A FAMIN prevails in a part of Sweden.

A PART of Russia is again afflicted with famine.

The cholera has again broken out in Hamburg.

There are 6000 women post mistresses in the United States.

According to Arabian legends, Cain killed Abel on the 3rd day of June, more than five thousand years ago.

The French Panama Canal Company stands at the head of the corporation swindles of this day and generation of swindlers.

PHILADELPHIA Times: The number of trains arriving at Broad Street Station exceeds five hundred a day, carrying a daily average of some 65,000 persons.

EDWARD MERRIV, Jr., of Troy, is a candidate for U. S. Senate in New York State. He postponed his mother's funeral to take a hand in politics on election day for Cleveland.

On the morning of December 27, the first time in 15 years a thin coat of ice and snow covered the house tops of Charleston South Carolina. Sleet and snow fell in Augusta, Georgia on December 27.

CHICAGO people are going into the show business with a vim that is a surprise to the old time showman. They are proposing among them selves to buy Independence Hall with all its fixtures from Philadelphia and move it to Chicago.

SEVERAL duels have taken place in France over the Panama Canal bribery scandal. A duel may settle the quarrel between the parties in the fight, but it amounts to nothing in clearing up the bribery in the case.

ACCORDING to the report the British are placing more war ships in the lakes between Canada and the United States than they are allowed by the treaty of 1817. What are we going to do about it. Does it mean war with England?

THERE is an old saying that comes from time out of date. That there is a woman in every thing of importance, which is verified in the Panama Canal scandal by the wife of the engineer, De Lesseps, being a party to the distribution of the corruption fund.

DE LESSEPS, the French engineer, who carried the Suez canal enterprise successfully through to completion and who just now is the focal point of attention in France, on account of the Panama canal bribery scandal, was married to his second wife when she was a girl of sixteen and he a man of 60 years.

A WAR cloud bigger than a man's hand appeared on the Canadian border, in the discovery that the British are building more war vessels for the lakes between the United States and Canada than the treaty of 1817 permits. War is always an uncertain game to play at, but the probability is that if England picks a war out of the United States, Canada and every other foot of British territory in America will be taken from England.

IN the Assembly election contest case, in the Crawford county courts, between Andrews, republican, and Higby, democrat, the Court decided in favor of Andrews, on the ground that Higby's majority was unlawful—unconstitutional—because it had been obtained by a vote cast by two townships outside of the limit of the respective townships. Like the vote of Fernmanagh township, in Juniata county, which every election is cast in the borough of Mifflintown, which is outside of the limit of the township.

MARTENA HARRISON, grand-daughter of President Harrison, took scarlet fever, and a red card, with the words, "Scarlet Fever Within," was hung on the doors of the White House, last week, and will hang there for two weeks to come. The scarlet fever is something politicians are shy of, they don't like to get even the odor of it in their clothes, and as quickly as they spied the cards on the doors of the Executive mansion they turned away. Other people were equally shy, and thus an affliction has been the means of saving the President from many callers.

CHICAGO has commercial location, money, style, airs, vim, enterprise, push, cattle and hogs, and railroads, and manufacturing establishments, and twenty thousand anarchists, but she has no pedigree longer than about sixty years, and that fact is a thorn in her busy, humming, money making ways. She would almost sell herself for a nickel to secure a pedigree. She would like to get some thing that would give her an American record to go back, at least, as far as the revolution of 1776, and with that object she comes to Pennsylvania and proposes to buy Independence Hall, and move it to Chicago.

France is greatly excited over the exposure of the corruption of her public men, about one hundred and forty of her assembly men have been bribed to help get the Panama canal scheme floated to sell bonds. Thousands of people of limited means put money into the concern that is they bought the stock in bonds of the canal company and now that the company has pocketed the money and left the canal go to Davy Jones' locker, the fleeced lambs are bleating loudly and are declaring that the public men who are elected to office are all corrupt, and may be bought like sheep in the stambles by corporations or any one that has money to spend on them.

Success. Channay Depew said a good thing to the young men in the Pierce Business College, the other day in Philadelphia, on the success of men. He said, "The man who has a home no matter how humble the home, and can take care of it is a success."

Not Guilty of Heresy. Religious creeds are breaking before the mechanical inventions of the day. Mechanical inventions have added so much to the physical comfort and convenience of the people that the mind of man is absorbed with pursuit of comfort, convenience, and pleasure to such a degree, that spiritual or religious matters are forced aside, because they cannot be touched, tasted or handled or seen. It is a hard thing to catch the mind of a healthy person in this materialistic age of comfort and convenience of things of sight, sound, taste, and touch, and direct that mind to reflect on things unseen and unheard.

The Cleman House, in Lewis town, was burned down on Monday night. G. R. Barnett, principal of the schools of that borough and a boarder at the house, lost all his books and clothing valued at $200 or more. Mr Barnett is spending his holiday vacation in this place. At the Orphan's Home at Loysville, this county, they had a large crop of apples this year, fully one thousand bushels. They made over 1,000 gallons of cider and out of that they made 110 gallons of apple butter, besides keeping fourteen barrels of cider for vinegar. They also put away 300 bushels for winter use, of which the children get four bushels a week for eating.

A Rat, A Hatch, A Fire. One day last week, the large barn of John Sours, in Cumberland county, near Barnitz station, was destroyed by a mysterious fire. Edward Hollinger has gone to the barn to buy sheep and talking with Mrs. Zinn wife of the farmer of the place, while talking they saw a whiff of smoke come out of the overshoot and just then a rat dropped from the overshoot to the ground. It is accidently dropped on the barn floor and the rat found it, and by some means set it off.

Hotel Fire.

The Coalman Hotel in Lewistown, was destroyed by fire on the morning of December 27. The loss is estimated at $20,000, insurance $,000. The fire started in Snyder's restaurant, directly under the parlor. The flames all escaped with their lives but a number of them had time to take more clothing with them than they had on their backs. A traveling salesman lost his pocket book containing almost two hundred dollars and all his traveling effects he was helped out of the hotel and thanked god and the men who had helped him out that he had not perished in the flames and had not been left out of the predicament. The fire was first discovered about 3 o'clock in the morning. By 7 o'clock the fire department had subdued it. The damage to near by property was considerable. One of the remarkable things about it all is that a family that lives on over one hundred feet from the place slept soundly through all the noise and din of the occasion.

Short Work With Sheep Killers

Some Virginia farmers make a dog law and live up to it in their farm practice and with the full knowledge of their neighbors. One of these who keeps dogs himself agrees that anybody who finds his dogs off his farm and alone may kill them and that he shall kill any dogs he may find wandering alone on his farm. Another has a standing bargain with his hired man to pay a bounty of fifty cents on dog scalps killed on his farm. This gentleman has a pair of trained bull dogs that kill every strange dog they find alone on the farm. He says they make quick and sure work with every dog they take hold of.

Another very enterprising, court-cour, reasonable sheep raiser shoots every dog that prowls around his premises day or night. He makes it a rule to get the dogs before they get his sheep, and thus avoids the losses and annoyances formerly and usually experienced. Another large sheep raiser has a shepherd with his flocks during the day, and keeps them at night in a yard inclosed with a wire picket fence five feet high, which is dog proof. Some sheep men practice the liberal, if not indiscriminate, feeding of poisonous meats to dogs known to spend their nights away from home.

War Horse Dead.

Bloomfield Advocate:—"Annie Maria," the famous war horse of Major Geo. A. Suman, now residing near Loysville, has ended her days, at an age of 36 years. The mare was captured in one of raids of the 9th Pa. Cavalry and became the property of Major Suman who was one of the raiders. The gallant mare bore the Major through the Tennessee campaign participated in by the 9th Cavalry and was with him on Sherman's famous march "from Atlanta to the Sea," and up through the Carolinas and was present at the surrender of Johnston's army near Hillsboro, N. C. At the termination of the war the mare was brought home by Major Suman and for her services was kept in easy retirement up until old age so enfeebled her that she had to be put out of the way last month. "Annie Maria" has been a prominent and interesting feature at many soldiers' reunions in this county, but she will now be seen no more.

A break in the ice, left Paul Holloway confined to narrow limits at the third pier of the river bridge the other day. The water was too cold for comfortable wading and the pier could not be climbed. To get Paul out of the predicament a rope was lowered, on the end of which he tied a loop, into which he put a foot, stood up, and grasped the rope tightly with his hands and was drawn up on the floor of the bridge by John Brindle and Node Sulouff.

Harriet E. Hall of Waynetown, Ind., says: "I owe my life to the great South American Nerve. I had been in bed for five months from the effects of an exhausted Stomach, Indigestion, Nervous prostration and a general shattered condition of my whole system. Had given up all hopes of getting well. Had tried three doctors with no relief. The first bottle of the Nerve Tonic improved me so much that I was able to walk about and a few bottles cured me entirely. I believe it is the best medicine in the world. I cannot recommend it to highly." Trial bottles, 15c. Sold by L. Banks & Co. May 14-ly.

The tax that it is proposed to place on whisky is creating a great deal of talk. First, the drinker talks about it. Second, the Democracy talk about it as a source of revenue. 3rd, the business man talks of it as taking money out of other channels of business, to place in the channel of business of the liquor dealer. Fourth, that against the tax talk about it as the means of government to squeeze more money out of the people, make times harder by taking that amount of money from general circulation and putting it in the hands of profligate government officials.

Many Philadelphians are urging the repeal of the silver-bullion bill, if silver has to be paid for in gold why lose a day in repealing the act. If silver now receives the same rights of free coinage in the mints that gold has, gold would not be required to buy it, and the yellow coin would not be the single standard of money that it now is. With only three thousand millions of gold in the civilized world to base the business on is it any wonder the values are shrinking?

For a Time.

I will now reduce the price of my $3.00 cabinet photograph to $1.50 per dozen.

This reduction will continue as long as there is sufficient trade to warrant these prices and no longer. This gallery is filled with all the latest improvements usually kept in a first class gallery, such as Fine Scenic Backgrounds, Beautiful Draperies and Fine Accessories, that would do credit to the largest cities. We propose during this reduction to let our work speak for itself and have no hesitancy in saying that taking into consideration the quality of work, these will be the cheapest cabinet photographs ever made in Juniata county. Respectfully, JOSEPH HEISS, Mifflintown, Pa., Jan. 2nd, 1893.
