Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Mr. John P. Kelly of Doyle's Mills, Juniata county, drove to Chambersburg, Franklin county, a distance of 57 miles to attend the funeral of his sister Mrs. Rebecca C. Pomeroy. The funeral took place on the 7th day of October. Mr. Kelly is 81 years old.

Mrs. Rebecca C. Pomeroy, died at her home in Chambersburg, on the 14th of October aged 70 years. She was the widow of Major John B. Pomeroy, former editor and proprietor of the Franklin Repository. Her son, Nevin Pomeroy, is the present editor of the Repository.

Dr. King's New Life Pills. There is said to be a bicycle heart, a tobacco heart, and hearts of other kinds, and now some one comes forward and says there is a coffee heart. Each heart has its own symptoms. The symptom of a coffee heart is the heart misses a beat once in a while, occasionally there is a smothering sensation and pain in the heart.

Dr. King's New Discovery. Fakery played the "Wild Man of Borneo," at the Granger's picnic in Centre county successfully as may be learned from the Bellefonte Gazette there:—"The persons who paid ten cents to see the "Wild Man of Borneo" at the Granger's picnic this year may be interested to know that the individual who so completely played this part was none other than our "Colored man about town" known as "Browne."

He got $38 for his two days' services and his exhibitors realized something like $180, out of their venture.

Dr. King's New Life Pills. If wireless telegraph who not wireless telephones, and who knows but the earth and other planets are great receivers ready to be talked to just as soon as we have learned how to make the electric machinery to talk to them. There is no telling what the wireless telegraph may lead to.

The ceremony will take place in Westminster Presbyterian church at 11 A. M., Wednesday, October 18.

Chambersburg Repository Oct. 4. About a month ago ex-Congressman William A. Piper died in Newfort, leaving an estate valued at over two million dollars, all of which goes to his brothers and sisters in Illinois.

Mr. Piper was born and raised in Amherst's valley. He was bound out to Daniel Stake when 16 and remained with him until 18 when he went to California, struck it rich, became very wealthy and was sent to Congress for two terms. His heirs were all originally from this county.

Dr. King's New Discovery. Carl F. Epsenschade is looking for a man who robbed him of his pocket-book, gold watch and chain and papers. He was in a Pullman sleeper on his way to Philadelphia. The valuables were taken from under his pillow while he slept. That was in 1892. He received a letter from J. H. Lennoune of Irondale, Virginia the other day imparting the information that he had bought a Masonic charm and a watch chain from a colored man with the name of Carl F. Epsenschade inscribed, and that he can have the articles by paying what the purchaser paid.

Dr. King's New Discovery. Mrs. Deen died in Salina, Colorado, on Monday, October 9, from the effects of a stroke of paralysis. She was stricken on the 7th inst. Her sons are having her remains brought to Mifflintown for interment in the Presbyterian cemetery on Saturday. She was aged 74 years. She was the wife of James Deen, who died in this town some years ago. They were Tuscarora Valley people where Mr. Deen was clerk for the Waterford Presbyterian congregation forty years. He was a prominent democratic politician in his day in Juniata county. There are people still living in this town, who have a pleasant recollection of both Mr. and Mrs. Deen.

The friends of Banks K. Bastress formerly of Delaware township, Juniata county, but latterly of Cranberry, N. J., are deeply concerned over his mysterious disappearance. Foul play is suspected in having to do with his disappearance. He was engaged to marry a young lady in Delaware township and their nuptial affairs had so far progressed that wedding dresses had been prepared and other arrangements were made for the auspicious event that they both expected soon to take place. But suddenly he disappeared as if the earth had swallowed him and hid him from the sight of his expectant and best friends. He was in Juniata county in September last and had a horse and buggy hired from the livery of John Berg five days. He returned the rig all right, paid for it. That was on the 21st of September. He remained the night of that day at the Jacobs House where he was registered as from Trenton, N. J. On September 22 he got aboard of seashore. Boyd Berg had him good-bye. That is the last his friends have heard of him. He boarded while at the Murray House. When he arrived in Philadelphia from his last visit to Juniata county, it is feared he was wandering and foully dealt with. The Philadelphia Bulletin of October 4 says: The case was reported at detective headquarters by M. R. Bastress the missing man's brother, who lives in Cain, Pa., and detective Cameron is making the investigation. The missing man was employed by Joseph K. Jones, who runs a creamery at Cranberry. Bastress spent his vacation in Mifflintown and on September 22 took a train for Philadelphia. He had a valuable watch in his possession and it is besides the $200 in cash and it is thought that he may have fallen in with thieves in this city. Bastress is 27 years old, five feet nine inches tall, dark coat, black vest, check trousers and a dark colored light weight overcoat when he left Mifflintown.

Three fronts in succession did not bring rain last week. William Littlefield is visiting his old time home in Mifflintown.

Last Monday the Elder farm at Cuba Mills was put up for sale at public outcry. $3,450 was bid for it.

Mrs. Bridget Corrigan aged 107 years died at her home in Nanticoke on the 6th inst. She was born in Ireland.

Miss Ellie Stone returned to her home in Washington, D. C. on Saturday, after having visited in the town and county.

Mrs. Catherine Watts of Sellersville, Montgomery county, Pa., celebrated her 103rd birthday on the 6th day of October. She has 300 descendants.

Wireless telegraph is the marvel of the age. The despatch is sent up into the air. The air carries it and wherever there is a receiving instrument the message can be read.

We acknowledge a receipt from Secretary of Internal Affairs Lettis, the annual report of internal affairs, part 3rd industrial statistics for the year 1898. Thanks Mr. Secretary.

The letters remaining in the Mifflintown post office at the close of business hours October 7, 1899, were for Thomas Sankey, Miss Emma Riden, Miss Sarah McBride, Charles G. Luder.

Last Friday George Biemesderfer while picking apples on his farm in Lancaster county, fell off an apple tree and was killed. The same day, Elmer Rauch of Pottstown, Pa., fell fifty feet from a shell bark tree and was not hurt.

The horse and mule protection company met in the court house on Saturday. After a view of that company, it would be an uncommonly sorry thief to steal a horse and have such a lot of expert horsemen turned loose on his heels to run him down.

Rev. I. S. Hawn a Westmoreland county Presbyterian preacher was suspended by act of the Blairville Presbytery. He now brings suit for $10,000 damage for defamation of character. He says his accusers conspired to injure his character and standing as a minister.

The present generation is only now coming to understand the meaning of the word "work." It applies to all classes, rich and poor alike, and Mrs. Charlotte Perkins Stetson has undertaken to make this clear in her article, "What Work Is," which appears in the October "Cosmopolitan."

One year ago State Senator William Finn and other great reformers in every county in the state were trying to pump water on their mill by slaking car-bidilates in the back under the plea that the republican candidates were friends of Senator Quay and Quay had been using State funds from State Treasurers. Now the boss reformer Finn is charged by a Pittsburg paper with having received one hundred and fifteen thousand dollars of the Pittsburg city funds to use in his business transactions.

ARGUMENT COURT. Court convened at 10 o'clock P. M., on Saturday, Oct. 7, 1899. In the estate of Amos Stouffer, deceased, the Administrator was granted an order to sell decedent's real estate.

In the estate of James Milliken, deceased the report of appraisers setting aside for the benefit of the widow all of decedent's property confirmed by the court.

In the estate of Alexander Eaton, deceased, order to sell real estate granted. Court adjourned until the 9th day of November, at 12 o'clock noon.

THE 1899 PEACH CROP. The Government report for September has the following to say concerning the 1899 peach crop: "No quantitative estimate of the total production of peaches can be made nor can the crop as a whole be compared on a percentage basis with the crop for any other year. It is observed that the peach crop of 1899 has been one of the smallest on record, many of the States upon which the country is accustomed to rely for the largest contributions to the annual supply having no crop at all or at the most not to exceed 5 or 10 per cent of the normal. Of the really important peach growing states California alone reports a good crop."

THE BARBER SHOP LAW. The law recently enacted regulating barber shops will be quite an innovation in the shops all over the State. Under the new law it will be necessary to subject the shaving brush to a steam bath every time it is used while the razor must be dipped in an antiseptic solution before being applied to another man's face. Individual cups must be used with each customer. A fresh towel will also be provided for each person shaved. Combs, brushes and other implements must be steamed and thoroughly cleaned, and the shop must at all times be clean and tidy. In order to secure the enforcement of this law three inspectors are to be appointed.

WORKING NIGHT AND DAY. The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. SIR HENRY IRVING ON SHAKESPEARE. Sir Henry Irving devoted part of his summer holidays to writing an article, which he has given to The Ladies' Home Journal. It is called Shakespeare in Small Communities, and tells how the study, reading aloud and acting of Shakespeare's works may be followed in communities away from the larger centres.

For a swallowed Nail. Four year-old Raymond Eastburn of Germantown avenue below Eckel Washington lane, Germantown, picked his teeth with a horse-shoe nail. It slipped into the mouth and down his throat.

Raymond yelled and informed his grand father as best he could what had happened.

Grandfather John Osborne quickly grabbed Raymond by the ankles, turned him upside down, bumped him a few times on the brick pavement, and then stood Raymond on his feet and commanded him to cough.

Raymond coughed and up came the nail.

ONLY A FLOWER. Sweetest flower that God has given, Bloomed besides a cottage door; In it tales of love are hidden, And beauties that we would adore.

Sweetest flower among the flowers, Lived for someone in that home; Lived in sunshine, dew and showers, Lived and died there all alone.

Time with it was spent in cheering, Someone passing by that way; With its sweetest perfume breathing, For the gentle breeze to sway.

Precious are the moments, living In life's calm and empty dream, Pleasant words of kindness, giving, Some wayward soul another theme.

Letter from a Woman. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy frequently cures several members of a family. While it is considered by many to be a Kidney and Bladder Medicine, it is just as certain to cure Dyspepsia, Constipation, Rheumatism, Scrofula and Eczema. This is because it first puts the Kidneys in a healthy condition, so they can sift all impurities from the blood.

Here is a letter from Mrs. Capt. FARRAR RICH, of N. Y.: "My husband was troubled with his kidneys, fearfully with shooting pains through his back. He took Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, and he is now well and strong.

Although seventy years of age, he is as hearty as a man many years younger. I was so troubled with Dyspepsia that it was painful for me to walk. My food did me no good, as my stomach could not digest it. Somebody recommended Favorite Remedy to me, and after taking two bottles of it I was completely cured, and am feeling splendid now. We both attribute our good health to Favorite Remedy."

It is prescribed with unfailing success for Nerve Troubles, and for the Liver and Blood it is a specific. It has cured many that were beyond the aid of other medicines. Ask your druggist for it, and insist upon getting it. Don't take a substitute. It will cost you $1.00 for a regular full-sized bottle.

Sample Bottle Free. If you want to try Favorite Remedy before buying, send your full post-office address to Dr. David Kennedy Corporation, Rondout, N. Y., and enclose this paper. They will send you a free trial bottle, all charges prepaid. This genuine offer is made to prove to everybody what a wonderful medicine it is.
