Alex McDowell, of Mercer eratic President and Congress in county, Pa., W. H. Fairless, of 1892. Not since the discovery of Virginia, and Hon, John Hamilton, of State College, made their appearance in Mifflintown.

The party came from the west on the 1.50 p. m., train. They were met at the Station by a reception committee headed by H. any more!' C. McClellan County Chairman, and were conducted to carriages in

A procession then formed, headed by the McAlisterville Band and started for the Court House where the meeting was to be held.

When the procession reached the old Crystal Palace lot, it halted, according to program, long enough for seven veterans of the Spanish war namely; Harley Me-Clellan, Clarence Pennell, William Ellis, Harry Ellis, Herman Browand, Austin Shover, and P. Kauffman to run up and swing a little while to whip Spain. to the breezes a great American flag. The flag was a present to the Republican party of Juniata, by the Republican State Committee. Its dimensions are 20x36 feet, and it is the largest flag ever floated in the county. The pole on which now floats Old Glory, is spliced and is 107 feet in height. While the flag was being raised the McAlisterville Band played "Three Cheers for the Red, White

The procession then proceeded on to the Court House, which was comfortably filled with an appreciative audience, many of whom were Democrats, who came to see and hear the next Governor of this great commonwealth.

The speech was nicely delivered and the substance very appropriate and vigorously applanded. Wm. M. Allison, B. F. Schweier and H. W. Wickersham were chosen secretaries.

The following persons were se lected as vice presidents:

J. Kelley Patterson, J. B. Wilson, Samuel Leonard, U. D. Ferree, W. C. Pomeroy, Gen. Wm. Bell, Capt, Cornelius McClellan, Wm. B. McCahan, Leonard R. Kauffman.

Col. W. A. Stone was the first speaker called on. He is six feet four inches tall, of florid complexion, and rather boyish looking in facial expression. He is a slow, deliberate, but effective speaker. He is a good reasoner and a sound thinker.

Col. Stone said in part :

"I am not here to conduct this campaign by denouncing any one or using language that will reflect upon the characters of either of my opponents. I am glad that the great party to which I belong does not have to grovel in the slime of personal vituperation in order to find issues for discussion before the people.
