"As I understand it," said the heathen, "you propose to civilize me." "Exactly so." "You mean to get me out of habits of idleness and teach me to work?" "That is the idea." "And then lead me to simply my methods and invent things to make my work lighter?" "Yes." "And next I will become ambitious to get rich, so that I won't have to work at all." "Naturally." "Well, what's the use of taking such a roundabout way of getting just where I started? I don't have to work now."—Washington Star.
Dewey's warfare on the sea has never been surpassed, but his first land movement proved a failure to all directly concerned. On Saturday, April 15th he sent Lieutenant Gilmore and 13 marines to rescue some 400 Spaniards that were surrounded by Filipinos. The American crews were from the warship Yorktown. The whole company rowed their boat up a river into to this writing Thursday, April 20, word from them has not been received.
An exchange says that a small church was sadly in need of general repairs and a meeting was being held in it with a view to raising funds for that purpose. The minister having said that $600 would be required, a very wealthy and equally stingy member of the congregation arose and said he would give one dollar just as he sat down, however, a lump of plaster fell from the ceiling and hit him on the head, whereupon he hastily arose and said he had made a mistake—he would give fifty dollars. This was too much for the enthusiastic preacher, who forgetting everything, called out fervently, "Oh, Lord, hit him again!"

It is a man is down on his luck and thinks he is tired of farming because he cannot lay up anything year by year, just let him remember that there are thousands of men as honest as he who are working in the cities at day or week labor and who eat up every cent they make, so that if they get out of work for a day they must go in to debt for their food, and let him be thankful that he has a hearth over him and his family, and that he can raise enough wholesome food to live on, and breathe wholesome air, and need call no man his master.—Ex.

Dewey Earl Bright, the eleven months old child of B. B. Bright, killed on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Brightbill, the mother, was in the sitting room with her little family when one of her children asked for a piece of bread. She went to the kitchen to get it, leaving the children in the room. Unobserved by her, Dewey had followed to the kitchen and was sitting near the table. She spread the piece of bread and placed it on the table. The little tot whom it was prepared, in reaching up to take the bread from the table accidentally brushed a sharp butcher knife from the table which fell point downward and struck Dewey in the head, penetrating the brain and killing the child instantly.—Bedford Inquirer.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.
Court convened at 10 o'clock a. m., on Monday, April 14, 1899, with Judges Lyons, Sterrett and Swartz upon the bench.
The constables made their returns. The grand jury was called, sworn and charged.
Charles McCovich was selected to wait upon the Grand Jury.
J. M. Cox and Joseph Landis were appointed tip-staves to wait upon the court.

William Swails who has been confined in the county jail since the December term of court for not fulfilling the sentence of the court for desertion was discharged from court under the insolvent law.

The first case called for trial was that of the Com. vs. Cloyd Bender. Charge breaking and entering, and larceny. Prosecutor H. L. Leach. The prosecutor was the proprietor of a pool room in this town and on the 20th of March his place of business was broken into and $1.20 in nickels was taken therefrom. These nickles were in a slot machine, which was taken from the building and carried to the vicinity of the old warehouses south of town where the machine was broken open and the nickles abstracted. The evidence produced by the commonwealth showed that Cloyd Bender spent $2.95 in nickles at Lewistown Junction on the day following the robbery and that he spent fifty-five cents in nickles that day in this place and Patterson and also that he asked Wise Rhyndam on Saturday evening previous to the robbery to assist him (Bender) in taking the slot machine with the nickles.
The defendant denied that he had anything to do with the taking of the slot machine and explained that his possession of the nickles was honest. That he got nickles from Mr. Browner Patterson, from his grand-mother and from S. A. Ellis's store. The jury after being in the jury room rendered a verdict of guilty as indicted. Sentenced by the court to two years in the penitentiary.

WELCOME NEWS
Any information that tells how sickness and disease can be overcome is the most welcome news a paper can print. Although this is an advertisement, it contains facts of more vital importance than anything else in this newspaper. It tells of a medicine known for over thirty years as Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. It is a medicine that purifies the blood, and restores the Kidneys, Bladder and Urinary Organs to vigor and strength. Its principal ingredient is not alcohol. It does not ruin men's and women's lives by causing intoxication and fostering the appetite for strong drink.
Favorite Remedy cools and purifies the blood. It is not like the many "bitters," "compounds" and "tonics," now so widely sold, which heat and inflame the blood, doing more injury than good.
Favorite Remedy cures troubles of women just as certainly as it cures troubles of men. It restores the Liver to a healthy condition, and cures the worst cases of Constipation. It cures Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, all Kidney, Bladder and Urinary Diseases, Gravel, Diabetes and Bright's Disease.
"My complaint was Stone in the Bladder. Physicians said my case was hopeless, but Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy cured me."
D. H. HOAG, Lebanon Springs, N. Y.
Sold in all drug stores for $1.00 a bottle. One teaspoonful is a dose, and you will experience relief long before first bottle is taken. Sample Bottle Free! Every person troubled with any of the ailments mentioned above is offered a chance to try Favorite Remedy without any cost whatever. It is a medicine that purifies the blood, and restores the Kidneys, Bladder and Urinary Organs to vigor and strength. Its principal ingredient is not alcohol. It does not ruin men's and women's lives by causing intoxication and fostering the appetite for strong drink.
Favorite Remedy cools and purifies the blood. It is not like the many "bitters," "compounds" and "tonics," now so widely sold, which heat and inflame the blood, doing more injury than good.
Favorite Remedy cures troubles of women just as certainly as it cures troubles of men. It restores the Liver to a healthy condition, and cures the worst cases of Constipation. It cures Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, all Kidney, Bladder and Urinary Diseases, Gravel, Diabetes and Bright's Disease.
"My complaint was Stone in the Bladder. Physicians said my case was hopeless, but Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy cured me."
D. H. HOAG, Lebanon Springs, N. Y.
