PRESIDENT McKINLEY'S Secretary of War Alger, bas resigned. THERE have been 111 fire alarms in Altoona since the 1st of January. As ice trust with a capital of five million dollars, has been organized in Maine. That amount of money ought to cut a good deal of ics.

THE gold bug wing of the democ racy are after Dewey. The chief gold bug speatle Whitney of New York has gone to meet Dewey to induce him to become a Presidential candidate. But there are the middle of the road men, and Bryan with the silver thread on his horn.

Ar Altoona last Thursday, July 20, there was a remarkable meeting of five hundre d people in Clearfield Park. The Assembly convened early in the morning. They were expecting the second coming of Christ. At ten o'clock a violent thunder storm came and that enthused the crowd. They sang, they prayed, they shout ed. Some lay on the seats; some knel; some walked excitedly around; come. However, vivid lightning and triet. heavy thunder came, and smidst it The returns as announced by the all a bolt struck the chimney of the Ind park keeper's house, and a number of the people were struck by flying tragments. That brought some of the more rational ones to their senses and by and by the storm rolled by. and the sun came out and that settled the question. The crowd had made a miscalculation. The arithmetic that they counted by was the wrong book, and they will have to wait to some other time for the event that they so certainly looked for on the 20th of July.

It is the unexpected in war, as well as in other pursuits that are followed by men, that take place. So then it is no wonder that the late Spanish war terminated unexpectedly without Spain gaining a single battle on land or sea. Dewannihilation of the Span the annihilation of the Spanish fleet at Santiago by Schley, and the surrender of the Spanish land forces at Santiago and at Porto Rico under General Miles. These were al most marvelous achievements, and great surprises. But an other great surprise takes place, and that is the war that has ensued in the Philippine Islands, with the natives, a people of whom the great majority of people in this country had never heard a word. When the Scanish forces at Manila were overcome, the native element stepped in and became antagonistic to the United States army and that in a short Beale time produced the war that is now Delaware ... going on.
