In bowers where the jasmine burns An incense pure through woodland ways The mocking-bird o'er golden urns Outpours his morning hymn of praise

And from his sweet seclusion drawn, The brown thrush, with a poet's voice, Sings the clear canticle of dawn! The sparrows chirp on every bough, (n woodbine cells the bees rejoice,

And where the dimpling shadows pass The insect choir is chanting now The Glorias of leaf and grass. -William H. Hayne, in Youth's Compan'.

SARAH JENKINS.

She wasn't a pretty girl. Those who liked her best couldn't, with any show of honesty, say that she was word deanes youth-for she was thirty-two.

She was taller than the average the symmetry that makes tall women attractive. Her face was plain. She hadn't even pretty eyes to redeem it; and, as if this were not misfortune enough, her mother had named her Sarah, his usual dispatch he decided to try who were ready to pay court and and that, too, after she had been guilty of marrying a man named Jenkins. Not pretty, not young, and named Sarah Jenkins!

Add to this fact that she had to earn her own living, and you have a sum total that does not promise well for the heroine of a story. But there with it." is a law of compensation that he.ps to even up things in this world. | Sarah. This law was observed in the case of was what people said when they looked at her homely face and angular figure, and thought of her toil. hor everybody understood that when old John Jenkins died Sarah would not need to work any more, and the possession of a million dollars does more to soften the unbeautiful lines in a girl's face and figure than any trick of the toilet So the world-Sarah's world-was not so sympathetic as it might have been, and as for sarah herself-well. she wasn't given to sentiment overmuch Her life had not been of the kind that tends to foster sentiment. Her mother and father had died before she could remember, and her grandfather, with whom she lived, was her only relative.

John Jenkins had likings for pen ple just as he had for houses. He liked both just as long as he could control them and make them profitable. When a house ceased to yield him sufficient revenue to pay for the money invested in it, that house was pride was in what he was pleased to sold. When people about him ceased to be useful to John Jenkins he simply dropped them and forgot that they existed. His only son had been a disappointment to him be ause he was not successful in business, and when his father wanted him to marry a rich wife and try to get even with his luck, young John dared to have different views, and married one of his father's clerks. She made him a good wife enough, but comehow nothing prospered with died leaving his granddaugher everythem. The old man seemed to jorget that he had ever had a son, and be ted he would do.

show any sign of emotion.

bab", asking what should be done. Send her to me," was the old. man's answer.

"Pil take care of her until she is old enough to take care of herself." So the baby was sent to her grandfather, and she was taken care of just and she had waited, long and pati- who had taken her place,as were the young animals on his ently. farms Some one was paid to do it given this instruction, -

Let her have plenty of good, plain food-no sweets to ruin her teeth and stomach. Dress her in clothing that is clean and comfortable. No folly, mi: d. If she is sick, call a doctor. When she is old enough send her to school, and let me hear no more about

This course of living suited Sarah well enough. She had no romanti: idea that she was being oppressed by a cruel grandfather. She was well housed and fed and decently coad. She was allowed to go to school, and would have been allowed to play, no doubt, but Sarah did not care to play. She was a solemn sort of child. The woman who took care of her said she barah wasn't stupid.

When she was 17 years old she went They were almost strangers. carah had not spoken to him a dozen times in all her life. "Well." demanded old John Jenk-ios, ' what do you want?" "You advertised for a business

"Nothing, practically. Theoret

failure: but I should like to try." you would like to experiment on me. | women's gowns. do you? That's exactly what your nan. "Sit down a minute. How gloves. d are you?" "Seventcen."

was seventeen he-" "Never mind my father," broke in the girl 'He is out of this entirely. taste to di cuss his shortcomings. I prace. I don't know whether I'm om etent to do the work or not. Neither do you until you try me. If for a place somewhere else." strong-featured face. Her hat was utterly devoid of trimming and quite those who realized it best, what a Neither was she young-not as the unbecoming. Her dress was like the miracle can be wrought with money. made for service, without regard to Sarah stood in the street with anything else. Old John's keen eyes nothing save her inheritance, she was woman, and her figure had none of took in the tout ensemble of the slim owner and mistress of one of the said to himself. -"She's hemely enough. There won't be any nonsense about lovers and that sort of things," and with and invitations, and no lack of men

"You may come next Monday morning at 8 o'clock," he said. "That desk will be yours, and the first thing you are to do is to go over the books If you're going to manage my busi ness, you must first get aquainted taught her to form quick, and nearly Siftings.

"What will you pay me?" asked Sarah, She had prospects. That do you? That isn't bad," thought the and much dissatisfied. The functions old man. "I wouldn't wonder if she'd of society she found wearisome. The do. I believe she's got some of my polite lies that people continually meanness in her, and it makes her sharp."

Aloud he said -"How much do you want?"

And Sarah promptly replied,-"I want fifty dollars a month until I learn the business, then I want seventy-five up to the end of the first year. After that if we are both satistled, we will make a contra t."

"Well, you don't hesitate to say what you want, do you?" Here old ohn Jenkins did what no one had ever known bim to do before-he smiled. "Who's to be the Judge when you have dearned the business' as you call it?" he asked. "lou are," replied the girl. "I have always heard you were honest, and I do not look for injustice." If Sarah Jenkins had ponderel all day she could have said no wiser call his honesty. He had been called hard, and avaricious, and unyielding, but no one had ever said that he was not honest "All right, my girl," he sald, and his tone had softened somewhat. "You c me and try your best, and I'll do the right thing by you."

That was how Sarah Jenkins came to sit at a desk in John Jenkins' o hee for fifteen years. And then the old man tu ne i his face to the wall and thing he possessed, as it had been ex-get that he had ever had a soo, and finally young John gave up the struggle and died. His wife, who was a meek and obedient creature, seeing herecated the fact that his business preciated the fact that his business When old John heard of it be manager was faithful and efficient, tend to it."

mances of happy lives written in no one to give him anything. books had not interested her. She had not understood them. All her "haven't you any folks?"

thought had been concentrated upon was stupid. But this was a mistake her work. That was at an end now, myself," said George Howe, and he and she realized for the first time turned again to his desk and books. tinder box in the rural districts of that something was missing out of That was all he had ever said about Spain. one day to her grandfather's office. her life. Immediately she missed the himself to any one. Indeed, he never something she began vaguely to long said much about anything. During for it. Her woman's nature seemed all the years he had sat in the same to awake, and with its awakening office with Sarah Jenkins he had only came to Sarah Jenkins the first really spoken to her upon matters of busiunhappy moments of her life.

manager," answered Sarah, "and I other women. They had never in. big ledger in front of him.

have come to ask for the place."

terested her very much before. But | So, when Sarah volunteered the re-"You? What do you know about now she seemed, all at once, to keenly mark concerning her happiness, realize that they were different from George was surprised somewhat, but her. She went to the glass and he answered pleasantly, ically, I know all about it, for I have looked at herself. For the first time "It is good to see you back here. just completed a business education. it occurred to her that she was very have missed you very much." I cannot say that I shall not make a plain; that the dressing of her hair! All the way home Sarah thought of ilure: but I should like to try."

"H'm" grunted old John. "Think fitted badly and was not like other very much.' No one had ever said father thought. His experiment was | bit of lace or a lewel. Her room had She sat down in her cosy little sitt ng none of the pretty trinkets with room that night, after tea, and in Then you don't care to engage which women like to surround them dulged in one of her characteristic selves. the stood looking in the "turnas" one had tasted the fruit

Best. Rest. Test.

There are two kinds of sarsaparilla: The best-and the rest. The trouble is they look alike. And when the rest dress like the best who's to tell them apart? Well, "the tree

And the taller the tree the deeper the root. That's another fruit; that, too, is Ayer's. Ayer's Sarsaparilla has a record of half a century of cures; a record of many medals and awards—culminating in the medal of the Chicago World's Fair, which, the rest. That was greater honor than the medal, to be the only Sarsaparilla admitted as an exhibit at the World's Fair. If you want to get the best sarsaparilla of your druggist, here's an admitting Ayer's Sarsaparilla as the best-shut its doors against infallible rule: Ask for the best and you'll get Ayer's. Ask is known by its fruit." That's an old test and a safe one.

test. What's the root, - the record of these sarsaparillas? The one with the deepest root is Ayer's. The one with the richest

She had been standing near the | glass for five minutes, thinking, had missed me. Did you mean first Then she put on her hat, went out acked carab.
on the street, walked straight to one . "Why, yes, Miss Sarah; of course ) door, and now she made a movement on the street, walked straight to one of the steres, where she rurchased an meant it. I have missed you."
the old entire suit of clothing, from hat to "Why have you missed me?"

"I want something handsome," "H'm. yes. Well, when your father

This done, she went back to her room, dressed herself in the new things, and then she deliberately It is not necessary, nor is it good placed one after another of her possessions upon the grate fire. Within am the one who is applying for the an hour she had not one solitary thing that she had ever owned be fore.

She left the house without a word you don't wish to try me, I'll look of farewell, and when she reached the sidewalk she stood for a momen Old John Jenkins pu hed up his wondering where she would go. She glas es and looked at the girl. He had not a friend in the great city. had never taken the trouble to ob- All the people she knew were merely serve her before. She wasn't pre- bus ness acquaintances. She had possessing. The light brown hair only the clothes she wore and—a was brushed straight back from the million dollars.

It is a matter of wonder, even to areses she had worn all her life, In three months from the day that ngure standing before him, and he best appointed houses in New York There was no lack now of fine dresses and laces and jewels; no lack of people who called, leaving cards compliments to her. These three months had been a revelation to Sarah. It was her first experience with the social world. But her long business training had given her keen insight into things and had always correct, opinions of people. For the first month she was interested, the second she was bored, and the third she was thoroughly unhappy told each other disgusted her. The lightness with which society regarded what she considered crimes shocked her. She found herself longing for something that was genuine and good, and wondering whether any. body was really honest.

This state of things became intolerable to the plain, practical business woman. She thought it all over one night, as she sat alone in her luxur ous chamber. It was different, vastly different, from the room where she did her thinking three mouths before. Was this what she had missed then and longed for-to sit alone in the midst of all this splendor and wonder what s e should do with he self; to realize that not one of all the new friends who swarmed about her and readily accepted her hospitality really cared a button for her Could she spend all the years of her tung than this, for John Jenkin's life this way? No. She could not and she would not!

Sarah Jenkins arrived at conclusions quickly. Early the next morning she sent for her lawyer to come to her.

"I want you to sell this house fo me," she said "Why," replied the lawyer, "you have only just bought it." "No matter how long I have had it, I want to sell it " "Are you going away?"

"No. I am going to buy another house that will suit me better." "This isn't handsome enough for bergar on horseback, and-" Aloud Transcript. he said, - did not resent toward her, and become ' Sarah's next move was to look for loving and kindly. He was hard, ex. her new house. She found it; an un- the word coffee. "I'm not surprised; not a bit They act ng, and wholly unloving to the pretentious dwelling in a quiet side were too shiftless to live." And then very end. The o kies of his heart street. She had it put in perfect he said not another word, nor did he we cookles asways, and when he order, and furnished prettily and how any sign of emotion.

Some one write to him about the same of series and series of relies, heatly, but without a touch of gorshe would do with her grandfather's handsome up town house with all its who knew how, and the some one was made over to her, Sarah went to the now. I will occupy this place here-looked at the folded paper which said George Howe, the o.d bookkeeper, as she was worth a million. She went she went out that night. He was a back over the dull routine of herlife. grave, staid man of 50, who had been Sarah had reached the age when most with the house for nearly thirty a friend, "but the architect says if women are happy wives and mothers. years. No one knew much about But, for her, the years had held noth- him. He said, one Christmas when ing but hard work. Even the ro. asked about his gifts, that there was "I have no one in the world but ness, and she regarded him in ver She began to compare herself with much the same way that she did the women's gowns. that to her before. She didn't be-Sarah did not possess a ribbon or a lieve anyone had ever missed her. of luxury, and found it of bitter fla vor. She had comforted herself by going back to her work. So far she was satisfied. But she had also tasted the sweets of human companionship, and now it was not pleasant to think of spending the rest of her life alone. There were plenty of people who would share her home for the sake of sharing her money. She did not want that sort. She thought again of the old bookkeeper. He had said that he had missed her very much, and she believed that he meant it. George Howe was not enough skilled in the ways of society to say what he did not mean. Suddenly an idea came to Sarah. She got up and walked to and fro in her room.

The next morning George Howe was sitting at his desk as usual when Sarah came into the office. She weat up to him. "Good-morning," said she, and George answered, "Good-morning." Then he waited for the orders which be surposed she had come to give.

"Why have you missed you."

"Why have you missed me?"

This was rather straightforward your appetite, enrich your blood, and prevent sickness by taking questioning. George was embarrassed she said to the saleswoman; 'something that fits me and is becoming."

Why, I don't know. You were bere so long I'd kind of got used to bere so long I'd kind of got used to you, and then—well, I always liked you, Miss Sarah." "You live alone, don't you George?" "Yes." "And you have no relatives?" "Not one."

"Do you ever get lonesome?" And then George Howe surprised Sarah Jenkina he turned toward her with quivering lips and eyes filled "Lonesome, Miss Sarah," he said, sd." "Mercy, why?" "You see it with tears.

prokenly, ".onesome? Why, some- was a Wagner concert, and they times I'd give a year of my life just thought that was the first number on to talk to somebody.' Come over to my house to-night," he barber. "Trimmed," echoed "Now, lookye here. eald Sarah, 'and talk to me. I have something to say to you."
"I will come," answed George. And he went - Waverly's Magazine

PITH AND POINT.

take the baby."-Troy Press. who doesn't use screens. — Lowell no judge of human nature, my boy," courier.

The perpetually irracible man is that I would have lost his trade for-

Tes and coffee are well termed

"luxuries of the grocer kind."-Texas A drop of ink will make a duda think—if it is spattered on his trousers. When the point of the pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effect of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative, and if the father -Newburg Register.

-Newburg Register.

"Bridget, did you hear me call?"

"Yes, mum; but you told me the other to that is the best family remedy known A superstition." day never to answer you back."-Tit and every family should have a bottle.

The Daughter of an Editor—"Why did you reject him?" "He was not accompanied by stamps."—Life's Calendar.

While the man who seasons sausage may not be a philosopher, he often has a sage air about him.—Buffalo Courier. "Those were indeed good old times Whenever a knight saw his creditors approaching, he simply pulled up his drawbridge." Teacher-"When water becomes ica what is the great change that takes place?" Pupil-"The change in price."

-Detroit Tribune. "Does Irvington keep a carriage That astute personage, having since he married?" "Oh, yes; I see been forewarded of the intended him wheeling it 'most every day."-Indianapolis Journal.

Parent—"This is your birthday, and the lightest of scones, sufficient formmy. What can I do for you that in quantity to make a good square will cause you pleasure?" Tommy-"Spank Johnny."—Tit-Bits.

Mr. Gospel-"Robbie, is that a goo book you are reading?" Robbie-" guess not, 'cause I've enjoyed every word of it."—Chicago Inter-Ocean. Any man may be infatuated with his profession, but the aeronaut bears the distinction of being perfectly carried away with it .- Union County Stand-

Hicks-"Did von hear about Brash" death? He died quite suddenly."
Wicks—"It was like him. He always beth?"

"How was it Miggs had to pay a Wasna that it?" dollar for a cup of coffee?" "Well. you see he stutters, and they charged ten cents for every time he repeated since? baby's picture book, and I've looked everywhere for it." Papa—"Never basketful, much less twelve:"

mind; give him the morning paper. -Boston Transcript.

"This is not altogether the kind of house I counted on," said a suburbar resident, showing his new residence to suits him."-Philadelphia Record. "I never knew any one who hate mankind in general to the degree that Binkles does," said one student to another. "Hum. That explains his purpose in taking up the profession of dentistry."-Washington Star.

Matches have not yet displaced the

getall

Some say that the hypophosphites alone are sufficient to prevent and cure consump- genie Bonaparte was recently antion, if taken in time. Without doubt they exert great ble birth, but, in spite of their mugood in the beginning stages; tual supplications, her parents rethey improve the appetite, proto give their consent to the union. and Topeka last week," said Clement mote digestion and tone up After a great deal of persuasion, F. Stone of Newton, Kansas. "Two the nervous system. But they lack the peculiar medicinal properties, and the fat, found in cod-liver oil. The hypophosphites are valuable and phosphites are valuable and denly threw herself into her lover's and were going to Topeka in search these in the most desirable heartbroken entreaties, she obstin- turning out all his rockets and lookform. The oil is thoroughly ately refused to go through the reemulsified; that is, partly digested. Sensitive stomachs can bear an emulsion when and has never been equalled. has been endorsed by the medical profession for twenty years. (Ask your doctor.) This is because it is always palatable—always uniform—always contains the purest Nortwegian Cod-liver Oil and Hypophosphites.

Insist on Scott's Emulsion with trade-mark of Take Care

The One True Blood Purifier. $1; 6 for $5.

Hood's Pills are mild and effective. 25c.

he terrible explosion occurred in the other case like this is known.

A CHILD ENJOYS

consisting of the finest of haddocks and the lightest of scones, sufficient meal for a do en ordinary persons

But the minister and the two at least, in the matter of appetite; and therefore, when they rose from Vashington Star.

What did the audience do when mules are of rare occurrence. Sarsaparilla eighty-three miles of squeducts. A sugar dish owned by Mrs. L. H Smith, of Roswell, Ga., has been in us by her family for over 100 years. Miss E. J. Whitton, of Topshan Me., has hair which measures eight

In Europe, the etiquette of street walking is to "keep to the left." In the United States, the rule is "keep to To aid buyers in selecting articles stranger, "If I were as rich as you the United States, the rule is "keep to the programme."—St. Louis Republic. "Have your hair trimmed?" asked the right."

measures nineteen feet in circumfer- coats and capes, one of furs, gloves, I don't want no jokes. I came here to git my hair cut, an' I don't want 'o trimmin's at all. Did ye think I ence, breast high.

Asti in the Fourteenth Century. "If that man's watch had run down. A call to arms—"Come, John, and and only needed winding," said the apprentice, "why didn't you wind it apprentice, "Why didn't you wind it apprentice, "You are many, eighty-nine cities and 668 vil-

The perpetually irascible man is known by his standing choler.—Boston Courier.

The perpetually irascible man is known by his standing choler.—Boston Courier.

There is a church at Kirkwood, Ga., owned by a Presbyterian, with a Methor dist pastor, and the seats were originally owned by Baptists and donated by Episcopalians.

There is a church at Kirkwood, Ga., owned by a Presbyterian, with a Methor dist pastor, and the seats were originally owned by Baptists and donated by Episcopalians.

street in Bagdad where live the manu-found in a call the street in Bagdad where live the manu-found in any other class of goods, facturers of a silken stuff called Atibi,

A red polled cow at Whittingham. parture of the soul from the body, thus for entire costumes or dresses, for comyears ago, her record being 13,734 quarts of milk of the first quality. No

Met Their Match.

A little while ago the minister of certain church in Scotland came to the conclusion that one of his fock. the conclusion that one of his flock, ago it was brought to the bank, but a shrewd old lady, had not been present at div ne service so frequently as was necessary for her spiritual weltake a penny for it, and the bank settled the transaction by giving him $25. fare So be called for two of his el-

There are two words in the English cape of Fibre Chamois. ders, and they sallied forth to internew the delin quent on the subject. their regular order, viz.: "Abstem-That astute personage, having lous" and "facetious." The following words each have them in irregular qualities, even when exposed to great visit, prepared a sumptuous repast, order: Mendacious, authoritative, disadvantageous, encouraging, efficacious, instantaneous, importunate, nefarious, objectionable, precarious, pertinacious, brack. Strawbridge & Clothier keep the sacrilegious, simultaneous, tenacious, real Fibre Chamois; write to them for leacons were not ordinary personserable and vexations.

the feast there was nothing left but the bones of the haddocks. Then, with much unction, the ninister proceeded to inter ogate his LIFE OF PAIN. nostess as to her absence from Kirk. "'Deed," she indignantly replied, "I was there last Sabhath.

"Then what was the text, Eliza-"I ken 'twas about the loaves and her," thought the lawyer. "Put a was so impulsive, you know."-Bostor Ishes. They took up the fragments lived at 110 Seymour Avenue, in the same that remained twelve backetsful. city, is a lady nearly seventy years old. She have you been thinking about if "Deed, I thoct just now that ir re and the elders had been there the Freaks of the Candy Trade. she would do with her grandfather's mandsome up town house with all its more more yellow herself to do so, the day Sarah walked into the office where she had spent so many years lt was her office now, and her business she said to the young man she had waited, long and patiently.

"It is not mine yet. I will wait," and she had waited, long and patiently.

"It is not mine yet. I will wait," and she had waited, long and because and she had waited, long and plant the same salary you have now. I will occupy this place here humble boarding house that had been her nown for a nong time, and, shut. at her her nome for a nong time, and, shut. at her her not her nome for a nong time, and, shut. at her hereaft of the high stool, and butting herself in her room, sat down to plain, stanty wardrobe. Then she looked in the glass. And at last twom for three months," she said to the contents of the first happy day I have blooked in the glass. And at last twom for three months," she said to the contents of the first happy day I have blooked in the glass. And at last twom for three months," she said to the contents of the first happy day I have blooked in the glass. And at last twom for three months," she said to the contents of the first happy day I have blooked in the glass. And at last twom for three months," she said to the contents of the first happy day I have blooked in the glass. And at last twom for three months," she said to the contents of the contents of the first happy day I have blank the first happy day I have blooked in the glass. And at last twom for three months," she said to the contents of the contents Candy consumers will scarcely becandy business ever languish? But it was estimated at a summer hotel recently that the belies, of whom there were several, averaged two and there were several, averaged two and there were several averaged two and the several averaged two averaged two and the several averaged two and the several averaged t three pound boxes a week, one attractive little Philadelphian having broken the record by exhibiting no less than fourteen boxes of various sizes and devices that she had received during the first ten days of cared. She is no longer troubled with indicelved during the first ten lays of her stay. It is also whispered of a certain managing mamma that it is her custom when leaving town to her custom when leaving town to her custom when leaving town to order confectionary to be sent her the day of July, 1895.

Anyone of her and sworn to before me the thinday of July, 1895.

G. H. Humpher, Notary Public, Oneida Co., N. the delicious supply is handed around to friends at the resort, it is with the remark that "daughter" has so many > with a beautiful Roman girl of humarms and sobbed out: "You shall of employment. One of them placed see now how great is the love I bear his ticket on the seat while he lit a mainder of the ceremony. Thunder Kills Fish.

An electrical storm in St. Louis his fare again, he began asking the the raw oil cannot be retained.

As the hypophosphites, the As the hypophosphites, the dows, of their silver and gold fish.

Thundar and lightning are judged by and try to escape notice that way. her room.

"I'll do it," she said, at last. "It wouldn't be the thing for a rich society woman, but for a plain business woman it's all right. Any way, why not have the benefit of there's no one to find fault with me,

As the hypophosphites, the medicinal agents in the oil, and the fat itself are each good, why not have the benefit of the fish which are found foating on their sliver and gold use. There seemed no other alternative oil fishermen and proprietors of animal stores to be the cause of the cause of the death of the fish which are found foating on their backs for several came along the practical joker handed stood the test of twenty years St. Louis electrician gives it as his asked who the second one was for

CURIOUS PACTS.

Chins has many stone bridges 3000 The tomb oi Mahomet is covere with diamonds, sapphires and rubie valued at $10,000,000. Twin mules are claimed to be owned by a Platte City (Mo.) man. Twin Paris now gets its water supply from six great springs, which travels through feet 21 inches. It has been growing ten years.

In Middle Smithfield, Penn., there making general purchases, Strawbridge take a whole car, so as not to intentify a chestnut tree the trunk of which & Clothier have issued a catalogue of rupt the sleep of others."

wanted ye ter do it up in ribbons?"son entitled doctor of medicine, he re- flat tableware, notions, jewelry and ceived the degree from the College of bric-a-brac. They will also send sam-lages can be seen in clear weather.

the word Atab, the name of a famous a closer weave, than can be

By some misadventure, a note for one penny stamped with the "promise to pay" of the Bank of England got into

A WOMAN'S DESPAIR. COULD SEE NOTHING AMEAD BUT

She Tells a Reporter How She Suffered-How She Was Cured -- And How Her Life Has Been Brightened by the Sunshine of Health. From the Drych, Utica, N. Y.

Mrs. E. McLaughlin, who resides at 83 Miller Street, Utles, N. Y., but formerly was born at Marcy, Opeida County, N. Y ... been wonderfully cured of a severe attack of use of Dr. Williams's Pink Pills for Pale Mrs. McLaughlin said she had been at-

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood admirers who wish to be remembered it is really an embarrassment of sweets. These facts may account for the falling off in trade at the end of the summer hotel season.—Boston Heraid.

She Proved Her Love.

Don Massimo, Duke of Antikoli, whose engagement to Princess Eugenle Bonaparte was recently announced, some years ago fell in love with a heautiful Longer of the sements in the season and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotive and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotive and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotive and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotive and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotive and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotive and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotive and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotive and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotive and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotive and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotive and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotive and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotive and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotive and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotive and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases for such and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotive and restore shattered nerves.

Under the Seat. "I saw a most ridiculous joke played on a man between Osage City Scous Emulsion. | you. 1 will not consent to this mar-riage. The world says that I want ion quickly picked it up and put it in of Cod-liver Oil, with hypo- your title and your money. I don't, his pocket. A few minutes later the phosphites contains both of but I could never make you happy," man missed his ticket, and went and in sp te of the Duke's urgent, through the usual pantomime of ing in hat lining Knowing that the conductor would be around in a monent, and also that he had not enough money in his pocket to pay opinion that the concussion of the thunder breaks the air chamber which by compression cause the fish to sink and by expansion to rise to the surface.

Sedalia (Mo.) folks were so afraid of riding on trolley car Mo. 18 that the figure had to be changed. YES, TO BE SURE IS TO BE CERTAIN, AS WHEN Jacobs Oures Rheumatism. Oil The cure is certain, sure. TO MAKE SURE, USE IT AND BE CURED.

HINTS FOR BUYERS.

N TOWN AND OUT OF TOWN-FOR HOLI-DAYS AND ALL DAYS.

The finely organized and ably con-ducted mail order department of the are rich?" Somewhat surprised, his ap-to-date store, is as well, a bureau of lordship replied that he was tolers. information. Write and ask any bly well to do "May I ask." Copquestion concerning dress and house tinued the stranger, how rich you hold belongings, and your letter is are?" "Well, if it will do you any promptly answered, ora special departing good to know," was the reply, "I supment catalogue with what you pose I have several hundred thousand for holiday presents, as well as in and snored as loud as you, I should william Gardenio was the first per-derwear, men's goods and silver-plated ples of any kind of dress goods and of daughter, send for samples of Eudora, There is a church at Kirkwood, Ga., Priestley's high-class specialty in silk-The term "tabby cat" comes from ually firm twist of thread, and ing dust and water, by an unus-

A specialty of this house is the times just now in cutting a wisdom which has markings resembling those Manchester velveteen, which has a fine, tootn. soft back or body, a heavy pile and A superstitious idea of the middle a delightful rich, changeful or lusages still exists in many parts of Eng. trous bloom. It looks like silk velvet; land that when the death of a person is far more durable, and much less exis imminent the fastenings of the door pensive. Being wide, the Manchester of the death chamber hinder the de- velveteen can be advantageously used making final dissolution doubly painful, | binations, for trimmings and for fancy

The real Fibre Chamois, experience proves, does not lose its outstanding being wet by rain. It comes in three weights, Nos. 10, 20 and 30, in cream or ecru, flesh color, slate, brown and samples or required quantity of Fibre Chamois, which is very wide and costs Piles only 35c. a yard. If you want to get your "men folks" a holiday gift send at once for the little booklet called, "A present for him." To insure prompt attention address all

FASHION EDITOR, Letter Box L, Strawbridge & Clothier. Sth and Market Sts., Phila., Pa.

The Chinese Mother-in-Law.

As mothers-in-law, it must be confessed that Chinese women do not oflife and is well known there. It was re- ten shine. When a girl marries, she ported in Utica that Mrs. McLanghlin had leaves her own homes and goes to live at the house of her husband's parents, rheumatism, as well as indigestion, by the | where she is obliged to show the most absolute obedience to his mother, who People; a reporter of Drych was sent to in- is apt to be rather tyrannical. To this terview her on the subject and get the true mode of life is due most of the domestie unhappiness in China. - New York

Post. The Record of remarkable cures effected eu ables us truthfully to say that Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only true blood purifier prominently in the public eye to-day.

Massage is said to be practiced almost exclusively by the blind in Japan and largely by them in St. Petersburg. where a school of message has a pro fessor who is himself blind.

Hood's Pills are the best cathartic.

11. Kilmer's Swang-Root cars Pamplet and Consultation free Laboratory Binghamton, N. Y. Wild dogs have been discovered in the wood near Vienna, Ga. One of the puppies was caught recently and efforts made to tame it, but it is as

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflamma-tion, allays pain, cures wind colid. 20c a bottle. Madder is the root of an herb like growth. It is about the size of a lead pencil, and much longer. It is cleansed, dried and ground. It is a dye stuff. FITS stopped free by DR. RLINE'S CHEAT NERVE RESTORER. No fits after first day's use. Marvelous cures. Treatise and $2.00 trial bot-tle free. Dr. Kline, 661 Arch St., Phila., Pa. Dogs kept exclusively for guiding blind persons, or for tending sheep or

For Whooping Cough, Pi o's Cure is a successful remedy.—M. P. Dieter, 67 Throop Avenue. Brooklyn, N. Y., Nov. 14, '94. If the earth were equally divided among the inhabitants each person get about twenty-three and would one half acres. Hamicted with sore eyes use Dr. Isaac Thomp-ton's Eve-water. Druggists sell at 25c. per bottle

Character Reading. An observing dentist says that long, narrow teeth denote vanity; those that are long and projecting indicate a grasping disposition. Treachery is shown by the possession of small, white, separated teeth, and inconstancy is re vealed by overlapping teeth.

What He Would Do. Lord Aberdeen once left London at midnight in a sleeping car for the north. In the morning, he sawa stranger opposite him. Excuse me

Dentaess Cannot be Cared Dearaces Cannot be Cared I application, as they cannot reach the d portion of the ear. There is only one cure Deafaces, and that is by constituconditions. Deaface is caused by as incandition of the nucous lining of the him Tube. When this tube gets inyou have a rumoling sound or imperairing, and when it is eatherly close es the result, and unless the infamcan be taken out and this take retains to remai condition, hearing will be self forever; nine cases out ten are by catarrin, which is nothing but an incantition of the nucous surfaces.

affiness (caused by catarri) the can-ire | by Hall's Catarri Care, Send for nines, free, F. J. CHESEY & Co., Toledo, O. ... A man in Biddeford, Me., who is ixty six years old, is having troublons at tion of the mucous surfaces, give One Hundrel Dollars for any People do not discover it until too istellating on called washing powder not only as up the clothes, but time defrakin, and cause members. Use nothing but Floating Borax, mels by Dobbins Soap Mgr. Co., Phila. Excellentist is laundry and designiful for the bath.

Some people are born tired; and some are born to make others tired.

Cure Biliousness,

-AND-All Liver Disorders RADWAY'S PILLS are purely vegetable

Constipation,

elete absorption and healthful regularity Mark a box. At Druggists or by mail. "Bost Advice" free by mail. RADWAY & CO.

INIUNIUAN LAND

wind percer to I diwhat it was It has man

ASTHMA POPHAM'S ASTHMA SPECIF

Hagan, Packer & Co. Bankers & Broker Cor. Broadway & Exchange Court, New York $4.50 per 1000 cremitars Enclose 4 pa dies to families, immense profits The Dr. O. Med. Co., 1817 Columbia Ave., Philade phi PATENTS SISHOF & IMIRES Best Cough Syrts. Tasks Good on to time. Bold by draging.

The great success of the chocolate preparations of in 1780) has led to the placing on the market

Baker & Co. are the oldest and largest manufacturers of pure and high-grade Cocoas and Chocolates on this continent. No chemicals are used in their manufactures.

they get, the genuine Walter Baker & Co.'s goods.

Where Dirt Cathers, Waste Rules." Creat Saving Results From the Use of cattle on a farm, or by shepherds, are exempt from taxation in England.

MONEY

For Whooping Cough, Pi-o's Cure is a successful remedy.—M. P. Dieter, 67 Throop Avenue, 12 Throop Avenue, 13 Throop Avenue, 14 Throop Avenue, 15 Throop Avenue, 16 Throop Avenue, 17 Throop Avenue, 18 Throop Ave AGENTS WANTED EVERYWHERE male und

Correlativated by DR. 11 MAY R. 101611-R. Particular and Constitution of the Constitut

Timely Warning.

the house of Walter Baker & Co. (established many misleading and unscrupulous imitations of their name, labels, and wrappers. Walter Consumers should ask for, and be sure that man and fish.

WALTER BAKER & CO., Limited, DORCHESTER, MASS.

SAPOLIO

Put up in 50 cent and $1.00 sizes. The small size

Put up in 50 cent and $1.00 sizes. The small size "You told me last night that you