It is funny to hear the gold bugs talk about the world being over-run with silver in the face of the fact that there is scarcely more than a billion more silver in the world than gold, and taking both gold and silver together there is not enough of it to redeem the coin bonds that are owing Great Britain.

The ground squirrels were troublesome in Wallace county, Kansas, which induced the county commissioners to offer a bounty of 10 cents per scalp. Within a week 13,000 squirrel scalps were brought in, which amounted to $13,000. The Commissioners counter-manded the bounty, and issued bonds to pay for the scalps that had been sent in.

Congressman Sibley of Crawford county, is the only one of the Pennsylvania delegation in Congress who has the ability and courage to stand up for silver money in the council of the nation. He made himself famous in a day—last Thursday—in a speech on free coinage. The people of Pennsylvania are for honest money, gold and silver, and on that point Mr. Sibley though a democrat, has a large majority of the people of the Keystone State at his back.

An exchange remarks: A newspaper man is in some instances like other people. He respects his friends, appreciates a kindness and is always willing to return a favor. In other respects he resembles his fellowmen. He will not continue to put a man on the back, tell what a good man he is, and how much he has done for the town and give him a free business puff every day when the man will not through personal prejudice or otherwise continue to aid in supporting the paper. In other words the man by the man who stands by him. That's about the way of the world, and a newspaper man can't be expected to be so much different from other people.

By the adoption of free coinage of silver the gold of the country will be put into circulation for it will then be clear to all that the price of gold cannot be advanced, and there will be no more use in hoarding it than in hoarding other money. Gold is hoarded now because there is an apprehension that the gold bugs will send it up in price by securing such legislation from Congress that will make it the single standard or medium of exchange.

The Lewistown Chronicle says:—Congressman Leidy has received a letter from one of his constituents enclosing two $5 bills, which had been eaten by grasshoppers, requesting Mr. Leidy to have them re-issued to the Treasury. The letter stated that a farmer hung his vest in the pocket of which was the money, on a fence. When he went to get it the vest was eaten full of holes by the grasshoppers, and the money so damaged as to be of no account.

Mr. J. A. Wheeler

"While Serving My Country" I was taken ill with spinal disease and rheumatism. When I returned home my trouble was still with me, and I was confined to my bed, unable to help myself for 22 months. After taking seven bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla I was well and have not since been troubled with my old complaints. My wife was ill with suffering with headache, dizziness and dyspepsia. She took two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and feels like a new woman." JAMES A. WHEELER, 1209 Division St., Baltimore, Md.
