THAT'S QUEER! You say a collar and cuff that are water-proof? Yes. And perspiration will not affect them? Yes. And when dirty you need only wipe them off with a wet cloth or sponge? Yes. How wonderful! How are they made? A linen collar covered on both sides with water-proof 'CELLULOSE.' Looks exactly like a linen collar. Is it the only water-proof collar and cuff made? No, but it is the only one made with the linen interlining and consequently only one that can give entire satisfaction, because it is the best. How can I know that I get the right kind? Because every piece is stamped as follows: TRADE MARK. CELLULOSE. MARK.

over the desperate effort of Parker to get out and follow them. It will be remembered that Parker is the member of the trio who some time ago made an effort to dig out through the jail wall but was discovered at the work by the Sheriff. Since his rush he is hand out of every night.

George A. Leland, alias John E. Bacon, was given a hearing before Squire C. B. Horning on Tuesday forenoon. He was charged with having furnished instruments to assist Frank Evans and Joe West to escape from the county jail. It was in evidence that he called at the jail in the name of George A. Leland, and left fifty dollars there for lawyer's fee for the three Hertzler store prisoners, and a poke of tobacco for them—now he calls himself John E. Bacon, and denies that he is the man, they believe him to be, but gave no further account of himself.

It was in evidence, that at five o'clock last Wednesday morning, he was in the vicinity of the jail, and on the following Friday morning, at 5 o'clock he was near the jail, and that last Saturday morning at 5 o'clock he was standing on the pavement under the window of the cell in which Evans and West were confined. In default of five hundred dollars bail, he was sent to jail till court to answer a charge which sent him to the jail.

ONE OF THE GANG. Officers De Forest and Anderson of Huntingdon, who came to town on Tuesday afternoon and took a look at the new prisoner in jail—the cook, alias George A. Leland when visiting Evans, West and Parker, and leaving them fifty dollars and a poke of tobacco, alias Edward Bacon, Irwin, Pa. He was registered at the Hotel in Patterson, January 22, 1894, alias John E. Bacon when before Justice C. B. Horning, alias Thomas Kelly. The last name is the one under which he was known to the officers of Huntingdon, he having served—the officers say—a term of 20 days in Huntingdon jail on a commitment as a tramp some months ago.

At the trial of his arrest in Huntingdon which was shortly after the Hertzler store robbery, he had eleven silver 25 cent pieces in his stockings. Evans, West and Parker were in the gang when the Huntingdon officers made a raid on the tramp headquarters and captured Kelly, but they made their escape.

The next day Evans, West and Parker were arrested and sent to the Mifflintown jail upon a charge of burglarizing Hertzler's store. Kelly was looked upon as a suspect, but was kept in Huntingdon jail as a tramp 20 days and then set free. It was during his imprisonment that the Huntingdon officers, became sufficiently well acquainted with his appearance to identify him anywhere.

They knew him the instant their eyes rested upon him in the jail here on Tuesday morning. He turned his back upon them. He turned his back upon them. He turned his back upon them.

REWARD. The County Commissioners offer twenty-five dollars reward for information that will lead to the arrest of the escaped burglars or fifty dollars for the arrest and return of each of the thieves; one hundred dollars for the two.

W. G. Skinner is one of the best known men in Watford, Mass. He is a warm and every body's friend. He says: 'I had rheumatism and was in poor health a long time. Indications pointed towards the accumulation of impurities in the blood and germs of disease. I was constipated and had no appetite. I evidently needed a good blood purifier and decided to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. It made a change all through my system, gave me an appetite and worked in good order, thanks to Hood's.' W. G. SKINNER.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the Only True Blood Purifier. Prominently in the Public Eye, Today. Hood's Pills may be had in 25 cent packages.
