Teacher's Institute Concert.

Thursday evening, November 30, the Schuman Quartet Concert Company will give an entertainment.

The concert given by the Schuman Quartet Company was attended by a large and appreciative audience.

Chairs were placed in the aisles to accommodate the crowd, and the enthusiasm knew no bounds.

The program was replete with vocal gems, and the twelve numbers listed were expanded to twenty-six by the response to encores.

All the members were excellent soloists, and all are deserving of special mention.

They are certainly the best quartet we have heard here, and should they come again the hall will not be able to accommodate half the crowd that would like to attend.—Toronto (Can.) Globe.

FIGHTING A ROBBER.

WAS IT BRAVERY OR WAS IT A CASE OF FOOLHARDINESS?

A Struggle with the Famous Ed Dalton For the Possession of a $5,000 Money Bag—A Telegrapher's Story of One Winter Night's Experience.

When I read of adventures, there comes to my mind my encounter with a notorious outlaw by the name of Ed Dalton.

For years he had robbed mail coaches and waylaid and murdered travelers who were belated and so unfortunate as to meet him.

I was employed by the Northern Pacific railway as telegraph operator, and it was in the latter part of the winter that the most terrible storm broke upon that section of the country that was ever known.

The wind blew a strong gale from the northwest, and the air was full of snow.

All trains were late, and I had found no time to leave my office and take an express package of $5,000 to the bank for safe keeping.

The station was crowded, and our safe small, so that I usually deposited my money in the bank—nothing to risk it in the office.

I had an order from the dispatcher not to go on a delivery till after No. 4 had passed. This was the western bound limited, due at Cameron at 10 minutes of 11.

It was a lonely night. The wires hummed and sobbed in the wind as though they could not withstand the fury of the storm.

I had finished my work and was sitting half asleep near the stove, which was filled with coal and red as a cherry, when a sensation of some impending danger took possession of me.

Trying to shake it off, I walked to my desk, threw open the key and asked the operator on the "night trick" at Hudson how No. 4 was.

"On time," clicked the instrument in reply, and I stirred the fire, turned the blaze of my lamp higher and sat down again.

For 15 or 20 minutes I sat listening to the monotonous click so musical to the operator's ear, when I became conscious some one was looking through the window, and a thought of the express package flashed through my mind.

At the same instant a crashing of glass was followed by a gruff voice saying: "Move and you are a dead man!"

I did not stir, but realized that I was looking straight into a six shooter. While I was wondering how I could save the money the robber broke out the rest of the window pane and crawled in over my desk.

Oh, for some way to reach my trusty "bulldog," which was lying in full sight under the ticket window. Useless wish! Ordering me to rise, the ruffian calmly took my chair and proceeded to warn his chilled members before "cleaning the room" all the while keeping the revolver pointed at my head.

Glancing around, he sighted my pistol and coolly put it in his pocket. As he rose he said: "Well, now I am ready for business. I will just trouble you for that little package with the red seals that is in your safe."

I was desperate enough to say anything and broke into a loud, harsh laugh as he finished.

"Was ever anything more lucky?" I cried, before he could get to work.

"Why, my friend, I have been waiting for a chance to rob the express company for a month, and if you are bound to take the package we will divide the contents and skip together."

"But I don't talk stuff! Whatever you do be quick about it and look a little on that you play me no trick, or I'll fish you."

"I turned the combination and drew the safe door open, making up my mind to throw myself upon him if he moved his revolver away for an instant. It did not seem likely that opportunity would favor me, but as I took the money from the safe and handed it to him he lowered his weapon.

The critical time had come! If I should fail to overpower the fellow, it meant death for me.

I sprang upon him with the strength of a madman, and so unexpected was my movement that we both went sprawling on the floor, the revolver discharging itself harmlessly as we fell.

The good which Dr. De Motte is doing for the coming generation by his able and instructive lectures cannot be measured. He richly deserved all the praises bestowed upon him by those present. The lecture must be seen and heard to be appreciated fully.—Meadville (Pa.) Republican.

George W. Wilson was appointed Inspector of Election in Patterson, on Monday the 6th inst., to take the place of H. M. Isenberg, who was elected to fill that position at the spring election, and who had become disqualified through his appointment as tax collector in Patterson borough.

Daniel Doller was struck with a club, by a man named Rodgers, last Wednesday at Jack's Creek, 2 miles from Lewistown, from the effects of which he died within 52 hours. The particular cause of the killing is not known here further than it was about some cut wood.

Rodgers has been lodged in Lewistown jail.

"Belleville's council ordered the enforcement of a borough ordinance which prohibits boys under 14 years from being on the streets after 8 o'clock in the evening.

The police were instructed to arrest all such boys, who are on the streets after that hour. This step was taken because of complaints that boys blocked the streets and corners at night and offended passers by with profane and vulgar language."

Newport News.—Rook bass are plentiful in the Juniata river at this place. They are caught in considerable quantities and sell at ten cents a pound, cleaned, ready for the frying pan. * * * A horse valued at $15 was stolen from James Peck's stable, in Liberty Valley, a few nights ago.

Rev. J. S. Souser, the M. E. preacher of Blain, was staying over night with Mr. Peck, and the horse thief appropriated his brand new buggy, costing $100, and his good collar and bridle. The balance needed to make out a set of harness was stolen from Mr. Peck.

Rebecca Wilkinson, of Browns valley, Ind., says: "I have been in a distressed condition for three years from Nervousness, Weakness of the Stomach, Dyspepsia, and Indigestion until my health was gone. I had been doctoring constantly with no relief. I bought one bottle of South American Nerve which does me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I could advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely remedy. A few bottles of it has cured me completely. I consider it the grandest medicine in the world." Warranted the most wonderful stomach and nerve cure ever known. Trial bottle 15 cents. Sold by L. Banks & Co., Druggist, Mifflintown, Pa. Feb. 1, 1913.

It never fails to cure—MANNERS DOUBLE EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA. 50c. everywhere.

TUESDAY EVENING, November 28th. L. J. Handy.—Subject, "The Road to Victory."

It was indeed a fine lecture. Mr. Handy is an eloquent, brilliant speaker, with a sparkle of humor in his discourse that is most pleasing. He is a man who must be heard to be fully appreciated. The hall was crowded to its utmost capacity, and many turned away for want of room.

CANTON (Ohio) Evening Transcript. Wednesday Evening, November 29.—A. R. Horn.—Subject—Push and Pull. The lecturer is an able man, competent to do justice to any subject that he gives attention to.

FRIDAY EVENING, December 1.—E. De Motte.—Subject—The Harp of the Senses or the Secret of Character Building.

"De Motte is a prince upon the lecturer platform. Lancaster never had his superior. We have had him twice, and our people are willing to have him twice every year."

Supt. W. J. Brecht, Lancaster, Pa. During the two hours of his delivery the speaker had the individual attention of his audience, who manifested their appreciation of his effort by frequent outbursts of applause. The good which Dr. De Motte is doing for the coming generation by his able and instructive lectures cannot be measured. He richly deserved all the praises bestowed upon him by those present. The lecture must be seen and heard to be appreciated fully.—Meadville (Pa.) Republican.

HORSES.

There has been a great deal of talk about my horses not being safe in Time of Funerals. I have now disposed of that team of horses, and purchased an elegant team of Black Horses at the cost of $575.00 which are perfectly safe. Any woman can drive them. They pay no attention to cars.

VERY TRULY, S. S. RUBLE, EMBALMER AND FUNERAL DIRECTOR.

FIRST FALL SALE OF Men's Suits.

We have just returned from a complete demoralized clothing market, and through our purchases were largely in excess of the money invested, owing to the great shrinkage in values, caused by the great scarcity of goods in all previous seasons. Thus, of course we are now able to give you than ever before in our history.

ABILITY, BRAINS, CAPITAL, DETERMINATION, and EXPERIENCE are the five points that make our business grow larger each day. We gain by every sale a friend and customer.

$6. This price will buy your choice from a line of Men's good honest Fall suits, in single or double breasted styles. Their true value is away above the selling price, but values go begging these days. Have you $6. If so, select one of these suits.

$10. The Suits we offer at $10 are made of fine All Wool American Cheviots and Cassimeres out in both single and double-breasted styles, and cannot be matched anywhere below $15.

TEN DOLLARS. The Fall Overcoats we show at $10 are made of very fine Cassimeres and Covert Cloths in latest shades and colors, out in single or full box style, unobtainable anywhere below $14 to $16.

$12. At $12 we offer a truly superb line of Men's All-Wool Suits, out in latest shapest of Business Sack and Frock Styles, and made of best American Cassimeres and Cheviots, they'd be good value at $16 and $17.

TWELVE DOLLARS. Nothing like our finely fashioned and carefully tailored Spring Top Coats at $12 have ever been offered in this town at that price. Stylish dressers, see them. You will be surprised.

$15. If you want something extra fine see our imported Dress Suits at $15. They're made of all different choice materials, cut trimmed and sewed like custom work, and are the equal of any $20 Suits offered.

FIFTEEN DOLLARS. Don't buy a Fall Overcoat for $20, $22 or $25 until you have seen ours for $15. If you don't prefer them to most garments offered elsewhere for one-third to one-half more money, don't buy.

Schools will open soon and our regular annual sale of school suits will take place. Read:

75 cents will buy choice from a line of good, durable and nobby navy colored Sailor Suits; worth more than double.

$2 will buy choice from a line of Boys' Suits, in all different materials and latest patterns, cut in double-breasted Kiefer, Zouave, Junior, Primrose, Midway, and other new Fall Styles made to sell at $3 and $3.50.

$3.98 will buy your Choice from an extra fine line of Boys' New Fall Suits in pretty and original styles, and made of strictly All Wool Cassimeres and Cheviots. They are worth $5 and $6.
