INDIVIDUAL COMMUNION CUPS.

At the present time, there is, perhaps, no question in church circles so a 20-foot section of a live oak tree "must cease when a man reaches the interesting as the question of "Indi- which stood under fire at the battle vidual Communion Caps." Leaders of Chickamauga. The tree was fill in the church and ministers are not a unit on the question. Same are pieces of shell, and they are all em an example to his men. for and some are against the individ- bedded there to-day, more than thirual communion cup.

The Pennsylvania Methodist of last

Rev. G. M. Steele, D. D., remarks: enclosed by new growth. "I have no disposition to belitttle the caremony; but would it really be much more ridiculous to suggest, as a substitute for the proposed change, the use of teaspoons provided for the participants? After all, would not this meet every demand, and at the same time be more simple and less wasteful?"

Rev. Hugh Montgomery, says: "Imagine, Mr. Editor, one of the least of the afflictions that a delicate lady must suffer in taking the cup direct from the filthy I ps of a man who is in the habit of using tabaeco, There are many ladies who could not endure it, though we are sorry to say many lidies are so unfortunate as to be obliged to endure an endless affliction of this fifth in the person of their husbands; but they are used to it and may endure it. Not so with the woman unaccustomed to it, if she be advanced in years and sensitive, and we have no right to shut her from the commuion table by any form of filth.

Rev. David Sherman, D. D , writes: "The use of the individual cap stands or posed to the practice in celebrating the Passover, which really suggested the mode of administration for the Dec Lord's Supper. In the Passover the children of Israel ate the paschal lamb and the unleavened bread, broken and dipped in the charoseth sauce. Then followed the cup of wine mingled with water, tasted first by the celebrant and then passed to the rest of the company. They all drauk of the common cup."

Rev. H. F. Forest: "I plead for the individual communion cup on the ground of deceacy simply. What would not be decent as a social cus tom is not decent as a religious ceremony. An action or a custom is always just what it is, and its alliance with religion does not change its character in the least degree. What would not be decorous and proper in a drawing-room would not be de corous or proper in a church. And who would think it decorous in social life to ask a bundred persons to drink out of the same cup or glass! Who would be willing to do

But a good Baptist brother in Chicago seems, to us, to deliver a sensible and correct verdict on the subject. He says: "If you listen to these bacterologists, you can't eat, can't breathe, can't hiss your wife or be friendly with your family, can't hang by a strap in a street car when there isn't anything else to ching to, without coming in contact with some microbes. The only way to do is to the says of subject. He says: "If you listen to Election officers, February Election...... 286 60 gain their hold by frightening panicky, fastidious people, and appealing to the projudice of some who are a little sumptious of their neighbors, es the sumptions of their neighbors, es the sumption of the sumptio ied in its plan all the features enumerated above and many more. Can you see any reason why you should pay a large interest for money when you have good security Can you present any good reason why it is not as well to receive profits yearly as to wait from 7 to 10 years as one does in many of the Associations? Is not the reduction of interest yearly better, than waiting many years for profits? Borrowers under the plan represented by meassame absolutely no risk as each $1 00 paid on the loan is credited on the mortgage, thereby reducing it in proportion to the amount paid.

Building Associations have benefited hundreds of thousands, so did the old cars that were propelled by horses. Our plan is as far superior to Building Associations as the trolley cars are to the old antiquated horse car system. My time is to much occupied to answer questions for the curious, but those seeking information for the betterment of their condition will receive full information promptly. Knox McKain's new book "Through the Campaign with Hastings and his Spellbinders," which has just been issued.

Twenty odd years ago two gentle men, one of whom was the late ex Governor Curtin, were walking down the control of the c companion, and indicating the directian with a nod of his head. The gentleman by his side glanced across the street and saw a tail, well built young man, with florid face and upright carriage, marching along, his arm linked in that of a little old lady plainly dressed in black. Her features bore the impress of the cares

"Nothing in particular," continued SeClure the ex Governor, dryly, "except this, that you want to keep your eye on that chan I have known him all 9 other Bridges
