There are money makers in the Methodist church in Huntingdon as may be learned from the Huntingdon Journal of the 2nd inst., as follows: "Six months ago ten dollars in five pieces were distributed among the members of the Methodist church, the object being to see how much each person could make out of that nominal sum. Sunday last was 'Talent Day,' and the money returned to the church amounted to $600.

Miss Mary S. Soper of Lodi, N. Y., is one of the pioneers of dress reform. Because of her father's infirmity, she says she is the man of the farm on which they live, and she finds trousers much more convenient than skirts. That's why she wears them.—She hoes and sows and chops wood, and her trousers are tucked in her high top boots just as a farmer does. Miss Soper, wears skirts, however when she ventures beyond the domain of her farm.—Ex.

H. H. Emmett, at the Teachers' Institute on Friday evening, subject "The American Indian." It was a scholarly address, very instructive and apiece with just enough humor to be quite entertaining. Mr. Emmett is a polished speaker, and his lecture upon "The North American Indian" can be made one of the finest heard on the American stage. To hear it and realize that the man who stands before you on the rostrum is himself an Indian, is indeed an intellectual treat worth going miles to hear. It is alone worth the price of the whole course.

The reflection of the Huntingdon Journal, over Hollowe'en capers finds expression in the following item: Boys in observing Hollowe'en do not stop to think what amount of damage they do in a few hours' time. With an old juicy cabbage stalk battered several times against a nicely polished door, the stains are so visible that it is often necessary to repaint. With this and other repairs some people have a considerable outlay just for the amusement of the boys. This thing of destroying property in Hollowe'en season should be stopped even if it requires a whole army of police to accomplish the purpose.

About 3 o'clock on Sunday morning the fire alarm whistle and rail road locomotive whistles sounded a fire alarm. Many people did not hear the whistles, but those who did turned out, and the fire department responded promptly. The fire was in a small building close to the ice house at the railroad and had given the Patterson firemen the inside track on the fire, and by the time the firemen from this side reached the scene of the conflagration, the Patterson company had monopolized the plugs, and were rushing the water in so vigorously that the fire got no chance to get out of where it started. How the fire originated is not known. The building had been used for quarters for men who used to ice refrigerator cars, but lately it was unoccupied.

Brotherton, of this place, last Friday was notified that he had been appointed physician of the Pennsylvania railroad, with headquarters at Derry, Pa., at a salary to begin with of $75 per month. * * * While at school last Thursday, Alice R., an eleven year old daughter of George Zeller of Juniatia county in getting off the roof of an outbuilding fell, breaking both arms near the wrists. The unfortunate child is helpless. * * * G. J. Crouse on his melon patch at Logan, this county, this season, raised and disposed of 25,000 cantaloupes and 1500 watermelons. * * * Wednesday of last week in driving to his home in "Watts" township, from Newport, Harry Liedick struck his horse a sharp blow with the whip. The animal leaped forward throwing Mrs. Liedick who was with her husband, out of the vehicle. When picked up it was found that her back was broken, skull fractured and besides she had sustained severe internal injuries.

Mr. Henry Goshen known to every one in this town, died of apoplexy, between the hours of 7 and 8 o'clock on Saturday evening at the home of his son Levi H. Goshen. He was upstairs about 7 P. M., with the evident intention of going to bed. About 9 P. M., a grand son went to his grand father's room and found Mr. Goshen on his back on the floor dead. A doctor was called and he adjudged him dead about an hour. Mr. Goshen was born in Lancaster county in 1818, and came to this place when quite a young man, and lived here until within the past 4 years, when he lived with his son Levi H. Goshen in Altoona. The children who survive him are Mrs. E. Rush, Mrs. Elizabeth Kessler, and Levi H. Goshen of Altoona, Mrs. Jane Rodgers of Reading, John G. Goshen of Arkansas and Mrs. James Robinson of this town. George Goshen, P. Patterson and five other brothers and three sisters and seventeen grand children survive him. He was a Mason and a member of the Methodist church. His remains were brought to Millintown on Monday, and on Tuesday the funeral took place from the home of his daughter, Mrs. James Robinson, in the Presbyterian cemetery.

The terrible destructiveness of the nickel coated bullet used in the new small caliber navy rifle when driven at the enormous velocity obtainable by the employment of smokeless powder is set forth in the report of Lieutenant Lincoln Karmory of the United States Marine Corps, upon the results of the experiments recently made with the new rifles. The bullet simply passes through the body and produces a flesh wound of no serious importance, unless it happens to cause hemorrhage by cutting an artery. But if it meets with resistance such as that offered by a bone, the result is terrible. The wound has the appearance of having been caused by an explosion; the muscles are reduced to pulp and the bone ground to powder and the fragments are carried through the wound of exit, leaving the latter a gaping orifice. A limb thus struck by one of those missiles would be mangled beyond repair, and a shot in any part of the head or chest would almost infallibly prove fatal. It is true that the best way to abolish war is to increase its possibilities of destruction, then the new navy rifle should prove a veritable peacemaker.—Philadelphia Record.

Last week mention was made in these columns of an outrage that was attempted on Miss Annie Wileman while she was on her way home from attending a meeting of a Literary Society in Cuba School house in Fermanagh, and that one of the parties arrested for the indecent assault—George Miller, had been arrested and put to jail. The statement was a mistake as far as the putting to jail was concerned. After being brought before Squire C. B. Horning, he was discharged. William Ryner the other party charged with the assault, escaped arrest until last Sunday evening, when he was arrested by officer Hackenberger and lodged in jail.

On Saturday evening the following letter in the interest of George Miller was received at this office. The letter was mailed at Mexico as is shown by the post mark. The letter has no signature to it excepting the word father, which is crossed with several pen strokes.

"MR. SWOVER: Dear Sir:—I wish you to rectify what you put in your paper about George Miller. You must not say that he never was near the jail, and you will get yourself into trouble if you don't fix that right. You have no business to put such stuff in your paper unless you are the right story. Go to Squire Horning and get the right story. Now mind it is not rectified till next week you will be jerked up for it."

The authorities of this county owe it to themselves and to the right of the decent portion of the community to sift this outrage. The women and girls must be protected and made safe on highway and by way in day time and at night time from indecent assault by low and worthless men. The lynchings that take place throughout the country for such outrages, are owing to the fact, that such depraved people as these themselves and outrage women are not punished as they merit. We don't want to hear of a case of lynching in this county, and officers of the law should vigorously push this case so that no charge may lie at their door for neglect of duty in bringing such people to justice.

A Good Appetite always accompanies good health, and an absence of appetite is an indication of something wrong. The universal testimony given by those who have used Hood's Sarsaparilla, as to its merit in restoring the appetite, and as a purifier of the blood, constitutes the strongest recommendation that can be urged by any medicine.

Hood's Pills cure all liver ills, biliousness, jaundice, indigestion, sick headache. 25c.

Newport Doomed. The Newport News of November 1st, says: Sister Kelly, a colored minstrel made an astounding declaration between two songs that she had been on the streets. That last Sunday morning she had a vision in which she stood in divine presence. She was commanded to deliver this message: That the Almighty was about to sit in judgment upon Newport. She warned her hearers to flee from the wrath to come, saying that she could not only at her own peril refuse to carry the dire tidings of hasty annihilation to all with in the sound of her voice—and to others too.

That Tired Feeling is a dangerous condition directly due to depleted or impure blood. It should not be allowed to continue, as in its debility the system is especially liable to serious attacks of illness. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the remedy for such a condition, and also for that weakness which prevails at the change of season, climate or life.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, carefully prepared from the best ingredients. 25c.

For Bad Conduct. People in Lewistown are now determined to break up the bad conduct that so frequently takes place at places of entertainment and to that end a half dozen of Lewistown people were put under arrest and bound over in the sum of $200, each, to answer at court for unbecoming conduct in the opera house during the recent performance of the Georgia minstrels.—Free Press.

Home and Abroad. It is the duty of everyone, whether at home or travelling for pleasure or business, to equip himself with the remedy which will keep up strength and prevent illness, and cure such ills as are liable to come upon all in every day life. Hood's Pills are hand made, and perfect in proportion and appearance. 25c per box.
