The clock represents a railway station, with waiting rooms for travelers, telegraph and ticket offices and a very pretty and natural platform, well lighted and having in its center a flower garden and a spouting fountain. There are also signal boxes, lights, dial in the center tower, which shows London. Every quarter of an hour the station begins to show signs of life. First all of the little figures of telegraph operators begin to work their machines, the head automaten going through the form of sending a dispatch to the effect that "the line is clear." Then the door opens, and upon the platform appear the station master and his assistants. to the finiature ticket office. After this the porters appear, carrying luggage, the bell rings, and instantly a miniature train dashes out of a tunuel and halts before the platform of the station house. While the train is waiting a miniature figure tests the wheels and axles with a tiny hammer, another pumps water into the tank of the cagine, while a third busies himself stowing away small lumps of coal in the silver plated tender. There is one signal of the bell, whereupon the door of the single coach opens, and the little figures slide in en an almost invisible wire, the opening closing after them. A second tap of the bell is the signal for the wheel tester, waterman and fuel carrier to retire into the station house.

J. R. Wood,

DON'T BE BLIND. THERE'S CORN IN EGYPT YET.

We Lead:---LET THOSE FOLLOW WHO CAN-NOTICE!

THE WORLD STILL MOVES! WE ARE IN THE PROCESSION RIGHT BEHIND THE BAND.

No honest man can sell Goods Cheaper than we can and stay here. Our Goods are Arguments. Our prices are elequence itself. Our aim is to make both Goods and Prices satisfactory every time. If you have tried elsewhere and failed, give us a trial and be convinced. We succeed where others have failed. A FAIR TEST .- Call at every Store in town, then call on us. The just comparison you will then be able to make of qualities and price, will preacha far more foreible sermon than anything we could say. This is a fair test TRY IT. Then come and see the difference between dealing with live and dead men. Remember "no old stock" here. Yours, unbiased and without
