THOSE are innocent lamb like Republicans who want to trust the ment of national and state affairs. The democratic party never could manage nation and state. Under Democratic management, slavery flourshed and developed rebellion. There is one from a parent who and later under Democratic Cleve land management, the nation was running to a state of backrupicy as rapidly as it was possible to go. In state affairs the D-mocratic management put the state in debt forty mil lion dollars and every year the indebtedness was growing larger. The state would be bankrupt by this time if the Republican party had not been elected. The Republican Leg-
