

Subscription, $1.50 per annum in advance...

Tuscarora Valley Railroad.

Trains on the Tuscarora Valley Railroad will run as follows:

SHORT LOCALS.

Men's summer coats 25 cents at Meyers.

The banks will be closed on Decoration Day.

You can buy a nice boy's suit for 75c at Meyers.

A new range. See testimonials in another column.

Daniel Pannabaker is having his house enlarged.

J. H. Simons is a candidate for County Treasurer.

Miss Ellen Howe spent Sunday with friends in Lewistown.

W. H. Zellers is announced as a candidate for Prothonotary.

Distant relatives in Chicago are unfortunately distant just now.

J. A. McKee, Esq., of Lewistown, spent a day in town last week.

The thermometer registered 86 degrees in the shade on Monday.

The wonder of the age Meyers' $3 mens' suits. Call to see them.

Chas. Adams, druggist at Newport, spent in this place on Sunday.

The growing wheat crop in Snyder county is said to be promising.

This far every report concerning the coming peach crop is favorable.

Newport is getting its water from Buffalo mountain three miles distant.

Eva Parker of Washington, D. C., is visiting acquaintances in this place.

Contentment without riches is better than riches without contentment.

It requires three months of favorable weather to make good corn and oats.

Go to Meyers' for your summer hats. The largest stock to select from.

Colonel A. K. McClure will deliver Decoration Day address at Millers-town.

Morgan Yeaster has sold his draying business to Ed Swartz & Howard Emery.

Some one wants to know why people prefer middle and back pews in a church.

Dr. Whitner of Newport was a visitor to his mother in this town on Monday.

A mass of laurel killed eight sheep for James D. Williams of Milford township.

Mifflintown people are talking about bridging the Susquehanna at that point.

Editor Wm Jackman and daughter Martha spent last week in Washington, D. C.

If the World's Fair is to be open on Sunday why not run every other fair on Sunday.

Some days ago J. S. Kenopp of near Acufemia had a horse to choke to death on oats.

The average price realized on horses at the Wilson sale last Thursday, was $114.50.

Squire Mertz of McVeytown, spent several days among his Juniata friends last week.

The frost on Saturday morning was supplemented by a heavy rain on Saturday evening.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church is in session in Washington, D. C.

C. P. Tiers, Superintendent of the Tuscarora Valley Railroad was in town last Thursday.

Blount county Prohibitionists will hold a county convention in Bloomington next Saturday.

The time of the running of two passenger trains westward has been changed. See time table.

This is the latest corn planting season known in many years. A great deal of corn is yet to plant.

Rev. J. R. Henderson and Rev. M. L. Drumm are among those who were on fishing excursions this week.

Charles B. Crawford says that the report that he is an applicant for the town collectorship, is not correct.

Wm. H. Barclay has opened a blacksmith shop at Reed's Gap. Mr. Barclay spent several years in the Smith business in Altoona where he was a specialty of horse shoeing. He is now prepared to do all kinds of work in his line at reasonable prices.

Some one informed a prominent citizen of our town that turpentine was good for galls. He procured the turpentine in an oil can, captured a spring "tree" bee, and squirted turpentine into its throat, and in a few minutes his chicken was dead. He is now looking for his informant.

Comparisons are said to be odious, and for that reason it is said should not be made, but with that a man from the country the other day said: "Why do you town people always talk about our country roads. Your roads or streets are not as good as the main roads in the country. Do quit talking about country roads at least till you get better roads in town."

Men's working pants, 75 cents at Meyers.

Hard to do, meet a man with a cold and not suggest a remedy.

The best sugar industry, doubled itself in the United States last year.

Samuel I. Stoner has become a student at law with J. N. Keller, Esq., in visiting the Misses Loudon at East Point.

You can always tell when one is jealous or envious of another by the talk gotten off.

The communion of the Lord's Supper will be observed in the Dunker church at Goodville, Fayette Twp., on the 26th and 27th of May.

"The Juniata Conference of the Lutheran Synod of Central Pennsylvania will meet in the Liverpool charge, McKees' church, Rev. J. J. Minemer, pastor, on the 12th of June."

The letters remaining in the Mifflintown post office uncalled for the week ending May 20 were for H. C. Pierce, Jno. W. Stevens, Miss Amanda J. Watts.

An electrician says that before another generation has passed away, electricity will be used to cool houses in summer time, and heat them in winter time.

The Cannery Company have a well of good water at their plant, but to secure the best water, they have made provision to supply themselves with Macedonia water.

Rev. Joseph Kelly of Williamsburg, Rev. Mr. Bain of Altoona, Judge Brislin of Clearfield and Judge Landis of Hollidaysburg, represent Huntingdon Presbytery now in session in Washington, D. C.

A number of people from town attended the entertainment given by the Jacob Thomas singing class at the Grove last Saturday evening.

"The Moonstone farmers in Manitoba, to whom the Dominion Government loaned nearly $100,000 18 years ago, to enable them to emigrate to farming lands in Manitoba, have repaid the debt with interest."

Mrs. Susan Shellenberger, wife of G. D. Shellenberger, died on the morning of the 14th inst., at her home near McAlisterville, aged 78 years, 6 months and 10 days.

A boy's cigarette fell among the floor timbers of the Market street bridge across the Susquehanna river at Harrisburg last Sunday.

Lewisburg has a sensation over the elopement of a 40 year old doctor with a 21 year old Selinsgrove girl.

One hundred thousand people assembled about and in the vicinity of the gates of the World's Fair at Chicago on Sunday.

Newport News of May 18th, says: "A lady called on a lump of snow-dust the other day. It has had a hacking cough for a year or more, and feared that his lungs were affected. He is greatly rejoiced to be relieved of the foreign substance from his lungs."

The days of the baggage smasher are about over for transportation companies have issued orders to their employees not to handle baggage in a careless way.

Harriet E. Hall of Waynesboro, Ind., says: "I owe my life to the great South American Nerveine. I had been in bed for five months from the effects of an exhausted Stomach, Indigestion, Nervous prostration and a general shattered condition of my whole system."

The Bloomsfield, Perry County Democrat of the 17th inst., says: "The fields of wheat have much improved in appearance within a week, and although the crop may fall somewhat short of the average in this country, it is likely to be larger than was anticipated a month ago."

The late spring has thrown the farmers a month back with their work, and that keeps them from work at road repairs this year.

An exchange remarks: September next, the government will cease the business of printing envelopes for business purposes, and the $250,000 annually paid for this work will then be distributed among the country printers.

The late spring has thrown the farmers a month back with their work, and that keeps them from work at road repairs this year.

An exchange remarks: September next, the government will cease the business of printing envelopes for business purposes, and the $250,000 annually paid for this work will then be distributed among the country printers.

One day last week while Isaac Sieber was driving two horses hitched to a wagon up the river road from Port Royal to Millin, a train of cars frightened one of the horses that in his efforts to get away he jumped over the other horse and fell down over the bank into the river taking Mr. Sieber and his horse with him.

Colonel Robinson was calling on his Republican friends in this section last week.

Wm. H. Barclay has opened a blacksmith shop at Reed's Gap.

Reed's Gap Cleanings.

The whitewash brigade have about completed their work for this spring, and things around our town presents a shining appearance.

Colonel Robinson was calling on his Republican friends in this section last week.

The Dankers are holding their national conference at Muncie, Indiana, this week.

The bill to allow eel catching in fish baskets in the streams of the commonwealth has passed the Legislature.

The lowlands in Titusville, Pa., were flooded last week. People took refuge in the second stories of their houses.

One of the newest machines is the one that plants two rows of tobacco or cabbage plants at a time, pulled by a horse.

Vegetation made giant strides in growth the past week as if to gain what it lost during the cold backward spring.

The Jacobs heirs have had a new house built on their farm near town, and are putting up new fences. It is a good farm.

Mrs. Sarah E. Miller, of Delaware township, wife of Benjamin Miller, deceased, died last Sunday, aged about 63 years.

The Lewistown Free Press names George E. Heimbach as its banner subscriber, having paid the paper in advance to 1895.

Morgan Thomas of West Chester is visiting his uncle and aunt, Jacob Thomas and Mrs. Thomas and family in Fernham.

Last Thursday, May 18, was so cool that shawls and overcoats were worn by people who were not engaged in active physical work.

Lieutenant Burchfield and B. F. Burchfield, Esq., were to McAlley's fort, Huntingdon county, on Sunday attending the funeral of a relative.

The Lewistown Free Press is against the State paying the several counties for the bridges that were swept away by the June flood of 1893.

John a 17 year old son of Solomon Doughman, living near Doyles Mills, died suddenly of cramp on Sunday morning. He had only been ill about two days.

Humphrey's Specific No. 7, cures Coughs, Colds and Bronchitis. The relief is quick, the cure perfect. Price 25c. For sale by all druggists. March 22, '93.

Farmers and land owners will watch the oats that was sowed the last days of May. If it matures it will be fit to harvest in the closing days of August.

The man who devotes his spare time peddling falsehoods, may do some harm, but he is sure of being found out and closed among the people he belongs to.

Pelt on human and horses and all animals cured in 30 minutes by Weoford's Sanitary Lotion. This never fails. Sold by L. Banks & Co. Druggists, Millintown, Pa. Oct. 1, '93.

Mrs. Kinzer, wife of W. H. Kinzer, died at the home of her husband near Oakland Mills, May 5, 1893, aged 38 years. She was a daughter of John B. Dentine, who moved from Chester Co., to Juniata Co., in 1859.

The Democratic announcements for County Commissioner are Joseph Sheesley and W. K. McLaughlin; for County Treasurer, T. H. McClure; for Prothonotary, George H. Mastin; John W. Hibbs, County Chairman, J. Howard Neady.

"A democrat cannot vote at the republican primary election by saying that he will vote for a special republican, if the republican be placed on the ticket, but a democrat can vote at the republican primary election if he will be qualified that he will vote the republican ticket at the general election, and this rule should hold good with republicans, who want to vote the democratic ticket."

Harriet E. Hall of Waynesboro, Ind., says: "I owe my life to the great South American Nerveine. I had been in bed for five months from the effects of an exhausted Stomach, Indigestion, Nervous prostration and a general shattered condition of my whole system."

The Bloomsfield, Perry County Democrat of the 17th inst., says: "The fields of wheat have much improved in appearance within a week, and although the crop may fall somewhat short of the average in this country, it is likely to be larger than was anticipated a month ago."

The late spring has thrown the farmers a month back with their work, and that keeps them from work at road repairs this year.

An exchange remarks: September next, the government will cease the business of printing envelopes for business purposes, and the $250,000 annually paid for this work will then be distributed among the country printers.

The late spring has thrown the farmers a month back with their work, and that keeps them from work at road repairs this year.

An exchange remarks: September next, the government will cease the business of printing envelopes for business purposes, and the $250,000 annually paid for this work will then be distributed among the country printers.

One day last week while Isaac Sieber was driving two horses hitched to a wagon up the river road from Port Royal to Millin, a train of cars frightened one of the horses that in his efforts to get away he jumped over the other horse and fell down over the bank into the river taking Mr. Sieber and his horse with him.

Colonel Robinson was calling on his Republican friends in this section last week.

Reed's Gap Cleanings.

The whitewash brigade have about completed their work for this spring, and things around our town presents a shining appearance.

Colonel Robinson was calling on his Republican friends in this section last week.

little girl which came to his home some time since.

W. H. Barclay has erected a neat little portico to the front of his dwelling which adds much to the appearance of the same.

Thomas M. Andrews started for Peoria, Illinois, on Saturday for this week. It will be Tom's first ride in the cars.

Miss Madge Kirk has been suffering with neuralgia, but at present is feeling better.

We remember hearing of a young lady who seemed to think so much of her chickens that she went into their house, and spent part of the afternoon with them.

Quan Y. Arahana, a native of Persia, delivered a lecture, on Persian life in the Presbyterian church, at McCulloch's Mill's last Sabbath.

Miss Minnie Heimbach of Mansion, Pa., in company with her uncle spent a day at her home in this place, this week. Miss Minnie's many friends regret her stay was not longer.

Reed's Gap, Pa., May 19, 1893.

Notice.

The Washington Club of Fayette is holding their hall in McAlisterville, on Monday evening, May 29, 1893, by order of the President.

Music Lessons.

Miss Louise K. Jackson will return to her home in Millintown from Boston in June after having spent two years at the New England Conservatory of Music under the best instructors of piano. She will start a class in this place as soon as she comes home.

Tribute of Respect.

The Juniata Drum Corps of Van Dyke, passed the following resolution on the death of our brother member.

Whereas: It has pleased Almighty God in his mysterious Providence to so suddenly call from earth to eternity our brother and member Robert Maurice Brant, who has been a faithful member of the Juniata Drum Corps, and taking a active part in every good work pertaining to the corps.

Resolved: That while we bow in humble submission to the will of him who doeth all things well we deeply and sincerely mourn the removal of our friend and member thus early in life.

Resolved: That in view of his sudden death, we as a drum-corps, do hereby tender our sincere sympathy to the bereaved family, and pray that God will comfort them in their affliction.

Resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the brother and sister, and be placed on the minutes of the drum corps and published in the county papers.

M. E. LEBENS, CHAS. SNOFFER, GEORGE RAFF, CALVIN SMITH, Committee.

Testimonials.

We, the undersigned citizens of Williamsburg, Pa., learn that the gentleman who represent the justly celebrated Steel and Malleable Iron Ranges, manufactured by the Wrought Iron Range Company, of St. Louis, Mo., are about to leave our town, after having thoroughly canvassed all the territory, near and around us.

These gentlemen are from Bedford, Pa. They were situated there, for a month, and during that time, sold over four car-loads of the "House-Comfort," Cooking Ranges, and always conducted themselves in a gentlemanly manner. This is vouched for by some of the best men in Bedford, such as:

Haver Book, proprietors of the Bedford House.

J. A. SAMP, proprietor Arandale Hotel.

J. A. CLARK, M. D.

J. W. LESSEE, hardware merchant.

D. W. PROSSER, county treasurer.

J. E. SHUES, hardware merchant.

B. F. MASS, post master.

ROBERT C. McNAMARA, attorney at law.

J. G. HARTLEY & Co., bankers, and many others.

D. I. LEATHERMAN, M. D.

J. E. EATON, M. D.

Williamsburg, Pa., May 18, 1893.

DIED:

BENGE—On the 19th inst., Geo. Henry Berger, infant son of Charles E. and Mary Berger. Interment in Union Cemetery on Sunday.

MIFFLINTOWN MARKETS.

Butter ..... 21

Eggs ..... 12

Ham ..... 10

Chowder ..... 08

Lard ..... 06

Sides ..... 05

MIFFLINTOWN GRAIN MARKET.

Wheat ..... 68

Corn in ear ..... 50

Oats ..... 32

Rye ..... 65

Cloverseed ..... $1.00

Timothy seed ..... $1.50

Flax seed ..... 1 00

French ..... 05

Chow ..... $1.50 a hundred

Middlings ..... 1 50

Grounds ..... 1 25

Chow ..... $1.50 a hundred

American Suit ..... $10 to 12

PHILADELPHIA MARKETS, May 22d, 1893.

Wheat 75 to 78c; oats 40 to 42c; but 13 to 15 50 a ton; butter 12 to 25c a lb; eggs 15 to 16c a doz; corn 35c a bush; spring chickens, 20 to 35c a piece; live hens 13 to 14c a lb; yellow 4 to 5c a lb old potatoes 70 to 85c a bush; new potatoes $3 to $5 a barrel; southern cabbage $1.75 to $2 a crate; milk cows $25 to $50; beef cattle $3 to 5 a lb; spring lambs $3 to $6.50; clipped sheep 3 to 5c a lb; clipped lambs 5 to 7c a lb.

SAW MILLS, ENGINES.

Improved Variable Speed Feed. Send for Catalogue and Special Price.

A. B. ALQUIR, York, Pa. May 10 '93, 13c.

H. P. DERR, PRACTICAL DENTIST.

will be made.

All work guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction. Terms, strictly cash.

H. P. DERR, Practical Dentist.

THE MILD POWER CURES.

HUMPHREYS' VETERINARY REMEDY.

1- Fever, Cholera, Typhoid, Dysentery, Diarrhoea, Cholera, etc.

2- Worms, Worm Fever, Worm Colic, etc.

3- Diarrhoea, Cholera, Typhoid, etc.

4- Croup, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, etc.

5- Whooping Cough, etc.

6- Stomachic, Indigestion, etc.

7- Catarrh of the Bladder, etc.

8- Urinary Calculi, etc.

9- Stranguria, etc.

10- Hematuria, etc.

11- Gonorrhoea, etc.

12- Syphilis, etc.

13- Scrophulous Ulcers, etc.

14- Erysipelas, etc.

15- Carbuncles, etc.

16- Ecthyma, etc.

17- Eczema, etc.

18- Prurigo, etc.

19- Scabies, etc.

20- Ringworm, etc.

21- Tinea, etc.

22- Alopecia, etc.

23- Pityriasis, etc.

24- Psoriasis, etc.

25- Erythema, etc.

26- Dermatitis, etc.

FORWARD, ONWARD, UPWARD

In the line of progress—that's our policy. Success attends our efforts.

SPRING CLOTHING FOR MEN THE BEST MADE

WE CAN PLEASE YOU IN A SPRING SUIT.

Ours is the stock from which to select your Spring Suit.

$5 TO $20.

SUITS—Four different shades of Bannockburn Cheviots, Single or Double Breasted Suits and Outwears; the popular Tweed and Corkscrew Suits; English Whipcords, Bird's-eye, etc., challenged for workmanship or fit. Your choice $8 to $12.

SPRING CLOTHING FOR BOYS.

Not a house in the county anticipates the needs of young America more eagerly than we do.

A beautiful All-wool, Dark Blue or Black Cheviot Swiss or Irish Woolen Double-Breasted Suit—a rare bargain—ages 4 to 14, $2 75.

A genuine Turtleneck or Crew Neck Cheviot Suit, blue or black, lined with fine Italian Cloth or Serge, $5.

Imported fabrics in Boys' Suits, 4 to 14 years, including the English Worsted, German Turtleneck or French Serge, the correct style, a finished fit and finish for $10 garment, but our price is $7.

Our Hat Department for this Spring Season is complete, we have all the new styles at the lowest prices.

SPRING PANTS.

Never did we exhibit a grander assortment than that which now graces our tables.

It embraces all the new and nobby stripes and checks, both foreign and domestic with a price range from $1 50 to $6 50.

FERD MEYERS,

the wholesale and retail Clothier, Bridge St., Millintown, Penna.

1865, ESTABLISHED