

The Bryan democratic State Convention required two days and 28 ballots to nominate a ticket. The silver bugs will now get a judge on the Supreme Court Bench.

The Bryan Guffy democratic State Convention last week nominated Wm. T. Creasy, of Columbia county, for State Treasurer; D. L. Metzger, of Fayette county, for Supreme Court Judge and Charles J. Reilly, of Lycoming county for Superior Court Judge.

Since they have solved the problem "How to break up a cyclone," in Oklahoma, nearly all the western towns will by cannon and be on the alert to discharge the pieces at every approaching storm. It is the conviction that breaks the central devastating part of the storm. Town people can easily have a cannon ready during the cyclone months.

Women took a part in a strike in Cleveland, Ohio, last week, against street car lines, on account of a reduction of wages and on account of the employment of non union men. The women were the sisters, wives and daughters and sweet hearts of the striking men. The women threw bricks, eggs and whatever they could get at the cars. A number of the strikers men and women were arrested and will reach the fate that is at the end of every road of that kind.

It was a fierce battle that the democrats passed through at their primary election on Saturday. There has been disturbance and discontent before among them. Their former battles were confined to spots or localities. But on Saturday there was an all round fight. "This reform movement among the democrats," said a distinguished member of that party, "is not spasmodic." "I have seen it grow from a small banding to its present state of manhood. Our reform movement is like the preaching of the gospel, you can preach it 40 years, all the time, and still there will be some old sinners left to convert." "The converts are becoming more numerous every year."

The democratic gold bugs didn't have a ghost of a chance in the democratic State Convention at Harrisburg. The silver bugs shouted Bryan and made it a point to route every gold bug that showed himself. The truncheon of the white coin sentiment was never more fully displayed than in the democratic State Convention that nominated Stephen Leslie Metzger for Supreme Court Judge and Charles J. Reilly for Superior Court Judge and William T. Creasy for State Treasurer.

The convention set two days. The certainty of securing a Supreme Judge caused all the candidates to probing the contest. Boss Jones Guffy interfered and had Metzger nominated. If the boss had not interfered the convention would still be in session.

BRYAN the silver-tongued orator of the west is in trouble over the announcement of Mr. Havemeyer, boss of the sugar trust. Josh Billings used to say, "You can catch more flies with molasses than with vinegar," and so it seems with the democracy. The sugar boss has come forward with his sugar pot, and between the sugar bowl and the silver lining there is to be a race. Havemeyer is not pleased because Congress did nothing for sugar, and Bryan is not pleased because Havemeyer says, "the tariff is the mother of trusts." Good says the free trader, but then there comes the echo, England treats all nations with trusts, and England is low tariff.

Siam a country near to China coin money is used. The coin has been extensively counterfeited. It has been discovered that a large monkey in that country makes the counterfeit detector and that has led to the introduction of the monkey or ape as cashier in all of the financial institutions of Siam. The ape or large monkey holds his place as cashier without a rival. He has a peculiar method of testing coins. Every piece is handed to him and he picks each bit of money, one at a time, and immediately puts it in his mouth, tasting it with grave deliberation. If the coin's good he declares the fact plainly. He takes it from his mouth and carefully places it in its proper receptacle beside him. Everyone is satisfied with his judgment of the coin. But if the coin is bad, the cashier makes known his verdict in an equally unmistakable manner. He throws it violently from his mouth to the floor, shaking his head in disgust.

But the coal oil trust is not the only one that disproves Mr. Havemeyer's statement. There are other trusts in the United States that are not protected by "customs tariff." However the cap-stone evidence against the Havemeyer statement is that trusts flourish more highly in England than anywhere else and in England the protective tariff is at a low percentage.

GOING TO A BETTER WORLD.

Here is the same old story of a murderer, who was not fit to live in this world, and who had to be hung to prevent him from trespassing on the rights of others, expressing a hope to meet in a better world. This is the way the telegraph stated it: Springfield, Mo., June 15.—Carroll M. Rice, who murdered a woman at Alton, Mo., was hanged here last night for the black cap was adjusted and while his legs were being pinned to the condemned man broke away from the sheriff and attempted to escape. He was captured and quickly hanged.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

The Democratic Return Judge Convention met in the Court House at 2 o'clock P. M., on Monday. The meeting was called to order by the Chairman G. B. M. Wischaupt. D. B. McWilliams was elected chairman of the meeting and thanked the return judges for the honor conferred upon him.

John Kohler and Harry E. Hayes were nominated for Secretaries. Mr. Hayes immediately withdrew his name, stating he did not wish to act as a Secretary. At this moment Dr. I. N. Grubb addressed the Chair and called attention to the fact that the Convention was proceeding irregularly in that the credentials of the return judges had not been called for and it was impossible for anyone to know who had a right to vote in the Convention.

The chair very promptly notified the Dr. that if they were proceeding wrong, they were simply following precedents; that other similar conventions had been organized in the same way and ended by ruling the Dr's motion out of order. Robert Neely then put in nomination John Kohler and Henry R. Beale for Secretaries. Upon the motion being put to the Convention to elect, a very faint voice was heard and a vigorous "no!" on the part of Dr. Grubb.

The motion again being put several of the return judges voted aye and the Secretaries were declared elected. The following is a list of the return judges: Millintown—Ruben Reynolds, Turbett—John A. Kohler, Milford—Nevin Aughey, Fayette—O. P. Knoxe, Fernanagh—Wilson Wentle, Monroe—Francis Lauer, Walker—James Youngman, Patterson—Harry E. Hayes, Thompsonstown—L. N. Grubb, Delaware—J. B. Parker and Geo. B. Cramer were appointed tellers to compute the vote as returned by the return judges.

The chair appointed R. M. Neely, John Rhodes and Nevin Aughey a committee on resolutions. At this point Dr. I. N. Grubb asked permission to read resolutions before the convention. Permission was given him and he read resolutions endorsing the Democratic National platform; condemning the Republican party generally; endorsing the platform as adopted by the late State Convention and the State ticket, and also endorsing the County ticket this day nominated.

Mr. Beale of Susquehanna also read and offered resolutions endorsing the platform adopted by the Democratic State Convention; endorsing the State ticket and commending Col. James Guffy for his efforts as National Committeeman in behalf of the Democratic party and expressing confidence in State Chairman Billing and County Chairman Wischaupt and closed with resolutions extending the thanks of the Convention to the Chairman, Secretaries and tellers of the Convention, and expressing satisfaction with the county ticket and recommending it to the voters of Juniata.

Dr. Grubb then offered and read a resolution endorsing the course of Representative A. J. Fisher in the Legislature during the last session. These resolutions were then referred to the Committee. The Committee after retiring for a short time to deliberate over the resolutions, returned and presented the resolutions as offered by return judge Beale. The resolutions offered by Dr. Grubb were not presented to the convention by the committee. When the chair read the Beale resolutions Dr. Grubb moved that they be laid upon the table. The motion was not seconded.

The convention adjourned subject to the call of the county chairman. A review of the operations of the political forces that led up to the victory of the veteran Field Marshal is reserved for another occasion. Since it is said at this time the mutterings are deep and of an intense nature. One of the overcome chieftains was heard to mutter: "I wish I could see the day when the down-trodden shall meet thee in battle array, for the field of the dead rushes red with the sign and the clans of the boss are scattered in flight."
