

The Governor's message is a long deliverance.

The Legislature after a day's session adjourned to the 16th.

Judge John Stewart's suggestion, that men who fail to attend the primary elections should not be allowed to vote at the November elections is compulsory and unamerican.

Some of the public men about Washington want the United States to step into the Panama Canal vacancy caused by the French corrupt failure. Lord deliver us from temptation.

The Democrats have an excuse for the calling of an extra session of Congress. They say if anything happens to the Treasury an extra session of Congress will be called after the 4th of next March.

South Dakota is the place that hundreds of men and women who are wearing the milt of matrimony go to for the procurement of speedy divorce. Ninety days will give one a residence in that state and then they are ready to have a divorce rushed through court.

The democratic boys want an extra session of Congress, after the first of March, but Cleveland does not favor it, he knows that if he gets the boys there they will stay all summer, as they did when Governor Patterson called an extra session of the Legislature of Pennsylvania some years ago.

The question of the sale of Sunday newspapers was carried to the Supreme Court by Pittsburg people. The Supreme Court could only sustain the law of 1794, under which suit was brought against the sale of Sunday papers. Such sales under that old law are unlawful. A movement has been started to have the Sunday laws of 1794 repealed by the present Legislature.

It is a long stride for cholera to make from New York harbor to Little Rock, Arkansas, and there on the penitentiary and speedily take the lives of a number of convicts but that is what the mysterious disease did last week. How many places the disease is lurking about, between Little Rock, and the Atlantic coast, awaiting the coming of spring to get in its work, will be found out by-and-by.

E. Doss and Company, proprietors of the Cuba Mills, a mile and a half north of town, filled the ice house of Mr. John Howe. Other citizens brought an action to restrain him from paying the money for the ice to Doss & Company, on the ground that the millers have no right to the land on which the dam is located and have no right to the ice formed on the dam. That the rights of the milling company comprehends only the water right for the mill.

If the would-be assassin, who tried to shoot Lewis Arnold in the lower end of this county, will read the fate of the assassin Snipes at Bakerville, North Carolina, he may learn what a dangerous thing it is to be an assassin. An assassin has no friends, inside or outside of the pines of the law. They are expensive members of society wherever they are. The unfortunate affair at Bakerville, is, that two dozen people lost their lives on account of the worthless creature that was hatched.

This report that Cleveland is not in favor of the demonization of silver, is to good to believe. Cleveland is an American with American instincts and he may not be as fully under the lead strings of European bond dealers as he is credited with. It is the bond dealers of the monied institutions of Europe that are at the head of the crusade against silver. They are the class that want to rule out silver and make money by the shrinkage that must naturally follow such a course of legislation. Cleveland's message will be looked for with great interest on that point.

"Wait! wait! on England, till she is ready to adopt or is ready to favor the free coinage of silver. There are many honest people talk that way without knowing that they are but the echoes of London bond manipulators who don't want silver remonetized, because to establish the free coinage of silver would interfere with their money shaving business. They want to make money scores so that all obligations will have to be met in gold.

By shrieking values to the gold standard, one dollar of gold will be worth two, perhaps three, perhaps four times more than any other kind of money, and that is what they are after. The Lord have mercy on the bonded debtor class if the American Gold Bugs can join hands with the English Gold Bugs, for the Gold Bugs will shove them to financial death under the gold standard.

GOVERNOR FLOWER, of New York, has come out in favor of a strong compulsory education law. Compulsory education, and compulsory religion are not republican, nor democratic in their tendency. There is nothing American in compulsory education or compulsory religion.

Railroad Fight.

The Norfolk and Western Railroad Company are seeking to enter Washington, D. C. Last Saturday evening a number of Washington people who are boosting the enterprise held a meeting and delivered themselves in fierce and ill tempered language against the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for opposing their enterprise, and in the sweeping denunciations that were made they drew in Congressman Atkinson, and charged him with being in the interest of the Pennsylvania Company. The probability is that Atkinson is an attorney for the company and has been acting for them in that capacity in the case. The details, however, are so meagre, that reliable data is not at hand, but from what is at hand it looks as if the Doctor will deny the allegation and defy the allegator.

Where To Vote.

Judge Henderson, of Crawford county, has ruled that the voters of one district cannot have a designated place in an other district at which to cast their ballots. He declares the law that permits voters to go out of their district to cast their ballots is an unconstitutional law. The Judge's position seems to be so close up to the line of common sense that the soundness of his position is not questioned by fair minded men. The question was taken into Judge Henderson's Court in a contest for a seat in the Legislature, by candidates Andrews and Higby. Andrews is a republican and Higby is a democrat. By returns Higby was elected. Andrews appealed to Court in contest, on the ground that two of the townships in the county had cast their vote outside of the limit of their district—each in an other election district—and if the unconstitutional vote thus cast should not be counted, he, Andrews, instead of Higby would appear as the member of the Legislature from Crawford county. The Court sustained Andrews' position and gave him a certificate of election upon which he was seated at Harrisburg at its first meeting last week.

There are people in a good many election districts in this commonwealth that have during the course of many years been in the habit of going beyond the limits of their district to cast their vote in a voting place in another district. Judge Henderson's decision comes none to early to correct the evil, and while Andrews is the scape goat upon whom all the curses will be heaped for taking a seat to which he was not elected by a majority vote, he becomes the medium through which one of the careless and unconstitutional ways of voting in Pennsylvania will be corrected. Higby will be sore over the loss of his seat in the Legislature, but he can console himself with the orthodox expression, "that the death of the martyrs is the seed of the church," and his loss will be the cause of people voting in the right place in their respective local districts and thereby saving the state from a more extended election contest in the future on the same question. Judge Henderson's decision is a broad one, and clearly teaches, everyone, where to vote.

Spring Election.

"Irregularity to guard against any irregularity in the spring election on February 21st, 1893, and to facilitate said election the following sections of the new election law or no election will be held in many districts.

1. All nominations for Township and Borough officers must be certified to by the presiding officer and the secretary or secretaries of the convention or primary meeting or caucus or board and a certificate of said nominations filed with the Township or Borough auditors on or before the 4th day of February, 1893.

2. Objections to said certificate of nomination must be filed with the Township and Borough auditors on or before the 7th day of February, 1893, and objections decided by the majority of them.

3. The ballots for said spring election shall be printed and distributed by the Township and Borough auditors, who shall certify the cost of such printing and distribution to County Commissioners for payment as part of county election expenses. Said auditors shall be responsible for the accurate printing and safe keeping of the ballots.

4. The Township and Borough Auditors shall provide for each election district, seventy five ballots for every fifty and fraction of fifty voters on the assessor's list and an equal number of specimen ballots and obtain requisite cards of instruction, and deliver the same to the judges of election on February 20, 1893.

Hold your primary meetings for the nomination as Township and Borough officers not later than Saturday, January 28, 1893. This will give you one week to prepare your nomination papers and file same with township and borough auditors.

A Happy New Year, 1893.

At the close of 1892, we beg to extend to you our heartfelt New Year's wishes, may the year 1893 be to you a period of untroubled success, and may your fondest expectations be realized during its course, and the blessings of health and good cheer for yourself and loved ones. Success in all your undertakings. Increase in business and whatever else your heart may crave.

Allow us to take this occasion to express to you our sincere appreciation of your many favors, which contributed so largely in making the past year one of signal success to us, and we only hope that you will continue to favor us with your valued patronage during the course of 1893. Respectfully yours,

W. F. Soyder, Juniata county's leading Furniture Dealer and Undertaker.

Given Away Free.

A neat hat, coat, and umbrella rack will be given to each cash purchaser of 5 dollars worth of goods at Hollobaugh & Sons.

A Sudden Death.

John Kessler, aged 42 years, who was an employe of the Juniata point shop, and whose home was at 313 Fourth street, died suddenly of lung trouble last night at 11:30 o'clock. He had retired to his bed early in the evening in his usual good health. Being afflicted with a cough he called to his wife to get him something for it, and when she started to do so she followed her down to the lower part of the building, seated himself in a chair and expired in a few minutes. Medical assistance was summoned but Mr. Kessler was beyond human aid.

The above account of the death of Mr. Kessler is from the Altoona Tribune of January 4th. Mr. Kessler was well known in Mifflintown where he lived a number of years and where he married a daughter of Henry Gesben. His wife and four children survive him. His remains were brought to this town. The funeral took place from the home of his brother in law James Robison on Third street Friday at 3 o'clock. P. M. Interment in Presbyterian cemetery.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

Philadelphians have been enjoying themselves sleighing.

M. P. Crawford spent Sunday with friends in Millin county.

Frank Meloy, of Altoona, spent a few days in town recently.

John S. Graybill, of Washington, D. C., was in town several days last week.

The Philadelphia Times Almanac for the year 1893, is a mine of solid information.

Robt. McEneaney, Dr. Lucius Banks and J. H. Neely spent Sunday in Wilkesbarre.

The union religious meeting in Court House on Sunday evening was a big meeting.

Cinnamon, it is said kills cholera germs. Therefore use cinnamon in moderate quantity.

Miss Edith Parker, of Washington, D. C., is visiting the family of C. W. Mayer, in this place.

A snow as light as a feather fell on Monday morning. It was too feathery to help the sleighing.

A wreck of sixteen freight cars on Monday, near Newport, delayed the running of trains a short time.

One set of Democrats are saying, "down with the pensions," an other set are saying, "give us an increase of pension."

There is nothing said this winter days about the South Carolina earthquake and the warm Gulf Stream. Exit, Gulf Stream.

George Hensley, of Millport, died last Saturday, after suffering for a number of months with liver trouble, aged about 70 years.

The letters remaining in the Mifflintown postoffice at the close of the week, January 7, 1893, were for Mrs. Evaline Sauer, Mr. Lewis Brodie.

The Juniata Valley Bank purchased the vacant lot on the southeast corner of Main and Bridge streets, from T. Van Irwin. Consideration, $2,000.

Horse owners of Adams, Dauphin Cumberland, Franklin and York counties, held a convention in Mechanicsburg, last Saturday, to organize thoroughly against horse stealing.

An explosion of natural gas, in the house of Thomas Duffy, on Sarah street, Pittsburg, last Saturday, wrecked the house, killed Mr. and Mrs. Duffy, and their three-year-old daughter.

The Pennsylvania railroad company is beginning to draw the line on the employment of union men. It is right. The unions are tyrannous. No man can get employment where they have the sway, unless he belongs to the union.

Gallich Sales, residences of O. H. Hosterman, James Pennercker, and Mrs. Peter Beatty. The loss is estimated at $6,000, with only $1,500 in insurance.

Last Friday, S. D. Elech, principal of the 7th Ward schools in Johnstown, Cambria county, whipped one of his boy pupils. The boy went home and told his mother. The mother went to a horse, bought a heavy horse and laid in wait for the teacher, and when he came along, after school hours, she went at him like a tigress and whipped him so severely that he had to have medical attention.

An Italian laborer of Detroit, Michigan, missed $23 the other day, and after looking all over the house, came to the conclusion that his dog must have swallowed it, especially as on examination he found a piece of one of the bank notes adhering to his teeth. Accordingly the dog was sacrificed and a post mortem was held, with the result of finding all the missing money in the animal's stomach. The bills were all torn to pieces, but these were carefully fitted together, and forwarded to the treasury for redemption.

A dispatch, from Ironva, Clearfield county, last Friday, says: The town was greatly excited yesterday, when seven leading men of that place were arrested upon a charge of being far too fond of John P. Williams' pretty wife. Williams says his wife confessed to him that these seven men had been intimate with her, and he caused their arrest, having secured her affidavit that she had information that they were having an affair with her. She says now that she made the affidavit at the point of a revolver and the seven accused men, five of whom are married, have had Williams arrested for blackmail.

Bloomfield Advocate: Gen. Black, of Centre township, last Thursday evening fell down the hay hole of his barn, and alighted on a board which had preceded him and which struck in an upright position. He fractured one rib on his right side, but was otherwise uninjured.

During the year 1892, County Treasurer Kell told out for scrips of foxes, wildcats and for justices fees, $941.55. In 1891 the amount was $646.83; in 1890, $681; in 1889, but $164.35 were paid. The law now in force went into effect April 25, 1889.

On Monday the Bloomfield postoffice became a Presidential office carrying with it a salary of $1000 per annum. On the 23rd ult., Postmaster H. C. Shearer was appointed to the office by President Harrison for a term of four years.

A Sudden Death.

Robert Robinson, died suddenly at his home in Tuscarora Valley on the morning of Friday, January 6th, aged about 60 years. He was in his usual good health and had just carried a can of milk into the house, when his tide of life ceased to flow, and he sank to the floor and expired. It is supposed that heart failure caused his death.

To Cure Meat.

To cure hams and shoulders: Allow them to get cold all through, then lay them on a board in the cellar, skin side down. For fifty pounds of meat mix two pounds of fine salt, one ounce of powdered saltpetre and two of brown sugar. Rub this well into the meat, until it will take no more, and pack some in the hook end around the bone. If there should be any salt, etc., left, rub them again in a sack. Let them lie for two weeks then hang up.

Notice to Auditors.

COMMISSIONERS' OFFICE, MIFFLINTOWN, Jan. 9, 1893. The Auditors of the different boroughs and townships of the county are respectfully requested to forward to the Commission's office, as soon as possible, cards bearing the names of the Auditors and their postoffice addresses.

For Frost Bitten Feet.

If feet or hands are frost bitten keep away from the fire but thaw them out, in a moderately warm room, by applying snow or very cold water. When the frost is certainly all out, soak for an hour in water as hot as can be born, containing all the best medicinal salts dissolved. This will draw the blood to the surface and re-establish circulation, and there will not be chilblains or soreness. The hot-water-and-alum bath is also the best cure for the soreness and swelling that follows frost bites not properly treated.

The Conducting of Pleasure Tours.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, through its personally conducted tourist system has gained an enviable reputation in the conducting of its pleasure tours, inasmuch as they send out with each individual tour an experienced tourist agent and chaperon, whose sole duty is to cater to the wants and pleasure of all in their charge. All destinations of the tours are selected with the view of giving to the tourists the most delightful territory for recreation, pleasure, and sight seeing. The rates quoted for each tour are in accordance with that liberality for which this enterprising company is noted. There will be a series of five tours to Washington, D. C. during the winter and spring of 1893, dates for which have been fixed as follows: January 19th, February 9th, March 23d, April 13th, May 4th and 25th. In addition to the above mentioned tours the company has arranged a series of five to the famous winter resort, Florida, leaving New York and Philadelphia, January 31st, February 14th and 28th, March 14th and 28th 1893. The first four tours allow a stay of two whole weeks in the Florida State. The rate quoted from Philadelphia, $48, covers transportation, Pullman berth, and meals en route on special train in both directions for first four tours, while tickets for the fifth tour are good to return by regular trains until May 30th, 1893, but not cover Pullman charges or meals north-bound.

For those desiring a prolonged tour of pleasure of eight-seeing no better trip is afforded than one of the Pacific Coast tours arranged by this company, three of which will be run from New York and Philadelphia during the year 1893, departing on the following dates: February 8th, March 2d, and March 29th. The rate will cover transportation in a palace vestibule train in both directions, meals en route, carriage drives, and side trips to prominent points of interest in California. For information regarding any of the tours or for detailed itineraries, application should be made to the Tourist Department, Pennsylvania Railroad Company, 233 South Fourth Street, Philadelphia.

A Death Bed Confession.

BANGOR, Jan. 2.—The confession of a man in a logging camp in the northern part of this State, while on his death-bed, explains the mysterious death of a man named Walker, who was found shot in the woods two years ago. Walker, who had been laboring in the forest in the Sebago-mook Lake region, started out of the woods with $500, which he had earned in his possession.

While on his way he came to a camp occupied by two men and asked to be allowed to stay there that night. His request was granted. According to the confession, soon afterward one of the men to whom the camp belonged asked Walker to go to a spring near by and get some water. He started to do so, but as soon as his back was turned the man seized a gun and shot him. The wound was a mortal one, but the woodsman did not expire for an hour. While lying upon the ground he asked the man who had shot him why he had done so and received the reply that it was for his money. The murderer and his companion took the dying man to a bear trap, placed his hands in it, so that it would lock as though death had been caused by his being caught there, and left him. It was the companion of the murderer who recently died and made the confession before passing away. The murderer is still at large somewhere in the northern part of the State.

For a Time. I will now reduce the price of my $3.00 cabinet photograph to $1.50 per dozen. This reduction will continue as long as there is sufficient trade to warrant these prices and no longer. This gallery is filled with all the latest improvements usually kept in a first class gallery, such as Fine Scenic Backgrounds, Beautiful Draperies and Fine Accessories, that would do credit to the large cities. We propose during this reduction to let our work speak for itself and have no hesitancy in saying that taking into consideration the quality of work, these will be the cheapest cabinet photographs ever made in Juniata county. Respectfully, JOSEPH HESS, Mifflintown, Pa., Jan. 22nd, 1893.
