Dried pasture. Vote for Mahon. Vote for Beaver. Filling coal bins. Vote for McKee. Bryan is for 16 to 1. Cloverseed is scarce. The Boer war is over. Militarism only a joke. Brief equinoctial storm. Bryan is for a low tariff. The Chinese want peace. A low tariff shuts shops. Gathering in winter wood. Dangerous, wild cat banks. Rain signs continue to fail. Bryan is for wild-cat banks. McKinley and shops running. Bees have little honey this fall. "Remember the Sabbath day." Revival meeting time is coming. A low tariff, an empty Treasury. Political meetings are looming up. The health of the country is good. Bryan is against court injunction. Judge Lyons caught a 44 pound bass. Imperialism, a name to be laughed at. Snyder county has one colored voter. Here and there a farm has a colt or two. Potatoes are plenty in some counties. Diplomacy instead of the sword in China. Many farms are without corn this year. Life in China—eat, drink, work, propagate. Few beehives can be fed in Juniata this winter. It takes a particular season to grow clover. Guy Auker is home from Washington State. Drilling for coal oil at Newry, Blair county. The Kindergarten school will soon be opened. The average oats crops this year is 82 to 85 last year. The average wheat crop this year is 69 to 70 last year. Squire Wm. Groninger is going on a trip to North Dakota. Most of the winter wheat has been sown in dusty ground. United States troops have not been withdrawn from China. Bush-whacking fighting continues in the Philippine Islands. Are you a growler? Dry wheat sowing. Late wheat sowing. Good oats is scarce. Bridle your tongue. Squirrels are scarce. Imperialism, Boo! Boo! New moon last Sunday. Re-union day is coming. The unity of the church. Pine squirrels are plenty. Living is cheap in China. October is a grand month. Never such dried gardens. Vote the republican ticket. Macedonia water holds out. Fishermen report bass scarce. Half-way to the shortest day. Political meetings in October. State college has 400 students. Violence of coal miners' strikers. Never such a drought in Juniata. Michigan has a large peach crop. Charles Renninger buys chickens. Strikers should leave other men work. No canal. Out with the river dams. Strikers must like the pinch of winter. Violent strikers bring out the military. Plenty, snow and rain the coming winter. Corn on shock looks like in bleak November. The Bryan shadow down the price of stocks. Silver coin counterfeiters in Clearfield county. A wedding or two are said to be looming up in town. Republicans coined over $6,000,000 silver dollars. Henry Berger and family will move to Philadelphia. The Americans eat more fruit than any other nation. Strikers lose their cause whenever they resort to violence. Miss Tillie London has returned from a trip to Philadelphia. Merchant Irwin Dimm of Lewis-town was in town over Sunday. You can wade the river and not much more than wet your feet. A gang of counterfeiters have been caught in Franklin county. The pumpkin pie season is at hand, but where are the pumpkins. Some wheat fields between Mifflintown and Richfield are reported as nice and green.

Henry Penny's potato crop is good for this year. Report says the Millertown dam is to go by railroad order. S. A. Tyson of the Jacobs House force is off east on a vacation. A boy baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. Kelly McNeal on Monday. Miss Margaret Marks of Patterson visited in Mifflin Co., last week. Wm. Marks and wife have returned from a trip to New York City. Mrs. John Browsers of Patterson is suffering with an attack of malaria. Joseph Arbogast made a visit to Harrisburg to see his friends last week. For sale—A one horse wagon. Call on George W. Heck for particulars. Mrs. H. W. Berger will sell all of her flowers at cost as she is leaving town. The biggest hog in the Mansion House pig sty in Newport, Pa., weighs 560 pounds. Taking the United States throughout the corn crop is almost up to the average of ten years past. The people are multiplying rapidly on the earth. When will the next cataclysm come to destroy them? Miss Lottie Hackenberger after spending her vacation with her parents at East Point returned to Philadelphia last Thursday. Cloverseed average this year is reported lower than in eight years past, excepting in Michigan and Iowa in which states the crop is above an average. J. D. Lesh of Juniata township, Perry county, lost a cow from eating too much corn and ex sheriff S. B. Loudon of Mifflintown lost his cow from the same cause. Some big fish stories come from Ryde, Mifflin county, where report has it that a number of salmon have been caught in the river, the smallest salmon weighing two and a half pounds each, the largest one weighing seven pounds. Bryan took of one hundred thousand soldiers in idleness in the Philippine Islands and elsewhere, and what do the people who so recently shouted, "Remember the Maine," think of such talk from a candidate for the Presidency. How happy should a family be that has a house to shelter them with a supply of coal and wood and provisions to see them through the winter and a school house for the children to go to and a preaching house for the family to attend on Sunday. Even Bryan has expanded since his former campaign. Then his property was assessed at two hundred and eighty dollars. Since then he has expanded his property interests and now his property is assessed at three thousand seven hundred dollars. George F. Goodman was awarded the contract for rip-rapping the river bank at that place for eighty-nine dollars. There were eight bidders. Their bids ranged from eighty-nine dollars to one hundred and eighty-nine dollars. Joseph Kaufman, aged 82 years of near Kistler, Perry Co., was found dead in bed on the morning of the 14th of September, and the oldest man in Perry county, Samuel Nunemaker, aged 91 years, died at his home in Tyrone township, on the 11th day of September. The newly sown wheat presents about the same appearance that the corn presented last spring. That is where the ground is mellow and moist the grain grows nicely. Where the ground is clay and cloddy the grain does not grow so the wheat fields this fall present a spotted appearance like that of the corn-fields last spring. Harry Moore of McAlisterville returned from a trip to the west. He attended the Grand Army encampment at Chicago and says that during two days of the encampment there were more visitors in Chicago than during any two days of the world's fair. In coming east in the car in which he rode a vote was taken for McKinley and Bryan. Only one vote was cast for Bryan. George Miller of Perry county has been placed under arrest, charged with the murder of Harry C. Shoemaker of Liverpool. He went into Shoemaker's canal boat and shot him while he lay in his bed. Miller denies the charge. Revenge is the motive charged, Shoemaker having called Miller a thief. If the Philadelphians who entrapped the common schools of Philadelphia to send a delegate of sympathy to Boreland, had the fore-sight as they now have the hind-sight, they would have kept themselves quiet on the question. The common schools should not be used for any purpose except for common school purposes. "Some fiend tied a stick of dynamite to the tail of a cow belonging to James Duglavitch of Greenwood, Clearfield county, Tuesday morning and arranged a capso that it would explode in a few minutes. It blew the animal to atoms, and the explosion shook the town. The township police have undertaken to run the guilty party down." One of the features in the coal striking districts is the bands of marching strikers. The men put the women at the head of the procession. They march from mine to mine trying to persuade the men to quit work. In many instances the women put their arms around the necks of the men and plead with them. That fetches most of the men. Many men run or hide when the women come they don't want to be hugged as the price for dropping their bread and butter.

The Hebrew New Year began last Sunday evening, September 23rd. John Graybill and family are domiciled in their house on 4th street. On the night of the 19th inst., Mrs. Annie Kline, was burned to death in her home near Granville, Mifflin county. She and her husband Rudolph Kline were lifting a kettle of apple-butter off a fire. Mrs. Kline's dress took fire and she was burned to death. Mr. Kline was seriously burned while attempting to extinguish the flames in his wife's clothing. The Port Royal Times of September 20 gets off the following snide story: Some time ago Mrs. T. Long of this place was in the act of throwing the shutters open in an up-stairs room, she discovered an large house snake lying between the window sash and shutters on the window sill. The reptile showed fight right away. It got away without being killed. To say she was very much frightened is saying the least. The Puritans came to Massachusetts to expand. The Dutch came to New York to expand. The Dutch, the Swedes, the English, the Quakers, the Mennonites, the Lutherans, the Presbyterians, the Irish, the Scotch Irish came to Pennsylvania to expand. The Catholics came to Maryland to expand. The Cavaliers came to Maryland to expand. The Moravians came to Georgia first and afterwards to Pennsylvania to expand. Some days ago Mrs. Sarah Moyer, wife of Emanuel Moyer, deceased, narrowly escaped death. She left her home on Main street about dusk to visit her son John Moyer on their farm a mile north of town. In the dusk of the evening she became confused, missed her way and as is always the case with people who get lost, she wandered about the place she wanted to go to, but never got there. The hours went by. At 1 o'clock in the morning she found herself at the buildings of the Patterson henry, which she recognized. The henry is not far from her son's house, but she again lost her way, came from the farm to the pike, thence across to the old canal lock into which she fell. She heard the clock strike 2 when she lay in the lock. Mr. Depew lives in the lock house. He came out early on Thursday morning to prepare for the day's work. Mrs. Moyer called and his surprise was great to find so aged a person at the bottom of the lock, and still more surprised when he learned that it was Mrs. Moyer. He hastily assisted her out of the lock and took her to his house where she was cared till her family were informed of her whereabouts. Mrs. Moyer is aged about 75 years and has lived in Juniata and Mifflintown a long time, and is highly respected by everyone with whom she is acquainted. The partial wreck of two trains of cars on Monday morning in the Long Narrows between this place and Lewistown resulted in the death of the conductor of the freight train and the injury of the engineer and fireman of the first section of Atlantic express. The disaster took place near what used to be called Bixler's water trough. A freight train was running east at the rate of 50 miles an hour and Atlantic express was following at the rate of 30 miles an hour. At Lewistown for some reason or by some mistake Atlantic express was allowed to pass on before the freight train had cleared the block. The freight train conductor was in the cabin at the rear end of the train oblivious of what was rushing upon him and the conductor of the passenger train was oblivious of what he was rushing into. To make it worse a fog hung over the river and railroad, and that prevented the rapidly running passenger engineer from seeing the freight ahead till he was upon it. The engineer E. N. Jones and his fireman B. H. Miller, both of Harrisburg, jumped from the train and both were injured. The conductor of the freight train J. H. Thompson of Altoona was sitting in his caboose and did not see Atlantic until his cabin was flying in the air to both sides of the road. He was fatally hurt and was taken to his home in Altoona where he died on Monday evening. The engine of the passenger train plowed its way through a box car in front of the cabin and demolished several coal cars and wound up by falling off the track on its side. It was brought to Mifflintown shops and while there was the object of the attention of a good many people J. H. Martin mail route agent living in this town was on the mail car attached to Atlantic express and had just stepped into a rearward car when the wreck took place and that saved his life. Everything in the car that he had just left was piled into an indescribable mass amidst which his life would have been crushed out.

A man in Washington, Pa., horse-whipped his wife for going to ride on a bicycle with another woman's husband. The Kidneys and Blood. If you want to be well, see to it that your Kidneys and Blood are in a healthy condition. It is an easy matter to learn what state your Kidneys are in. Place some of your urine in a bottle or tumbler, and leave it stand one day and night. A sediment at the bottom shows that you have a dangerous Kidney disease. Pains in the small of the back indicate the same thing. So does a desire to pass water often, particularly at night, and a scalding pain in urinating is still another certain sign. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is what you need. It will cure you surely if you do not delay too long in taking it. Kidney diseases are dangerous, and should not be neglected a single moment. Read what P. H. Kipp, of Union, N. Y., a prominent member of the G. A. R., says: "I was troubled with my Kidneys and Urinary Organs and suffered great annoyance day and night, but since using Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy I have greatly improved, and that dreadful burning sensation has entirely gone. I had on my lip what was called a pipe cancer, which spread most across my lip, and was exceeding painful; now that is almost well. I also had severe heart trouble, so that it was difficult to work; that is a great deal better. I have gained nine pounds since I commenced taking the Favorite Remedy, and am greatly benefited in every way, and cannot praise it too much." Favorite Remedy is a specific for Kidney, Liver and Urinary troubles. In Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, and Skin and Blood Diseases, it has never failed where the directions were followed. It is also a specific for the troubles peculiar to females. All druggists sell it at $1.00 a bottle. Sample Bottle Free! If you will send your full postoffice address to the Dr. David Kennedy Corporation, Rondout, N. Y., and mention this paper, we will forward you, prepaid, a free sample bottle of the Favorite Remedy, together with full directions for its use. You can depend upon this offer being genuine, and should write at once for a free trial bottle.
