

B. F. SCHWEIER,
EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

If the young czar of Russia would put himself together and gather his army and run the Turks out of Europe, how the Christians would rejoice.

PHILADELPHIA is quite upset over the announcement that she has a fifteen million dollar heiress living in the city. The girl inherits the money from an uncle in Australia.

Last Thursday was Pennsylvania Day at the Atlanta Exposition. If the management had taken several train loads of Northern editors to the Exposition several weeks ago, the management now would be reaping a harvest from the advertisement thus obtained.

ACCORDING to some of the members of the Christian workers convention that convened at New Haven, Connecticut last week, Yale College is not the best place to send a boy to for education.

The wife of the pastor of the church made an address, during the course of which she said she would like to send a son of mine to Yale to attend college. I make this statement before newspaper reporters, and I would like it to President Dwight himself.

In Butler last February, Judge Greer in granting liquor licenses, warned the hotel men that if they sold liquor to men of known intemperate habits, he would revoke their licenses. The other day a man was arrested in the court on a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and in response to the Judge's question, he told her he got the liquor which caused him to behave so badly.

Shot a Chicken Thief.

Mrs. George Weeden of Westmont, a suburb of Johnstown, has been for some time past annoyed by some unknown parties, who have endeavored to steal her chickens. Thursday morning, bearing a noise she went into her retail licensed place in Butler to see cause why their licenses should not be revoked, because they sold to a man of known intemperate habits. And the hotel men are trying to think up their excuses.

The New Healer.

Francis Schlatter, a New Mexico shoemaker by trade, but latterly a famous man through his power to heal the sick, has left Denver.

A despatch from Denver, Colorado, on the 14th, states his method of treating people, who are afflicted, is as follows:

While doing his work of healing here, he stood in front of the Fox cottage, shifting his increasing weight from one broad sole foot to the other, and resting his right foot on the top of a convenient post, while the other, contained the handkerchiefs to be "blessed," rested lightly on the top of the rickety fence.

Relief in Six Hours.

Distressing Kidney and Bladder diseases relieved in six hours by the "NEW GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN KIDNEY CURE." This new remedy is a great surprise on account of its exceeding promptness in relieving pain in the bladder, kidneys, back and every part of the urinary passages in male or female.

Relief in One Day.

SOUTH AMERICAN NERVOUS relief the worst cases of Nervous Prostration, Nervousness and Nervous Dyspepsia in a single day. No such relief and blessing has ever come to the invalids of this country. Its powers to cure the stomach are wonderful in the extreme. It always cures; it cannot fail. It radically cures all weakness of the stomach and never disappoints. It is a luxury to take and always safe. Trial bottles 15 cents. Sold by L. Banks & Co., Druggists, Mifflintown, Pa., Feb. 6, 1y.

NEW DENTAL OFFICE.

Dr. S. D. Diffenderfer, graduate of the University of Maryland Dental Department, desires to inform the public that he has opened a Dental Office at Oakland Mills, Pa., where he can be found at all times. Teeth extracted painlessly. All work guaranteed.

"The Common People."

As Abraham Lincoln called them, do not care to argue about their ailments. What they want is a medicine that will cure them. The simple, honest statement, "I know that Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me," is the best argument in favor of the medicine, and this is what many thousands voluntarily say.

Hood's Pills—Are the "best after dinner pills, assist digestion, cure indigestion.

Many Widows.

Turkish widows are sometimes denied even the more moderate satisfaction of following their husband's remains to their last resting place. When Ismael Pasha died 800 of his sorrowing relatives, after sitting up for a week at his wake, expressed their purpose of walking barefoot in procession at his funeral in Cairo. The authorities at the palace heard of it, and the widows were locked up.

Rheumatism Cured in a Day.

"Mystic Cure" for Rheumatism and Neuralgia radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It moves at once the cause, and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits, 75 cents. Sold by L. Banks & Co., Druggists, Mifflintown. Jan. 9, '96.

Subscribe for the SENTINEL and REPUBLICAN, a paper that contains choice reading matter, full of information that does the reader good, and in addition to that all local news that are worth publishing find places in its columns.

Tours to the Golden Gate and Florida via Pennsylvania Railroad.

The public are quick to recognize the advantages of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company's perfect personally-conducted tourist system as exemplified by the annual increase in the number of participants in tours organized under that system. Aside from this, the growing desire of Americans to see the wonders of their land is also an important factor in advancing this healthy sentiment in favor of travel.

This season's tours to California will be conducted in all respects as those of preceding years, and will leave New York and Philadelphia, February 12 and March 11, 1896. On the first tour a stop will be made at New Orleans for the Mardi-Gras festivities, and four weeks will be allowed in California. On the second tour four and one-half weeks will be allowed in California.

In addition to the tours to the Golden Gate, a series of tours to Jacksonville has been arranged. The tours will leave New York and Philadelphia, January 28, February 4, 11, 18, and 25, and March 3, 1896, and allow two weeks stay in the "Land of Flowers."

Detailed itineraries of these tours will be sent on application to Tourist Agent, 1190 Broadway, New York, or Room 411, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia.

SHERIFF'S SALES.

Sheriff Calkoun, will sell at public outcry at the Court House in Mifflintown at 1 p. m. November 29th 1895 the following property:

A tract of 50 acres of land more or less, with frame house and log stable in Tuscarora township, as the property of David Peck.

A tract of 12 acres of land more or less, with two story frame house in Mifflord township, as the property of William B. Lauer.

A tract of 33 acres more or less, with two story frame house, bank barn, and out-buildings, in Fermanagh township, as the property of Michael Stoner.

A tract of half acre with dwelling house, stable, and slaughter house, in Fermanagh township, as the property of Michael Stoner.

A lot of ground containing the Cannery building in Mifflintown, as the property of The Juniata Valley Cannery Company.

A tract of 39 acres, more or less, with dwelling house and stable and out-buildings, in Greenwood township as the property of John F. Bender and Eliza Bonner.

A tract of 76 acres more or less, with a peach orchard of 1000 trees in Greenwood township, as the property of John H. Patterson.

The undivided one-fifth of a tract of 125 acres more or less, with log frame house, barn and out-buildings in Susquehanna township, as the property of Samuel W. Gingrich.

A tract of 73 acres more or less, with two story frame house and brick barn, and out-buildings in Delaware township, as the property of J. C. Gravybill.

A tract of 11 acres more or less, with log house and stable in Lack township, as the property of Levi H. Campbell.

THE FASHION PLATE.

Battions are conspicuous on every gown of fashion this fall.

Waistlines appear again at the back of half low evening gowns, and never have ribbon trimmings of every description been more fashionable than now.

Silk or velvet of a light shade of granular pink, turquoise or a delicate mauve may be worn with the ever useful and economical silk lined black skirt.

A heavy guipure sailor collar, with squared ends, and the Marie Antoinette ruffled fichu are the two most novel items in the way of brightening up a somber toilet.

The beautiful Cleopatra shades in bronze, tawny brown, chestnut, golden, olive and Havana—a rich russet brown—and all the deep reds and dahlia dyes are in the highest favor this season.

Full medium length evening capes of brocade are being worn in very many women to the elegant enveloping long cloaks, as the former do not crush the dress skirt or its trimmings of lace, ribbon, etc.

Among the expensive coat baggies for special wear are those made of rich Persian patterned velvets; also those of dark velvet in green, plum, black or olive, neatly covered with brilliant foliage and flower clusters, or single blossoms and leaves.

GEMS OF THOUGHT.

Avarice is a weed that will grow only in a barren soil.—Hughes.

Without labor there would be no government and no leading class and nothing to preserve.—U. S. Grant.

Five things are requisite to a good character: 1. Integrity. 2. Dispatch. 3. Patience and impartiality.—Penn.

The chief secret of comfort lies not in suffering trifles to vex us and in prudently cultivating our undergrowth of small pleasures, since very great ones also, are lost on long leases.—Sharp.

THE SELF EXILED.

"Now open the gate and let him in. For she hath been cleansed from stain of sin."—St. Peter cried.

"Thought I am cleansed from stain of sin."—She answered low.

"I came not hither to enter in. Nor may I go."—And the angels all were silent.

"But I may not enter there," she said; "For I must go across the gulf where the guilty dead."—And the angels all were silent.

"If I enter heaven, I may not speak my soul's desire."—For them that are lying straight and weak in flustering fire.

"Should I have seen Christ," she said; "By pitying love."—The sinful living or woeeful dead.

"Should I have seen Christ were I to love no more."—The loved, who in their anguish lie "Outside the door!"—And the angels all were silent.

"Should I be liker, nearer him, forgetting this—Singing all his praises in his blissful life."—And the angels all were silent.

"New York Tribune.

DE MINIMATION NAMES.

The Basilians have their name from St. Basil, their founder.

The Wyclifites took their name from Wyclif, an English reformer, born 1324; died 1387.

The Servites are a religious order founded by seven Florentine merchants about 1283.

The Adamites, a sect of the fourteenth century, were named from one Adam, who called himself Adam, the Son of God.

The Lollards, a sect of reformers, were named from Walter Lollard, or Lollard, who was burned for heresy in 1322.

The Benedictine monks had their name from their founder, St. Benedict, who brought the monastic system into Europe about 529.

The word Catholic means "universal," and the name Catholic church simply means "universal church," as for many centuries the Catholic church was the only church.

The Nonconformists were thus designated from their refusal to conform to the usage and doctrines of the established church of England. They were also called dissenters.

The Pharisees mentioned in the New Testament took their name from the Hebrew word meaning separated. They were so called because they considered themselves better than the other people of that time and separated themselves from them.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

STAGE GLINTS.

Edwin Gordon Lawrence will return to the stage next season.

Mme. Ponis, who has permanently retired from the stage, lives now in Washington.

Edwin Stevens has left the "Sphinx" company and will join the Marie Janzen company.

Rica's new play, "Nell Gwynne," by Paul Keston, is proved to be her most successful vehicle.

The new review which is being written for the New York Casino will be called "The Kaleidoscope."

A daughter of the late Mme. Trebelli is to visit Australia with a concert company, as is also the veteran Sims Reeves.

Nat Goodwin has put Sydney Rosenfeld's play, "A House of Cards," in rehearsal. He will produce the play this season.

A new prima donna, described by the critics as wonderful, has just made her debut in St. Petersburg. Her name is Helene Cheriak.

"The Reckoning," a melodrama in four acts, will be produced at the Park theatre, Brooklyn, on Jan. 27 for the first time in this country.

The farce comedy in which Fred Williams and Benjamin F. Roeder have been at work for some time is to be called "The Cuban Girl."

Nellie Braggins has resigned from the "Bory of the Hill" company and will sing the role of Principia in "The Partisan" soon to be done at Atlanta.

"The Gay Parisians" will be produced in London next spring by Charles Frohman, with a cast including four of the actors now appearing in the comedy.

George Leitch is making a success with "The Land of the Moa" in New Zealand. The syndicate backing it is so satisfied that it intends to take the drama to England.

Battions are conspicuous on every gown of fashion this fall.

Waistlines appear again at the back of half low evening gowns, and never have ribbon trimmings of every description been more fashionable than now.

Silk or velvet of a light shade of granular pink, turquoise or a delicate mauve may be worn with the ever useful and economical silk lined black skirt.

A heavy guipure sailor collar, with squared ends, and the Marie Antoinette ruffled fichu are the two most novel items in the way of brightening up a somber toilet.

The beautiful Cleopatra shades in bronze, tawny brown, chestnut, golden, olive and Havana—a rich russet brown—and all the deep reds and dahlia dyes are in the highest favor this season.

Full medium length evening capes of brocade are being worn in very many women to the elegant enveloping long cloaks, as the former do not crush the dress skirt or its trimmings of lace, ribbon, etc.

Among the expensive coat baggies for special wear are those made of rich Persian patterned velvets; also those of dark velvet in green, plum, black or olive, neatly covered with brilliant foliage and flower clusters, or single blossoms and leaves.

GEMS OF THOUGHT.

Avarice is a weed that will grow only in a barren soil.—Hughes.

DE MINIMATION NAMES.

The Basilians have their name from St. Basil, their founder.

The Wyclifites took their name from Wyclif, an English reformer, born 1324; died 1387.

The Servites are a religious order founded by seven Florentine merchants about 1283.

The Adamites, a sect of the fourteenth century, were named from one Adam, who called himself Adam, the Son of God.

The Lollards, a sect of reformers, were named from Walter Lollard, or Lollard, who was burned for heresy in 1322.

The Benedictine monks had their name from their founder, St. Benedict, who brought the monastic system into Europe about 529.

The word Catholic means "universal," and the name Catholic church simply means "universal church," as for many centuries the Catholic church was the only church.

The Nonconformists were thus designated from their refusal to conform to the usage and doctrines of the established church of England. They were also called dissenters.

The Pharisees mentioned in the New Testament took their name from the Hebrew word meaning separated. They were so called because they considered themselves better than the other people of that time and separated themselves from them.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

STAGE GLINTS.

Edwin Gordon Lawrence will return to the stage next season.

Mme. Ponis, who has permanently retired from the stage, lives now in Washington.

Edwin Stevens has left the "Sphinx" company and will join the Marie Janzen company.

Rica's new play, "Nell Gwynne," by Paul Keston, is proved to be her most successful vehicle.

The new review which is being written for the New York Casino will be called "The Kaleidoscope."

A daughter of the late Mme. Trebelli is to visit Australia with a concert company, as is also the veteran Sims Reeves.

Nat Goodwin has put Sydney Rosenfeld's play, "A House of Cards," in rehearsal. He will produce the play this season.

A new prima donna, described by the critics as wonderful, has just made her debut in St. Petersburg. Her name is Helene Cheriak.

"The Reckoning," a melodrama in four acts, will be produced at the Park theatre, Brooklyn, on Jan. 27 for the first time in this country.

The farce comedy in which Fred Williams and Benjamin F. Roeder have been at work for some time is to be called "The Cuban Girl."

Nellie Braggins has resigned from the "Bory of the Hill" company and will sing the role of Principia in "The Partisan" soon to be done at Atlanta.

"The Gay Parisians" will be produced in London next spring by Charles Frohman, with a cast including four of the actors now appearing in the comedy.

George Leitch is making a success with "The Land of the Moa" in New Zealand. The syndicate backing it is so satisfied that it intends to take the drama to England.

Battions are conspicuous on every gown of fashion this fall.

Waistlines appear again at the back of half low evening gowns, and never have ribbon trimmings of every description been more fashionable than now.

Silk or velvet of a light shade of granular pink, turquoise or a delicate mauve may be worn with the ever useful and economical silk lined black skirt.

A heavy guipure sailor collar, with squared ends, and the Marie Antoinette ruffled fichu are the two most novel items in the way of brightening up a somber toilet.

The beautiful Cleopatra shades in bronze, tawny brown, chestnut, golden, olive and Havana—a rich russet brown—and all the deep reds and dahlia dyes are in the highest favor this season.

Full medium length evening capes of brocade are being worn in very many women to the elegant enveloping long cloaks, as the former do not crush the dress skirt or its trimmings of lace, ribbon, etc.

Among the expensive coat baggies for special wear are those made of rich Persian patterned velvets; also those of dark velvet in green, plum, black or olive, neatly covered with brilliant foliage and flower clusters, or single blossoms and leaves.

GEMS OF THOUGHT.

Avarice is a weed that will grow only in a barren soil.—Hughes.

DE MINIMATION NAMES.

The Basilians have their name from St. Basil, their founder.

The Wyclifites took their name from Wyclif, an English reformer, born 1324; died 1387.

The Servites are a religious order founded by seven Florentine merchants about 1283.

The Adamites, a sect of the fourteenth century, were named from one Adam, who called himself Adam, the Son of God.

The Lollards, a sect of reformers, were named from Walter Lollard, or Lollard, who was burned for heresy in 1322.

The Benedictine monks had their name from their founder, St. Benedict, who brought the monastic system into Europe about 529.

The word Catholic means "universal," and the name Catholic church simply means "universal church," as for many centuries the Catholic church was the only church.

The Nonconformists were thus designated from their refusal to conform to the usage and doctrines of the established church of England. They were also called dissenters.

The Pharisees mentioned in the New Testament took their name from the Hebrew word meaning separated. They were so called because they considered themselves better than the other people of that time and separated themselves from them.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

STAGE GLINTS.

Edwin Gordon Lawrence will return to the stage next season.

Mme. Ponis, who has permanently retired from the stage, lives now in Washington.

Edwin Stevens has left the "Sphinx" company and will join the Marie Janzen company.

Rica's new play, "Nell Gwynne," by Paul Keston, is proved to be her most successful vehicle.

The new review which is being written for the New York Casino will be called "The Kaleidoscope."

A daughter of the late Mme. Trebelli is to visit Australia with a concert company, as is also the veteran Sims Reeves.

Nat Goodwin has put Sydney Rosenfeld's play, "A House of Cards," in rehearsal. He will produce the play this season.

A new prima donna, described by the critics as wonderful, has just made her debut in St. Petersburg. Her name is Helene Cheriak.

"The Reckoning," a melodrama in four acts, will be produced at the Park theatre, Brooklyn, on Jan. 27 for the first time in this country.

The farce comedy in which Fred Williams and Benjamin F. Roeder have been at work for some time is to be called "The Cuban Girl."

Nellie Braggins has resigned from the "Bory of the Hill" company and will sing the role of Principia in "The Partisan" soon to be done at Atlanta.

"The Gay Parisians" will be produced in London next spring by Charles Frohman, with a cast including four of the actors now appearing in the comedy.

George Leitch is making a success with "The Land of the Moa" in New Zealand. The syndicate backing it is so satisfied that it intends to take the drama to England.

Battions are conspicuous on every gown of fashion this fall.

Waistlines appear again at the back of half low evening gowns, and never have ribbon trimmings of every description been more fashionable than now.

Silk or velvet of a light shade of granular pink, turquoise or a delicate mauve may be worn with the ever useful and economical silk lined black skirt.

A heavy guipure sailor collar, with squared ends, and the Marie Antoinette ruffled fichu are the two most novel items in the way of brightening up a somber toilet.

The beautiful Cleopatra shades in bronze, tawny brown, chestnut, golden, olive and Havana—a rich russet brown—and all the deep reds and dahlia dyes are in the highest favor this season.

Full medium length evening capes of brocade are being worn in very many women to the elegant enveloping long cloaks, as the former do not crush the dress skirt or its trimmings of lace, ribbon, etc.

Among the expensive coat baggies for special wear are those made of rich Persian patterned velvets; also those of dark velvet in green, plum, black or olive, neatly covered with brilliant foliage and flower clusters, or single blossoms and leaves.

GEMS OF THOUGHT.

Avarice is a weed that will grow only in a barren soil.—Hughes.

DE MINIMATION NAMES.

The Basilians have their name from St. Basil, their founder.

The Wyclifites took their name from Wyclif, an English reformer, born 1324; died 1387.

The Servites are a religious order founded by seven Florentine merchants about 1283.

The Adamites, a sect of the fourteenth century, were named from one Adam, who called himself Adam, the Son of God.

The Lollards, a sect of reformers, were named from Walter Lollard, or Lollard, who was burned for heresy in 1322.

The Benedictine monks had their name from their founder, St. Benedict, who brought the monastic system into Europe about 529.

The word Catholic means "universal," and the name Catholic church simply means "universal church," as for many centuries the Catholic church was the only church.

The Nonconformists were thus designated from their refusal to conform to the usage and doctrines of the established church of England. They were also called dissenters.

The Pharisees mentioned in the New Testament took their name from the Hebrew word meaning separated. They were so called because they considered themselves better than the other people of that time and separated themselves from them.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

STAGE GLINTS.

Edwin Gordon Lawrence will return to the stage next season.

Mme. Ponis, who has permanently retired from the stage, lives now in Washington.

Edwin Stevens has left the "Sphinx" company and will join the Marie Janzen company.

Rica's new play, "Nell Gwynne," by Paul Keston, is proved to be her most successful vehicle.

The new review which is being written for the New York Casino will be called "The Kaleidoscope."

A daughter of the late Mme. Trebelli is to visit Australia with a concert company, as is also the veteran Sims Reeves.

Nat Goodwin has put Sydney Rosenfeld's play, "A House of Cards," in rehearsal. He will produce the play this season.

A new prima donna, described by the critics as wonderful, has just made her debut in St. Petersburg. Her name is Helene Cheriak.

"The Reckoning," a melodrama in four acts, will be produced at the Park theatre, Brooklyn, on Jan. 27 for the first time in this country.

The farce comedy in which Fred Williams and Benjamin F. Roeder have been at work for some time is to be called "The Cuban Girl."

Nellie Braggins has resigned from the "Bory of the Hill" company and will sing the role of Principia in "The Partisan" soon to be done at Atlanta.

"The Gay Parisians" will be produced in London next spring by Charles Frohman, with a cast including four of the actors now appearing in the comedy.

George Leitch is making a success with "The Land of the Moa" in New Zealand. The syndicate backing it is so satisfied that it intends to take the drama to England.

Battions are conspicuous on every gown of fashion this fall.

Waistlines appear again at the back of half low evening gowns, and never have ribbon trimmings of every description been more fashionable than now.

Silk or velvet of a light shade of granular pink, turquoise or a delicate mauve may be worn with the ever useful and economical silk lined black skirt.

A heavy guipure sailor collar, with squared ends, and the Marie Antoinette ruffled fichu are the two most novel items in the way of brightening up a somber toilet.

The beautiful Cleopatra shades in bronze, tawny brown, chestnut, golden, olive and Havana—a rich russet brown—and all the deep reds and dahlia dyes are in the highest favor this season.