

A great drought in York State has shortened the hay crop and all other mid summer crops.
Miss Kate Mathers daughter of Orlando Mathers has returned from a protracted visit in western states.
Miles L. Kaufman is the boss carpenter that put up the large barn on Geo. L. Howers farm not far from Cuba Mills.
A number of farmers are busy making hay this week. The wheat cutting will be close on the heels of the hay cutting.
Ex-Congressman Atkinson was elected medical director for the State by the late State Encampment G. A. R., that met at Wilkesbarre.
The Agricultural department at Washington says: The world's wheat crop this year, is between two and three hundred million bushels short.
The River Brethren held their love feast at Jacob Shirks place in Walker township, on Wednesday and Thursday, June 14 and 15, present month.
Bloomfield, Perry county has a citizen who has been across the Atlantic ocean thirty eight times and expects to make the fortieth trip this summer.
Oliver Whitmer of Newark, Ohio, spent Saturday in town with his friend Oscar Shover. Whitmer has enlisted for the Philippine Island army.
The Reedsville band played many musical pieces. One of the musical pieces they might appropriately have played is: "We won't go home till morning."
The democratic state convention at Harrisburg had not only a silver lining, but it was silver all over, and that insures a silver bug on the State Supreme bench.
Miss Mary, daughter of the late Rev. A. H. Parker, deceased, of Reedsville, Mifflin county, spent several days with the family of her uncle Robert Parker in town.
The Bloomfield Freeman of June 14 says—Some of the farmers have had quite a time with their crops. Some are re-planting and others are plowing the corn fields and putting them in buck wheat.
Roy Stephens of Bloomfield caught an eel in the creek near the town named, that required the help of Casper Nickle a companion boy to land. The eel measured 35 inches in length and weighed over three pounds.
Mrs. Ezra Parker and child of Washington, D. C., have come for a summer vacation, and are at the Banks homestead at the corner of Cherry and 3rd street. Mrs. Parker's maiden name was Miss Jennie Banks.
"What is their position in society?" asked the inquisitive girl?
"Well," answered Miss Cayenne, "I should say they are betwixt and between. They aren't exactly nobody, and yet they aren't really anybody."—Washington Star.
Miss Rachel Henderson was one of the recently graduated class of nine girls at Ogontz school near Philadelphia. Miss Henderson is a daughter of Rev. J. R. Henderson, who preached for the Presbyterian congregation at Milltown some years since.
Bass at this time in the season frequent the places where the waters converge, for there the most bugs and flies that drop into the water float to. Just where the water ripples over a stone is a favorite place for them at this time in the year.
The Milltown School Directors last Friday evening selected the following teachers: Miss Mary Dinn for the grammar grade; W. E. Anner for the intermediate grade; Miss Mary McLean for second primary grade; Miss Mary Laird for primary.

By the favor of H. T. Fernald, Ph. D., State Zoologist, there lies on the table of the SENTINEL & REPUBLICAN a pamphlet giving a brief outline of the best methods for the protection of crops from insects and fungi. It is a valuable document for the grower of fruits and vegetables.
J. P. Voyer of Globe Mills, Snyder county, was bitten in his right hand by a copperhead snake last Friday. He was leading bark. The snake was between two pieces of bark that he lifted. Medical treatment was immediately summoned, and he was not seriously ill at last reports.
City Editor—Mr. Strong has been in to day, and he had murder in his eye. How in time did you come to speak of Mrs. Strong's alleged husband in that paragraph about her accident? J. Fresh: "I did it to steer clear of a libel suit. You know you always told me to say 'alleged thief,' 'alleged murderer,' and that sort of thing."—Boston Transcript.
"Remember, boys," said the master, "that in the bright lexicon of youth there's no such word as fail." After a few moments a boy raised his hand. "Well, what is it, my lad?" asked the master. "I was merely going to suggest," replied the youngster, "that if such is the case, it would be advisable to write to the publisher of that lexicon and call their attention to the omission."—Tid-Bits.
In Oklahoma they are managing cyclones. Some time ago citizens of Hennessey bought a cannon for the purpose of experimenting with cyclones. It was said "cannon fring clones. It will burst a storm." They had not long to wait. On the 15th inst., that was last Thursday, a cyclone formed and came moving in the direction of the town. It had an ugly look. The cannon was quickly got out and a shot fired into the center of the storm. The shot broke the storm and saved the town.
Port Royal Times—During one of the recent electrical storms that visited this section Mr. Menno S. Esh of Pleasant View stopped at the residence of W. H. Groninger, Esq., and was about to hitch his horse to a large chestnut tree that stands in front of Mr. Groninger's residence. He was persuaded by Mr. G. to hitch his horse and buggy to the barn. Soon after doing so the tree to which he had been hitching his horse was struck by lightning and badly shattered. It was indeed fortunate for Mr. Esh that he took the preferred a vice of Mr. Groninger for had he not done so he would be minus a valuable horse.

County Treasurer W. W. Landis, met with an accident recently in his barn in Turbett township. He was using a straw-bale to pull hay loose in one of the mows of the barn. The fall pulled out unexpectedly, and he fell backwards and dropped through a distance of no less than 12 feet, alighting on his head and shoulders. The wonder is he escaped death. He was severely hurt, but is almost himself again.
WELLS—CALHOUN.
The home of ex-Sheriff James P. Calhoun on Patterson was beautifully decorated last Thursday evening upon the occasion of the marriage of his eldest daughter Jennie M., to Mr. Paul H. Wells of Harrisburg.
The house was filled with invited guests at 8 o'clock, the hour the ceremony was performed.
Rev. Fahs of the Lutheran church of this place married the young couple.
The bridesmaid was Miss Seela G. Hench of Port Royal and Austlin Calhoun a brother of the bride was the groomsmen. The music was furnished by Miss Annie C. Wilson of Harrisburg, who played the wedding march.
A guitar and mandolin club from Harrisburg composed of young men, friends of the groom, entertained the guests with elegant music, both vocal and instrumental.
The following guests from a distance were present:
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Haubert of Philadelphia, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Calhoun of Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. Geo. F. Wilson, Mrs. Caroline Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Bender, Mr. and Mrs. John Wells, Mrs. Frank Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wells, Mr. and Mrs. John Finley, all of Harrisburg.
The young couple left for a ten day trip through Illinois and Iowa and upon their return will go to house keeping in Harrisburg.

Letter from a Woman

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy frequently cures several members of a family. While it is considered by many to be a Kidney and Bladder Medicine, it is just as certain to cure Dyspepsia, Constipation, Rheumatism, Sciatica and Eczema. This is because it first puts the Kidneys in a healthy condition, so they can get rid of all impurities from the blood. Healthy blood practically means a completely healthy body.
Here is a letter from Mrs. Capt. FERRIS KACR, of N. Y.: "My husband was troubled with his kidneys, fearfully with shooting pains through his back. He used David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, and is now well and strong. Although seventy years of age, he is as hearty as a man many years younger. I was so troubled with Dyspepsia that it was painful for me to walk. My food did me no good, as my stomach could not digest it. Somebody recommended Favorite Remedy to me, and after taking two bottles of it I was completely cured, and am feeling splendid now. We both attribute our good health to Favorite Remedy."
It is prescribed with unfailing success for Nerve Troubles, and for the Liver and Blood it is a specific. It has cured many that were beyond the aid of other medicine. Ask your druggist for it, and insist upon getting it. Don't take a substitute. It will cost you $1.00 for a regular full-sized bottle.

Sample Bottle Free

If you want to try Favorite Remedy before buying, send your full post-office address to the Dr. DAVID KENNEDY CORPORATION, Rensselaer, N. Y., and mention this paper. They will send you a free trial bottle, all charges prepaid. This genuine offer is made to prove to everybody what a wonderful medicine it is.
