

B. F. SCHWEIER.

CHAPTER VI.-(Continued.)

"I have just left the scene of the tra-to my home until 1 had seen you. Your son stands not in the slightest danger.

True, he may remain in custody for some weeks. The coroner's jury will to-morrow doubtless hold him for trial, on certain circumstantial evidence that to the inexperfenced juror will seem conclusive. Your son may even come to trial in criminal court, but, believe me, not a hair o his head shall be injured, and he shall re turn to you, his entire innocence of the lished, the honored name he bears untaf-nished, and more, he shall one day presen to you as his loving wife the fair girl who ing over the lifeless body of her father with the recking weapon in his hand that bereft him of life, yet has full confidence in his innocence, his honor and integrity.

"Poor Hattiel" exclaimed the widow

'Did your son return to the house, mad

"He did not. He left us at half after am, after he had received the bag of coin he expected to leave for Baltimore on the four o'clock train to attend to some busi ness matters he has there with a commis

"He so informed me," said Sellars.

"Mr. Sellars, I suppose we may visit my brother in the county jail?"

'Certainly. Miss Jennie, and I will try

Tell him, of course, that when the and before going to the banker's?"

the daughter of the murdered man."

Sellers.

sion house.

even though she saw his bent form stand-charged against him fully estab-

VOL. LIII.

THE CONSTITUTION THE UNION AND THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAWS.

Editor and Proprietor.

MIFFLINTOWN, JUNIATA COUNTY, PENN., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1899.

DISCOVERED BY ACCIDENT.

A Washington Girl's Invention for Kissing by Mali. A Washington girl has invented a method of sending kisses by mail—a the favored one the living image of a rove to be of vast legal import.

I shall write you her lips just once to the letter.

the first.

Grand with tim King

Industrial.

At Dawson City eggs cost 50 cents s America makes 4,000,000,000 cigars method by which she can present to yearly. New York city is to pay un tiss from her own rosy lips. It is a sort of sign label, incapable of forgery borers $2 a day. London annually consumes successful imitation. It is the veritf imported meat. Danish lighthous able documentary evidence of a kiss es are supplied with given and received, and it may yet oll to pump on the waves during In the United States 390,000 cubic feet Like many another good thing, the of pine is used annually in mailable kiss was discovered by acci-matches. fent-at least that is what the invenany manufactures 70 per cent. o the world's production of coa tress says. The method of the discov > Arcola, Ill., with a population of less than 3000, leads the world in the broom-corn industry. The government of Uruguay is about to expend $15,000,000 on harbor improve-ments at Montevideo. In France advertising posters must hear revenue stamps varying in value according to the size of the poster. At Tacoma tinsmiths and men skilled regular tin and sheet iron work are hard to get and are getting $2.50 a

The City Council of Akron, O., re cently passed an ordinance requiring the union plumbers' label to be affixed on all city work. German production of pig iron in th first half of the current year was 4,000-100 tons, against 3,600,000 in the same ery was this: It happened one day that she wished to write a letter to "him." It was a chilly day and a blustery-she says-and to protect her carmine lips from the salute of the winds she reached for a little box of ivil service. winds she reached for a little box of The authorities in Algeria gave $40,000 salve upon her dressing table and there with liberally anointed her lips. And in that salve there was a considerable in that salve there was a considerable

Bakers has placed itself on record in the most emphatic manner in favor of pure food legislation and the regulation of bakers in the interest of perfect able that, the crosses having been nade-and blotted-she should press anliness and sanitation. The rouge in the salve did the rest. Hereafter bells that can be heard distance of 500 feet must be attached it was a little greasy, but the unintento all private scavenger wagons in Chicago, and these bells must be rung continuously while the wagons are in service, which may be between sunset tional result was a perfect picture of a pair of pursed lips. The inventress was so pleased that she tried it again, and the second picture was better than

The machine shops of the Northern Pacific Railroad are compelled to run half a day overtime every other night in some departments in order to catch When the pictures reached their des tination it did not need the inscription, "these are genuine," to tell the recipiup. All the engines of the railroad ent what to do with them. They spoke up. All the engines of the railroad company are in service. There are $50,000 men in the world who gain a livelihood chiefly by fishing. making an annual catch of $225 worth of fish for each man. The fisheries of the United States supply $00,000 pounds annually, and those of Europe 1,800,000 pounds. for themselves. No patent upon the process has ye been applied for, but a slight improvesent in the original method has been made. It is now the fashion to slightly dampen the paper and to dust with

In the shipbuilding and engineering trades of Belfast, Ireland, 270 out of dry powder the lips of the sender. It the linen trades, 60 out of 3000 members of the union are em-ployed; in the linen trades, 60 out of 1015; building trades, 43 out of 2168; works just as well, and the don't "run."

Rev. Dr. Calmago blect: The Glory of the Navy-Naval Heroes Deserve Full Measure of Praise-Useful Lessons Drawn From Their Bravery and Devotion.

SERMON

whole pation is stirred with patriotic emo-ion at the return of Admiral George Dewey and his gallant men on the cruiser Dewey and his gallant men on the cruiser Diympia and the magnificent receiving ship North Carolina sorded to them, the Rev. Dr. T. De Witt Taimage, in his sermon, preaching to a rest audience, appropriately recalls for devout and patriotic purposes some of the great navai deeds of olden and more recent times. Text, James III., 4. "Behold alse the ships." If this exclamation was appropriate about 1872 years ago, when it was written con-

1872 years ago, when it was written con-cerning the crude fishing smacks that sailed Lake Gaillee, how much more appropriate in an age which has is unched from the drydocks for purposes of peace the Oceanic of the White Star line, the Lucania of the Cunard line, the St. Louis of the American line, the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse of the North German Lloyd line, the Augusta Vic-toria of the Hamburg-American line, and form of the Hamburg-American line, and in an age which for purposes of war has iaunched the screw sloops like the Idaho, the Shenandoah, the Ossipee, and our iron-clads like the Kalamazoo, the Roanoke and the Dunderberg, and those which have al-ready been buried in the dee, like the Monitor, the Housatonic and the Wee-

Monitor, the Housatonic and the Wee-bawken, the tempests ever since sounding a volley over their watery sepulchers, and the Oregon, and the Brooklyn, and the Terzs, and the Olympia, the Iowa, the Mas-sachusetts, the Indiana, the New York, the Marietta of the last war, and the scarred veterans of war shipping, like the Consti-tution or the Alliance or the Constellation, thet here swarps into the paya wards to that have swung into the naval yards to apend their last days, their decks now all slient of the feet that trod them, their rig-ging all silent of the hands that clung to

In that saive there was a considerable percentage of rouge. The letter having been finished, it was adorned at the foot with the con-ventional brace of inky crosses. Now, she had not seen him for a long time, and the last letter he wrote was really a nice one, so that it was understand-bla that that the stand been de-posited. The Compania General of Manila, the iargest cigar-making concern in the world, employs 10,000 hands, and turns out every year $0,000,000 cigars, 40,000,000 bigarettes and nearly 3000 tons of cut tobacco. The National Association of Master Bakers has placed itself on record in swains, sailmakers, surgeons, stokers mess mates and seamen of all names, to use your own parlance, we might as well get under way and stand out to sea. Let all land-lubbers go ashore. Full speed now! Four

It looks picturesque and beautiful to see s war vessel going out through the Nar-tows, sailors in new rig singing,

A life on the ocean wave, A home on the rolling deep, he colors gracefully dipping to passing ships, the decks immaculately clean and os, the the gans at quarantine firing a parting salute. But the poetry is all gone out of that ship as it comes out of that engage-ment, its decks red with human blood, wheelhouse rone, the cables a with solution. ment, its decks red with burnen blood. Har wheelhouse gone, the cabins a pile of shat-itered mirrors and destroyed furniture. Moh steering wheel broken, smokestack crushed, lead is hundred pound Whitworth rifle shot hav-ing left is mark from port to starboard, plac black blowed up and smoke and scalded corpses lying amon-are gasping their last gasp far home and kindred, whom synove much as we love wile and Parents and chil dres.

Sampson commanding; yonder, the lowa, Captain Robley D. Evans commanding. All those of you who were in the naval service during the war of 1865 are now in the afternoon or evening of life. With some of you it is 2 o'clock, 3 o'clock, 4 o'clock, 6 o'clock, and it will soon be sundown. If you were of age when the war broke out, you are now at least 60. Many of you have passed into the seventies. While in our Cuban war there were more Christian commanders on sea and hand than in any previous conflict, I would re-vive in your minds the fact that at least two great admirals of the divil war were Christians, Foote and Farragut. Had [Copyright, Louis Klopsch. 1839.] WASHINGTON, D. C.—At a time when the hole nation is stirred with patriotic emo-ion at the return of Admiral George lewey and his gallaut men ou the cruiser Hympia and the magnificent reception ac-wired on the receiving ship North Carolina ilreumstances, I will act for God." His ast words while dying at the Astor House, Sew York, were: "I thank God for all His goodness to me. He has been very good o me." When he entered heaven, he did tot have to run a blockade, for it was amid the cheers of a great welcome. The other Christian admiral will be honored on earth until the days when the fires from above shall lick up the waters from be-reath and there shall be no more sea.

NO. 44

Oh, while old ocean's breast Bears a white sail ▲nd God's soft stars to rest Guide through the gale, Men will him ne'er forget, Old heart of onk-Farragut, Farragut-Thunderbolt stroke!

According to his own statement, Far-ragut was very loose in his morals in early manhood and practiced all kinds of sin. One day he was called into the cabin of his father, who was a shipmaster. His father said, "David, what are you going to be anyhow?" He answered, "I am going to follow the sea." "Follow the sea," said the father, "and be kicked about the world and die in a foreign hospital?" "No," said David; "I am going to com-mand like you." "No," said the father; "a boy of your habits will never command anything." And his father burst into tears and left the cabin. From that day David Farragut started on a new life. According to his own statement, Far-

Farragut started on a new life. Captain Pennington, an honored elde of my Brooklyn church, was with him i most of his battles and had his intima most of his battles and had his intima friendship, and he confirmed, what I had heard elsewhere, that Farragut was good and Christian. In every great crisis of life he asked and obtained the Divine di-rection. When in Mobile bay the monitor Tecumseh sank from a torpedo and the reat warship Brookiya, that was to lead the squadron, turned back, he said he was at a loss to know whether to ad-vance or retreat, and he says: "I prayed. 'O God, who created man and gave him son, direct me what to do. Shall I go on?' And a volce commanded me, 'Go on,' and I went on.' Was there ever a more touching Christian letter than that which he wrote to his wife from his flagship. "My dearest wife, I write and Hartford?

Mobile bay in the morning if God is my leader, and I hope He is, and in Him I place my trust. If He thinks it is the proper place for me to die, I am ready to sul and, he call much as we love wife and parents and chil dren. On, men of the Ame ican 25 yr returnen "It would be well if I died now in harness."

CHAMBERLAIN'S BYE BAISER'S SYE.

rather lively encounter with Mr. Chan beriain in the early part of the pres tion and in telling the story the rad-the culprit declared.

"give him away" to that extent. But disconcerting. A radical M. P. had a watched her lithe form pass from view. "but if Lang Sellars made that statement the son of Duncan Campbell will die felon's death on the gallows." (To be continued.)

Goulash (Boston agazine)-Cut two

"Entirely welcome. I just received a message from Attorney Dobbs, and am expecting him at the jail every moment. He may try to worm a confess ion from obert. I would not see him." "Thank you, Filyaw, but I am guilty of no crime. Please admit him."

you not like to see Lang Sellars? You

Herbert, he occupied this very room for

"I have no message for Sellars," said "Of course, if he calls voluntarily and wishes to see me, admit him but he stated last night that he thought Sheriff Cobb had apprehended the right

"He did! He did!" exclaimed Filyaw, noving nervously toward the door. "Then I would not give much for your life. God en very much depleted. "Ready, Miss Campbell?" he asked. "Yes, Mr. Filyaw, and very thankful times. Would remember how he saved the life of Her-bert Russell at the last moment. Poor than go through the experience again," Everybody has heard of Mr. Cham berlain's eye-and his eyeglass. There is something very "deep" and mysterious in the appearance of that famous right optic. A clever man, indeed, is he who could fathom Mr. Chamberlain's meaning by studying his eyes. In his case they are not "the windows of the soul"-he never allows them to then occasion requires that same eye can flash in a way that is positively belp you, sir!" Robert and his sister exchanged glances He kissed her good-by and she followed the jailer back to his office. "Neither the brother nor sister seem heartbroken," thought Filyaw, as he Was in sad despair all night, dear sisof attention lately. It is a fact that all said Robert, perhaps five minutes Filyaw had taken his departure. the great men of recent times have been cudowed with what is called the "magreliance was on Sellars, and I the had abandoned me. Your netic eye." good news reassures me. I am content to lie in jail until such time as he is able to place here in my stead the murderer of my dear old friend. It will take time, but he will do it, and with a network around him from which he cannot escape. of modern men who wield great power, to jail again.

BHODE, STE.

300

some time."

Robert.

"Bless you, my sister!"

to this case. I tan't believe a son of Dun-can Campbell guilty of murder." Little did Filyaw know how deeply the reat detective was already interested i one feature of their personality im-Now let us talk no more about this matpresses the beholder above all others the bright, keen, generally "knowing"

ter. You know the inquest takes place at ten o'clock. I do not wish mother to be there. If necessary, promise me that you yourself will remain home and keep her from attending. It would be too much the ne's very thoughts. You can't bamboosie an eye like that; for one of her years and sensitive nature.

I shall surely be held to court, and I would you can't throw figurative dust in it spare her the pain of seeing me conveyed with brag or "bounce;" it would just look at you and its X-rays would penetrate the cloak of sham and show you

EYES OF SOME GREAT LEADERS.]

ptical Comparison of Kalser, Kitch

The eye as indicating a man's meata wers has been receiving a great deal

"The penetrative eye" is invariably a haracteristic of the man born to exer

Look where you will among the ranks ise immense influence over his fellows.

ener, Cham

in, Rheder

"She thought you would feel so, Robert, and will remain at home. Several ladies will be with her. I shall be at the inquest, h your true worth. Such an eye is possessed by Mi my brother, and though you are returned to jail, knowing what the future will bring Rhodes. "But let me look at him," he once remarked of an influentially rth, I am content, and then I must be backed applicant for an appointment with Hattle, your future wife."

under him. Mr. Rhodes trusts his eye where he would doubt the word of The brothe; and sister sat side by side the iron cot when Filyaw again ope potentates.

the door, and the basket of edibles had Lord Kitchener has an eye as k as his own sword blade. A young su altern known to the writer once had occasion to particularly notice that eye,

"and I'd rather face the flash of guins

"I don't believe you are, but these law yers are dangerous pot

KITCHENER'S ETS

right time comes Lang Sellars will estab-lish his innocence and unlock his prison doors. But first, I have much to do, te fasten this crime where it belongs. There is double mystery here, at least. I have the key to one. I shall solve them all, only it will take time. And now, all that At eight o'clock on the morning of the nineteenth Jennie Campbell entered the er desire to see her brother. I have said was for your ears alone. A single word that my suspicion rests on other than Robert Campbell might doubly increase the difficulties of the work I have before me-might, in fact, cause guilty parties to take to flight ere I have the various links in a chain of evidence that will bring them to the gallows forged well together, and send me scouring clean across the continent; therefore-"Our lips shall remain sealed, Mr. Sel lars, but our gratitude to you-"Walt, madam, until I have deserved it

Now you, Roger?" "I's lak the grave, Mars Lang-jes' lab

the grave." Right, Roger. And your maid here? "Oh, I will answer for Chloe," said

Jennie. "I dunno a ting, and never did," said "All I want is my young the sable Chloe. master back, so the bressed mistress an my Miss Jennie kin dry dar eyes."

"Why, don't you see, Chloe, mother is smiling now, and I-I am another girl a here in jail."

"Well, good-night, ladies," said the tective. "I am glad to have been able t relieve your minds of much anxiety."

Good-night, Mr. Sellars, and may God aid you in your endeavors to bring to the bar of justice the guilty wretch who murdered my husband's old friend. Oh, if Duncan was alive, what a shock this would be to him. And his son-his bey, held for the crime!"

"Herbert Russell was held for the mur der of Dr. Taylor, madam."

"True," said the widow, as Sellars pass ed from the room. Jennie accompanied him to the door bade him good-night, and watched his form as it disappeared in the darkness that so often precedes the dawn of day. "What a reputation that man has as a detecter of crime," she thought, as she walked back through the hall. "Throughout the South, at least, he stands without

Well, he deserves to." When she joined her mother she found her preparing to retire in a chamber adjoining the sitting room, tears coursing their way down her cheeks in profusion. "Why, mother, dear, you are weeping

"But now, my child, the tears are happy ones compared to those of but a half-ho ago. Come, join me in my room for a thort repose. At eight o'clock you must bear the glad tidings to your brother that he is under the watchful care of Lang Sellars, the great Southern detective who has promised to restore him to us."

CHAPTER VII.

Sheriff Cobb, when he had taken Rober Campbell into custody, was thoroughly etisfied that the young man was the banker's murderer. Of that there can no doubt, but it is also certain that n his haste to do so he was actuated by fear that Sellars would rob him of the glory, as he considered it, by taking him nto custody himself.

Since the rescue of Herbert Russel from the very trap of the gallows a year previous, Sheriff Cobb had been very jeal bus of Carolina's great detective, and he bad no desire that he should have the redit of having apprehended the murder tr of Banker DeRosette.

Not a suspicion of Herman Craven, the man who, in slippered feet, bareheaded and in his shirt sleeves, had aroused him from his slumbers at the dead hour o hight by the ringing of his door bell and shouts of murder, had crossed his mind.

Herman Craven had denounced the man whom he found bent over his uncle's life-less clay with the bloody knife in his band, as his murderer.

Herman Craven was the dead man's nephew; the cashier of his bank; the prospective husband of his daughter. At least, Herman had told him that it was his uncle's wish that they be united.

fice of the county jail and made known "Follow me, Miss Campbell," said Jaile "ilyaw, an undersized, corpulent little nan. "There are no orders not to admit ou, and if there were you should see your rother, even if he is in jail on the charge f murder. I am sorry for you, miss, in-eed I am. Who would have believed

211

Herman had cashed thousands of check for him, which checks he had accepted that night to gain the banker's consent to his marriage to his daughter.

The banker had utterly refused his sand tion, and forbidden him to pay his ad-resses to the girl. The girl loved, or fanied she loved, him, but would not be come his wife without her father's con

ent. Perhaps he had ordered Ro would inherit.

from the house. Anyway, the banker re moved, the young man hoped to make Hattie his wife and obtain the fortune she

"Nothing could be plainer," though Sher'.I Cobb. "He was prepared for such an emergency. He had the sheath knife with him. It may have been in an unguarded moment and in a fit of passion that he thrust its blade to the banker's heart, or the deed may have been coolly and deliberately executed. One thing sure the blow fell quick and sudden, but in his

"A moment more and he would have been found stiff and cold. Who murdered a greater prospect of success. But the bag of coin? He did not have it with him when he entered the house. But how did he obtain that note? He may have had he knife blade from the banker's breast he may have had an accessory, who fied with the coin. At all events, I have the start of Lang Sellars on this case. I have the man who struck the fatal blow. He belongs to one of the first families in the State, but there is no 'wrong man' this t may be discovered in the house. Again redy, madam; but knowing the torture payment of taxes. It was plain to Sher-your minds must be under, I could not go iff Cobb that Robert Campbell had sought

"You must go to her, Jennie, with the saziety to make certain that his victim dawn of day. This is terrible for the poot siri. Why, Mr. Sellars, my son had two objects in visiting Mr. DeRosette's home of his nephew and those of his daughter to-night. One, as you doubtless know, who sped down the stairs and confronted was to take up his note. The other was him with the evidence of his damnable to ask his sanction to the union of which prime clutched in his hand.

you have referred." "A moment more and he would have "He had obtained that sanction," usid been gone, the sheath knife with him. In and had it in his possession." [been found stiff and cold. Who murdered "I know," the widow said. "He hat him? Robert Campbell would have uninformed me. And then, the bag of gold dertaken to fasten suspicion on the young it seems incredible!"

nine, and when he returned he was is 't and secreted it somewhere after he the custody of Sheriff Cobb. You know and induce Sheriff Cobb to place him in the debtor's room, which is more commo-modious than an ordinary cell, if he is held for trial. You had best visit him between eight and nine o'clock this morn-his way home after seeing his prisoner incarcerated in jail.

"He had also taken up his note he morning the banker's body would have

"Don't speak of it, Mr. Filyaw, if you please," said Jennie. "We have every confidence that my brother will be able hopped parsley. establish his innocence." "I hope he may," said the jailer.

Cream Cheese Salad .- Make tiny balls ope he may. But what have you there?" "Merely my brother's breakfast in this f soft cream cheese, with butter pad-les, and serve on crisp lettuce leaves. asket," said Jennie. "He is not used Sprinkle with French dressing. Simprison fare. My mother being someple and delicious.

hat prostrated, did not accompany me Perfect Peach Pie.-Line ple tin with nd I did not bring my maid to-day." "Bless you," said Filyaw, "I should pastry, place a sheet of paraffin paper in it and fill with pleces of stale bread. Bake quickly and then remove the filleed Robert Campbell on prison fare. The est my own table affords should be his." ing by lifting out the paper. Have ready half a dozen peaches cut in two, and stewed slightly with a cup of wa-"Oh, thank you, sir, but either my maid r I will come every day while my brother er and sufficient sugar to sweeten They passed from the office through the Thicken with cornstarch moistene with cold water, flavor with a drop of all into the corridor of the prison. Fil-raw blew a sharp note on his whistle and almond and pour over peaches placed out side up, in crust. When cold cover turnkey came forward and unlocked and with a meringue, or better still, a cup of cream whipped stiff, sweetened and flavored with almond. swung open the heavy iron door of the structure, handing the jailer a bunch of teys as he did so. They passed within and the heavy door Eggplant Olio.-This recipe has been losed with a clang that grated on poor lennie's nerves. given, but so long ago that we repeat it, for it is an uncommonly nice dish. slice and fry crisply brown one good-sied eggplant. During the frying have three tomatoes cut in halves, bak-Two rows of cells confronted them ne to the right, the other opposite-with passage between them and an iron stairing in an oven. pulp side uppermost spread lavishly with butter, each dust ay at the further end of the passage "Hey, you jailer! Does my case came ff at September court?" was the 4w ed with a saltspoonful of salt and dash of pepper and piled high with finely chopped onion. Serve one on each side recting that reached their cars as they

f eggplant. "I think not, Wortell," was the reply Tomato Butter.-Seven pounds but don't worry about it. It will come comatoes, seven pounds of tart apples, our pounds of sugar, cloves, cinnamon and allapice to suit taste. Boil tomaff soon enough. "Got any 'baccer, Mars Jailer?" were e words that greeted them from another toes and apples together until they need tirring, then add sugar and sp "Here, Pompy!" and Filyaw passed half Boll four hours. t a plug through the iron bars of his cell. Tomato Chowder .-. Take twenty-four "Tank you, Massa," and the negro grin-large tomatoes, one dozen green man-go peppers and eight medium-sized on-lons; chop all fine. Then add three cuped as though he was happy. "Why do you keep negroes here, Mr. "ilyaw?" "All, Miss Campbell, who violate the ions; cnop all fine. Then add this fulls of vinegar, one tablespoor sait, three large tablespoonful cloves, two teaspoonfuls of ch and one teaspoonful of allsplo large tablespoonfuls teaspoonfuls of cinnamo aw, free born or slave, white or black, re liable to imprisonment in jail. Pompy now is a free negro. His offense is not ery grave. He merely stole a hog, if his ccusers tell the truth." the ground spices in a small mus bag. Boil the whole mixture two hours. Before sealing, if desired, add a little grated horseradish. It can be ber stold dat hog. He comed to my tater batch, an' was rootin' dem up. You reck-in I gwine let someone else's hog waller in my taters, an' den 'low him to go free? -There are several varieties of fish that cannot swim. In every instance they are deep-sea dwellers, and crawl ides dat, I only got seben dollars fer de og, an' I offer de owner half of it." about the rocks. "Don't worry, Pompy: I have engaged -An Oklahoma town was surveyed

"Tank you, Mars Jailer." lots sold, and many of them occupied by about eight hundred people within They passed on to the stairway and as ended it. It was much lighter on this twenty-four hours. oor, and the air seemed more wholesome

-Now the highest of the graduating honors at Cambridge University, in England, goes to a colored man, a Brahmin from Bombay. here were two rows of cells as below, bu ot extending the full length of the buildng. Two debtors' rooms occupied con--The men-of-war of the Roman derable space at the rear. "Your brother is in the male debtor's oom," said Jailer Filyaw. "I did not like the idea of confining him in a cell. The debtor's room is bad enough." "Oh, thank you."

-Printing ink is made by mixing soot or lampblack with a transparent boiled oil that is sticky, the mass re-In a moment more the jailer had singled out a key from his bunch and unlocked maining fluid, but rapidly drying an adhesive even when laid in a very this and opened the door. A recumbent figure, lying on a low iron coating on a sheet of paper.

bedstead, sprang to its feet, and Jennie was clasped in her brother's arms. "I will return in fifteen minutes," said bedstead, sprang to its iter, and and iter was clasped in her brother's arms. "I will return in fifteen minutes," said the jailer, as he hurriedly withdrew and locked the door behind him. Nicew had been Wilmington's jailer locked the door behind him. Filyaw had been Wilmington's jailer for twenty years; but tears stood in his eyes as he trudged back to his office. -Japanese workmen are obliged to wear on their caps and backs an in-scription stating their business and their employed's name. "Something wrong somewhere," he mut-tergd, "Lang Sellars abguid be called in-aree tablespoonfuls of drypings, half an onion and a small carrot cut fine; a d the meat and brown slightly, then add a cup of hot water or stock. Cover ghtly and let stew slowly until nearlain's glance of indignation fairly bit me." This is an eloquent tribute to the Birmingham member's eye power. A writer tells how on one occasion he y tender. Parboil potatoes, which ve been cut in balls, five minutes; dd to the meat with one tablespoon-m of paprika, half a cup of hot water, saw the Kaleer riding at the head of his favorite and magnificent guards along Unter den Linden, Berlin. The Em nd sait to taste. Simmer half an hour. rown two tablespoonfuls of butter, dd three of flour and one cup of brown peror's face was a study. Hard, renorseless, terribly determined, it was a tock, a little salt and pepper and stir face that one could never forget. And nto meat. When bolling, turn out or platter and garnish with one dozen the even-those wonderful even-glit tered in it like burnished steel. He mentoes, heated and arranged on unds of toast and sprinkled with would be a brave man who dared to say "No" to the Kalser.

REPLECTRONS OP . ABACHELO

Love grows by what it doesn't feed

Love never condescends to reas that is why it is so reasonable

No thin girl will ever admit that there is a family skeleton anywhere around her house.

The average woman would rather have a man think less of her and think of her oftener.

You can always distract a woman's attention by showing her a new doily attern or a baby.

When a man has a piece of bad luck there is always some woman around to say it is a judgment. Some of the worst gifts that Santa Claus ever put in a stocking are what women wear in them. at the rear. The first time a girl kisses a man she tries to pose just like the actress she nce saw kiss in some play.

The average woman gets about halt her pleasu: in life out of "misunderstandings" with people she likes.

After a girl has been engaged three or four times she feels lonesome every night a man doesn't propose to her. The Lord probably made man first because he was afraid Eve would insist on advising Him about making Adam.

A well dressed woman looks as if her clothes were made for her, but a well tressed man looks as if he was made for his clothes.

A woman's's idea of society is to talk and act before people who aren't her own family like she thought the world was nothing but a nice dish of strawberries and cream.

The Country's Physicians

At the present rate of increase the had a crew of about 225 men, of which 175 were oarsmen working on three United States will have in 1900 about 25.000 physicians.

decks. The speed of these vessels was about six miles an hour in fair weather.

Britain's Postal Profits. The profits of Great Britain's postal ervice are $20,000,000 a rear.

Youthful Dagger Wielders -A reminiscene of Aaron Burr was The art of self-defense is inculcate sarly among some of the wilder tribes of the Caucasus, who instruct their children, as soon as they can walk, in the use of the dagger. First, the little ones are taught to stab water without making a splash, and; in the course of time. ant practice gives them an extrary command over the weapon.

Musical Notes.

BIBTHPLACE OF PERSIDENT BUCHANAN turnpike that ran from Chambers burg to Pittsburg, and as the father of the future President was a shrewd business man he accumulated there what was considered a large fortune in those days. He sent young James te Dickinson College, in Carlisle, from which he was graduated in 1805. The house in which Buchanan was born is now rebuilt. Before it was torn dows all the logs were capefully numbered and when it was again erected it was

The house is a story and a half high omtaining two rooms. There is a single window and a door in front and one window on the alley side, with a door the crown of Granada in spite of the superior claims of his elder brother Jussef. He was very unsuccessful in his conduct of the war against the les?' asked the visitor. -Lambeth Palace can show speci-Rela Kittridge, of Belfast, Me., holds the world's record for writing by placing 46,000 words on an ordinary "A farmer, is he?" "No; he's a doctor. I'm talking about

<text>

Then strike eight belist high noon it beaven! While we are heartily greeting and ban-jucting the sailor patriots just now re-furned we must not forget the veterans of the navy now in marine hospitals or spending their old days in their own or their children's homesteads. Oh, ye vet-erans, I charge you bear up under the aches and weaknesses that you still carry the mattion the presented amil booming cannonade and embannered hosts, and our autumnal nights shall become a conflagration of Marie Brema will make a concert and oratorio season in this country this year. Calve's principal success since she last appeared in this country, was made as Ophelia. Clarence Eddy, organist, makes a trans-continental tour this season. He is now in Paris. Van Dyck was among the many singers commanded to sing at Balmorai for the Queen last season. Fifty-seven grand operas were given at the Imperial Opera House, Vienna, Iast year and twenty-two ballets. The New York Philharmonic Society for the first time in its career has elect-ed a woman as bonorary member. inassuming, almost busined person that they went to school with and with whom they sported on the playground. The hon-ors of all the world cannot spoil him. A 'ew weeks ago at a banquet in England some of the titled noblemen were aftimes. So you have in nerve and muscle and bone and dimmed eyesight and diffi-

Interpret and twenty-two ballets.
The New York Philammonic Society for the first time in its career has elect ed a woman as honorary member.
A society has been organized in Bar and the society has been Black Hawk, Admiral Porter commanding; yonder, the flag steamer Benton, Admiral Foote commanding; yonder, the flagship Hardford, David G. Farragut command-ing; yonder, the Brooklyn, Bear Admiral Schley commanding; yonder, the Olympia, Admiral Dewey commanding; yonder the Oregon, Captain Clark commanding; yon-der, the Texas, Captain Philip command-ing; yonder, the " rk. "  * * or paving in Russia. The coal dust s combined with molasses and resin. -Among the latest collection fad is search after od trade signs and circulars. The collectors declare there is more fun in it than anything in the mens of almost every style of archi-tecture which has prevailed since 1190.

collection line yet attempted. -Portable houses are made in this country for shipment to Venezuela. Four handy men can in three hours erect one of the domiciles.

ounted the throne. Cleansing Dishes When tin plates and dishes are ver dirty, it is a good plan to boll them in strong soda and water before scouring and polishing them.

Where He Meds His Money." "Do you make much out of your ap

> "Ob, pretty considerable," answer he farmer, "but I've got a son up in he town who makes more out of the apples in a month than I make the hole season."

postal card. reen apples now."-Yonkers made a facsimile of its former self in 1396 Mohammed Balba usurped

Christians and was at length assassinated by polson absorbed through his skin from a shirt. He entertained a perate dialike to the brother whom e had injured, and when he knew that his own fate was sealed he sent an order to the governor of the prison in which Jussef was confined that he should be executed immediately. When the order arrived Jussef was playing chess with the chaplain of the prison.

Game of Chars.

respite from the governor permitting m to finish the game. Before it was ended, however, news came that the usurper had died of the poison. This

Jussef, instead of going to the scaffold

With great difficulty Jussef obtained a cancelled the order of execution and