

to tes land massed when Ash-Ashton took hold of one end while she olf again in America. retained the other. Neither spoke; but after dinner, with one of Mary's bosom heaved tumultuously, toute friends at the table while Ashton felt his heart in his written by General Washington to Dr. hotel. For some time the throat. nie passed in silence. At length als "Mary!" he said.

You have not seen Mary Derwent- idly, up. water yet, have you, Harry?"

Ashton answered calmly, with a fore- not?" edications, in the megative.

nostrively delay it. honor bound to apprise them of their herd from separating, and at night they pressed the fingers lying passively in thow how beautiful she has his grasp, the pressure was gently re- fare. As I hate deception, even where slept in a little tent sheltered by the turned, and, bursting into tears, his the imagination only is concerned, I edge of a shallow ravine. or more beautiful than when f away, although you thought will. It is needless to promise that my cousin fell upon his bosom. -logiv lovely." He paused. loard from the family solid Asidon at length, feel-A Taste for the Beautiful. companion expected some Beauty is an all-pervading presence, more essential, and this shall be the grew out of the western horizon and hard, as usual, and thought no more of It unfolds in the numberless flowers of purport of my letter. then you know nothing of her - the spring; it waves in the branches of -ime of the almonds-why. the trees and the green blades of grass; is irresistible. But she it haunts the depths of the earth and what she used to be; sea, and gleams out in the hue of the table; a piece of roast beef adorns the is setter, though not so shell and the precious stone; and not foot; and a dish of beans or greens aland whereas she once would only these minute objects, but the most imperceptibly decorates the cenmind, only a little, for she ocean, the mountain, the clouds, the ter. favorite of mine-she now heavens, the stars, the rising and set- When the cook has a mind to cut a name of the cold beauty. ting sun, all overflow with beauty. The figure, which I presume will be the man, like myself, can speak universe is its temple; and those men case to morrow, we have two beefsteak the warning, you know, without who are alive to it cannot lift their eyes pies or a dish of crabs in addition, one of having his heart called in as without feeling themselves encompass- on each side of center dish, dividing ibe of his head. And do you ed with it on every side. Now this beau- the space, reducing the distance bemy wife suspects you of ty is so precious, the enjoyments it tween dishes about six feet, which

"Mary, we love each other-do we Dear Doctor-I, have asked Mrs. of cattle, which was grazing on the to the crown Sir John Lawrence, after- mented with gold and jugan, add. in

Philadelphia Saturday Review:

tinental army. It is dated West Point, month. She looked half-doubtingly, half-tim Aug. 16, 1779, and is printed in the They were out with their father about Cochrane and Mrs. Livingstone to dine prairie. In the daytime they rode their ward Lord Lawrence, was made its the head is a fine watch

Two of our boys, who live far up in The following pleasant letter was the northern part of North Dakota, and somewhat costly humor, "Come, have written a letter telling about a let us change our turbans in pledge of Cochrane, a surgeon general in the Con- thrilling adventure which they had bast (riendship!" and the exchange was promptly made.

There was no answer, but as he with me to-morrow, but I am not in mustang ponies and helped to keep the guardian. His biographer, Mr. Bos-

World. A century of two later, the un-Persian conqueror of India, seeing the diamond glitter in the turban of the un-fortunate Rajah, exclaimed with rough and somewhat costly humor, "Come, let us change our turbans in pledge of friendelets" and the archange was soon some to an end, if every fault-A cane worth $3000, a gift from finder could only be well introduced to right direction when a godly man con-trols it.

palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude, dizziness, etc., are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period in life where The business of fault-finding would coman's great change may be expected. Thousands at this critical time consult Mrs. Pinkham, and conduct their habits himself. Money is one of the levers that moves the world, and it always moves it in the the world and it always moves it in the the world and it always moves it in the the world and it always moves it in the the world and it always moves it in the the world and it always moves it in the the world and it always moves it in the the world and it always moves it in the the world and it always moves it in the the world and it always moves it in the the world and it always moves it in the the world and it always moves it in the the world and it always moves it in the the world and it always moves it in the the world and it always moves it in the the world and it always moves it in the world and the

E. Pinkham's

The Kohlnoor fell into the hands of some friends, is carried by Dr. H. H. ten miles from home watching a herd the English, and pending its delivery Haie, of Detroit, Mich. It is orus the reformation?"-Ash- gives are so refined and pure, so con- without them would be nearly twelve and was almost thrown genial to our tenderest and noblest feel- feet apart. language - "for it began immediateings, and so akin to worship, that it is Of late he has had the surprising saalter a long liness that happened a who after you silled. t bear completely bewildered. all new for the first time heard or Manufa stolenous. His eye wanderwere tenants of a dungeon. Suppose I steaks

all from that of his companion, and were to visit a cottage and see its walls | If the ladies can put up with such enhe felt his check flushing in spite of He covered his embarrassment, however, by rising. His comwith statues of the most exquisite I I william And new, Harry, let us stroll down workmanship, and that I were to learn ing), I shall be happy to see them, and that no man, woman, or child, ever cast Broadway, for, to tell the truth, I promsel top wife to bring you home with an eye at these miracles of art, how Bestdes. Mary is there, and I've should I feel their privation-how or desired," he continued, no doubt," should I want to open their eyes, and ed, jocularly, "you are dying to help them to comprehend and feel solid not answer, but he fol- vain courted their notice! But every seems to be, as a general thing, that matter was," said the letter, "but we lowed his friend duty the street, con- man is living in sight of the works of a Divine Artist; and how much would of circumstances and the other is not. one that Mary and he must meet: of facility that the sooner it was done his existence be elevated could he see the better. Ills companion, during the glory which shines forth in their or while ran on his usual gay style, forms, hues, proportions, and moral but literry sourcely heard a word that expression!

was sold. It's thoughts were full of Selecting Pictures. his cousin. Had she, indeed, become "The value of a picture depends upon all other men from love of himself? Stratege and yet delicious what there is in it for its possessor," thoughts whirled through his mind, writes William Martin Johnson in the and he wolce only from his abstraction Ladies' Home Journal, on the "Selecon finding blueself in the presence of tion and Framing of Pictures." "A his cousin. In Sencourt's drawing- painting by an amateur may be more precious in your eyes than one of Ra-

Mary was on a visit to Mrs. Seaphael's cartoons. Therefore, sell your and did not know of Asiston's in cartoon to the highest bidder, and when aded coming until a rew minutes be you outgrow the little painting buy fore he made his appearance. Derotedly as she loved her cousin, she see its beauty. would have given worlds to escape the "No one can tell you how to under-interview; but retreat was impossible stand art without your seeing it, studywithout exposing the long-treasured secret of her heart. She nerved herself one can tell you how to tell good cloth accordingly for the meeting, and suc- from bad; you must first have had exconded in assuming a sufficiently compress demension to greet her cousin whicht betraying her agitation. He exchanged the commonplace complitamits of the occasion with her, and hen took a sent by Mrs. Seacourt, who had been one of his old friends. Mary feit the neglect; she saw he did or love her. That night she wept ther tears of anguish. Asimon did come daily, and although the conversation was chiefly devoted Mick, Sendourt, he seemed neither to our avoid his cousin. Now and hon he found himself in a conversabit with her, and he thought of old inces. But the memory of their last hterview came across him at such ioments like a blight.

How wonderfully Ashton has imand shore his travels," said Mrs. Sencourt one morning as she and Mary the brush. Herein lies the difference I could catch man. thow," continued she, looking azchly at her companion, "that I from manalit place."

Since our arrival at this happy spot we have had a ham, sometimes a shoutder of bacon, to grace the head of the

Washington's Camp Dinner.

painful to think of the multitude of gacity to discover that apples will men living in the midst of it, and living make pies, and it is a question if, in the almost as blind to it as if, instead of violence of his efforts, we do not get this fair earth and glorious sky, they one of apple, instead of both of beef-lined with the choicest pictures of tertainment, and will submit to partake Raphael, and every spare nook filled of it on plates, once tin, but now iron (not become so by the labor of scour-

> am. dear doctor, yours, G. WASHINGTON

His Good Luck. The chief difference between a so the loveliness and grandeur which in called lucky and an unlucky person one is quick to see and take advantage In a volume entitled "Suwanee River Tales," by Sherwood Bonner, a certain Frenchman thus tells the story of his

"luck:" In the year 1830 I was a hatter, but the large concerns absorbed all the custam, and I was on the brink of ruin. For many months the sole display in my show window had been a huge white felt hat, which I had made in what it pleased me to call a freak of genius, but which no one had noticed except to laugh at.

One day my apprentice came running in with the tidings that the king was coming. I bastened to the door. back the cartoon if you have learned to The horses of the royal equipage, then almost opposite the shop entrance, had become frightened, and the coach was in imminent danger of being upset. ing it, living with it, any more than any The king attempted to jump out-a dangerous thing, considering his corpu-perience with cloth. Learn a language to the sidewalk without injury. His before you try to converse. But do not hat, however, was pitched into the gutgo so far as to imagine that you must ter. learn drawing and painting before you "Allow me, your majesty!" I cried, can appreciate pictures. The less you and running into the shop, seized the know about technique the more capable white felt, and with a low bow pre-you will be of looking at a painting with sented it to the king. an unprejudiced eye. Get at the art-It fitted him nicely. With a gra cious word of thanks Louis Philippe ist's intention. Does he express an idea to you? Is he interesting in the way he re-entered his coach, leaving me to retells his story? Does he convince you joce over the audden promise of forof a truth? If the picture is that of a tune. Nor did my heart deceive me. head does it impress you as having the That afternoon the king's adjutant callcharacteristics of an individual? Does ed to settle for the morning's purchase, it look like a human being? Suppose a and to inform me that I was appoint-landscape is under discussion-do the | ed "hatter to the king." trees sway, the clouds float? Is there any atmosphere in the painting? These are the tests of a painter's facility with bell-crown feit. Huge orders poured in from the provinces. I could not language. But more than this is required-it is the intellectuality behind make hats fast enough. When at last the brush. Herein lies the difference I could catch my breath, I found my-worth Smith, relates a curio of this custody.

table is large enough to hold the ladies; days of their stay, the weather being cloth, into his waistcoat pocket, the of this they had ocular proof yester. clear and cool, with very little wind. day. To say how it is covered is rather but late in the afternoon a dark cloud cant little box. He went on working little gusts of wind bent the long brown his precious treasure. He changed his grass of the prairie.

The boys' father said he thought r

COVERING UP THE TENT.

storm was coming up, and so every thing was made safe and snug around the tent before the party went to bed. Sometime in the night both the boy woke up quite suddenly.

"Neither of us knew just what the A SHOW & SHOW

VELLID

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physlency. I rushed forward and lifted him effects are due to the fact, that it is the all important, in order to get its bene- ladder truck, ficial effects, to note when you pur-chase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California

Fig Syrup Co. only, and sold by all reptable druggists. If in the enjoyment of good health, Enthusiastic members of the Nynuke ed "hatter to the king." The tide had turned. Enough to say that all Paris had gone mad over the bell-crown feit. Huge orders poured bell-crown feit. Huge orders poured the system is regular, then iaxa-tives or other remedies are not needed. If afficted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, then one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

Half-unconsciously, Sir John thrust They greatly enjoyed the first two it, wrapped up in numerous folds of whole being contained in an insignificlothes for dinner and threw his waistcoat aside, still forgetting all about the bex contained in It.

About six weeks afterward a message came from the viceroy, saying that the queen had ordered the jewel to be imigediately transmitted to her. The subject was mentioned by Sir Henry Lawrence at the board, when Sir John said, quietly: "Send for it at once." "Why, you've got it!" said Sir Henry. In a moment the fact of his careless ness flashed across Sir John. He was sign of trepidation he said:

and with his heart in his mouth sent "Have you a small box which was in

"Yes, sahib," the man replied,"I found t and put it in one of your boxes." "Bring It here," said the sahib. "Open t," he ordered, when the little box had James Reilly, was through many years een produced, "and see what is in- dependent on his muscles, not his the year of his death and the beauti-He watched the man with intense and There Memories." When he gradaxiety as fold after fold of the rags uated from Dublin University he found ras taken off. "There is nothing here, sahib," said robbed him. He went to the United one, "but a bit of glass!"

A Bicycle for Twenty-five. der construction for the Nynuke Club, of Brooklyn.

finding any one willing to undertake such a wheel. Some said that it could not be made; others were willing to attempt it for two thousand dollars. Finally a New York firm agreed to build

It at a cost of six hundred dollars The twenty-five-seated wheel will be guaranteed for two years, barring puncical ills which vanish before proper ef-forts-gentle efforts-pleasant efforts-rightly directed. There is comfort in No. 2 seamless tubing will be used. The he knowledge that so many forms of wheels will be thirty inches in diamsickness are not due to any actual dis-ease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant plpe tires. The front gear will be one family laxative, Syrup of Figs, prompt-ly removes. That is why it is the only On the rear wheel the indirect gear hundred and the rear gear sixty-eight. dy with millions of families, and is will be used, the same as that adopted everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value gocd health. Its beneficial ty-fifth man, who will occupy the rear seat, will be the steersman, and will cleanliness, without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore lon as the steersman on a book-and-

The machine will be but two feet wide, and rigged in the double tandem styl ; that is, two riders side by side The total weight will be eighty pounds

Club prophesy that fifty stout legs at the pedals will ensure a speed of eighty miles an hore

Make the little sense you have com

He who thinks his place below him will certainly be below his place.

trols it. Cure Guaranteed by DR. J. F. MAYER 1013 ARCH ST., PHILA., PA. Esse at ence: no operation or draw ir m business. Comb inti in free. Endorsements of phases. Indices and iromineut citizens. Send her circular. O acc hours 9 A. M. to 3 P. M RUPIURD

The Rev. Father Peter Adair, of St telling Job everything had been lost. L uis, Mo., called upon all the young the Lord's messengers were on the men in his congregation one morning way to say that his gain had been a recently, who were scaring motto hundred per cent. buttons to hand them to him.

FITS stopped free and permanently cured. No fits after first day's use of Du. KLINE'S GREAT NEARY RESTORE. Free Strind bottle and treat-ise Send to Dr. Kline, Si Arch St. Phila, Pa. By his power of intellect and nobility II carried me through the change of fits after first day's use of Du. KLINE'S GREAT of soul the late Jules Simon, the French statesman and philanthropist, raised health. It also cured my husband of By his power of intellect and nobility himself to a high station, yet he re-

For two hours some boys in New mained to the close of his life a sim-York kicked a small bur die about the ple, modest man. This is what his size of a baseball around the streets friend, Baron Pierre de Coubertin, and played catch with it. Finally the writes of him in the Review of Rebundle was opened and $780 in notes views:

was found within. Jules Simon was as modest as he was Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syiup for children softens the gams, reduces inflamma fon, allays pain, curs wind colic. 25c. a bottle able. He had often expressed a wish mentioned a desire to be told when own epitaph:

Liberty!

a bicycle!

York Journal.

dam?

Teapots were the invention of either death was approaching. A friend fulthe Chinese or the Indians, and are of filled this sad duty. The philosopher uncertain antiquity. They came to showed no signs of emotion or fright Europe with tea in 1610. on hearing the terrible news.

As he could speak no longer, he mo-Piso's | ure is a wonderful Cough medicine.-Mrs. W. Pickster, Van Sielen and Blake Aves. Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 25, 894. tioned for a pencil and a sheet of paper, and with a steady hand wrote his brains," writes the author of "Here ful motto that had commanded and himself a pauper-his guardian having farm-hand and frontier judge. He could break a leg, make a piano, set a limb, grind an axe, splice a rope, mend shoes, plait a sieve, quote from the Greek poets, classify a bug, explain wheel. Bicycles for four or six riders tion of two fossii fragments. His most little finger booked in the "eye" of the iron; his proudest recollection that he had been an effective judge. Of his judgeship he told this story "I had just been elected judge there.

A Frontier Judge. "One of the best 'classics' I ever knew

A fellow up for horse-stealing, consented to be tried by six furors, as most of the men were off to a new golddigging. Well, I summed up; the jury retired. I waited outside a long time, but the jury waited inside a long time, "The sheriff could not get in. I did when I had lost patience. Five of them for conviction, were bailed up by the sixth for the acquittal of his friend. He would not let the five jurors out. He was a desperate chap, and they were mean white dirt. Well, I had to tackle him. When we commenced he was 'the bully of Little Elk Creek;' when we ended, I was. He volunteer ed to bring in a verdict of guilty before I let him up, but I lost these two fingers of my left hand by a bowieknife amputation. "Oh, I was very popular there! My calm, firm administration of the law ouched them."

when sound can go but in only one direction it travels far. An old well at Cerisbrook castle, Isle of Wight, is 182 feet deep. On a still day a pin can be heard to strike the water. Not for thirty years has the Birming ham timplate trade been in so presperous a state.

tressing time with The devil has - good grip on the man perfect safety and 9 6 or woman who never thinks of attendcomfort, Mrs. W. and ing church, no matter whether they live L. Day, of Betts-While the devil's messengers were Jules Simon's Modesty.

JULES SIMON. 1814-1896.

Dieu, Patrie, Liberte.

Too Awful to Contemplate.

French Milliner-Oh, par blue! ze papers are telling ze exact cost of making

Assistant-But, why your alarm, ma

Milliner (tragically)-Why! Why?-

why, suppose zey next tell ze actual sirable one as the wise people,

His name, the year of his birth and ville, Ohio, says :--"When all else failed, Lydia > Vegetable Compound saved my life. It carried me through the change of kidney trouble."

ruled his whole life: God, Country, AGENTS dies. Specher & Co., E. Aurora, N. )

JOHN W MORFIS, WASHINGTON, B. C. Late Principal Examinar T. B. Peaston Bureau Synt. in last war, 10 adjudiciting claima, atty- since

OPIUM HABIT DRUNKENNESS Carol DR. J.L. STEPHENS, LEBANON, ORIG

cost of making a $40 bonnet!-New The odd thing about marriage is that a fool is just as likely to make a de-CONSUMPTION

SAPOLIO They Used to Say "Woman's Work is Never Done."

horror-stricken, but with no external "Oh yes of course. I forgot about it. and went on with the business of the meeting. He soon made an opportunity of slipping away to his private room for his old bearer, and said: my walstcoat pocket some time ago?"

te old man at last, in a disappointed States and served as trapper, navvy,

The bicycle "built for two" was the first departure from the single-seated the binomial theorem, or fix the relaare comparatively common. Now it is cherished accomplishment was being announced that a bicycle for twenty- able to lift a blacksmth's anvil by his five, a duodeciplet, so to speak, is un-

Naturally the club had difficulty in