Peach men say the buds indicate a two-third crop the coming season.

Work on fourth track was suspended a few days to get the inauguration party to and from Washington.

The Canning Company held a business meeting in the Court House on Monday, to prepare for the work of the canning season.

The Populists in Kansas, have again become part of the Legislature by sitting with the other members in one and the same hall.

The letters recalled for, in the Mifflintown postoffice, at the close of the week, March 4, were for Wm. Fausty, and George Bittering.

A man or a woman does a good act, how slowly it is newsed abroad, but if they do wrong it is soon spread broadcast by the breath of gossip.

A chicken and waffle supper for the benefit of the Lutheran congregation, was held at Captain McClellan's home on last Thursday evening.

President Cleveland and his Secretary of State are both fond of fishermen, and next summer may be prolific in fish stories from Washington.

This is the time of the year when the store box fellows can tell all about how to run a farm, and the business of all other people, but their own.

Most people who attended Cleveland's inauguration favor amending the laws, so as to have the President inaugurated in May or June.

All of last winter's ice made on the river west of Lewisport, yet remains stretched in the stream from the Lewisport dam west, a distance of three miles.

There is a motion going through the minds of the voters, to close the election polls at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, instead of at 7 o'clock in the evening.

A good many people who pride themselves upon their honesty in money matters are dishonest with their tongues. Don't be dishonest with your tongue.

In twenty-five years an electric railway will parallel the Pennsylvania railroad from Philadelphia to Pittsburgh, and it will run through the main street of Mifflintown.

Rich on human and horse and all animals' cured in 30 minutes by Woodford's Sanitary Lotion. This never fails. Sold by L. Banks & Co., Druggists, Mifflintown, Pa. Oct. 1, 1892.

Children can be kept quiet on candy and paragonic and cordials, but few treated or raised that way grow to be healthy men and women.

If Cleveland's administration proves itself as unpleasant as the weather, on inauguration day it will be chilly enough to almost paralyze the country.

Andrew Allison was in Washington last week for the two-fold purpose of visiting his brother Matthew, and for the purpose of seeing the inauguration of a President.

Ex-President Harrison passed this station westward bound last Saturday evening. He left Washington immediately after he assisted in the inauguration of President Cleveland.

Hollidaysburg will introduce mountain water within the next year. There is no better water in the world than Mifflintown people enjoy when they are in running order.

Have you tried South American Nervine—the gem of the century? The great cure for Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Nervousness. Warranted the most wonderful Stomach and Nerve Cure ever known. Trial bottles 15 cents. Sold by L. Banks & Co., Druggists, Mifflintown, Pa. Nov. 14, 1892.

The widow of Alfred Blount, the negro who was lynched at Chattanooga, Tenn., some days ago has instituted civil proceedings against the sheriff of the county. She seeks to recover $15,000 damages, alleging her husband was not properly properly protected from a mob, and that he was not guilty of the crime with which he was charged.

There are yet living a good many people who consider the hog and cow such sacred animals that they assist that the sacred animals shall have the rights of highway, and by way, and every property to root, tramp and eat at pleasure, and that there is no remedy to prevent them from roaming at will, except to wall every property in by a fence, that the sacred animals cannot break or climb or jump over.

The case here and there, of a man and woman not living happily together, shortly after marriage, is not a new thing. Milton could write a "Paradise Lost," but he could not hold the attachment of his wife. She left him for good, four weeks after they were married. There have been as many happy marriages since that time as before that year, 1643. The marriage world will go on in that way till the crack of doom.

John F. Miller, formerly a book-keeper in the First National Bank of Columbia, Pa., who stole between $7000 and $8000 of the bank's money, and who fled to Australia, and Bombay, India, and subsequently penitently returned to this country, and gave himself up to the authorities and pleaded guilty to his crime, was on Thursday in the United States District Court, at Philadelphia, sentenced by Judge Butler to Curry Hill for five years.

Hollidaysburg Register.—James Blake, Sr., of Marinsburg almost 81 years of age, is one of the oldest Old Fellows in Blair county, having been initiated in 1850. He is still active in his order. Mr. James H. Bell, of Hollidaysburg, probably enjoys the distinction of being the oldest Old Fellow in the county having joined the order in 1846. Mr. Geo. W. Sellers, also of this place, joined the order in 1848 or 1849. These gentlemen are still active citizens of our town and members in good standing of Hollidaysburg Lodge, No. 119.

Harriet E. Hall of Waynesport, Ind., says: "I owe my life to the great South American Nervine. I had been in bed for five months from the effects of an exhausted Stomach, Indigestion, Nervous prostration and a general shattered condition of my whole system. Had given up all hopes of getting well. Had tried three doctors with no relief. The first bottle of the Nervine Tonic improved me so much that I was able to walk about and a few bottles cured me entirely. I believe it is the best medicine in the world. I cannot recommend it to highly." Sold by L. Banks & Co., Druggist, Mifflintown, Pa. Feb. 9, 1893.

Bloomfield Democrat.—A hen belonging to Wm. N. Reeder, of Centre township, is entitled to the title as a layer of big eggs. It recently laid an egg which weighed four ounces, and measured 7 1/2 inches in circumference on way and 6 1/2 the other.

Bloomfield Advocate: Upon returning from Millersport last Friday evening, between the above place and Newport, W. A. Spangler, Esq., and wife of this place, met with an accident. Their team ran into a snow drift and the horses in their struggles badly tore the harness. Mr. Spangler was unable to extricate himself and team, and help had to be summoned from a nearby farm house. Mr. Spangler was taken ill during the excitement and has been confined to his bed since his return home on Saturday. He is recovering. His last Easter Daily New Era of the 20th ult., gives a long account of the experience of Rev. J. W. Meninger in the blizzard of Sunday evening, the 19th ult. Rev. Mr. Meninger and D. H. Heitsch was returning to Lancaster from Manheim, where he had preached, when the storm broke upon them. The blankets and robes were stripped from them and with difficulty recovered. Their sled was upset three times, and Mr. Heitsch lost his hat and was almost frozen. When they arrived at Lancaster the gentlemen were almost exhausted as was their faithful animal. Last Thursday, W. O. Reierick, of the firm of Gilliland & Reierick, commission merchants of this place, took to New York and disposed of the following skins: 31 red fox, 29 grey fox, 1 wild cat, 3 domestic cats, 11 mink, 58 muskrat, 29 coon, 246 muskrat, 156 opossum, 4 bear—548 in all. This is probably the largest assortment of choice skins ever sent from this county.

R., and name of the Hotel at which the Regiment will have quarters. If members of any other Regiment of the Division living in Juniata county have not been supplied with orders will write me. I will try to supply them. Member-comrades, the 25th of March, 1893, and come to this reunion; a pleasant time is anticipated. Thos. H. Metzger, Pleasant View, Pa.

Tribute of Respect. The Sons of Temperance of Mifflintown, passed the following resolutions in memory of sister Mrs. Eva Stewart, deceased: Resolved: That the members of this division do express their deep regret, and profound sorrow over the death of the sister. Resolved: In recognition of the sister being an active member of this division, and also a charter member, we do under our friendship in behalf of our sister and to the friends of the same, that her name shall always be held in kind remembrance of the members of this division, and that the active influence she has left here in our midst shall be felt for years to come. Inasmuch as she has past all the honors of this division and is taken from us into that glorious heaven of rest which awaits all those that are faithful and true, and may the blessing of God rest upon the family that she has left, and upon our division of Sons of Temperance for ever. Resolved: That these resolutions be printed in the county papers, and a copy be sent to the mother of our sister. Committee: JAMES J. HOBBS, MISS RUTHIE GRESHAM, WILLIAM HARRITY.
