Swallow, with his bad language, thieves, robbers, thieves, robbers, all you but he, is not in the race, every time he makes a speech he gets further behind.

A vote for Jenks is a vote to pull down the flag from the territories won in the war against Spain. Don't vote for Jenks. Vote for Stone, vote the whole republican ticket.

There was a Wauzeka meeting in the Court House on Saturday evening. All the gubernatorial candidates have been heard in Mifflintown during this campaign.

The road and threshing engine of Stewart L. Mauger dropped through the creek bridge at Bealstown school house, recently. No personal injury was sustained by the engine, and the damage to the engine has not been reported.

Lewistown Free Press, October 19.—Daniel Snyder, of Brown township, employed by W. A. McNitt as a farm hand, husked 140 bushels of corn and husked it in one day, from 6 to 6. Who can beat it?

Sheaffer, the republican candidate for Legislature is a man of the people, he has by his industry, perseverance, and economy, won a place among the people among whom he resides that is worthy of high respect. Vote for Sheaffer.

Harry Ellis, a Spanish war soldier, having been mustered out with the Philadelphia company to which he belonged, has returned to his home in this town.

The general managers special prize for the best track on the Middle Division was won by Supervisor Krick and an Assistant Supervisor, Emmons. Both Mr. Krick and Mr. Emmons live in this town, and are receiving hearty congratulations.

Mr. Wm. Snyder, the enterprising furniture dealer, went to Johnstown, Cambria county, to attend the funeral of the wife of his friend Wm. DeFrees. The funeral took place last Sunday.

The republican party has given the county the homestead act which James Buchanan vetoed, because the slave masters of the democratic party said it was too much in the favor of the farmers of the northern states. Vote the republican ticket.

Stone and Sheaffer are no more responsible for the things that the opposition complain of than the man in the moon. It isn't fair to jump onto them for what others did that is believed was not right. Vote for Stone and Sheaffer. Vote the whole republican ticket.

The Mrs. Diehl property on Water street, was sold at public sale last Saturday to Lucien Banks, for fifteen hundred and forty-five dollars. Mrs. Diehl and her daughters will move to Philadelphia.

The Judge—No two witnesses tell the same story. The Lawyer—Your honor, I arranged it that way. I didn't want to make the trial too monotonous for you.—Yonkers Statesman.

Jenks, the democratic candidate for governor, it is said has his silver dollar laid away wrapped in tissue paper. In case of his election he expects to bring the silver dollar to the front. Vote the republican ticket.

England and France are engaged in a heated dispute about some matters in Africa. Will it be war? is a question that cannot be answered. England's navy is larger than that of France. The army of France is larger than that of England.

On Saturday last, Joseph Varne, Executor of Arnold Varne, deceased, sold the farm of said deceased near East Salem, for $1700, to the Doughton brothers. The farm contains 115 acres, 65 of which are clear, with house and barn.

Inquiring conditions.—Newport Ledger, Oct. 20.—The man who lost a hat in the back yard of the residence of the editor of the Ledger last Saturday night, can have it if he calls, proves property and tells what he was doing there.

Willie Smith was playing with the Jones boys. His mother called him and said, "Willie don't you know those Jones boys are bad boys for you to play with?"

"Yes, mamma," replied Willie, "I know that, but don't you know I am a good boy for them to play with?"—Exchange.

Jenks was a Bryan democrat, whose platform was an attack upon the present financial system, national banks, and currency. Will you take the risk of voting for a man who believes that Jenks and Bryan believe should be done with the banks and United States currency. The man who plays with fire is always in danger of getting burnt. Vote the republican ticket.

SPRINGFIELD, O., October 14.—A remarkable wedding took place last evening at the home, near Wilming ton, of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. McKee, when twin sisters, Misses Ada and Alma McKee, were wedded to two twin brothers, William and Frank Brindle. The two brothers look so much alike that only those who know them apart; likewise the sisters.

If you have children to send to school, you would not send them to a teacher who habitually called those with whom he differs, thieves, robbers, and other hard names. You don't want your children trained that way and you don't want to travel politically with men who habitually make speeches of that kind. Colonel Stone and Mr. Sheaffer, have not been given to such silly language in their political travels.

On the afternoon of the 19th inst., Charles Cleck, of Farmington township, had stolen from his house, a watch and chain, overcoat and pair of shoes, that were his property. The thief is supposed to have been a young man named John Huber, hired on Mr. Cleck's farm for the past month or more. Huber came to town on the evening of the same day and left for the west on a freight train which arrives at its station between 11 and 12 o'clock at night. Descriptions of him have been sent along the railroad line and if captured he will have to stand a trial in court.

Democratic speakers and writers, denounce all the bad past republican legislation did, but they don't tell that the democrats in the past legislature voted for nearly all the bad legislation complained of. That legislature is of the past and yet their speakers and writers want to resurrect their work, but when they brought up the past they don't want to be told the truth that the republican party has been reforming, not only the bad legislation, but also the bad work. Vote the Republican ticket.

—FOR SALE—The Board of Directors of the Farmers Mercantile Association in Patterson, limit-d, offers for sale, or rent, their Store in Patterson. Terms easy.—For particulars inquire of W. N. Sterrett, on the premises. By order of B. ard, Aug. 17, St. LEWIS DEAN, Sec.

This is the time of the year when they go shooting each other for wild turkeys. The latest case reported comes from Perry county, where Charles Clouser, shot his companion Thomas McBride, for a turkey, near Shoeniff's Mill, Centre township. Clouser was calling turkeys, McBride was sneaking up to find what he believed was a sniping turkey. Clouser saw him come but did not look long enough to learn that he was not a turkey, he cracked away and McBride fell over severely wounded.

The mass of the democratic party suffered under bad management of government affairs and that is why people of democrats will not vote for Jenks and the democratic ticket. They don't want to help send the country back into the awful financial state into which the Cleveland administration plunged it. So vote the republican ticket, it is always safe to trust the republican bridge carried you over the half free trade gulf into which the Cleveland democratic plunged you. It lifted you out of the slough of post office spying upon pensioned veterans, it saved to your use a good banking system and safe currency. Vote the republican ticket.

MANY a veteran voted for Cleveland, not believing, when told that by voting for him they endangered the pensions of many. After Cleveland's election the post office department was turned into a spy department and thousands of veterans' pensions were cut off. Don't make the mistake of voting against the republican ticket.

IF Spain expects the United States to accept any of the Cuban or Philippine debt, the expectation must needs be laid aside. The Americans will not pay any of Spain's debts. If there are any debts to be paid the people of this country will demand that Spain in addition to the giving up of Porto Rico, Cuba, and the Philippines, shall also pay the debt that the Americans incurred by the war. The people of the United States would require their government to repudiate any arrangement that the peace commission would enter into for the payment of any of the Spanish Cuban debt.

FUNNY, to hear a democratic writer or orator say, No! no! you can't call up the past record of the democratic party, in its cruel suppression, and mud boss, padded pay rolls, and their record in wild cat banks, no, you can't call up that record, no, you can't call up the fact that their leaders were slave holding rebels and for their work is owing the almost 200 million dollar pension pay roll. No, you can't call that up, but you can call up everything of extravagance that the republican party ever did and talk about it. Reader if you call up all the extravagance the republicans have ever engaged in willfully or unwittingly, it is as a drop to a bucket to the direct and indirect extravagance that the democratic party have engaged in.

DR. SWALLOW made a speech in the Court House, in the interest of his candidacy for the governorship. He did not announce a text but without announcement, it was "Thieves and Robbers." All the bankers and State treasurers, according to his statement, who had ever had to do with public money and took interest on such money, and used the interest for their own purposes are thieves and robbers. The doctor did not go into details, he did not bring up the church treasurers who sometimes hold back church funds; he did not bring up county treasurers who sometimes hold back county money; he did not bring up bankers who have county funds in their care and sometimes use the money, at such time of the year when the issue of county orders are slack; he did not bring up the borough and township tax collectors who sometimes use the tax funds to complete a business transaction, and afterward return the money. He did not go into such minute details of the work of thieves and robbers. To have done so would have been to cut a swath too wide for his purpose. He was very select in his picking of those upon whom he wanted to confer the title of thieves and robbers. His meeting did more harm than good to his cause.

THANKSGIVING. Governor Hastings calls on the people of this Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to observe—to-morrow—Thursday, October 27, 1898, as a day of Thanksgiving for the victories achieved over the Spaniards, for their inhuman treatment of their fellow men almost under the shadow of the Stars and Stripes.

MARRIED. WENSTER—RHEIN.—On the 10th inst., at Patterson, by Rev. S. E. Koontz, John N. Welster and Edith M. Rhine.

DIED. KEISER.—On the 21st inst., George W. Keiser, was killed on the railroad at Patterson, Mifflin county, by passenger train No. 20. He was in the discharge of his duty tightening bolts on rails. A freight train was passing and knocked him from hearing the approach of number 20, on the track of which he was working. The body was brought to this place and prepared for general service by undertaker Snyder and sent to McVeetytown where interment took place on Sunday.

WAGNER.—On the 17th inst., in Millford township, Mrs. Wagner, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo W. Wagner, died of consumption. A husband and two children mourn for her. Interment in the Presbyterian cemetery.

THE HORSE IN BATTLE.

A veteran cavalry horse partakes of the hopes and fears of battle just the same as his rider. As the column swings into line and waits, the horse grows nervous over the waiting. If the wait is spun out he will tremble and sweat and grow apprehensive. If he has been six months in service he will know every bugle call. As the call comes to advance the rider can feel him working at the bit with his tongue to get it between his teeth. As he moves out he will either seek to get on faster than he should or bolt. He cannot bolt, however. The lines will carry him forward and after a minute he will grip, lay back his ears, and one can feel his sudden resolve to brave the worst and have done with it as soon as possible.

A man seldom cries out when hit in the turmoil of battle. It is the same with a horse. Five troopers out of six when struck with a bullet are out of their saddles within a minute. If hit in the breast or shoulder up go their hands and they get a heavy fall; if in the leg, or foot or arm, they fall backward and roll off. Even with a foot cut off by a jabbed piece of shell a horse will not drop. It is only when shot through the chest or head that he comes down. He may be fatally wounded, but hobbles out of the fight to right or left and stands with drooping head until loss of blood brings him down. The horse that loses his rider and is unwounded himself will continue to run with his set of fours until some movement is made to stop him. Then he goes galloping here and there, neighing with fear and alarm, but he will not leave the field. In his racing days he may get among the dead and wounded, but he will dodge them if possible, and in any case leap over them. When he has come upon three or four other riders he will fall in and keep together, as if for mutual protection, and the "rally" on the bugle may bring the whole of them into ranks in a body.—Buffalo Horse World.

DR. DAVID KENNEDY'S Favorite Remedy.

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy frequently cures several members of a family. While it is considered by many to be a Kidney and Bladder Medicine, it is just as certain to cure Dyspepsia, Constipation, Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Eczema. This is because it first puts the Kidneys in a healthy condition, so they can sift all impurities from the blood. Healthy blood practically means a completely healthy body. Here is a letter from Mrs. Capt. PARRA RACA, of N. Y.: "My husband was troubled with his kidneys, fearfully with shooting pains through his back. He was seventy years of age, he is as hearty as a man many years younger. I was so troubled with Dyspepsia that it was painful for me to walk. My food did me no good, as my stomach could not digest it. Somebody recommended Favorite Remedy to me, and after taking two bottles of it I was completely cured, and am feeling splendid now. We both attribute our good health to Favorite Remedy." It is prescribed with unfailing success for Nerve Troubles, and for the Liver and Blood it is a specific. It has cured many that were beyond the aid of other medicine. Ask your druggist for it, and insist upon getting it. Don't take a substitute. It will cost you $1.00 for a regular full-sized bottle.
