One morning, bright with diame ad dew, ding in the oak

An anger of the spring
Went figing o'er the wood, and dropped
A gariand from her wing.
Then came a malden newly wed,
The vell upon her hair,
And pressed her cheek a ratnet the flowers.
And left her blushes there,

"Do You Feel Thirsty, Father?"

BY MARGARET SPENCER.

"Aunt Luranda Brown! There it must be on temperance; but make it into some chamber of necromancy funny! We are quite delinged in tears belonging to mythical history. month,' Perfectly absurd retell you one this minute, and it's true embellished with they wheels, Aunt Luranda folded her hands over her white apron, put her spees on the top of her head, and said: Reuben Cliff was born in our town. His father and his grand father were called good, great force.

used to worry a good deal about but his prosperous business and his entire devotion to his family led her to think him "too much of a man and a gentleman to be a drunkard."

Twelve years passed, Reuben's little Annie was ten, and Bob eight years old. The b by died that winter, Little by little Ecuben went down, tal he lay in the streets. He was nervous and easily intoxicated, and for three every day until he almost lived at he his place of business. Really, Aunt Lurinda, 1 don't see Anything funny. Well I see it childish rhymes and nursery songs. Abything the sorrowful

One night late in the fall, as your prayer meeting, we stopped at Reuben's house. We knew Lucy had gone

What a sight! There on the bare floor lay Renben Cliff, his hair tossed about, his face red, and his ever knelt Annie; a large im diener was in her hand, a bucket full of water stood close beside her. Bub knelt on the other side; his face all aglow with excitement and responsibility. He held a small tin funnel to his father's lips, putting it inst inside his mouth. Annie slowly poured a stream of water from it should go down her father's throat. Uncle leaned against the house for support, and I stuffed my shawl in my mouth. Bob ramed up often to look i his father's eyes, but they were still shut, Another and another dipper-

"Bob, it don't quite all go d wn." "A little runs over, but you spilled als neck, over the dirty coat and hand kerchief, the water ran in tiny streams knees and said decidedly, "There Till bet father's full,"

"Yes, there went another drop go down. That's certain. But Hob are you sure that ball a bucket full is

Bob's candid face was more than walked away a minute to laugh aloud. see father full. I heard her say this morning, when he said he was faint and sick, and must have a drink. He came forth in magnificent volume and the hips by means of several small and the said and transpose of popular airs, Levy's favor'ts cornet the regular Syrian costume. In this the printer's point of view, are those touch:

"A was so thirsty, 'I wish you could be execution. It had been recorded by gores on each side. To the waist andering through a meadow of apparfilled up once Reuben, and never ask the North American Phonograph Com-big temperance societies in this town turned regularly, not saying a word, that Aunt Luranda goes to so much, but faith ully recording every syllable that Aunt Luranda goes to so much, Father wont want another drop, I uttered, with every tone and inflecfaction, Then we walked in. The

"What are you doing, children?" father used to go to the saloons all the ime, and be in the streets, and was it?" always drinking. Now he's cured!

He's never thirsty for whisky or wine, or beer. Mr. Gough told Sally's the gentleman, puzzled. "I know He's never thursty for whisky or wine. mother that whenever a man was once every one here, but I can't recognize filled up with cold water till it ran down out of his mouth in streams, it before." he would never want to drink whisky again, never. They poured a bucketfull of cold water down Sully's father,

"Yes indeed. We have. For once, father's got enough to drink!" Tom sound is under the control of the phonosigued and added, "He won't be graph.—The Phonogram. thirsty when mother comes this time,

Well Mary, your, uncle couldn't talk; he walked into the other room, we must go, Luranda," wet and miserable.

Then the little girl stood close by her miserable father and said, "You see father, Sallie cured her father of wanting to drink whiskey by getting him very, very full of good cold water; so you see (now don't be cross with us father), you see Tom and me—we just filled you full of cold water, too! And now father, do you feel thirsty?"

Reuben Cliff took his little cold water doctor in his arms and fairly shouted "No, no, 1 am not thirsty; I never will be thirsty again for anything but cold water!" "That was three years ago, Mary. Reuben can beat John B. Gough in making temperance speeches, and says he was 'full for once!' As his little Bob said 'once and forever!' 'Our temperance work gets bigger and more blessed every day, and Renben Cliff is our leader." Washington, D. C.

HOW MUSICAL RECORDS ARE MADE.

Entering the apartment, the eye benever was, nor ever will be a funny holds a scene so strange and unusual as temperance story! The editor writes to impress the beholder with the mome, 'Please send us a story, not sad; mentary delu-ion that he has penetrated Great demijohns, glass jars, storage quest. A funcy story-of-temperance." and primary batteries, innumerable "Mary, don't look so forlorn; I can small-sized and curious looking boxes as the gospel; happened here in this and governor balls, stand on all sides, very temperance town. If the editor while in the c-nter of the room are of the four different styles of walkof the "Breezy News" don't laugh, then placed two grand pi mos, fronting which lang costumes recommended by the e is a hopeless case. That's all!" at close range, p destals or tripods are committee on dress of the national located, surmounted by huge funnels council of women, one at least is niece from England. She lived close with open mouths ready to catch the trim, neat, artistic and withal womto Bos on, and wrote for the news- sounds produced by the instruments. It anly, although truly the skirt is unpapers, and was "smart"; she was mak- will be seen that the horns are manufac- conventionally short, says the Chiing her uncle's family a visit in Ohio. tured with large apertures to receive cago Post. This costume is in four Aunt Luranda totaled her hands over sound, and taper off at the opposite end pieces and is of one colored material.

their men on the farm whiskey and us, "What is a musical record," To rum, sometimes, and took a hittle too shich we reply, in technical language, leggins extend up over the knees. World's Fair are women of weather part of the scholar or teacher. While this costume is, of course, example of the scholar or teacher. town meetings. Renten was used to graph after it has received the almost ceptional in being short of skirt, it is has aimed to accomplish is in the wine on the table and sideboard. Milk imperceptible undulations of the re- one that recommends itself, not only line of walking costumes. punch and eggnog for company and cording needle, as it catches and trans- because it is comfortable, convenient f-rs the sounds played from the instru- and hygienic, but from the fact that or indeed gowns for the house or any are used to seeing it at home they'll tion of the phonograph are now well verse criticism.

Rown to the public, but in order to Another costu known to the public, but in order to then be love of a glass now and then, quired of an especially popular comare ranged in a semi-circle around the fitting it closely.

years had been taking a little more the phonograph plays a concealed though saloons. I can't tell you Mary, about shape of a phonographic doll-within Lucy, about Keulen's discharge from whose they body a phonograph is concealed, by turning the crank of which the youthful image is made to repeat

The making of musical records is an coming now. I'm going to leave out industry which has assumed enormous proportions, and special buildings have ancle and I were going home from well-known fact that many excellent musicians have given up their normal to take some sewing home, and the profession to carry on this new art, as children would be slone. The front door was shut, but the curtains were not drawn down, so we looked in the and some very beautiful music is thus set before the public. This is a luxury to many who do not reside in the netropelis, where alone they would be enabled to listen to a Patti, a Paderewski, a Duse, or a Bernhardt.

American Phonograph Company is in- rial, or four of medium single-width creased by this means, and the best goods, and for the length measure talent is secured to furnish music for the from under the heel to the usual reople. Improvements are constantly waist line. The divisions begin just

E 'ison's perfected phonograph.

The electrical wizard's productions are all known, in a general way, and the usual idea of the phonograph is that it can register human speech and reproluce it. Of the wonderful power and "Oh yes, Annie, that's a lot of water, it tell you. But—it does take a good deal to fill such a great big man, you know."

well-nigh limitless concernit power and well-nigh limitless concernit power and well-nigh limitless present had not the fainiest suspicton. They were, theresepreducing funnel was placed before your uncle could star He just the phonograph and the cylinder was et in motion.

pany and sent from the laboratory at "Poor mother," and Annie sighed, Orange, N. J. Then everybody was Bob, we've done more than all the allowed to talk into the cylinder It tion. When all had delivered their She put her two small hands on little monologues, separate ransmit'ers her slim waist, set her head to one side | were given to each person present, and bit, and drew a long breath of satis. the reproduction of their words began. All were acquainted with the differfloor was covered with they streams of est voices and one of the gentlemen, water running in every direction. The far quicker than the rest to catch the msn was dead drunk. Soberly as I different tones, told whose voice was being reproduced immediately upon each change. Half a dozen of Annie said enthusiastically, "Why monologues had been repeated, when jou see, Annt Luranda, Sally White's he exclaimed:

"There's an odd voice. Whose is

"Are you sure?" they asked him.

"Pos.tive; whose is it?"

thirsty since. Saily told me—herself.

So Tom and I have cured father!"

And so it was. A curious thing about the human voice is the fact that when a man heave "Your own," was the response. Tom leaned over his father's face and faithfully imitated, he cannot recognize

Positively, everything that relates to PROF. BAEYER, of Munich University, has been rummaging around and shook, and coughed, and took a among the mummy graves of Achmin, glass of water, and at last said, "Come, and he has made a study of more recommended these costumes-Fran- pearance is to women; it is a general than archaeological interest. He has ces E. Russell, Annie Jenness Miller, passport to favor-a letter of recom-We couldn't wait to see the poor exhumed the remains of an embalmed Frank Stuart Parker, and Octavia mendation written in a language mother come home; but she told us Esyptian princess, and with them : W. Bates - together with several that every person understands. The she and little Annie were early in the lot of cosmetics used for improving other women prominent in the na- best of men have often injured themmorning building a fire, and Reuben the complexion and brightening the tional council of women — have selves by irritability and consequent Not a dry rag on him, cold, eyes three or four thousand years ago of these costumes during the World's abilities have frequently succeeded into the Stomach distressed me. I He is submitting the ingredients or Fair. That they will succeed in pop- by their agreeable and pleasing man- could not sleep. I had taken all Lucy left him alone with Annie. He stood on his feet, cursed and swore, staggered to a seat by the fire. At those of the benefit of the advantage, and by far the better the advantage, and by far the better ust Flower and took it. I am to-day ust Flower and took it. discovery indicates that, so far as braid, and, as a famous doctor calls world.

KISSING THE ROD.

BY JAMES WILLTCOMBE RILEY

O heart of mine, we shouldn't Worry so!
What we've missed of calm we couldn't Have you know!
What we've met of stormy pain,
And of sorrow's driving rain,
We can better meet again
If it blow.

We have have erred in that dark hour
We have known
When our tears fell with the shower,
All alone—
Were not shine and shower blent
As the gracions Master meant?
Let us temper our content
With his own.

For, we know, not every morrow Can be sad;
So, forgetting all the sorrow
We have had,
Let us fold away our fears,
And put by our foolish tears,
And through all the coming ye just be glad.

Indianapolis Journal.

NEW REFORMED DRESS. DOWNS RECOMMENDED FOR

WOMAN'S WEAR.

Short Skirts for Walking. Of the four different styles of walkblain, well-to-do men. They gave their men on the farm whiskey and us. "What is a musical record." To buttoned as are gaiter tops. These

Another costume suggested by this When a number of records are re- This gown has two box plaits in the position, a dozen or more phonographs lows the outline of the figure without

NEAT, TRIM, AND TASTREUL.

The musical repertoire of the North full breadths of double-width mate-At the waist this skirt is either gathered or plated rather full in lower gathered edge. A garment one."

Somewhat scanter of this sort is More than a thousand women have

They were, there- short princess dress. "the modified Syrian." This, while proposed to circulate this document much like the Syrian, has the division beginning under the turn of the gested. head—to think.

"Father do you feel thirsty this woman nature is concerned, the morning?" a little sweet voice asked.

"Tell me about it Annie," he said

"Tell me about it Annie," he said

may not be able to confidently expect it. Anything in the nature of a uniform or a dress exclusively for business women will never be successful so long as human nature remains what it is. In the work an- ad and stimulated by means of the Ed-

STREAM COSTUMB The National Council of Women Suggests this fact has been recognized, systems and exercises written in differ-Some Sensible and Hygienic Costumes The report of the committee opens entlanguages-German, French, Latin other forms of exercise. The further ing syllables indefinitely, until the ear statement is made that anything in of the pupil has become familiar with the form of a uniform is deprecated; that they desire to make their recommendations such a to insure a large liberty of choice, and that they one may survey the faces and form of now be alive if it were not for this medicine."

Another interesting feature of the educational exposition is the collection of parilla have done for ms. I am now well and can walk without a cane. I feel grateful to dulged. It should be borne in mind that they one may survey the faces and form of now be alive if it were not for this medicine." from the bondage in which fashior recitations and musical performances.

has so long confined them.

In this connection it is of interest all ages, valuable assistance these short costumes during the Mistakes of pronunciation are rectified leggins extend up over the knees. World's Fair are women of wealth by this means, without fatigue on the As to evening or reception tollets Reuben's father said, "If the boys went into it, The theory and operatit is not calculated to challenge ad function, the trailing robe of rich material with all the features of the Reuben was a handsome boy, and at twenty-two a fine, sober, manly fellow. He married my dearest Sunday school scholar, Lucy Chapin. She day school scholar, Lucy Chapin. She conventional full dress gown is apnot set aside one jot or tittle of the conventionalities of life. In fact, dozen at a time, and these are then duplicated by a secret process. The duplicates are as clear and excellent as the originalis.

There are a secret process are the duplicates are as clear and excellent as the originalis.

The directions for making the obtained by Miss Barry, of Marshall the opportunity you enjoy of seeing the younge that are the y cently had handsome evening gowns duplicated by a secret process. The duplicates are as clear and excellent as the originals.

Use originals.

Which was so much indeed to hygienic and yet that process their must be one of those limit, and latest modes. Some of those a few dollars to space for a season's outfit, and latest modes. Some of those are well as few dollars to space for a season's outfit, and latest modes. There are various mechanical wants which closely resembles full Turkish evening dresses are not only rich and would be of so little account that she would contrive I to amuse the public, in which trousers, are as follows: Take two elegant but are so truly artistic that receive little attention; but when you said, they would delight the soul of ; in one of your letters a few months ago, that

In the interests of this reform, in gathered or plated rather full in front and very full behind, leaving it somewhat scant in front. Pockets may be placed on either side in front and beautiful use of the organs of the hips. When buttoned on a skirt the placket is in the back. However, this costume may be made as a one-piece costume by carrying tresembled a small horizontal engine. The spectators were guests who had been invited to an exhibition of E tison's perfected phonograph.

"We, whose names are signed be low, consent to give our influence in favor of an improvement in woman's dress which will allow her the free and healthful use of the organs of her body when walking or taking exercise. In signing this paper no one of us becomes responsible for the sunday following his birth the suggestions of any one else, nor do we promise to wear or to indorse any particular style of dress. We simply give our influence to help start a strong and healthy movement in the church of use from the church of the temperature four feet favor of an improvement in woman's favor of an improvement in woma "We, whose names are signed be button to the waist. In the front it may open in the front fullness. With somewhat scanter of this sort is signed this document, among whom recommended to be worn under a signed this document, among whom are many who are distinctly conserv-The fourth of these costumes is ative, though well known. It is now

After numerous musical renditions skirt about ten inches lower than in The worst class of authors, from state of the case with a graphic drawers that do not extend quite to it is well known, was a terror to the knee, and the outside material, compositors. The late Rev. J. G. instead of being sewed to a band or Wood was another. When he sent held in place by an elastic, is slightly back his sheets to the press little bits leath is not straightway recorded. manuscript, and, receiving proof af- in sleepy to sit upright. contemporaries.

The Road to Fortune. Civility is a fortune in itself, for a ourteous man often succeeds in life, and that even when persons of ability fail. The history of our own country is full of examples of success obtained by civility. The experience of every man furnishes, if we but recall the past, frequent- instances where conciliatory manners have made the fortunes of physicians, lawyers, divines, politicians, merchants, and indeed individuals of all pursuits. so exceptionally striking. A "gym- In being introduced to a stranger, his 66 nasium dress," not in any important affability or the reverse creates inaspect different from the ordinary stantaneously a proposition in his gymnasium costume, is also sug- favor, or awakens uncons iously a prejudice against him. To men, civ-The committee members who have ilty is, in fact, what a plea-ing ap-

THE EDUCATIONAL PHONO-GRAPH AT THE WORLD'S FAIR.

The Columbian Exposition affords he opportunity of seeing one great ranch of human improvement foster-department of the phonograph, will here present to the public examples of the benefits to be derived in employing his wonderful instrument. Four sub-departments have been or ganized in this branch. The first embraces public school work in which there are questions by the teachers in different studies, and responses on the part of the pupils recorded and reproduced from various schools in the ountry, from the primary grades up to the high schools. Second, there are declamations and ecitations; also musical performances consisting of songs, quartettes and Third, statements from prominent seads of institutions of learning, recorded on cylinders, referring to vari ous methods of school work. Fourth, a display of large numbers dress of the national council of cylinders upon which are recorded that Will Be Shown in Chicago During with the statement that the members have concerned themselves with the phonograph becomes an important endeavoring to devise costumes suit- factor in teaching correct pronunciaable for business hours, for shopping, tion, not only instructing pupils in the marketing, housework, walking and grammar of their tongues, but repeat-Another interesting feature of the > hope to assist in delivering women those whose voices are heard in the The phonograph renders to youth, of that a number of those who have quent repetition of the vocabulary of pledged themselves to wear one of their own or any foreign language.

> > That the phonograph facilitates the efforts of the educator in developing the youthful mind is now proven be yond cavil, but something more than a statement of this fact is necessary in order to convey to the world, at large, a knowledge of the wide and important field of usefulness in which this instrument may be applied.

> > > Brighest Part of My Trip.

The New York fashion correspondent of a outhern paper gives out the following : A lady writes: "I have read your let er a long time, and have often envied you goods of the same quality were really cleaper there than elsewhere, because they sold more which the committee on dress has goods in their two stores than any other firm laken the initiative, the national in New York, and that because they sold more taken the initiative, the national they bought more, and consequently bought cheaper, I determined, if I ever went to New York, I would go to Lord & Taylor's.

"That long-waited for time came in the early autumn, and I found myself standing efore that reat entrance, with those wonderful windows at either side. I summoned my courage and entered, as I suppose tens of ousands of just such timid women as I have done before. My fears were gone in an instant. The agreeable attention put me at my ease at once, and I felt as much at home as though I were in the little country store where my people have 'traded' for nearly a And now, as I wear the pretty things surchased, or see them every day and find hem all so satisfactory, I think of my visit rip to New York."

Porttan Babyhood.

Alice Morse Earle in the Independ. nt, represents the Puritan baby as cit just inside his mouth. Annie poure i a stream of water from dipper, watching carefully that dipper, watching carefully that dig go down her father's throat.

The divisions begin just above the knees, where gores nine inches wide are inserted, with the wide part uppermost, and joined. At the waist this skirt is either.

At the waist this skirt is either. se must have been shivering with ive through their christenings, for he ice had often to be broken in the christening bowl.

Dressed in fine linen, and wrapped n a hand-woven christening blanket the young Puritan received his first chilly welcome into the church. One secord to be found in Judge Sewall's liary of January, 1694, pictures the

"A very extraordinary storm by eason of the falling and dr ving of he snow. Few women could get to lining is attached a pair of loose linen ently chaotic inky cobwebs. Carlyle, meeting A child named Alexander was baptized in the afternoon." It is evident that Alexander must have been of a tough fibre, since his gored and sewed to the lower edge of of paper were gummed along the Norwas the christening day the these drawers. In this way the sup- edges, each containing two or three only Sabbath on which the baby port of the costume from the shoul- lines of writing. Burke was a third, graced the meeting-house. Pur tan ders is secured. In walking the divi- for he returned his proofs in such a women were devoted church goers, sion is not defined in the Syrian cos condition that sometimes the whole and if the mother went, the baby tume, and as the upper part of the had to be set afresh. But Balzac was had to go also. Indeed, we somedress is more conventional it is not the terror of all terrors. With him times hear of a little wooden cage or - it was not a question of resetting frame in the meeting-house to hold once; he would send fifty lines in the babies who were too young feeble, ter proof, would alter and add until Of the dress of these children we he had evolved a story. His correct snow little, but yet enough to prove tions probably cost more than those that they must have been supremely of any dozen, or even twenty, of his miserable. Linen formed the chilly foundation of their attire, thin shorteeved, low-necked shirts. Their loke." zowns were generally shapeless, largeecked sacks of linen or dimity made and embroidered by hand. In summer and winter the baby's read was always closely covered by a cap, often warmly wadded, which was more comforting in cold weather than comfortable in the warmest eason. Yet some of these bables survived, and New England was peopled with nen and women of sturdy fibre.

August

Eight doctors treated me for Heart Disease and one for Rheumatism, but did me no good. I could not stout, hearty and strong and enjoy the best of health. August Flower Naught treads so silent as the foot of saved my life and gave me my health. Mrs. Sarah J Cox, Defiance, O.

It Is Not What We Say

Miss Lizzie May Davis Haverhill, Mass.

Help Except in Hood's Sure It Saved Her Life. "Have been suffering for two years past wit

Nervous Prostration which was brought on by a very severe attack of grip. Had Cold Chills almost every day for nearly three years. Have now taken, on the recommendation of my drug-gist, three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla. What five doctors of both Boston and this city could not do, those three bottles of Hood's Sarsa-

MISS LIZZIE MAY DAVIS, Haverhill, Mass.

MO NO The Favorite TOOTH POWDER *

"Business is the art of Living very way, delusive and dishonest."
What advantage can there be in calling a common wire imitation bed Highly Tompered Steel Wire enuine Pilgrima. Send for Money Saving Primer, Free. Atlas Tack Corporation, Boston.

PILCRIM SPRING

......

In the days when men sold their vives for a small money consideraion, the woman in the case was not lways dissatistled with the changed rder of things. Early in the month of March, 1766. in English carpenter, named Higginson, went into an alchouse for his morning draught; there he met a fel ow carpenter, and their conversation turned on wives. The carpenter. whose name history has not recorded, lamented that he had no wife. Higginson, on the other hand, la nented that he had, and expressed regret that there was no way, exept murder, by which he could rid imself of her. The carpenter assured Higginson.

that there was a way-the old Engish custom that made it quite law ul for a husband to sell his own rib "No one would be such a fool as to ouv mine," sighed Higginson. "I would do so," the other promptly replied, 'and think I had nade a good bargain, too." The husband, just then in a mood o chafe against domestic restraint, denched the bargain on the spot Mrs. Higginson was duly claimed by her new lord, and went willingly enough and lived with him as his

In a few days, however, Higginson either grew tired of his matchless should try "Brown's Bronchial Troches," home or suspected that he had not simple but sure remedy. Sold only in boxes. done right, and went to the other arpenter's house, demanding his wife back. Mrs Higginson strenuously refused to leave her new lord. "A sale is a sale," sald she, "and not a at last quietly resigned his claim, when she was cited to appear before a coroner's jury and identify her husband, who had settled the question by hanging himself. The price paid for the woman is not recorded.

Whether on pleasure bent, or business, take on every trip a bottle of Syrup o. Figs as it acts most pleasanily and effectively on the kidneys, liver and bowels, preventing fevers, headaches and other forms of sickness. For sale

People who own chickens in Hutch-nson, Kan., are compelled by law to inclose them in coops from March to WILL WE HAVE CHOLERA? If such is to be the deplorable state of affairs, it would not be wise to overlook any precautionary measure. The cheapest and best way to improve the sanitary condition of your home is to scrape off the old paper and have new put em. THE FIDELITY WALL PAPER CO., of

WHEN TRAVELING

A calf with a wing growing from its shoulder-blade may be seen on the farm of A. M. Chisholm, near Hecla, South EVERYDAY ETIQUETTE.

The fundamental principle of all travel, where people are liable to meet each other, whether singly or by hundreds, is to turn to the right. Where lines of travel cross, as at the junction

Hood's Cures lines of travel cross, as at the fact the place of definite rules, the place of definite rules. A person should always give preference to the lame or decrepit, to old people, or those carrying heavy or bulky parcels. Their presence upon a busy street may at first thought seem an annoyance; but put yourself in their places!

If it is necessary to walk very rap idly, and there is opportunity for a choice, take a sidewalk where rapidity of movement will interfere with the comfort or safety of as few as possi-

If it is necessary to stop upon a walk, do so in a manner not to annoy those who may be coming after. No thoughtful or refined person will stop to talk with a friend or even a business man in such a manner as to interfere with the progress of others. It is always easy to step out of the traveled way, an still more courteous to turn and walk Nervous Prostration—No sary conference is being held.

young or old-to so dress as to attract attention upon the street. should especially avoid such display of jewelry or extravagant dress as will elicit criticism." Gentlemen should not indulge in loud talk and boisterous laughing upon the street; ladies will not, under any The practice of smoking upon the parilla have done for ms. I am now well and street, universal as it is, is none the men and children, as well as ladies Hood's Pills act easily, yet promptly and to whom the fumes of burning tobacco are little less than poisonous, and it is far from pleasant to have a succession of the unsavory odors wafted into their faces from the respiratory cavities o all sorts of people. It is offensive for one woman t critically scan the dress and "make-up" of another upon the street, or to comment upon her personal appearance for those ill-bred young men who stand or lounge in public places to scan each the opposite sex who member of passes, the only adequate remely is the vigorously applied cane of some stalwart relative of the insulted party. It is not "good form" to eat anyections or food; but it is much less vulgar than to go along with the end of toothpick protruding from the lips. Whistling, humming or singing along the street is only allowable in remote country districts, where no other diversion or companionship is to be found. Walking arm in arm or hand in hand during daylight is now practiced only by country lovers who have come to town to see the sights. In the evenby buying and selling, so men must get money by it. It is a pity so many fail to by country lovers who have come to see that honesty is the best policy. Calling things what they are not is a wrong in ing a lady should usually take a gentleman's arm, when walking with him, especially if the thoroughfare be crowded .- Good Housekeeping,

Its Effect.

In a fire, by the way, one gets curious peeps at human nature, which The buyer is sure to find out that it is throws off all disguises in moments of The buyer is sure to find out that it is not. Such dealers are sure to lose caste and custom. The "PILGRIM" is the best bed made. SEE IT, and you will be convinced.

Exhibited at No. 31 Warren Street, New York;
No. 2 Hamilton Plags, Boston.
For sale by all reliable Dealers.
See Brass Tag Registered Trademark on an continuous Piggins.
See Brass Tag Registered Trademark on an continuous Piggins.
See Brown Narren Street and Continuous Piggins. and ran, leading her brown-eared set-ter. A devoted son and daughter on the top floor dressed warmly their helpless old mother of 80 and waited to carry her if need he, seroes the fire escape. One woman put on a fur-lined cape over her nightdress and came forth with a traveling bag filled with silver. Another put her valuables in her sealskin coat, and finding the smoke not too threatening, fished out her long-tailed coat and the black silk silhouettes of her grandfather and grandmother, which she knew she couldn't replace. Another, who had full as much time in which to act, left all her belongings and fled in her nightdress, blistering her bare feet on the cinders, and ran down the street calling for a carriage. One man contented bimself with a bath robe, while another dressed himself in his four-in-hand tie and a scarf pin.

Transfer Towns "Bruce up" is a fantalizing admonition to those who feel all tired out, without appetite and discouraged. But the way in which Hood's and Sarsaparilla builds up the tired frame and gives a good appetite, is wonderful. Best family cathartic, Hood's Pills.

The hat last worn by Richard Wag uer, with a certificate of genuines attached, is offered for sale in Venice. Hall's Catarrh Cure is a liquid and is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and muchon surfaces of the system. Write for testimonials, free. Manufactured by

F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Since 1840 thirty-seven vessels, of which a part of the name was the "City of," have been wrecked or lost. For 24 years Dobbins' Electric Soap has been imitated by unseruptions so p makers.

B-cause it is best if all and has an in sale. Be sure and get Dobbins' and to other. Your grover has it, or will get it An English corset firm made 838 cores s on orders for men last year.

Use the Frazer Axle Grease, 'tis the best in other. Ask your dealer for it, and take no other A Washington druggist has a sign out announcing "Bargains in Pulls." Sufferers from Coughs, Sore Throat, etc.

Price 25 cts. The first idea of a pneumatic tube was due to Dennis Papin in 1067.

POSTAL GUIDE FOR 1893 Higginson went again and again, but to no purpose, and after a week or two ceased calling. His wife had in t begun to conclude that he had

A Philadelphia taxidermist is appropriately named Stuffer. If afflicted with sore eyes use Dr. Isaac Thompson's Eye-water. Druggists sell at 25c. pet bottle No hearses are used in the City of Mexico. Beecham's Pills instead of sloshy mineral waters. Beecham's—no others. 25 dis. a box. Nails were made by hand previous to Cann's Ridney Cure for and other forms of sickness. For sale in 50 cents and $1 bottles by all leading Heart, Urinary or Liver Diseases, Nervousness, &c. Cure guaranteed. 831 Arch Street, Philad'a. $1 a bottle, 6 for $5, or druggist. 1000 certificates of sures. Try IL. il paintings that were executed by herself and the Prince Consort in their youthful days.

No Alkalies

Other Chemicals W. BAKER & CO.'S BreakfastCocoa which is absolutely pure and soluble. It has more than three time

Sold by Grocers everywhere.

MEND YOUR OWN HARNES

FOR FIFTY YEARS! MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP has been used by Millians of Mothers for their children while Teething for over Fifty Years. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allars all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remesty for diarrhora.

Sole Agent. Sample set of 12 differe by mail, Ze.; storekeepers' discount. AGENTS WANTED ON SALARY

QHORTHAND BY MAIL. Thoroughly taugh

Garfield Tea Overcome results of the lad eating to the lad eating Queen Victoria preserves a number of Cures Constipation

"Use the Means and Heaven will Give you the Blessing." Never Neglect a Useful Article Like rhe Davis Hand Cream Separator and Feed Cooker Combined. Completest of outfits for a dairy farmer. The the strength of Cocca mixed with Starch, Arrownoot of Sugar, and is far more economical, corting less than one cent a cup. It is delicious, nourishing, and mastin property.

CLINCH RIVETS

he leather mor ourr for the hivets. They are atrong ough and durable. Millions now in use

Twenty-five Cents a Bottle.

BLOOD POISON A SPECIALTY.

WOBLE COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION POSTAL CARD, J. KOEHLER or commission, to handle the New Pgten. Chemical ink Erasing Pencil. Agents making $50 per week. Monree Eraser Mi'g Co., Box x 11, La Crosse, Wis.

DENSION Washington, B. C. Successfully Prosecutes Claims.
Late Principal Stammer U.S. Pension Bureau
Syrein last war, 15 adjudicating claims, atty since.

OPIUM Merphine Habit Cured in 10 to 20 days. No pay till cured. DR. J. STEPHENS, Lebanon, Ohio.

SAPOLIO