HOW GUFFEY RULES HIS PARTY.

HE COULD NOMINATE A YELLOW DOG FOR GOVERNOR IF HE CHOOSE.

Pittsburg Dispatch. A week before the convention Colonel Guffey, in a room over his own office in this city, said to a prominent Democrat that he couldn't nominate Gordon.

"He is a brainy fellow," said Guffey, "ambitious, vain and autocratic. He would run away with the whole business if he was elected, I couldn't do anything with him. I sent for George Jenks. I said to Jenks, 'I want you to be governor. You don't know anything about politics, and I don't want you to know anything about it. You can give the people the kind of an administration they want, and I'll look after the political end of it. You don't want to bother about the office. Jenks said to me, 'You can run the whole show in fact—really run the administration, while Jenks would be nominally governor.' A few days afterward (in New York) Guffey said that he wouldn't consent to consent to Judge Gordon, and he was asked:

"Colonel, would you rather nominate George Jenks and be disgusted than take Gordon and elect him by a overwhelming majority?" Guffey replied promptly, "Yes. Certainly, yes."

This to one of the delegates whom Guffey had arranged to hold the western delegates by his own avowed candidacy till the time came for him to turn them over to Judge Gordon—an arrangement that was not only thoroughly understood by Guffey, but was one of his own suggestions. On Tuesday, the 14th of June, Guffey got the delegates from the counties of Allegheny together and announced that he could not be a candidate, as his physician had forbidden him to undertake the strain of a campaign.

One of the delegates who were present, afterward one of the most conspicuous at the state convention, pointed out that the delegates would be divided between Jenks and Gordon, the latter having a BATTLE the best of it in strength. Guffey then stepped forward and made a speech that lined the delegates up for Jenks.

As Colonel Guffey remarked after the convention, "It was my convention. I could have put a yellow dog on the ticket if I had wanted to."

Guffey showed plainly that he had no personal antagonism to Gordon in this connection. "I will make him national committeeman in my place," he said to one of Gordon's friends before the convention, but after he had turned Gordon down, "I will do anything in the world for him, but I cannot nominate him for governor."

"Why?" he was asked. "Because he won't say he voted for Bryan."

"That's all rot," was the blunt reply this elicited from the man to whom it was said, and who proceeded to remind Guffey of the efforts it took to get him into line with the Bryan Democracy at the last national election.

This reason or explanation for Guffey's rejection of Gordon is particularly amusing out here, where his own anti-Bryanism is well remembered. Of course Guffey not only knew of Gordon's attitude, but approved of it before he turned in with Gordon's friends, and he especially approved of the Judge's decision to remain silent or reticent on the subject of national politics, expressing the opinion that this course would make him stronger in the state. It is not alone what is remembered of Guffey's own attitude, but an interview in the Leader, of this city, Guffey said that for the silver party to win would be a "national calamity," and other things in the world for him, but I cannot nominate him for governor."

STORM'S HAVOC IN VERMONT.

BENNINGTON, Vt., Aug. 25.—Reports from various places in this vicinity show that heavy damage has been sustained as a result of the remarkable series of thunder storms which began on Tuesday and continued through yesterday. In fifteen towns near here, mostly in Bennington county, twenty-three barns, and a number of outbuildings and grain have been struck by lightning and damaged to a greater or less extent. The property value of these buildings aggregated several thousand dollars.

Thirteen dwellings have been struck, three of which were burned, causing a loss of $4,500. The damage to cornfields and orchards by wind is estimated at several hundred dollars and that to highways at $20,000.

THE NEW PENSION LIST.

Philadelphia North American.—The War Department is taking a step which most everybody in the future in its regulations for mustering out the soldiers. The physical condition of each man will be noted before he receives his discharge papers, so that it will be practically impossible to have future pension claims on diseases originating in the army service, unless such actual exist. It is no secret that thousands of men are drawing pension to-day to which they are not entitled, and millions of dollars are being paid out wrongfully.

When a soldier honestly deserves a pension he should have it, and it should be liberal, but frauds should be barred out. Under the new system, when a soldier enters a claim for disability arising in the service his record will be looked up and the mustering-out data will show whether the claim is just. In spite of this some frauds will no doubt creep in, but the new regulations will go far toward keeping them out. A man who is mustered out physically sound has no title to a pension, and if he contracts a disease afterwards which was not due to his service in camp, there is no reason why he should make it the basis for a claim on the government.

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy CURES ALL KIDNEY, STOMACH AND LIVER TROUBLES.

Letter from a Woman

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy frequently cures several members of a family. While it is considered by many to be a Kidney and Bladder Medicine, it is just as certain to cure Dyspepsia, Constipation, Rheumatism, Scrofula and Eczema. This is because it first puts the Kidneys in a healthy condition, so they can sift all impurities from the blood.

Healthy blood practically means a completely healthy body. Here is a letter from Mrs. Capt. Parra Roca, of N. Y.: "My husband was troubled with his kidneys, fearfully with shooting pains through his back. He took Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, and is now well and strong. Although several years of age, he is as hearty as a man many years younger. I was so troubled with Dyspepsia that it was painful for me to walk. My food did me no good, as my stomach could not digest it. Somebody recommended Favorite Remedy to me, and after taking two bottles of it I was completely cured, and am feeling splendid now. We both attribute our good health to Favorite Remedy."

It is prescribed with unfailing success for Nerve Troubles, and for the Liver and Blood it is a specific. It has cured many that were beyond the aid of other medicine. Ask your druggist for it, and insist upon getting it. Don't take a substitute. It will cost you $1.00 for a regular full-sized bottle.

Sample Bottle Free

If you want to try Favorite Remedy before buying, send your full postal address to the Dr. DAVID KENNEDY CORPORATION, Rondout, N. Y., and mention this paper.
