On the 12th, a vagrant, with out a thing on his person to identify him, was killed by a fast through passenger train, at a point on the railroad between this station and Port Royal. He was, seemingly, about 65 years old, and his death was the one that is told every day, of stepping out of the way of a train on a certain track into the way of another train on another track.

Fortune telling by means of the finger nails, onychomancy, as it was called, was common in ancient times. The practice was to rub the nails with oil and soot or wax and to hold up the nails thus prepared against the sun, and upon the transparent horny substance were supposed to appear figures or characters, which gave the answer required. In more recent times people have been found predicting by means of the nails of the fingers and telling the dispositions of persons with certain descriptions of the nails.

The storm in Perry county was not more of a marvel than the large hail in this county some weeks ago. There are people who do not believe that in Fayette township hogs and chickens were killed by the hail, and rooves of houses broken by the chunks of ice that fell from overhead. If hail as large as an egg can so speedily be formed and dropped from above, what is to prevent hail as big as a half bushel from forming? A hail storm of that size might easily drop through roof and floors to the cellar. There is this consolation that such storms come only at long intervals.

Elmer Stoner, had a bone in his right arm broken, and the elbow dislocated and his right leg bruised, last Thursday morning, at the railroad station. The mishap came to him by a fall when he got off a freight train. His work is that of a night watchman at the Susquehanna bridge. The night's watch was over, and he boarded a freight train to come home. He stepped off at this station while the train was in motion, he fell, with the above stated result. His brother, Sheriff Stoner, brought him to his home in a buggy. His injuries were promptly attended to by railroad surgeon, Dr. Crawford, and he is doing as well as can be expected.

Leprosy from time out of date has been placed in the calendar of incurable diseases. But now comes the information that a remedy has been found. A leprosy stricken victim in the agony of despair had a cobra snake to bite him. The poison of the cobra is fatal, but in the case of the leprosy victim, the poison acted as a cure. The leprosy was cured by the poison of the cobra snake. An American now proposes to inoculate leprosy with cobra snake poison, which seems wonderful, and it is as wonderful as that the cow pox if inoculated in man keeps him from taking smallpox. What next? cow pox for smallpox; ex-rays for cancer; snake poison for leprosy.

The newspaper men at Manila have let the cat out of the bag as to the utter failure of the first campaign in the Philippine Islands. The military situation was to large for the commander. It was so with the war against the southern rebellion. The first commanders of the Union forces had not the military capacity for so large an undertaking and the failure of the first campaign of destiny in the direction of the acquisition of Asia is in the hands of good soldiers, but soldiers who have not the capacity for such a great undertaking cannot accomplish the work. The accomplishment of the work must be by a different type of soldier.

Franklin Lauer and his son, a youth of 16 years, were caught in the barn that was blown down by the great storm that devastated Black Log valley some days ago. They had been in the field plowing when the storm came down in the valley. They fled with their teams to the barn. Just as they were putting their horses in the stable the storm struck the barn scattering it as if only that much of a pile of straw. The father and son were both caught in the falling timbers of the barn. The father had a leg broken in two places, three ribs broken and collar bone broke. The son was injured in his hips. The storm was about 400 feet wide. This is three times the diameter of the wind swept over Black Log Valley and every time with shocking result.

J. A. Lumbard, editor of the Snyder county Tribune was a soldier against rebellion and was with "Sherman" on his march to the sea," has been publishing in his paper valuable data that came under his observation during his long service in the Union Army. He tells many things that are hard to believe. For example, last week, his article brings Sherman's army after peace declaration, on its march to Washington over the battlefield of Spotsylvania. Court House. This is three times the diameter of the wind swept over Black Log Valley and every time with shocking result.

The barn of Mrs. Pee was completely demolished, the barn doors being found over a mile away; shingles were picked up over three miles away. Only two trees are standing in Mrs. Pee's large orchard. Many other barns and houses were destroyed. It would take a long article to tell all the damage to orchards, fences, buildings, crops, and woods, in the track of this storm.

Why not be well?

If you are suffering with any disease of the Kidneys, Bladder or Urinary Organs, Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy will make you well again. It has cured cases that bordered on the miraculous. It quickly cures men and women of inability to hold urine, and they are not compelled to get up often and make water at night. It removes the scalding sensation in passing it, and, when taken according to directions, it invariably cures pains in the small of the back. Favorite Remedy not only cures Stone in the Bladder and Bright's Disease, but prevents them from developing.

One case is that of JOHN J. NEILL, of 3011 North Eighth Street, Philadelphia, Pa. In 1889 he began to suffer indescribable miseries from Stone in the Bladder. An eminent physician said a surgical operation was necessary. If unsuccessful it meant death, and Mr. Neill put off the evil day as long as possible. While in this frame of mind he heard of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, and bought it. Before he had finished the third bottle the gravel was completely dissolved and his sufferings were at an end.

Favorite Remedy is a perfect Blood and Nerve medicine. It restores the liver to a healthy condition, cures the worst cases of Constipation, and all diseases peculiar to females. It cures Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Rheumatism. Your druggist will sell you a regular full-sized bottle for $1.00.

Those sufferers who wish to try Favorite Remedy before buying should send their full postoffice address to the Dr. DAVID KENNEDY CORPORATION, Rondout, N. Y., and mention this paper. A free sample bottle will be sent them prepaid, together with full directions for using. This is a genuine offer, and all our readers can depend upon it.
