Large Secret. FLORENCE MARYATT.

CHAPTER XXIX. But after he is gone Delia comes to the conclusion that she has been very selfish. Why should she let this man, on whom she has not the slightest claim, run about after her business, while she sits idle in the hotel?

FATHER OF INTERNATIONAL LAW

American Pay Homage to the Memory of Hugo Grotius. A neat tribute was paid to the memory of Hugo Grotius, the eminent Dutch scholar and father of international law, by the American delegation to the peace conference at The Hague, Holland, when our ambassador to Germany, Andrew D. White, as head of the delegation, eulogized the famous Holland-lander and placed a beautiful wreath of silver oak and laurel leaves upon his tomb.

OIL SPRINKLER FOR ROADS.

An Attachment for a Common Wagon. Recently civil engineers have given considerable attention to the application of oils to the roadbeds of electric and wagon roads. The idea of using oil on roadbeds is not new, but the steam railroad corporations. The purpose was to prevent dust and foreign matter rising from the roadbed and getting into the bearings and gearing of the rolling stock. But several other beneficial results were obtained. After a roadbed is sprinkled with the oil, the weight of the matter is not only so weighted and oiled that it cannot rise and envelop wagons or carriages behind in a cloud of dust, but the bed itself is strengthened. The oils form with the earth matter to a depth of three to five inches, according to the treatment, and such parts of the ballast as are penetrated by the oils assume a crusty condition, which is impregnable to rain and in a great measure is impregnable to frost. This state of the roadbed is highly serviceable, if it is not too heavy.

SERMON BY Rev. Dr. Calmage

Subject: The Flag of Trade--Interests of Capital and Labor Are Identical, and When They Come to Antagonize Each Other Strife Will Erupt. (Copyright, Louis Kloppe, 1898.) WASHTON, D. C.--In this sermon Dr. Calmage suggests how the overhauling work between capital and labor may be brought to a happy end. The text is Corinthians 12: 21. "The eye cannot see unto the hand, I have no need of thee."

NOVELTY IN SHIP PROPELLERS.

Blades Are Made to "Feather," the Steamship Propeller Now in Use. The steamship propeller now in use is the best thing available for the purpose, but it is not regarded as a perfect piece of mechanism, because its efficiency is somewhat hampered by a reason which is known as a "side slip." A stationary shaft holding a propeller in modern times, come this has been made and patented by Edward F. Gorman and Penfield F. Yost of Philadelphia. The power is imparted to the propeller by means of a hollow shaft, through the center of which is a stationary shaft holding a propeller in modern times, come this has been made and patented by Edward F. Gorman and Penfield F. Yost of Philadelphia.
