There is a bill in the Legislature that authorizes the employment of a State expert on peach tree yellows before an orchard can be condemned. Under an act of the Legislature of 1897, road supervisors may examine and condemn an orchard. The new bill requires a State officer to assist in the examination of an orchard.

R. L. Zimmerman, a freight train brakeman, a resident of Marysville, Perry county, while in the Mifflin yard, about 3 o'clock on Sunday morning, was struck by Western Express No. 9, and instantly killed. Undertaker Snyder of this place prepared the body for funeral rights and sent it to Marysville on the 5 p. m. train on Sunday evening.

Trusts are multiplying. They organize and issue millions upon millions of bonds and stock, the most of which is watered bonds and stock upon which the gamblers expect to get rich. They expect to get rich on the sale of the watered paper. There is a growing inclination for the enactment of laws against such swindling concerns.

Dr. King's New Discovery.

John Wertz was killed at the railroad bridge at Lewistown, on Saturday night, in a collision between a freight train from Sunbury and a shifting engine. The engines and several freight cars were wrecked. Fireman Cupper jumped off his train to a snow bank at the shore of the river and was not much the worse for the long downward jump. The other employees were not hurt.

Congressman Hobley was trying to impress his fellow democrats with the correct view, that when it becomes clear that Mr. Jenks cannot be elected United States Senator, then it becomes a matter of choice between democratic members of the Legislature who of the republican candidates they shall vote for, for Senator.

The country is told by the Washington weather bureau that the late great storm was bred in the region of the Gulf of Mexico, and was 1500 miles in diameter, and had a rotary motion, whirling round and round like the cream can in an ice cream freezer. Seven hundred miles of the storm swept the land along the Atlantic sea coast. The other side of the storm went off in the direction of Iceland.

The Newton Hamilton Watchman is indeed a watchman on the Christian watchtower against Mormonism. It has driven the Mormon missionaries away from the vicinity of Newton Hamilton, and recently having heard that a Mormon missionary had begun work in Black Log Valley, it instructs one of its friends in that valley thus: "Johnnie get your gun, a club of tar and a pillow of feathers, make use of one or the other, on the Mormon saints."

Contractor James Horning, had a lot of spruce trees at the head of Cuba mill dam cut down, and had their butts saved into shingle lengths. When that was accomplished and the blocks ready for the saw mill, the location looked as if a spring flood might carry everything away, so he employed a number of sleds last week, and had the blocks sledged to the east end of this town, where the mill will be put up and the blocks sawed into shingles in the near future.

Harry Dimm, son of Thomas Dimm, of Greenwood township, is in from Dakota, to which place he moved some 12 years ago. This is his first visit since he left Juniata. He sold his farm of 440 acres to James Alexander, of Patterson, one year ago for $8,000. He says Alexander raised 200 acres of spring wheat last summer. Dimm moved 30 miles north and bought 160 acres and leased 1600 acres for the purpose of going into the business of raising cattle. He expects to soon return to Dakota. He says people get used to the 20 and 30 degrees of colder weather there.

The engineer and fireman of the train that ran into the rear end of a passenger train stuck in the snow near Conestoga, Pa., in the blizzard of last week, were both killed. On the train that was run into, was Charles Adams, druggist clerk, of this town. Charles says the crash came without warning, and the hind and front end of the car he was in was broken in at one and the same time, in the twinkling of an eye. He was struck on the back of the head with something but not hurt enough to prevent him from getting out and afterwards helping to take others out of the wreck.

Rev. Solomon Sieber, of Delaware township, died on Sunday night about 11.30 o'clock, aged 86 years. He was a son of the late Christian Sieber, who lived in this county. Fermanagh township, on the land now known as the Henry Sieber and Samuel Strayer farms, in the year 1816. He came here from Berks county and married Miss Anna Kaufman, of Berks county, by whom were born John, Christian, Jonas, Solomon, Daniel, Abram, Joseph, David, Mrs. Jacob Rickenbaugh, Mrs. Joel Rickenbaugh, Mrs. Gideon Haldeman. The place of burial was in the cemetery in Juniata county.

Dr. King's New Life Pills.

The Philadelphia Inquirer mentions a pitiful phase of the late great blizzard at Woodbury, N. J., by saying that on the morning of the 13th inst., John Wilson on the outskirts of the city met with a suffering case, that of Mary Currens, known all over the city as "Irish Mary," was found in her hut with both feet frozen, the fires having gone out. During the night she had brought in the room a cow and it was almost frozen. As it was impossible to take her to the county house. She may lose both her feet.

President McKinley and cabinet were in Boston last week. They were given a breakfast by business and professional men. The President made a speech and stated that the Philippine Islands having come through the Spanish war, we cannot allow them to drift into anarchy, and become a land of contention for other nations, but that our authority must be recognized there, and after that the blessings of government of this country shall be extended to the inhabitants of the islands. Secretary of War, Alger, was not kindly received while the procession was moving through the streets. The crowd howled at him and shouted embelmed beef.

Dr. King's New Discovery.

Bloomfield Democrat, Feb. 15.—It is reported that a man by the name of William Harrington, who worked about this town last summer, white-washing, etc., was found dead, frozen to death, in a barn in Seville township, one night last week. He was a veteran of the civil war and was married to a daughter of the late Carson Lackey, of Carroll township.

One of the children of James Thomas, residing near Little Germany, in Spring township, kicked the covers off, while in bed asleep, one cold night last week, and its feet were so badly frozen that it is feared the child's toes will come off.

Favorite Remedy
CURES ALL RHEUMATISM AND LIVER TROUBLES.

It would be the right thing for members of the Legislature who have been receiving threatening letters from the Harrisburg scoundrel clique to sue the parties who have been threatening to take vengeance on their wives and daughters if the members do not vote so and so. This is presumed to be a free country, a country of law and order. It is true the members of the Legislature and their families who have been threatened, can act as meanly as the people who are making the threats. They can tell the people who talk in a threatening way to go to the Philippine Islands or some other place, they can laugh to scorn the threats of the scoundrel gang at Harrisburg that are breathing vengeance against all who do not act in accordance with their selfish purposes. They can turn their faces and backs against such unworthy people and have no fellowship with them, but that does not abate the nuisance no more than refraining from association with vicious people abolishes the vicious. A suit for conspiracy and intimidation would be more in order against such low down people. If a dog comes to bite club him off, and club him till the bite is clubbed out of him. Why not organize in the Legislature against the venal conspirators and defeat everything they propose in the way of Legislation, give them their own medicine. Liberal doses of their own concoctions will suit their dirty, stinking, venal natures a great deal better than genteel treatment.

The republicans carried the election in this town on Tuesday, as follows: Judge of election, J. Wallace Faskie R, 119; George M. Diven D, 74. Inspector of election, J. A Thousand Tongues.

Could not express the surprise of Annie E. Spry, of 1125 Spry street, Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"It removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the world. It will cure any one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottles sent at Mr. Crawford's Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed."

THE CHAMPION WOOD SAWER.

Bloomfield Advocate Feb. 15.—A valued contributor writes us about what we consider remarkable wood sawing. William D. Hohnbald, of Sandy Hill District, recently sawed thirteen cords of wood for Geo. E. Beck, at Berks, in two days and a half, and thirteen and a half cords of wood for C. M. Kine in practically the same time. Mr. Hohnbald is considered the best sawyer in the District and the challenge is thrown out to any one in this section and for that matter in Perry county to beat his record. Fifty cents a day and board is what is paid him. In other words he sawed 13 cords of wood for $1.25 plus his board.

Illustrated Lecture on "Ben Hur" A Tale of the Christ.

The above lecture will be given in the Presbyterian church on March 3rd, Friday evening, by Rev. A. N. Raven. Seventy-two of the finest colored pictures will be used to illustrate the events of this story, a story that has been rightly called the masterpiece of the nineteenth century. This will be the most realistic literary lecture ever given in Mifflintown. Get your tickets in advance and come early. Admission 10 and 15 cents.

LATE LITERARY NEWS.

The recent success of the British arms over the Mahdists in the Sudan demonstrates that even fanaticism cannot stand against drill and discipline. But in earlier days, it is easy to understand why the Arabs swept all before them. An ingenious tenant of Mohammed taught his followers that the hour and minute and second of death were fully ordained. Therefore the believing soldier's self-regarding fighting was for a while invincible. Confucius, Zoroaster, Buddha, Brahma, Mohammed—each of these great religious thinkers now has his followers beneath the far flung flag of the United States. It is consequently the highest political wisdom to understand what each of our new wards believes. The February number of THE COSMOPOLITAN will contain the first chapter of "The Founding of an Empire" by JOHN BURNHAM WALKER. The first part gives a bird's-eye view of Mohammed and his religion.

PLANTING FRUIT TREES.

From the Kansas Farmer.

Any one who will be in need of young peach trees two years hence will do well to procure pits at once from some nursery supply company. Fall is the proper time for stratifying the pits in the sand, but if done now there may still be enough freezing weather to loosen the shells so that they will germinate readily in the spring. Plant the seeds in straight, narrow furrows, three feet apart, covering them about two inches deep. Keep the seedings well cultivated during the summer and by August they will be half an inch in diameter and ready to be budded.
