TEXAS HOOPSNAKES.

THEY HAVE HOOKS AND HOLES IN THEIR LIPS AND LIKE FUN.

With a Fine Sense of Humor They Play Jokes on Tenderfeet and Women-Gophers and Bullsmakes Create Lively Situations For the Hoopers.

"The hoopsnake of Texas is as inter-Lone Star State. "It is unlike any hoopsnake I ever saw in the east and a good deal livelier. Under its lower jaw there is a lip, with a hole in it, and on the Judge Clark of Los Angeles, Cal- end of its tail there is a hornlike book ifornie, has taken the position that a that curves upward. Whenever the prayer offered in a church may be snake takes a notion to roll, it throws when it's rolling. Some say the horn is hollow and capable of ejecting poison, but I don't know how true that is. People who are ignorant of how the Texas hoopsnake is built are simply amazed when they happen to see one change from a crawl to a roll. They can't make was privileged. The Court held that out how it is possible for the snake to put its ends together and roll away at such speed unless it sticks its tail into its mouth. You will often run across a hoopsnake that is crawling along leisurely, when all at once it will throw its tail forward and go zipping off at a speed, you imagine, that makes its head swim. But its head is always level, no matter how fast it rolls or how far.

"I've seen many a man and boy amusingly taken in by hoopsnakes out there. Every newcomer desires to possess specimen, and they get it into their heads that it is as easy as lying to catch one. The tenderfoot thinks he can canture a hoopmake by poking a pole or stick through the circle made by its body. He gets fooled, however, for the cunning snake instantly unbooks its tail, thus ridding itself of the stick or pole. runs along on its belly for a short distance and then hooks into the lip again and resumes its frolic with perfect freedom. The gopher kicked and squealed and pulled, and the snake kept tapping it on the head and back with its horn. The snake couldn't have swallowed the gopher, and it tormented the little thing out of pure deviltry. Its aim with the hook was unerring, and it acted as if it was tickled all over every time the gopher squealed. The hoopsnake's fun came to an end very suddenly the moment another gopher appeared. The second gopher took in the situation at a glance, and it immediately hopped upon the snake and bit it in the back of the neck. The snake let go of the foot mighty aginable that snake performed in the next eight or ten minutes. MYSTIFIED AUTHORS.

Father Pront Made It His Business to Houx

Notable Characters, Authors have often mystified the publie, but a man who made a business of mystifying professional writers is a notable character. Such a one, however, was the Rev. Francis Mahony, better known as "Father Prout." His favorite trick was to take a well known and popular poem, translate it into another language, boldly assert that in its new form it possessed great antiquity and charge the author with having stolen it. A CRITIC SURPRISED.

Lord Randolph Churchill's Crushing Inter view With a Hypercritical Dandy. Lord Randolph Churchill took a very keen artistic delight in his wife's musical accomplishments, but he was un willing that any one else should speak disparagingly of them. At an entertainment once, where she had consented to by L. Banks execute a brilliant dash on the piane, a flintown, Pa. tall youth with bangs and a monocle was observed paying a languid and rather insolent attention to the music, standing close enough to the performer to have his comments easily overheard by her. Lord Raady was close at hand, remark: "Deuced fine music, you know, but it lacks weal soul-it lacks weal soul." To the critic's astonishment a muscular young man, with a big mustache whom he had not noticed before, whis

Of course he accepted with avidity. On entering he was met by his threatening neighbor of the night before, who, he at once discerned, must be Lord Randolph, Ho proceeded no farther than the entrance hall, for Churchill beckoned in the difloated Lady Churchill.

"This fellow has come to apologize to you for his remark of last night," hissed Lord Randolph. "Now," to the stranger, "down on your knees!" Down went the dandy, lisping out the most abject plea for forgiveness. Then he was turned over to a footman to be put ignominiously out of the door, while the host followed his retreating figure with a roar of derisive laughter. -Kate Field's Washington.

SEA ANEMONE AND BARNACLE. An Odd Pair of Chems to Be Seen In the

Aquarium at Castle Garden. The sea anemone is very sensitive. It closes at a hostile or thoughtless touch, not rapidly, for it can't do anything very rapidly, but as rapidly as it can, curling its tentacles inward and covering them over with its outer skin and flattening it down upon the rock. But it is not disturbed by its friends. In one of the smaller glass tanks at the city's aquarium at Castle Garden there are several little sea anemones taken from spiles and stones about the Battery. In the same tank, almost within reach of these anemones, are some common barnacles-little ones, half an inch which it feeds. One of these barracles is so close to one of the little anemones that when be might do in the gentlest zephyrs on the land, and they wave and wave as the barnacle throws its net. Perhaps the sea anemone has its own benefit in mind through all this, for it is quite probable that the agitation of the water brings to it food that it might not otherwise receive; but, however that may be, the fact remains that the little anemone that would close at the slightest touch of an enemy is quite undisturbed by any thing that its friend and neighbor the barnacle might do.-New York Sun.

Flowers In Northern Russia. An English traveler in northern Russia writes to The Gardener's Chronicle that nothing surprised him more than the universal presence of well grown flowering plants in dwelling rooms. Even in the cells of monasteries and in the studios of city photographers farther north than Archangel he found such plants as cleanders, crotons, pelargoniums and fuchsias in almost every room. The double windows, so necessary to keep out the cold, have a draft tight space between them filled with flowering plants, and it does not seem necessary to open them for air during the short hot summer. From September to June the country is buried in snow and shut in by ice. The average temperature for January is only 10 degrees. The July temperature, however, has an average of 60 degrees F., which is hardly to be wondered at when it is remem bered that the sun shines 22 hours out of the 24.

MONEYLOANED.

Do you desire to pay off a mortgage and reborrow the money at 5 per cent. interest

Would you care to be so situated that you could reduce the mortgage against your home by paying off a small amount month ly and at the end of each year receive cred-it for all paid? With interest being charg-ed only on remaining portion of loan.

Would you like to buy your family a home? If so, read the following:

I represent a Company that has embod ied in its plan all the features enumerated above and many more. Can you see any reason why you should pay a large interest for money when you have good security? Can you present any good reason why it is not as well to receive p.ofits yearly as to wait from 7 to 10 years as one does in many of the Associations' Is not the reduction of interest yearly better, than waiting many years for profits? Borrowers under the plan represented by me assume absolutely no risk as each $1 80 paid on the loan is credited on the mortgage, thereby reducing it in proportion to the amount paid.

Building Associations have benefited hundreds of thousands, so did the old cars that were propelled by horses. Our plan is as far superior to Euilding Associations as the trolley cere are to the old antiquated by the superior to Euilding Associations as the trolley cere are to the old antiquated by the cere available. We time is to much conhorse car system. My time is to much occupied to answer questions for the curious, but those seeking information for the bet-terment of their condition will receive frill information promptly. We offer an invest-ment to those who have a small amount to DEALER IN HARDWARE. save monthly that has no superior as to safety and seldom equaled for profits. Call or write.
