PROMPT, GOOD WORK. RHEUMATISM. Mr. W. L. C. Coakley, N. Y., writes: "I awoke one morning with excruciating pains in my shoulder. Tired of various remedies I had tried without effect, I went to buy Dr. J. C. O'Rourke's 'ST. JACOBS OIL' and used it at once and was cured in a few days."

After the Grip. It was very weak and run down and did not gain strength, like so many after that prostrating disease. I am now well and strong. I am now well and strong. I am now well and strong. I am now well and strong. I am now well and strong.

A PEARL KING FROM TAHITI. An American who formed a Lively Partnership with a Tahitian. A slender young man, with a few last east of countenance, stepped up to the Palace Hotel register and signed himself "Samuel Harris, Tahiti."

FROM BOMBAY TO MORADABAD. BY ELLA BARTLEY SIMMONS. We were not conveyed to our destination by the lack of a huge elephant, neither were we carried by a patient camel, nor were we drawn in the awkward ox cart, but traveled third class in the cars. Why did you go to India? Being poor missionaries we went there because there was no fourth. The railroad being "English, you know."
