It is distance that lends enchantment. If Cleveland could see Queen Lilioukalina, perhaps he'd declare against her enthronement. If the Queen could be induced to come to Washington, her presence there a short time might make a better American of the President. Who knows! her advances might make an out and out monarchist of Cleveland and the sober second thought suggests that Lilioukalina, stay at home.

Dear Friends:—We know how impossible it is to silence your grief with words. The heart pleads for utterance in tears, and let it speak thus. We bow in sorrow at the taking of your little one, feeling that while the ripening fruit may be gathered, it seems cruel that the bud should be taken before it has even opportunity to unfold its blossom. But in nature fruits fall, and so do blossoms and buds. In the ways of kind nature this is perhaps best, and in the taking from our arms of this little one, we will try to accept the cross and bear it, believing that the bud will yet blossom and bear fruit in the angel band, whether the spirit of this pure child has so early flown.

"As the poor painting hart to the water-brook runs to the sea, As the water brook runs to the sea, No earth's fainting daughters and rambling sons Ob! fountain of love, run to thee."

By the consent of the citizens of this vicinity, the above remarks are made upon the death of little Blanch Ush, daughter of Simon Ush, aged 11 years. To the parents.

In our last writing, we told you that there was to be preaching at White Hall on the evening of the 19th. It was not our mistake, it was the preacher's fault.

Dear Friends: Please don't tell false reports about the schools. Let them remain in peace and will they come all right. Don't tell false tales about anything. Let us be loving, kind hearted, and true. Let us live in peace and harmony with each other. Who so keepeth his mouth and his tongue keepeth his soul from trouble. —MILES.

Fell Sixty Feet.
McVortown Journal.—While Elmer McClellan, son of Capt. W. H. McClellan of this place, who now resides in Philadelphia, and is working at his trade tinning, while doing a job of work on the Penn'a University Building last Friday, the scaffold gave away from the building and he fell a distance of about sixty feet to the ground. He was badly injured and had concussion of the brain. He was picked up unconscious and taken to the University Hospital and remained unconscious until Sunday. At this writing there is some hopes of his recovery. Dr. J. M. Brown writes that he is receiving the best medical treatment.

Mr. J. A. Wheeler

"While Serving My Country"
I was taken ill with spinal disease and rheumatism. When I returned home my trouble was still with me, and I was confined to my bed, unable to help myself for 23 months. After taking seven bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla I was well and have not since been troubled with my old complaint. My wife was in ill health, suffering with headache, dizziness and dyspepsia. She took two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and feels like a new woman." JAMES A. WHEELER, 1200 Division St., Baltimore, Md.
Hood's Pills are the best after-dinner Pills, assist digestion, cure headache. Try a box.
