry them away.

For The School Superintendency.

So far as is known at this time, teacher D. M. Marshall, of Walnut, Professor Landis, of McCulloch's Mills, and Superintendent Carney of McAlisterville are the only ones in the field for the office of Superintendent of the public schools in Juniata county.

Storm Overcoats, only $5.00 at Hollibaugh & Son.

Slater W. Allen, known to a number of people in Mifflintown and Fermanagh township is contesting the legislative seat of Jacob C. Stine-mann, because in Cambria county a number of voters cast their votes outside the guard rail and the votes thus cast were not lawful, but all the same were counted.

Shirts the largest line and the latest patterns at Hollibaugh & Son.

So far as is known at this time, teacher D. M. Marshall, of Walnut, Professor Landis, of McCulloch's Mills, and Superintendent Carney of McAlisterville are the only ones in the field for the office of Superintendent of the public schools in Juniata county.

Time by the Forelock.

The Philadelphia Record has taken time by the forelock and issued its almanac for the year 1893, in this present month of December. The almanac is replete with information of a substantial and valuable nature. The picture representations of the Columbian exposition to be held in Chicago the coming summer are valuable as pointers to visitors and stay at home for by the pictures they can familiarize themselves with the appearance of the buildings that during a period of months will contain many of the wonderful hand-craft articles of the world. As a book of reference and digest of many things the Almanac is a good thing to have all the time within easy reach.

Early Chickens.

Selingsgrove Tribune: M. L. Snyder, Esq., who several months ago turned his inquiring mind to chicken raising by inquiry, purchased a patent incubator, and on Friday and Saturday out of seventy five fertile eggs out of one hundred placed in the incubator, succeeded in successfully hatching seventy lively chicks. This is a pretty good showing, and the Squire can get his month ready for early spring chicken, if the rats, or the gaupes, the cold, the roup, the cholera, the cats, and, well, pretty much everything else, don't carry them away.

For The School Superintendency.

So far as is known at this time, teacher D. M. Marshall, of Walnut, Professor Landis, of McCulloch's Mills, and Superintendent Carney of McAlisterville are the only ones in the field for the office of Superintendent of the public schools in Juniata county.

Storm Overcoats, only $5.00 at Hollibaugh & Son.

Slater W. Allen, known to a number of people in Mifflintown and Fermanagh township is contesting the legislative seat of Jacob C. Stine-mann, because in Cambria county a number of voters cast their votes outside the guard rail and the votes thus cast were not lawful, but all the same were counted.

Shirts the largest line and the latest patterns at Hollibaugh & Son.

So far as is known at this time, teacher D. M. Marshall, of Walnut, Professor Landis, of McCulloch's Mills, and Superintendent Carney of McAlisterville are the only ones in the field for the office of Superintendent of the public schools in Juniata county.

Time by the Forelock.

The Philadelphia Record has taken time by the forelock and issued its almanac for the year 1893, in this present month of December. The almanac is replete with information of a substantial and valuable nature. The picture representations of the Columbian exposition to be held in Chicago the coming summer are valuable as pointers to visitors and stay at home for by the pictures they can familiarize themselves with the appearance of the buildings that during a period of months will contain many of the wonderful hand-craft articles of the world. As a book of reference and digest of many things the Almanac is a good thing to have all the time within easy reach.

Early Chickens.

Selingsgrove Tribune: M. L. Snyder, Esq., who several months ago turned his inquiring mind to chicken raising by inquiry, purchased a patent incubator, and on Friday and Saturday out of seventy five fertile eggs out of one hundred placed in the incubator, succeeded in successfully hatching seventy lively chicks. This is a pretty good showing, and the Squire can get his month ready for early spring chicken, if the rats, or the gaupes, the cold, the roup, the cholera, the cats, and, well, pretty much everything else, don't carry them away.

Large Hogs.

Thaddeus Zimmerman, of Ikesburg, Perry county writes us: "The smallest hog weighed five hundred and twenty-one pounds and a quarter. The largest one weighed six hundred and ninety-two pounds and three quarters. They were seventeen months old."

Plenty Game.

The Lewistown Free Press of the 7th inst., says "Some days ago a company of hunters invaded Cooper's Gap week before last, and returned on last Friday, bringing along as trophies of the hunt five deer and three bears. Mr. Morrison killed two deer and one bear, Mr. Gearhart two bears, and Messrs. Hoffman, Wherry and Wertz one deer each."

Winter Excursion Book of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

A very valuable book for those contemplating either an extended winter trip or a short visit to the sunny South has just been issued by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. Many useful suggestions and information are contained in the little volume, which is copiously illustrated and provided with a valuable map of all the territory under consideration. Copies may be obtained at the ticket office of the Company, or upon application to Geo. W. Snow, Assistant General Passenger Agent, 233 South Fourth street, Philadelphia.

February Election Nominations.

Under the new election law such a ticket getting up a ticket the night before election day cannot be done, for all officers to be elected in boroughs have to be nominated and their names certified and recorded to the auditors at least ten days before election day in boroughs and at least seven days before election day in the township.

Time by the Forelock.

The Philadelphia Record has taken time by the forelock and issued its almanac for the year 1893, in this present month of December. The almanac is replete with information of a substantial and valuable nature. The picture representations of the Columbian exposition to be held in Chicago the coming summer are valuable as pointers to visitors and stay at home for by the pictures they can familiarize themselves with the appearance of the buildings that during a period of months will contain many of the wonderful hand-craft articles of the world. As a book of reference and digest of many things the Almanac is a good thing to have all the time within easy reach.

Early Chickens.

Selingsgrove Tribune: M. L. Snyder, Esq., who several months ago turned his inquiring mind to chicken raising by inquiry, purchased a patent incubator, and on Friday and Saturday out of seventy five fertile eggs out of one hundred placed in the incubator, succeeded in successfully hatching seventy lively chicks. This is a pretty good showing, and the Squire can get his month ready for early spring chicken, if the rats, or the gaupes, the cold, the roup, the cholera, the cats, and, well, pretty much everything else, don't carry them away.

For The School Superintendency.

So far as is known at this time, teacher D. M. Marshall, of Walnut, Professor Landis, of McCulloch's Mills, and Superintendent Carney of McAlisterville are the only ones in the field for the office of Superintendent of the public schools in Juniata county.

Storm Overcoats, only $5.00 at Hollibaugh & Son.

Slater W. Allen, known to a number of people in Mifflintown and Fermanagh township is contesting the legislative seat of Jacob C. Stine-mann, because in Cambria county a number of voters cast their votes outside the guard rail and the votes thus cast were not lawful, but all the same were counted.

Shirts the largest line and the latest patterns at Hollibaugh & Son.

So far as is known at this time, teacher D. M. Marshall, of Walnut, Professor Landis, of McCulloch's Mills, and Superintendent Carney of McAlisterville are the only ones in the field for the office of Superintendent of the public schools in Juniata county.

Time by the Forelock.

The Philadelphia Record has taken time by the forelock and issued its almanac for the year 1893, in this present month of December. The almanac is replete with information of a substantial and valuable nature. The picture representations of the Columbian exposition to be held in Chicago the coming summer are valuable as pointers to visitors and stay at home for by the pictures they can familiarize themselves with the appearance of the buildings that during a period of months will contain many of the wonderful hand-craft articles of the world. As a book of reference and digest of many things the Almanac is a good thing to have all the time within easy reach.

Early Chickens.

Selingsgrove Tribune: M. L. Snyder, Esq., who several months ago turned his inquiring mind to chicken raising by inquiry, purchased a patent incubator, and on Friday and Saturday out of seventy five fertile eggs out of one hundred placed in the incubator, succeeded in successfully hatching seventy lively chicks. This is a pretty good showing, and the Squire can get his month ready for early spring chicken, if the rats, or the gaupes, the cold, the roup, the cholera, the cats, and, well, pretty much everything else, don't carry them away.

For The School Superintendency.

So far as is known at this time, teacher D. M. Marshall, of Walnut, Professor Landis, of McCulloch's Mills, and Superintendent Carney of McAlisterville are the only ones in the field for the office of Superintendent of the public schools in Juniata county.

Storm Overcoats, only $5.00 at Hollibaugh & Son.

Slater W. Allen, known to a number of people in Mifflintown and Fermanagh township is contesting the legislative seat of Jacob C. Stine-mann, because in Cambria county a number of voters cast their votes outside the guard rail and the votes thus cast were not lawful, but all the same were counted.

Shirts the largest line and the latest patterns at Hollibaugh & Son.

So far as is known at this time, teacher D. M. Marshall, of Walnut, Professor Landis, of McCulloch's Mills, and Superintendent Carney of McAlisterville are the only ones in the field for the office of Superintendent of the public schools in Juniata county.

Time by the Forelock.

The Philadelphia Record has taken time by the forelock and issued its almanac for the year 1893, in this present month of December. The almanac is replete with information of a substantial and valuable nature. The picture representations of the Columbian exposition to be held in Chicago the coming summer are valuable as pointers to visitors and stay at home for by the pictures they can familiarize themselves with the appearance of the buildings that during a period of months will contain many of the wonderful hand-craft articles of the world. As a book of reference and digest of many things the Almanac is a good thing to have all the time within easy reach.

Early Chickens.

Selingsgrove Tribune: M. L. Snyder, Esq., who several months ago turned his inquiring mind to chicken raising by inquiry, purchased a patent incubator, and on Friday and Saturday out of seventy five fertile eggs out of one hundred placed in the incubator, succeeded in successfully hatching seventy lively chicks. This is a pretty good showing, and the Squire can get his month ready for early spring chicken, if the rats, or the gaupes, the cold, the roup, the cholera, the cats, and, well, pretty much everything else, don't carry them away.

Does this Catch Your Eye?

If so, get the whole of the story. It is short and may be as valuable to you as to us.

WE HAVE STRUCK IT RICH, and instead of hiding our candle under a bushel, are willing the whole world should know it. We are now selling the HARRISBURG make of Shoes, which the above cut represents. The best $3.00 men's shoe ever put on the market in Juniata County. We have them, both Congress and Lace.

REMEMBER

a shoe is not complete without smooth, flexible inner soles, free from tacks, nails or thread that might hurt the feet or soil the stocking

The Harrisburg Shoe is Complete.

It will pay you to try them. For sale only at

G. W. HECK,

THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE BOOT & SHOE MAN IN JUNIATA COUNTY,

BRIDGE STREET, MIFFLINTOWN, PA.

Also the largest stock of general foot-wear. Ladies' and Misses' shoes in latest styles and all sizes. Everybody can be satisfied at Heck's, Bridge Street.

HOLLOBAUGH & SON'S

Clothing House,

PATTERSON PA.

Nothing Succeeds Like Success, and that we have made a success of the Clothing Business is an established fact. First, we are keeping a better line of all kinds of clothing than is usually kept in a Clothing Store.

Second, we carry a much larger line of all kinds than any other Clothing House in the county.

Third we keep up to the styles. The young men of to-day can be fitted out with an elegant suit made in the latest cut for one half what it would cost to have it made to order.