REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

The Republican State Convention met at Harrisburg on the 3rd inst .. and nominated Galusha A. Grow as the republican candidate for Congreseman at Lurge, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Congressman Lilly. The work was over in a short time and the delegates again hastened home feeling that they had nominated a candidate who would roll up a larger republican majority than has ever before been given in Pennsylvania.

RESILUTIONS.

The convention passed the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the republican objected again, whereupon Davis, state convention of Pennsylvania, re- accompanied by Lawrence M. Keitt, called to nominate a candidate for of South Carolina, came up to Grow, congressman at-large, needs not to and Keitt said: If you are going to be reminded of the fact that this is a object go over to your own side of representative office; that the situation the House." Grow replied: in Washington gives it not only state but national importance, and that it invites the fullest possible expression of the public view on Tuesday, the 20th of February next, to the end
