Oh, yes! Cheap goods and cheap pro ducts of the workshop and the farm are the things to make men happy and contented with their lot in life. We deny it upon them, may be satisfied with a bare living. But the wage worker, the toiler in summer's lassitude and winter's frosts and shows, wants more than a living. He he can be found a a time a for his children. Besides being fed and clothed they want books to read, and pens and ink, and paper, and penell. They want an education with which to fight life's battle. Go talk to the tollers in the iron hills and coal mountains in Pennsylvania and Virginia, or the bituminous coal deposits of the great west, about the advantages of cheap food, and cheap clothing, and cheap commodities of every description, and they will tell you very quickly that what they want is steady employment and good wages, and they will take care of the food and clothing part of this whole business. We are opposed to cheap goods and cheap agricultural products. Cheap goods and cheap products mean cheap labor-starvation wages for toiling slaves, without hope and without ambition for the future. Huts and hovels, and nakedness, and pauperism and crime follow sadly after the procession of cheap labor. The greatest advantage of protection, however, is to be seen in the condition of labor under its mantle. Wages are not only higher than in England, Italy Hungary, Poland and other free trade of semi-free trade countries, but the condition of the laborer is infinitely more bear children and expect them to become worthy. useful and leading citizens.
