'Twas Mrs. 'Lige Hawkins begun it; She allers hez had the idee That the church was built so's she coul

'Cause Hawkins is deacon, you see. She thought that the hull congregation Jest marched to the tune of her fife, But she found 'twas a wrong calkerlation Applied to the minister's wife.

Then Mrs. Jedge Jenks got excited, She thinks she's the hull upper crust When she heerd the Smiths was invited To meetin', she quit in disgust. "You may have all the papers you choose Sez she, jest as sharp as a knife, "But if they go to church, I refuse to,"

"Good-bye," sez the minister's wife.

And then Mrs. Jackson got stuffy At her not comin' sooner to call; And old Miss MacGregor is huffy 'Cause she went up to Jackson's at all Each one of the crowd hates the other, The church hez bin full of their strife, But now they're all hatin' another, And that one's the minister's wife.

But still, all the cackle unheeding She soes in her ladylike way, A-givin' the poor what they're needin', And helpin' the church every day. Our numbers each Sunday is swellin', And real, true religion is rife. And sometimes I feel like a-yellin' "Three cheers for the minister's wife!"

HIS WOOING.

N the top story of a pretentious dwelling in one of the chief streets schools in England with great credit. Unfortunately he had been thinking of inventing an "automatic brake" to keep railway engines from running through each other when meeting on a day and night to the perfection of plans and models for this invention. on the first floor landing, he came face and legislative authority. to face with a beautiful young girl, a

She came and she disappeared. The next day Foote chanced to find himself on that same landing at that same hour, and-more fortuitous stillthe girl referred to passed him again. This time at least it seemed so she blushed as she passed.

After which, with due precaution, he made inquiry as to the name of the pretty girl that lived on the first floor. and was more than charmed to find that it was "Miss Flora Valentine," Foote, who was as reckless personally as he was devoted to his fellow beings, made a careful examination of his poor wardrobe, dressed himself in the best of the lot and descended to Flora's father, no other, in fact, than Mr. Valentine, proprietor of this pretentious dwelling, and bluntly addressed to him the following request:

for voer daughter's hand." cried the old man. "For whom, if you fireworks at the store, is held, in Phoe- squaws put the fruit which is not so please?" "For myself."

under the eaves?"

"The same, sir." "Then what is amiss with your head. young man? Don't you know that my daughter has £4,000? And you, what have you?"

And the poor young man retired disconsolate.

disastrous results for the inventor, utilizing the cores and parings of ap- tions were taken to hold the savages made but a passing impression upon ples. They occasionally sold them to in check during those particular the mind of Flora's father. That which the jelly-makers or fed them to the periods. made his face so anxious some twenty- hogs, but more generally allowed them four hours later was the fact that his to accumulate as refuse in great heaps drawing-room fire had suddenly begur | which slowly fermented and decayed. to smoke like a trooper.

with importance and running, the after which they are packed in large "But your chimney, sir, was built by say, it cannot smoke!"

good, clear fire." But the substitution of coke for coal did not make the chimney draw a whiff Louis Globe-Democrat. the better. The fumes from the coke were something dreadful. Mr. Valentine went himself to the best architect in the town and begged him to come and look into the matter. The architect consented, and, the examination made, was exceedingly frank in the expression of his opinion.

"Who is the blockhead that built the thing?" said he. "Hodgkinson, my builder." "So I thought. Extend the chimney five feet higher to increase the draft and it will go all right. The chimney was raised, but still it smoked, and the architect's bill was bleber than the stack. Disgusted with architects, Mr. Valentine, then addressed himself to sweeps.

The drawing room was now bluer than a country tap room. At this june et so the ants could not get in?" ture the cook interposed.

how he can stop the chimbly smoking." Bring him here, then, immediately. And quick as lightning Foote-for Foote it was-was down from his lofty beight at Mr. Valentine's bidding. "Oh fi's you, is it?" said he, "that five minutes an incurable chimney. No matter. Go on; from an electric arc formed inside of have a try. I want to see you do it." "Five minutes is rather brief, I want an hour.'

Then an hour you shall have. Name "Sir," answered Foote, with dignity "you will give me the hand of Miss Valentine! That is my price, to be paid only after success." "For a chimney? You are crazy.

"For a chimney, sir, no; for tha chimney, yes. Call in, if you like, all the builders in Manchester, and if the whole of them can do in three month time what I am going to do in one hour, garnely, keep this and all other chim nees in the condition of this one from smoking, I consent that you call me knave and fool both! "So be it; have your way. I'm off. Do as you please in peace and quiet.

No peeps through the keyhole?" "And if I succeed I've your promis--Miss Flora's hand?"

ly inappropriate to the gravity of the "Come, come, sir, begin your worl I'm a man of justice." But once alone, Mr. Foote, instead of obeying and beginning his work, but gan losing his time in idle trifling, high MYTCH. An attentive constitut have heard him murmuring as he als "It is here that my adored one

This, with other frivolous manners of open the door and called them all in. "The fire, sir, the fire; start it immediately!" His command obeyed, the and its lew-built "adobe" houses, while force and energy that it very nearly precious metal and its sandy deserts drew up the coals themselves and no

"It is splendid!" cried Mr. Valentine, overjoyed; "sublime, splendid, and you scerpion, seem but part and parcel of shall be my son-in-law if Flora says our sister republic on the south.

"Oh, yes, papa!" said Flora, "yes. ves: your son-in-law." One year after this marvelous event Foote was married to the fair Flors. which appears to grow everywhere The old gentleman was as gental as "This reminds me, my boy," said he some hours after the event, "that there is one thing that I want you to explain to me a little more fully. It is true that your automatic brake was not a success, but your other inventions are bringing you in pots of money. I am worrying about that other great invention, which you leave entirely idle.' "My other invention," cried Foote, bewildered, "what do you mean?" "You know very well what I mean What could I mean but that secret of yours to keep chimneys from smok-

"Please don't let us talk of that." 'Why not, pray?"

"But you will make me tell things that I don't want to tell, things that I want to keep to myself." "Go on, go on; tell me, I say!"

"Well, then, you know that I never stopped your chimney from smoking-I only stopped making it smoke! I was living under the roof then, and had only to stretch up my arms and cover in Manchester, immediately under the chimney fine with anything handy. name of Foote. He had just passed a plate, for instance. It was your fault through one of the chief engineering the lover to resort to strategy to wip the girl he loved."

What the Law Decides. single crack. Full of this idea, he had light plant for a municipal corporation and prevents the evaporation of the declined some rather advantageous pro- is held, in Mayo vs. Washington (N. water within. Where the sahuara gets posals in order to give himself entirely (1.) 40 L. R. A. 163, not to be one of the this water is a mystery since it grows One day on the staircase, or rather of the majority of the qualified voters yearly intervals. This water, how-> car is held, in Kingston vs. Fort Wayne ing only to increase thirst. intoxication as affecting negligence.

"I have the honor, sir, of asking you surance was issued on the stock, or Indian equaws dry it and prepare it that one of the firm of agents which into a dish resembling fig-paste. "Eh? What? My daughter's hand?" issued the policy soon after purchased But there is a use to which the hix Insurance company vs. Flemming commandable. It is pressed in wide, (Ark.), 39 L. R. A. 780, to be sufficient follow basket; and the juice collected urself-but are you not my to show knowledge of the agent when in pottery lodger of the top floor-right up there, issuing the policy that the fireworks tive manufacture. The ollas are then were kept in stock.

Champagne from Apple Parings. This year in many places the parings In flot haste he sent for his builder and cores are being saved. They are sacks and held for buyers, who gather "Bridget, did you fix that sugar buck "Yls, mum. Of tuk th' handle off th "One of the top lodgers, sir, says as cover."-Up to Date.

> New Electrical Iron. A new type of electrically heated iron derives its heat not from the expenditure of the current in passing through a wire of high resistance, but Mistress-I saw two policemen sitting the kitchen with you last night, Bridget. Bridget-Well, ma'am, yez vouldn't hov an unmarried lady be sitin' alone with only wan policeman, would yez? The other wan wus a chapron.-Puck.

Why Red Maddens Oxen. Red irritates oxen because it's the mplementary color to green, and the es of the cattle being fixed so much a herbuge, anything red impresses oir sight with increased intensity.

"Ah!" joyfully cried the young man who had got employment at painting he Union Station, "the prophecies of y family are now being fulfilled. They fren said that I would adorn some reat station before I died."—Cincinnati inquirer.

The umpire who renders a decision minst the home team knows what it to be without friends.

Love fills unoccupied hearts and rat ties unoccupied heads.

-

THE GIANT CAOTUS,

athern New Mexico and Arizona and southwestern Texas embrace a reocedure, having exhausted the allot- gien totally unlike any other section ted sixty minutes, Mr. Valentine threw of the United States. This portion of our country bears evidence of its Mexi can origin in its swarthy population chimney was found to draw with such its bleak mountains hiding treasures of smong whose greasewood and mesquite bushes live the poisenous tarantula, the venomets rattlemake and the stinging

That which strikes the traveler most facefoly, however, in journeying through the sandy wastes, is the won-derful huxuriance of the cactus family the lewly chells (chey'yah), the reed-like condita (c-kah-bee'yah) and that unsightly giant, the great sakuara (cah-wah'rah). The dryer the sand and the hefter the gun the better the castus seems to flourish. On some cannot pain through them, so ferce are the sharp spines of the cholia "balls." Ourved at their ends like fish-hooks. these little spines pierce leather and fasten upon the skin of the foot, causing the most intense pals. lough and repulsive as these various kinds of cactus are, however, yet a use has been found for most of them. After treating the stems of some of the smaller varioties, furniture is manufactured from them-chairs, tables and other small articles: the tall, graceful stems of the ocalilla are gathered and woven into fences, while the weird, uncouth sabuara is put to a number of uses which will require a more detailed

The sahurara, easily the king of the cactus family, is peculiar to Arizona, its fluted columns with its gaunt, up ward-growing arms, covering the deserts, in some places, like a veritable forest. It is often twenty feet in height and its heart is a watery pulp protected by long parallel strips of tough, fibrous wood reaching from base to top, the whole covered with a thick, green skin A debt for the purchase of an electric | which successfully turns the sun's rays "necessary expenses" of the town in the dryest of places where rains which can be incurred without a vote come, if they come at all, at almost ever, is of no use to man as many a The intoxication of a passenger stand- poor prospector has found to his sor ing on the running board of a street- row. It is estringent and bitter, serv-

& Erle Railway company (Mich.), 40 The Indians of the country-Apaches, L. R. A. 131, not to absolve the com- Pimas, Papagoes, Maripocas-use the pany from exercising care toward him, straight, flexible poles which form the or to prevent his recovering damages if skeleton of the sahuara in the construcinjured by the carrier's negligence, tion of their buts. Like the "prickly With this case is an extensive note on pear," the glant cactus also bears a fruit which grows on the very tips of The application of the proceeds of a the parent stalk and its branches. This sale under a deed of trust to the first fruit is nearly the size and shape of a of two notes secured is held, in Ow- hen's egg. When ripe it is of a scarlet ings vs. McKenzie (Mo.), 40 L. R. A. hoe and splits open into four lobes, dis-154, to be valid as against objections closing a pulpy mass about the comby mesne conveyancers who by pur- sistency of a fig and filled with minute chase and sale of the property have black seeds. The Mexicans and Indiana become sureties, although their liabili- are passionately fond of this fruit-and ty has been released by extension of so are the birds. The former, if so fortunate as to get ahead of their feath-The fact that firewords were on ex- ered rivals, take long poles and knock hibition in a store when a policy of in- the fruit from the top of the stalk. The stored in a small room where a fire is kept burning until the appearance of a white froth on the surface of the liquid. It is then a strong drink called "tiz-The practice of the economics in the win," for which the Indians show a goods under false pretenses, has recentfruit-raising sections of the west has deplorable fondness. In former years developed a new article of export. Un. the government always expected til recently the orchard owners and the trouble from its red proteges in "tiz-That visit, however, which had such evaporator managers did not think of win-time," and extraordinary precau-

A Royal Martyr to Et quette. In Spain the etiquette to be observed and surveyor; in hot haste, puffing spread out in the hot sun and dried. In the royal palaces was carried to such and the next time the dog came in with length as to make martyrs of their a slip of paper between his teeth he kings. There is an historic instance. them up and send them away in car Philip III. was gravely seated by the my plan," said the builder; "that is to lots. The destination of the dried par. fire; the firemaker of the court had gation showed that whenever the dog ings and cores in these large quantities kindled so great a quantity of wood "All the same, sir, the chimney is France. It is no secret that the ref. that the monarch was nearly suffocated around for a piece of paper and trotted use of the orchards of the Missouri val. with heat, and his grandeur would not off to the shop. "Because you burn coal in it. Burn ley and the Ozark country is now larg, suffer him to rise from the chair; the coke, and coke entirely. You'll get a ly employed in the manufacture of domestics could not presume to enter champagne by the thrifty winemakers the apartment, because it was against of the vineclad slopes of France.—St the suquette. At length the Marquis "I've got a secret to tell you after of his lance through your skin there is other column of this paper do Totat appeared, and the king ordered him to damp the fires; but he excused himself, alleging that he was forbidden by the etiquette to perform me such a function, for which the Duc d'Usseda ought to be called upon, as it was his business. The duke was gone out; the fire burned fiercer, and the king endured it rather than derogate from his dignity. But his blood was fever succeeded which carried him off him?" in the twenty-fourth year of his age .-London Star

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other pares. The high standing of the CALI-FORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. with the medical profession, and the satisfaction which the genuine Syrup of Figs has given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guaranty of the excellence of its remedy. It is far in advance of all other laxatives. as it acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels without irritating or weakening them, and it does not gripe nor nauseate. In order to get its beneficial effects, please remember the name of

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.

SAN FRANCISCO, Col.

About It. DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:-When I wrote to you I had not been well for five years; had doctored all the time but got no better. I had womb trouble very bad. My womb pressed backward, causing piles. I was in such misery I could scarcely walk across the floor. Menstruction was irregular and too profuse, was also troubled with had given up all hopes of getting well: everybody thought I had consumption. five bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I felt very much better and was able to do nearly all my own work. I continued the use of your medicine, and feel that I owe my recovery to you. I cannot thank you enough for your advice and your wonderful medicine.

Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass. All suffering women are invited to write to her for advice, which will be given without charge. It is an experienced woman's advice to women.

OUR BOYS AND GIRLS

THIS IS THEIR DEPARTMENT OF THE PAPER.

Quaint Sayings and Cute Doings of the Little Folks Everywhere, Gathered and Printed Here for All Other Little Ones to Read.

The Hill of Cellar Door. know a hill not far away Where children always love to play: The bill is straight, and smooth, and low-For little folks 'tis better so.

The coasting there is very nice. Without the celd of snow and ice You silde in summer, fall or spring. But need not bother sleds to bring.

It is the safest hill I've found:

But "is not far you have to fall. And would not hurt a child at all It's very near your home, and so Your mother'll always let you go. For then she knows you're right near by And she can hear you if you cry.

So un von scremble down von slide And ch, you have a jolly ride; You always want to play some more Upon the Hill of Cellar Door.

A lishonest Pog. A true story of a farmer's dog which has been found guilty of obtaining ly been told. The animal is extremely fend of biscuits and has been taught by his owner to go after them for himself, carrying a written order in his mouth. Day after day he appeared at the chandier's shop, bringing his master's order, and by-and-by the shopman became careless about reading the document.

Finally, when settlement day came. the farmer complained that he was charged with more biscuits than he ordered. The chandler was surprised. took the trouble to look at it. The paper was blank, and further investifelt a craving for a biscuit, he looked Golden Rule Arithmetic. "Phil," whispered Kenneth Brooks. school.

"Nice?" asked Phil. "Yes," was the answer; "nice for "Oh!" said Phil, and his evebrows fell. He followed Kenneth around behind the school house after school to hear the secret. "My Uncle George," said Kenneth, "has given me a ticket to go and see rare in Lapland. His bite is practically heated to such a degree that he was the man that makes canary birds fire painless; you rarely notice it at the seriously ill the next day. A violent off pistols and all that. Ever seen "No," said Phil, hopelessly, "Well, it's first rate, and my ticket > cutting a caper of delight. "Same thing both times?" asked Phil. "No, sir-ee; new tricks every time. I say, Phil," Kenneth continued, struck > will take me in twice," said Kenneth, with the other's mournful look, "won't your Uncle George give you one?" "I ain't got any Uncle George," said "That's a fact. How about your mother, Phil?" "Can't afford it," answered Phil, with his eyes on the ground. Kenneth took his ticket out of his pocket and looked at it; it certainly promised to admit the bearer into Mozart Hall two afternoons. Then he looked at Phil, and a secret wish stole into his heart that he hadn't said anything about his ticket; but after a few minutes' struggle, "Plaff" he cried, "I wonder if the man wouldn't change this and give me two tickets that would take you and me in one time?"

Phil's eyes grew bright, and a happy little smile crept over his broad little face. "Do you think he would?" he asked eagerly. "Let's try," said Kenneth, and the two little boys started off to the office window at the hall. "But, Kenneth," said Phil, stopping short, "it ain't fair for me to take your ticket."

"It is, though," answered his friend, stoutly. "'cause I'll get more fun from going once with you than twice by my-This settled the matter, and Phil gave

"So you want two tickets for one time?" said the agent. "Yes, sir," said Kenneth, taking off his sailor hat to the great man, "one for me and one for Phil, you know." "You do arithmetic by the Golden Rule down here, don't you?" asked the ticket man. 'No, eir, we use Bernard Smith's,'

MRS. PINKHAM'S ADVICE, answered the boys. And they didn't now for a long time what that man east by Golden Rule.—Union Signal.

> Juvenile Sayinge. Little 5-year-old Tommy had been looking at the new meen for some time. and finally asked: "Mamma, did God make that moon?" "Certainly, my boy," replied the mether. "I suppose, continued the little fellow, "he cut the old one up into stars, didn't he?"

> "Papa." said little 4-year-old Margie, "I think you are just the nicest man in the whole world." "And I think you are the nicest little girl in the world," > replied her father. "Course I am." said > Margie. "Am't it queer how such nice people happened to get into the same family?

Clara had been told that bables were from the dust of the earth. One day when the rain was falling in torrents she steed gazing eadly out of the win-"Why, Clara, what makes you look so sad?" asked her mother. ''Cause," she replied, "I've been wanting for a little brother to play with, and now there won't be any dust left to make one."

Mamie, aged 3, was present at dinner advice and your wonderful medicine.

Any one doubting my statement may write to me and I will gladly answer all inquiries,—Mrs. Nell Hurst, Deepwater, Mo.

Letters like the foregoing, constantly being received, contribute not a little to the satisfaction felt by Mrs.

Pinkham that her medicine and counsel are assisting women to bear their heavy burdens.

Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn Mass.

Mrs. Pinkham's ad the other evening when a number of tened to her assistance. After brushing her clothing as well as he could he offered to escort her home. "No, thank you," replied the little lady with digity: "we haven't been introduced, and would be quite improper."

Some children are naturally inclined to take a practical view of things. A little fellow, aged 4, was repeating a prayer after his mamma, ending with Three Hundred Ship Passengers Saved "God bless papa, mamma, grandma, brother and sister, and everybody." "Mamma," said he, "if we had said 'ev- ing account of a shipwreck apropos of erybody at the start it wouldn't have the recent sinking of La Bourgogne. taken up so much of God's time."

on a steamer of the Hamburg-Ameri-THE WICKED KNORT. He Makes More Trouble in Lapland which in a dense fog struck on a ledge than the Mosquito. The sun was shining brightly through was 5 o'clock in the morning when the the window of the little wooden but as seamer struck, and her 300 passengers I tumbled out of bed on August 10, last were asleep. They were instantly year. Three days' tramp from the Nor- aroused and told to dress as quickly wegian coast across rough fields and as they could. When the first-cabin spongy bogs, one long day of rowing passengers came from their state-rooms and shooting rapids, varied with spells they found that the stewards had hot of walking round the dangerous falls, coffee on the dining-saloon tables, that has brought us late the night before at one and the same time to allay their to this little settlement in Lapland. The fears and to give their physical systems dozen Inhabitants, part Swedes, part the immediate sustenance they requir-Lapps, were already hard at work on ed. They were then sent on deck, and their scanty harvest, and beyond the were quickly but quietly assigned to small field I caught a glimpse of the the different boats, which were lowriver, here widening out into a glitter- ered as rapidly, but as orderly, as ing lake, shining like a sheet of silver, possible, the ship's officers throwing scarcely ruffled by a breath of wind, down blankets taken from the cabins What a morning for a bath! How glo- into the boats after they were launched, riously refreshing to travel-tired limbs! as a means of giving protection to "Look out!" cried Jack, "the room's some of the younger children, who had full of them! Light up, quick!" H'sh; been hurried out with hardly any cloththe air was suddenly shrill with the ing upon them. high-pitched, hungry whistle of the From the time that the ship struck mosquito. The window I had observed to the time that she sank in the ocean before was tightly closed-indeed, was less than half an hour, yet when would not open; the wide platform fire- she sank every one had left her, and place was stuffed up with green boughs, although there was the discomfort of Perhaps my brother had opened the staying in the crowded open boats for door too boldly, and had been lost in nearly twenty-four hours before landadmiration of the snow line mountains ing, not one life was lost out of the in the distance, or the creatures had nearly 500 passengers and crew on worked a way down the chimney. At board. This result, in our correspond-I flew, and for five minutes nothing that prevailed, the entire coolness of was heard from us but the steady puff- the ship's officers, who gave their orpuff of our lips as we filled the room ders as to what should be done withwith clouds of stupefying tobacco smoke.

One sometimes hears people who have excited and alarmed, but even these only met the mosquito in its milder were quieted and kept under complete more of a baptized sinning sinner than form, perhaps in Norway, or central control by the obvious coolness and of an unbaptized one? Sweden, or in southern countries, or possibly in Lapland in favorable years. or late in the season, maintain that its not found it so. The worst accounts that I had heard of it before I visited the country did not come anywhere near the reality. And even if the mosquito crop be a comparative failure in correspondent's experience. - Beston any season, there is a far more deadly insect waiting for you, a harmless-looking little sandfly, which the natives call a knort. The mosquito is a gentleman by comparison. He fights under the rules of civilized warfare; hostilities are openly declared, a shrill blare of of will, but in cleaving to a holier com trumpets heralds his approach. True, elements of the soul. he descends upon you in overpowering hosts, but from the fierce blast when he first sights his foe to the savage thrust see their liberal offer in advertisement in an hosts, but from the flerce blast when he nothing secret or underhand about him. Not so the little knort. In ones and twos he creeps stealthily upon you: there is no whistling of wings, no parade of skirmishing round the victim. Quietly he works his way into your clothing, where he seems as much at clothing, where he seems as much at home as any of the wingless vermin, which, fortunately, are comparatively rare in Lapland. His bite is practically painless; you rarely notice it at the which, fortunately, are comparatively time, but on the second day it swells into a big burning wound, to rub or chafe which is intolerable agony.-Bad-

Schley and Sampson. It is said that when Schley and Sampson were young officers on board the same ship a number of years ago the latter ordered severe punishment inflicted on a marine for an offense of which the man was guiltless. Schley protested, a quarrel ensued and the man who is now commodore slapped minton Magazine.

Sampson's face. Since then they have never been friends. Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. D afness is caused by an indiamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets infi-med you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is e-tirely closed Deafness it the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroy; d for ver. Nine cases out of ten are mation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be lestroy of for ever. Nine cases out of ten are aused by catarrh, which is nothing but an in-lamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hund, ed Dollars for any use of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh cure. Send for circulars, free.

F. J. Chenge & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best. Good sense is like truth-the same ow that it was when the first man talked on the face of the earth.

Clean blood means a clean skin. No beauty without it. Cascarets, Candy Cuthurtic clean your blood and keep it clean, by stirring up the lazy liver and driving all impurities from the body. Berin to-day to banish pumples, bolls, blotches blackheads, and that sickly billious complexion by taking Cascarets—beauty for ten cents. All druggists, satisfaction guaranteed, 10c., 25c., 50c.

Those people who think there is no onesty in the world have been studying selves too closely. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children eething, softens the gums, reducing Inflamma ion, allays pain, cures wind colle, 25c a bottle.

He is an unphilosophical man what parmits his dinner to cool while he med tates where he shall obtain his supper.

PORTO RICO.

Register-Gazette, Rockford, III.

dation fo

During the civil warnearly as much heroism was shown by the women of our nation

as by the brave soldiers. Many a woman

1697s.

One of the most earnest members of the corps at Byron, Ill., is Mrs. James Houseweart, but lilness once put a stop to her active work. A year or so ago, when she was nearing fifty years of ago, the time when women must be most careful of their strength, Mrs. Houseweart was taken seriously ill. The family physician told her that she had reached a critical period of her life, and must be very careful. His prescriptions and treatment did not benefit her, and other treatment proved unavailing.

At last Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale pills. They certainly have done me more good than any physician or any medicine l bave ever tried."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold in boxes

FFFFCT OF GOOD DISCIPLINE

She says that a number of years ago, when quite a child, she was a passenger ent's opinion, was due to the disciplin out even raising their voices. The steer-confidence of the ship's officers, who seemed to know precisely what to de

According to the more recent repor

La Bourgogne was adeat for forty minutes after the collision; that is, quite ten minutes longer than the time during which the vessel was afloat in our

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

wounds of his suffering comrades, rejo weeping for her dead son, bound up the Porto Rico lies seventy miles east of The ballowing engagement notice of Hayti, separated from it by the Mona peared the other day in the Franking Hayti, separated from R by the long and ter Estung: "Hubert W.

The island was discovered town of San House Knights of Sa. George, reval Ha. Columbus and in 1511 the town of San House Knights of Sa. George, reval Ha. Juan was founded and settled by Ponce is a valuable acquisition. It is exceptionally well watered and its general tured.

The staples of the island are sugar, and rice are extensively cultivated. louble in value those of Jamaica.

other modern conveniences. It is con- and-well-born Baren Hildegard Von nected by cable with Jamaica and by und zu Neuenburg, nee Bareness of telegraph with the other large cities of Hohen-Kapenberg.

Being almost wholly agricultural, the island is capable of splendid development. The island is governed by a captain general with headquarters at San Juan. Marie Pency, who perished in La Bourofficers.

(never in loose bulk) at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, and may be had of all druggists, or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. ern South America and Central America. It would hold a commanding place Within Less than Thirty Minutes. A correspondent sends us the follow-

950,000, of whom not more than 70,000 are native Spaniards.

1896 amounted to $36,500,000. can line, from New York to Europe, The foreign trade is chiefly with Spain. The United States, Germany, and over fifty years ago the fragment near Cape Race, Newfoundland. It Great Britain, Cuba and France combined hold about 28 per cent. of the trade.

Warning Notes Calling the Wicked to the open.

shining religion. It scares some people to see brains and plety get married God accepts no bribes. Pluck can outrun luck. Pelicy sits on the fence.

Error fights from ambush. Grit and grace win the race. Principle flies no flag of truce. Troubles strengthen true faith. Some big men are very small in God's Christ towers above all the great mer of history, like an Alpine peak. What better is a sinning man o woman in the church than a sinning age passengers, she says, were much sinner outside of the church? Do you suppose that God thinks any

> The question is not what number of blessings you have experienced, but are you that "blessed" man of Ps. 1:1? You might have a multitude of theories about a plurality of blessings, but do you live without committing known Don't wait for God to chase you into the home of the saved with a fire brand, but study faithfully Heb. 1:9 and do

"I must have another leaf put in."

"Ah, an autumn leaf-very appropr

"No, just a plain, hard board," said

"Plain, hard board," said the cheerful

Then he suddenly remembered that the stout lady was the landlady's sister, and put salt on his buckwheat cake

Refuting a Slander.

tied to your mamma's apron strings.

my mamma doesn't wear aprone. We Discovery of Tea.

Ten, according to Chinese writers was discovered in the eighth century.

The Dutch introduced it into Europe

Little Flossie-For shame! Always

Proud Gertie-I'll have you to know man. "More appropriate still."

ate," said the cheerful man.

likewise. This world will soon pass away, or, if Take Laxative Brome Quinine Tablets. A pruggists refund meney if it falls to cure. 25c. it does not we will, and nothing but God's righteousness will avail at the judgment seat of Christ.

anionship which shall arouse the better A sectarian preacher is prismatiche splits the light of truth into partsand thus presents the blue of uncharit-H. H. GREEN'S SONS, of Atlanta, Ga., are the ableness, the yellow of brazen bigotry, and the green of envy.

she said.

V in 1591

the stout lady.

-Washington Post.

Comments of the Cheerful Man. Power, unless managed with gentle-The cheerful man came into breakless and discretion, does but make a man the more hated. No intervals of good fast late the other morning. The stou lady opposite, who always comes down amor, no starts of bounty, will atone fro tyranny and oppression. to breakfast in a wrapper, was com plaining that the table was too crewd-Ton't Tobacco Spit and Smoke Your Life Away here the man is free to do what likes, the true, where a man is free to do what he ought.

RUPTURE Cure Guaranteed by DR J. B. MAYER, 1015 ARCH ST., PHILA., PA. Ease at once; no operation or delay from business. Consultation free. Endorsements of physicians, ladies and prominent citizens. Send for circular. Office hours 9 A. M. to 1 P. M.

The most happy man is he who knows sow to bring into relation the end and the beginning of his life. Educate Your Bowels with Casearets. Candy Cathartic, cure constinat on forever 0c., 25c. If C.C. C. fail, druggists refund money

To be happy is of far less consequence the worshippers of feshion than to apcar so. I believe Piso's Cure for Consur ny boy's life last summer. - Mrs. A. Ass, Le Roy, Mich., Oct. 20, 1804. If you would have the daily bread aste sweet, by your own efforts earn hat which you eat.

No To-Bac For Fifty Cents. anteed tobacco habit cure makes weak rong, blood purs. 50c, $1. All druggists A good man finds good wherever he coes, because the good in him brings out

Fits permanently cured. No fits or nervous-ness after first day's use of Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer, 82 trial bottle and treatise free. DR. R. H. KLINE, Ltd., 931 Arch St., Phila. Pa. As much bitterness and hate can be ed in a word, as can be fired out

To Cure Constipation Forever. Take Cascarets Candy Cathartic, 10c or 25c. On honest labor look not thou with corn; without it wealth of all its power s shorn.

ral Information About the Island in Paragraphic Form.

Passage. H is about And has a coast of the ematre The island was discovered in 1498 by of the Boyal Bayarian Orday

Commercially considered the island

nolasses and coffee, alse cotten, maire The Encyclopedia Britannica declares the exports of Porto Rico more than San Juan, the principal tewn of Porte Rico, is well laid out and is one of the

The city of Ponce, second in size to Porto Rico has a salubrious climate.

He is assisted by a junta of military Strategetically, Porto Rico is admirably situated. It commands the Mena Paris. She left her books and other and Virgin passes, the highways of trade to and from the coast of North- Louis Jacquard, of 126 Cleveland should the Nicaraguan Canal be constructed, for it is the doorway to the Caribbean Sea. The population of Porto Rice is about in a medallion and bears this label:

The foreign trade of the island in 1797."

RAM'S HORN BLASTS.

ME whets the sword of justice. Truth wins her battles in Fancy makes a poor pillow for a dying head. A whining religion is not a cy's father.

Pleasant, Paintable, Potent, Taste Good, Do CURE CONSTIPATION.

"A Perfect Type of the Highest Order of Costs Less Than ONE CENT a Cup.

ESTABLISHED 1780. FOR FIFTY YEARS! MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP

Why suffer untold pain and torture in childborth when it can be made safe, sure and easy by using MITCHELLA COMPOUND (Indorsed by leading physicians. Thousands of testimonials). Sent prepaid on receipt of price, $1.00. Write for our book, "Glad Tidings to Mothers," sent free.

LADY AGENTS WANTED-GOOD PAY.

Address: DR. J. H. DYE MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Dept. A. BUFFALO, N. Y.

cotment Free. Dr. H. H. GREEN'S SONS, Atlanta, Or WANTED—Case of bad health that RIPA-N-S will not benefit. Send 5 cts. to Ripans Chemical Co., New York, for 10 samples and 1000 testimonials.

framicted with } Thompson's Eye Water

Lagniappe

In reading the stories of New Orleans life that have been published from time to time during the last few years by Ruth McEnery Stuart and other writers familiar with the conditions of life in that Southern city, the reader is struck by the use of the term "lagniappe." It is applied to a bonus given to purchasers at the markets or shops;

a sort of premium, as it were. It may be confectionery, fruit, or some trifling article, but it is expected and given as a matter of course. "I," he started to say, "have always had an idea---" "I know it," she interrupted; "why don't you take a day off some time and the harawith in his own and in the name of his wife, the high-born Course ess Uranda Ven Drommelsheim, of the approaching marriage of his and of his appearance is beautiful. The lowlands late wife, now resting in God, the higheppearance is beautiful. Line of the Dounders Friedenike, Counters Von which large herds of cattle are pas Drommelsheim, nee Countess of Lee senbeurg-Alsheim's daughter, the high-born Countess Elsbeth Von Drombet sheim, with the high-well-born Baron Von und su Neuenburg, royal Bavarian Regiment, royal Bavarian gentleman of the chamber and knight of the royal Bavarian Order of the House of Knights of St. George, son of the Mgh. healthlest cities in the West Indies. The well-born baron of the empire, Fried. population in peace time is about 26, tich Von und zu Neuenburg, royal Wurtemburg chamberlain, commander (commun) of the royal Bavarian Order San Juan, has a population of about of House Knights of St. George, and of 17,000. It is lighted by gas and has his late wife, resting in God, the high-

You Need."

SAPOLIO

GERMAN ENGAGEMENT NOTICE

Finds a Relie of Napoleon. A relic of Napoleon in the shape of a portion of the cockade worn by him at the battle of Rivoli has been found in Breeklyn among the effects of Mile gogne disasten Miss Poncy was a gorerness in New York and had made arrangements to spend the summer in effects in the care of Mr. and Mrs.

street. Brooklyn. The Napoleon memento was discovered by Mr. Jacquard while he was preparing to send Miss Poncy's effects to her sister in Geneva. It is framed "Fragment du penache de Bonaparte a la bataille de Rivoli, Le 14 Janvier The cockade was given to Josephine by Napoleon soon after their marriage, came into the possession of Miss Pon-

"I have used your valuable CASCA-RETS and find them perfect. Couldn't do without them. I have used them for some time for indigestion and billousness and am new com-

NO-TO-BAC Sold and guaranteed by all drug

Walter Baker & Co.

Be sure that you get the Genuine Article, made at DORCHESTER, MASS. by

WALTER BAKER & CO. Ltd.

EXPECTANT MOTHERS

have a hired girl.—Philadelphia Amer. DROPSY NEW DISCOVERY; gives urred on Japanese railroads in 1897.

try to scare up another one?" Brevity is the Soul of Wit." Good Wife,