William McDonald, of Patterson, lost his left hand one evening last week while in the act of boarding a freight train at Lewistown. Only a few days before that, Fred J. DeHuff, of Patterson had the front part of his right foot crushed and his right hip dislocated while jumping freight cars.

Congress is wrestling with the new tax bill. The soldiers in the field have to be paid and the munitions of war have to be paid, and the people who pay it are those who stay at home, work and carry on business. The reason the Spanish are such poor soldiers is found in the fact that the industrial and business habits of the Spaniards at home are poor.

The Spanish torpedo boat destroyer cruising off Gibraltar was blown to pieces by the bursting of her boilers or coal bunkers, one day last week. She was 192 feet long, 25 feet wide, carried 458 tons, and drew 7 feet of water, and was a swift boat, steaming at the rate of 22 miles an hour. She had a crew of 55 men.

Rare weeds, rich in medicinal properties are exhibiting themselves in the green plot around the Court House, and here and there wild flowers show their beauty. It is said by some that the Court House and Court yard janitor is studying medicinal botany and for that reason he refrains from giving the above mentioned plants a clean low down clip with the mower.

Undertaker Snyder has fitted up a handsome cabinet of six cases with coffins of that many different styles. And they seek a casket for a deceased friend or relative to sit on the chair and make a selection to suit their taste and purse. It is the most convenient arrangement by which to select funeral ceremonies, and worth a visit to see even if you have no dead friend to serve.

William Henry Wertz, and several other young men were seated on the grass playing cards, about 5 p. m., on the afternoon of May 12, one hundred and twenty yards from a stone quarry at Wagsy station near Altoona, when a blast was set off. A 50 pound stone from the blast dropped among the boys and struck Wertz and broke his back. The young man died in about four hours.

The fifth regiment Pennsylvania National Guard left 34 Gretna at noon on Tuesday and passed up the Juniata Valley on their way to Chickamauga. They passed this station between 3 and 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Many people were at the station to see the train of 13 cars pass by. Other trains passed with other regiments. When the 5th regiment passed the station a number of hard tack crackers were thrown off, everyone of which had something written on it.

To the people of Millintown. We are proud for Chickamauga's signers. Nixon, Callahan, Mettelian, Ellis. An other cracker had written on it "Remember the Maine, and to H— with the Spaniards. Many crackers were broken by the fall and the writing thus spoiled.

The Court House was crowded last Thursday evening to witness the commencement exercises and graduation of seven High School pupils. The exercises were interesting, and the addresses entertaining. Each one of the graduating class made an address and every one was liberally applauded by the clipping of hands. The graduates Lola M. Harley, Wallace D. Derr, Anna M. Craig, Laura M. Noble, Alda M. Willett, Lottie K. Schott, Betty W. Mayer. Ruth Ancker gave the responses for class of '98.

Isabelle McClinton for class of 1900. The form deliverances of class '99 and 1900 when their time comes, will be to the front as was abundantly proven by the representatives of those classes on the platform last Thursday night. The Patterson orchestra was highly applauded. The invocation was by Rev. A. N. Haven. The address by Olen C. Gortner, Principal of the school. The presentation of diplomas by Dr. L. P. Walley, and the benediction by Rev. W. H. Fats. The schools went with over the patriotic music played by the orchestra, and the audience rose to its feet and joined in singing national songs. The graduates lined on the platform and a large percentage of the audience passed by shaking hands and expressing congratulation.

The Keystone Boiler Company of Huntingdon, are desirous of moving their plant to this town. They can secure a plot of seven acres of ground alongside of the railroad near the station at this place. A number of business men held a meeting to devise ways and means to raise $15,000 that the company want to bring their plant to this town. Mr. R. W. Jacobs of the boiler company, is known to a good many people in this town, they having made his acquaintance when he was engaged in placing in a sewer in a number of the streets. The citizens who have been promoting the enterprise are abundantly able to start the factory. They are business men, lawyers, bankers and men of means. The plant it is said will start with forty men employed. That many more men a great help to the business. The store keepers would be benefited, the butchers and bakers, the water company and the electric light company, the men who have the houses to rent, the banks would be benefited and when so many are benefited the benefits become general. Now having put the hand to the plow it is hoped that they may not turn back, but go on with the work to the establishment of a business that may prove to be a thing of joy and profit to the projectors and owners.
