Rev. Solomon Dressler, died at his home near Oriental this county on the 27th day of October aged 72 years. Mr. Dressler was a zealous preacher of the Christian Church and in the palmy days of Minortown, frequently preached in the church building—now in decay—in that place. He broke the bread of life with a zeal that was born of a full and unreserved belief in the teachings of Christ and his apostles, and his spirit is doubtless enjoying the rich fruits of its labor in the unseen world above.

Herman Mudgett alias H. H. Holmes was found guilty in 20 minutes by a Philadelphia jury after the case was given them last Tuesday for murdering Benjamin E. Pitzel for $10,000 insurance. Holmes and Pitzel were partners in swindling life insurance companies, and when the game got scarce, Holmes murdered Pitzel, cheated Pitzel's wife of her share of the insurance, excepting $500, and then to get rid of two of the Pitzel children, murdered them. Holmes is a head in human form and will pay the penalty of his crimes to society, when he is hung.
