Golden and gray, Both on one spray, December—blossom of Dimpled her chin and blooming Proudly she boasts she'll soon be seven''— ndmother's 80 next Saturday week

Day after day Gold turns to gray, Lilies lie scattered and roses decay.

Grandmother sits in the coslest correr. Telling quaint tales in nursery rhyme. about "Two Jack Horner," Wonderful tales of "Once Golden and Gray, Youth will be gay-Down in the meadow the lambs art at Granddaughter thinks the world is h Just as a place for frolic and fun. Grandmother's volume of Life's nearl play.

Granddaughter's book is barely begun Time will not stay. Night follows day, Gray was once golden and gold -St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

MISTRESS MARGET

OBODY who once looked upon Mistress Marget-pretty Mistress Marget almost everybody called ner-could help loving ber. I, Thomas Dawtry, a plain and simple squire of the realm, loved her better than all the not for me, or so, at least, her fathe: as I had hoped. had informed me. As for me. I had lone since decided to abide by this decision only so long as circumstances compelled me. Whenever fate offered me the shadow of an opportunity I meant to steal Mistress Marget and run away with her. Mistress Marget, as I had every reason-save spoken words-to believe, would be by no means unwill-sweet lady's father was called away to fight for his king and country, King Charles and bonnie England. I, who longed to fight for king and country also, dared the laughter and the jeers of my comrades to stay behind a little and steal my lovely lady, if it so pleased fate And no sooner had her father rid den away at the head of his men, than I made for the hall, and sought out old Simeon, the gardener. Sir Reginald had never forbidden my visits-he was too wise a man to tempt fate in such a manner; he had merely taken care that I had no chance of solitary speech with my dear lady. I know now that the Lady Eleanor Blewett, who filled, as best she might, the place of the dead lady of the manor to her daughter. Mistrees Marget, favored not my suit, so I sought not to have speech with her or with my lady. Old Simeon I had been Griends with ever since, as a child, I had played in the gardens with sweet Mistress Marget. I knew he was my friend and would help me. I know als that he might speak with his lady when 5 might not unwatched and unguarded To old Simeon I told my story, and brusted for his aid.

MISTRESS MARGET.

And there was the chink of sold between us when we parted, albeit my lack of gold was the reason why Sir Beginald had said nay, upon my asking from whichever part of the body it for his daughter's hand. And for goldnext to his love for pretty Mistress Marget-old Simeon would do more than most of us would do for the sake of life.

That evening I happened to be walkcame out to take the air. And a note passed between us. Old Simeon also intain drug, which my friend, the chirurgeon, had given me. Mistress Marget to the galleys, wherefrom they car into the flagon of ale sent up for the each of them will have sent to the hos-Lady Eleanor's supper. Then, later. pital near the Sixtinian bridge." she was to lean out of her casement and signal to me, waiting outside in the lane. And later still Parson Dabney. who loved us both and sympathized with us rather than with Sir Reginald, was to make pretty Mistress Marget my

And so it all happened, without let or hindrance, save when my body servant's horse was mired in the slough borses' hoofs coming, and, knowing that he must not be found there, he leaped his own steed over the hedge and into the slough. We had to wait some minutes for him, when we would fain have hurrled onward. But this was after I had placed the ladder underneath my lady's window, mounted it. pried off the guarding bars with the nished me, and received my darling in surprise of the proprietor by the time stout stave which old Simeon had furmy arms. My heart beat so, in going down the ladder, that I feared she would hear it and think me timid. Yet Journal. I had comage to claim a kiss as we acared the bottom, insisting that she pay it me before I set her down; and 1 do not think she noticed the rapid beat ing of my heart after that, even had she bones of his legs, arms and fingers since her to the dentist and had it filled, noticed it before. Her own heart bent he was old enough to walk. He has a rapidly then, as the bright color coming disease which renders his bones as and going in the face which looked so brittle as glass and liable to break o: fair and sweet in the moonlight testi- the slightest provocation. fled clearly.

At the foot of the ladder I set her down, and hand and hand we raced have open and unguarded for us, and a synonym for patriotism.

est fath the fane. There, lifting her dear form in my arms, I swung her up before me, and away we galloped, afte the short interval of waiting for m. servant, of which I have spoken. Hai an hour later we stood before Parson to call pretty Mistrees Marget my wife the ladder, withdraw it from beneath orously closed. her window, wave her a last tender ed that night. Then the soft darkness of the lane, with the moon well under a kindly cloud, a sharp command to the morning, and we were well up with Sir wars and fighting before us for many ong months. But my heart was brave and lightome within me, even though I had left my dear wife of an hour behind me. For it is easier, perhaps, to leave one's wife than one's sweetheart, especially when the sweetheart's father favors a richer man, and I knew, also, that I was a brave and skillful fighter, and I hoped that before Sir Reginald or I saw pretty Mistress Marget again his heart may neither tead, write, smoke nor would have warmed toward me on this work. They are condemned to absoaccount. For Sir Reginald loves a jute idleness and absolute silence; very brave man and a good fighter, always. tow complete their sentence; they either world. But pretty Mistress Marget was | And in the end it all turned out even

It Troubled the Customer.
"A funny thing occurred here the other day," said a barber as he was putting the finishing touches on a Satorday evening hair cut. "A fellow came in to be shaved who was somewhat under the influence of intoxicants. He took his place in the chair, and all proceeded well till I had shaved one side of his face, when he stopped 'Hold on,' he cried, 'I want this and he replied: 'There's a fly on my :heek, and you have shaved the lather and whiskers off, but the fly didn't nove. Now, what's the matter with "I told him there was no fly on him.

thing 'splained.'

You think I can't see him. I ain't so irunk that I can't see a fiv.' "I turned to the glass, and there stood the fly on the mirror, and in such a podtion that from my customer's range of vision it seemed to be on his cheek. He afterward said that he had felt that fly tickling him all the time, and won-eers, was not a Jew. In a namphlet just published the source of Shak-Sixtus V. Here is the passage: "In the merit confirms the previous action mingo and found there large booty. He machines combined. imparted this news to the Jewish tradesman, Simeon Ceneda, to whom it either really appeared incredible or he obstinately disputed the truth of the rumor and, on renewed confirmation of States. the contrary, he finally uttered: 'I bet a pound of my flesh that the news is false.' 'And I,' replied the Christian feet 1,000 scudi against you.' He then, in an odd and proud humor, set down a contract, testified by two witnessesa Christian and a Jewish one, stipulating that if the news be wrong Signor Paul Maria Secchi, the Christian merchant, should be bound to pay 1,000 scudi to the Jew. Simeon Ceneda wherea dif the news should be confirmed the Christian merchant, Paul Maris Secchi, should be entitled to cut out with his own hand and a well-edged might please him. "Very soon there was no doubt about Drake's victory, and the Christian insisted on the fulfillment of the contract. In vain the Jew offered 1,000 glass itself. ing in the lane just as old Simeon also scudi as compensation of the amount which the merchant could have lost The Christian swore that the contract structed me as to where I could find must be fulfilled. The Jew, in great certain implements and tools—a ladder anxiety, runs to the governor to make and a stout stave among them-which him induce the merchant to accept the I might need later on, perchance. And 1,000 scudi; but the governor communi I gave to Simeon the package of a cer-cated the matter to the pope, who de cides that both of them are to be sent was to see that this drug was dropped only be ransomed by 2,000 scudi, which

SHYLOCK WAS NOT A HEBREW.

No Bathing Suits Big Enough. but entirely without foundation, to the the home birds and the strangers met. effect that an English lecturer once in formed his hearers that the men in America were smaller in size than Englishmen, and asked any Americans who might be present to rise in confirmation of his statement, whereupon back of the lane. He should have Bishop Brooks and two other Ame walted in the lane proper, but he cans of equally imposing stature rose thought he heard voices and sounds of In different parts of the hall. This story wife of George III. When Queen Vichad no foundation, but it is true that Doctor Brooks was once traveling in the jewels left by George III. and the south of France with another Bish op of the Episcopal Church somewhat after her marriage the King of Han surpassing Doctor Brooks himself in over claimed the pearls as part of the size and another man equally large The three men went one after another to the proprietor of a little bathing es cers of England they, with reluctance. tablishment, and with serious faces asked to be fitted to bathing suits. The Immediately, however, after the decis the third gigantic man appeared car gave to her a set of pearls far superior readily be imagined.-Ladies' Home

> A 12-year-old Sedalia (Mo.) boy ha suffered nineteen fractures of the Chinese Desciencies. There is no word in the Chinese la across the greensward, over the foot guage that conveys an intimation of bridge old Simeon had managed to what we term public spirit, nor is there cilitary Confinement Is More to Dreade I than the Gallows.

MUCH WORSE THAN DEATH

The punishment which the regicide Bresci will be forced to undergo for murdering King Humbert is worse Dabney in the gray old vicarage, and I than death. In Italy the penalty of few moments afterward I had the righ death is abolished. But the punishment awaiting the regicide is worse Then, a hurried kiss, a tear or two on Mistress Marget's part, and we were on our way back to the hall, where Mistress Marget was to live on, the same as ever in all things save that slender sold hand on her finger, until my return gold band on her finger, until my return from the wars. And then—ah! sad for a man to leave his wife on the wedding few inches above the floor is a plank few inches above the floor is a plank eve-my body servant had summoned about half a yard wide and slightly inmy variets and they waited for me out- clined, which serves as a bed. The food side in the lane. I could but kiss my is bread and water, passed through the darling once more, ah me! but so tenderly and lovingly, see her safely up jailer, the door being always kept rig-

The prisoner is condemned to absofarewell—and now, beshrew me! but lute silence; if he breaks the rule he is mine own eyes were wet-and take my subjected to other punishments-name departure. But before I crossed the ly, the strait-waistcoat, irons, and foot bridge once more I threw the stout strait-bed. A prisoner who attempts stare that had served our turn so well his own life in any way is put into the far from me into the thick of the hedge, strait-waistcoat and at night in a sort and I once more clinked gold with old of sack, in which he cannot move. Simeon in order that he might be per- When the prisoner has suffered the fectly forgetful of all that had happen-punishment of the "secret cell" for a onger or shorter time he is removed to the cell where he must remain for ten years. Its sise depends on the conwaiting variets, a tearing gallop until struction of the whole prison. These cells are only lighted from the corridor Reginald and his men, and nothing but and are generally about two yards square. The bed is the usual plank and bread and water the food. In winter a single blanket is allowed at night. Stience is still enjoined; the only concession is the door being opened a few inches. The food is given only once in the twenty-four hours. If the prisoner is sick the doctor can have him removed to the prison infirmary, where he is kept in a separate chamber. Prisoners in solitary confinement go mad or die. The extra punishment of the "irons" is terrible. The handcuffs are joined by chains to similar rings on the ankles. The prisoner is scated on a bench the shape of an ass' back. At night, still in irons, he can lie

The "strait-bed" is a strong wooden case resembling a coffin without lid. At the foot the sufferer's feet are fastened in a kind of stocks. Unless by order of the governor the prisoner may not be moved and his jailer has to feed him. This punishment is only exercised on some desperate rebel.

"I asked him what was the matter. Notes From the Paris Exposition "The Singer Manufacturing Company. of 149 Broadway, New York, show their XIII., Class 79, at the Paris Internationa but he pointed to the mirror and said: Exposition, where they show to great advantage the celebrated Singer Sewing-Machine which is used in every country on the globe, both for family use and for manufacturing purposes. The writer fered how I could shave under it and tors generally.

not cut its legs off."-New York World. Machines for superior excellence in de poor, do you?" sign, construction, efficiency and for re-Bistory Places the Pound of Flesh In markable development and aduption to v or the factory.

Only One Grand Prize for sewing speare's "Merchant of Venice" is cited machines was awarded at Paris, and hesitated, and then ended triumphantfrom Gregorio Leti, blographer of Pope this distinction of absolutely superior ly, "it's the heaven kind. So there! So year 1587 a noted and rich Roman mer International Jury at the World's Colchant named Paul Maria Secchi, a umbian Exposition, in Ch cago, where good Catholic Christian, heard that good Catholic Christian, heard that tinct awards, being more than were re-

Should it be possible that any of our aders are unfamiliar with the celebrated Singer Machine, we would respectfully either really appeared incredible or advise that they call at any of the Singer mattered to make it appear so. In fact, salesrooms, which can be found in all cities and most towns in the United

> A Bird Story. A charming story of an incident connected with the great fire in Chicago is told in one of our exchanges. A family living near the lake shore had a large number of pet birds. They had built an aviary, a long, narrow room with glass windows reaching from ceiling to floor. Passers-by often stopped before the house to watch the pretty creatures fluttering about, to hear their songs, or to see them bathe. One afternoon, in the week of the fire, knife from the Jew a pound of flesh a cloud of fluttering wings moved wearily up the street. Presently these birds, most of them canaries, caught sight of the aviary with its happy denizens. Straight toward the windows they flew, some of them against the

The ladies of the house were quick to take in the situation. They hurriedly on, figuring on a sheet of paper; "Legs, shut their own birds into a compartment of the aviary, and then threw the windows wide open, retiring from sight that the spent travelers might feel free

After a few minutes, first one and then another flew inside, where they the strangers had eaten of the bird-seed and rested, the other birds were allowed to enter, and it was delightful to hear There was a story many times told the chorus of songs which arose when This incident is vouched for by one of the ladies who was a witness to it.

> An Historical Necklace. The pearl necklace worn by the Duchess of Cumberland, sister of the Princess of Wales, on great occasions, belouged formerly to Queen Charlotte. toria ascended the throne this, with all George IV. became hers. But soor crown jewels of Hanover, and when the claim was submitted to the law off ion was made the East India Company to those which she had relinquished.

> Another Young Schomer. "Mamma," said small Willie, "when sister Mary had the teethache you took

> "Yes, Willie," she replied. "Well," continued the little diplomat "I've got the stomachache; don't you think you had better take me to the candy store and get it filled?"

If you want to make a man ungrate ful for what you have done for him stop doing anything more. Sudden and Severe

......................

OUR BOYS AND GIRLS.

THIS IS THEIR DEPARTMENT OF THE PAPER

Quaint Sayings and Cute Doings of the Little Folks Everywhere, Gathered and Printed Here for All Other Little Once to Boad.

Granny Lane lived in the very las ouse at the end of the street. She lived by herself, but she did not ge lonely, because she had so many visit Old people went to see her, and little children, and then all the age. between.

When Luia's cousin, Sadie, came from the city to stay with her, Luli took her to Granny Lane's the very firs morning. They had a beautiful time and when Granny invited them to come again, they both said that they surely would very soon.

"She is a poor old lady, isn't she?" asked Sadle, on the way home. "Why, no!" cried Lula, in surprise "Granny Lane isn't poor!" "Yes, I think she is," said Sadie.

"Why?" Because she lives in such a little house, and there isn't very much in it and then she didn't have any cake of oranges to give us. like most old ladies when you got to see them." "I don't care," said Lula, stoutly she knows the splendidest stories about when she was a little girl, and usual American enterprise by having a she can make up all kinds of interesting very creditable exhibit located in Group games to play. I'd rather have them than cake." "So would I; but then," insisted Sa dle, "I think she must be very poor, for her dress was all faded, and she said she never went away on the cars or to the seashore." Lula did not answer for some time was highly pleased with this display and she was thinking it all over. At last she observed with much satisfaction that i said: "Sadie, I think perhaps Granny was favorably commented upon by visi Lane is poor, but it isn't 'poor-thing' poor at all; for she's happy and pleased The Grand Prize was awarded by the and she don't keep wishing wishes that International Jury to Singer Sewing she can't get. So I don't call that very "Well," said Sadle, "but she

"But she's lovely and good, and she cident Upon Christian Shoulders.
Once more, Shylock, after all, it aperess should be shoulders.
Once more, Shylock, after all, it aperess should be should b isn't the money kind, but it's"-Lula now you mustn't say that Granny Lane is poor!"-S. S. Visitor.

> "O my!" said Ben, "I wish I was rich and could have things like some of the boys that go to our school." "I say, Ben," said his father, turning around quickly, "how much will you take for your legs?" "For my legs?" said Ben, in surprise. "Yes! What do you use them for?"

A Rich Boy.

"Why. I run and jump and play ball, and oh, everything." "That's so," said the father. "You wouldn't take $10,000 for them, would

"No, sir." "Nor your good health?" "No. sir." wour hearing and your sense of taste are better than $5,000 aplece, at the very least, don't you think so?" "Yes. mir." "Your eyes, now. How would you like to have $50,000, and be blind the rest of your life?"

"I wouldn't like it at all." "Think a moment, Ben. Fifty thou sand dollars is a lot of money. Are you very sure you wouldn't sell then for that much?"

"Yes, sir." "Then they are worth that much, at teast. Let's see now." his father west $10,000; arms. $10,000; voice, $10,000 hearing, $5,000; taste, $5,000; good health, $10,000, and eyes, $50,000. That makes $100,000. You are worth $100,-900, at the very lowest figures, my boy. Now run and play-jump, throw your ball, laugh and hear your playmates settled down, panting, grateful for rest laugh, too; look with those $50,000 eyes and safety. It was some time before of yours at the beautiful things about they attempted to eat or bathe. After you, and come home with your usual appetite for dinner, and think now and then how rich you really are." It was a lesson that Ben never forgot. and since that day every time he sees a cripple or a blind man he thinks how many things he has to be thankful for And it has helped me to make him contented - Selected

Grandpa's Call. Out from a piece of pasteboard the outline of grandpa's silk hat. Hold this between the thumb and forefinger of your right hand, throw a cloth over

HOW GRANDPA IS MADE. your right arm and take a walking stick in your left hand. Place fingers hands and arms as shown in the illus tration and produce a shadow, which may be explained as grandpa's or Mr.

Lament of a Little Girl. My brother Will, he used to be The nicest kind of a siels Gladstone's call.—Chicago Record.

Don't worry overmuch about those sharp pains in your head. Seek their cause in your liver.

One Ayer's Pill at night tor a few nights drives away morning headaches.

Lowell, Man. Ayer's Sarsaparilla Ayer's Pilla Ayer's Ague Cure Ayer a Hair Vigor Ayer's Cherry Pe

I. C. AYER COMPANY,

He wore a little dress like me, And had his hair in curl We played with dolls and tea-sets then And every kind of toy; But all those good old times ar Will turned into a boy.

Mamma made him little suits, With pockets all complete, And cut off all his yellow curls, And packed them up so nest; And Will, he was so pleased, I b'lieve He almost jumped with joy; But I must own I didn't like Will turned into a boy.

And now he plays with horrid tops I don't know how to spin; And marbles that I try to shoot, But never hit or win: And leap-frog-I can't give a "back" Like Charley, Frank or Roy— Oh, no one knows how bad I feel, Since Will has turned a boy.

I have to wear frocks just the same, And now they're mostly white; I have to sit and just be good, While Will can climb and fight. But I must keep my dresses nice, And wear my hair in curl; And worse oh, worsest thing of all-I have to stay a girl.

No Baby Tulk for Him. Two-year-old Harold had never been accustomed to hear "baby talk." One day when he was calling with his mother, the lady of the house, thinking to amuse the child, pointed out a steam engine standing on a railroad track no far from the house.

"Do you see the choo-choo, baby?" she said. The little man looked first at her, ther at the engine, with a troubled look or his little face. Then he asked, gravely

"Do you mean the locomotive?" To Cure a Cold in One Pay. Take LAXATIVE BRONG QUINING TABLETS. All inneglists refund the m ney if it fails to cure E. W. GROVE'S signature is on each box. 25c

There is a great deal of philosophy in his world that is like the fox in the able who has lost his tail in a trap he they have snatched a tract of territor. hought there wasn't anything so styl- from the water the fight is not done sh as a bob-tailed fox.

The people of St. Louis expect to spend on their Exposition the same amount of money ($12,000,000) that was paid for the Louisiana Territory in 1803—an area of 1,182,755 square miles. There is just as much joy in this acres to Holland. A canal was du world as there is sorrow. The good laundress washes the shirt encircling the Haarlem lake and a dyl

All tastes gratified, all success ob ained, each step won by gratified pride, rvery end attained, leaves in certain natures a feeling of insufficiency and

Deafness Cannot Be Oured

Le local applications, as they cannot reach the liseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constituional remedies. D afness is caused by an alamed condition of the mucous listing of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inlamed you have a rumbling sound or imperlect hearing, and when it is e tirely closed Deafness is the result and unless the infammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be lestroyed forever. Mine cases out of ten are saused by catarrh, which is nothing b tan inlamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hund ed Dollars for any ase of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that caniot be cured by Hall's Catarrh ure. Senor circulars, free.

F. J. Chensey & Co., Toledo, O.
Sold by Drugsiste, 55c.
Hall's Family Pills are the boss. Deafness Cannot Be Oured significant as we are self-conceited; as noble as we are truthfui; and as religiously beautiful as we are truthfui; and as religiously beautiful as we are truthfui; and as religiously beautiful as we are truthfui; and the total cost of the undertaking the second secon

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for childrent teething, softens the gums, reducing inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic. 2%, a boiling It is impossible that anything so nat ural, so necessary, and so universal as death, should ever have been designed by Previdence as an evil to mankind.

25c, will cure the children of worm troubles. Frey's Vermifuge, at drug-gists, country stores or by mail. E. & S. Frey, Baltimore, Md.

Let us move more softly through the world lest our touch be a harsh and what they write and don' FITS permanently curel. No fits or nervous ness after first day's use of Dr. Kline's Gre., Nerve sestorer, 22 trial bottle an i creatise ric Dr. E. H. KLINE, Ltd., 161 Area S., Phill., Pr.

A dyspeptic is never on good terms with himself. Something is alway, wrong. Get it right by chewing Ber-man's Pepsin Gum. Literary men owe much of their repu-

The man who is a tyrant in his family is generally a coward when away I am sure Piso's Cure for Consumption savemy life three years ago. -- MRS. THOS. RCHBINS Maple St., No. wich, N. Y., Feb. 17, 1900.

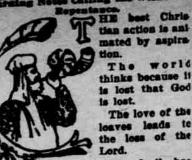

the life one leads is always the best apology of that which one has led.

"SUPPOSE I LIVE" An endowment policy is a wonderful help in the matter of living. The prob-lem of living is a deal harder than the problem of dying anyway. Read our little, free, terse booklet, "The How and The Why." It is cheerful, not doleful. PENN MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.

921-923-925 Chestnut St. PHILADEL PHIA. AGENTS establish a permanent business for yourself. Make 50s profit. Preble's Patentec Comfort Boot for Women. Easily sold. E. B Murdock, 27 Garden street, Poughkeepsie, N. y

That Little Book For Ladies, 27-

The devil has unpopularity.

The world is barren to the man who ultivates self only. The ascent of Christ maps out the true ascent of man. Moderation in ain is as possible as deration in hanging. The most practical preaching must deal with great principles. The world robs itself of Christ when t robs Him of His divinity. Many men fan the flames of their ices in order to cool them. The hypocrite uses truth, but a chicle in which to mix lies. It makes much difference whether ife is a station or a terminus. He speaks well whose hearers do hear the footsteps of passing time. A great store of patience may be los through a very small leak of vexation.

DYKEMAKING IN HOLLAND. Where Half-Inch of Water Is Between

Country and Destruct Few people have any definite under standing of the constant wrestling and struggling that is carried on in Holland with the waters of the sea and rivers. There are the common enemy of the people, who are in hourly peril of their lives and property in consequence. How serious is the position of Holland is fully demonstrated by the popular saying that the safety of the coun try may be jeopardized by only half an inch of water; the truth of the saying is accepted by all, and we cannot help admiring the people, who, notwith-standing the gravity of the situation. go about their daily occupations with perfect coolness

Nature, as though conscious that she had acted unkindly by placing so muci of the country below the water level andeavors to assist the inhabitants to keep out the waters.

The first work of dykemaking is of ten performed by her; layers of sanc and clay are thrown up on the bank and the people take advantage of thes embryo embankments. They assis the formation by putting mats of wil low on the deposits to strengthen then and bind the earthy substances, anlater they drive piles at the back, anso in time form the high dykes which prevent overflows.

For something like 400 years the per ple have been fighting the waters and reclaiming the land; but even whe The work of draining these polders of low lands must go on incessantly o the efforts of the past would be quick was built on the inner side, then e gines were planted to pump the wat out of the lake. It took four years complete the work; 800,000,000 tons water were pumped out and the co was $20,000,000. The ground was the intersected by canals for drainage pu-poses and in two years the land wa being cultivated. But the people of Holland have view an undertaking which puts tha of the Haarlem lake entirely in the ject, are due to the fact of the extrashade. This is nothing less than the ordinary regularity which is followed draining of the Zuyder Zee, which ha in the daily routine of her majesty's an area of 1,365 square miles. The in! tial stage of this undertaking would be this routine, for everything is arranged the construction of an embankmen from mainland to mainland; it would be thirty-five miles long and 216 fee wide. It would take ten years to buil this embankment, which would serve as a road for railway and general traf fic. The work of draining and reclaim Girl's Essay on Boys.

At a recent school examination for girls this composition was handed by a girl of 12, says a Missouri paper "The boy is not an animal, yet he can be heard quite a distance. When a bo hollers he opens his big mouth lik frogs, but girls hold their toung unti they are spoken to, and then they an swer respectable and tell just how was. A boy thinks himself clever be cause he can wade where the water Every life touches many other lives deep. When the boy grows up he called a husband, but the grown-u girl is a widow and keeps house.

> KEITH'S PHILADELPHIA. Keith's, the vaudeville enchanter, tertains with laughter thrills Interests each day with banter, Fonic's cure for mortal ills. Honest fun that charms and pleases, Says the world of Keith's great bill Keith's has no superior as a play house... When a public theatre hold: a thronged audience in the gallery that never makes the slightest outbreak it the way of comment of any description save that of enthusiasm in applause that theatre can be critically said to be refined and first class in every description. refined and first-class in every depart-ment of theatrical etiquette.

PUBLIC LEDGER. It is not hard to see why B. F. Keitt wants another theatre in Philadelphia The present house is certainly too smal to accommodate the audiences that gather at his entertainments. Yesterto receive an invitation to dine with her future king. With a somewhat constrained laugh she exclaimed: A false report does not last long, and the life one leads is always the best pelogy of that which one has led.

Assassination has never changed the Assassination has never changed the of tickets had to be stopped until some of the earlier comers had left.

Why, sir, it is not that hour." "No." replied the prince, "you are only four but all the standing room, and the said of tickets had to be stopped until some of the earlier comers had left.

TAGGART'S SUNDAY TIMES. "That most popular of all Philadel-phia's theatres—Keith's, where the emperature is always right, the audi ences are always correct, the shows al-ways clean and good, and the atten-dants always courteous and well-be-Noch, as he groped his way toward the engine-room. Thus, even in the says of yore, was there much commotion when the arc lights went out .-If a good face is a letter of recom-nendation, a good heart is a letter of Brooklyn Life. credit. if they had spent the day sitting on a

The Best Prescription for Chills and Fever is a bottle of GROVE'S TANKELES and quintie in testeless form. Lo cury—no usr. Price Sec. There is a great difference between a secret and a mystery. A secret may be of some consequence, but a mystery told that she is looking older.

PUTHAM FADRLESS DYE produces the fastest and brightest colors of any known dye stuff. Sold by all druggists.

All that is good grows by being prought into light, while that which is syll, if consigned to darkness and sleence, will perish in itself.

Dr. Bull's Safest, surest cure for all throat and lung troubles, People praise it. Doctors prescribe it. Quick, sure results.

Cough Syrup it. Doctors prescribe it. Quick, sure results.

Refuse substitutes. Get Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, are eyes, use) Thompson's Eye Walls.

"I could'nt Sew another" Stitch to Save my Life."

A gorgeous costume flashed beneath the brilliant lights of a ball room. The queen of society is radiant to-night The nervous hands of a weak woman have toiled day and night, the weary form and aching head have known no rest, for the dress must be finished in time.

To that queen of society and her dressmaker we would say a word. One through hothouse culture, luxury and social excitement, and the other through the toil of necessity, may some day find their ailments a common cause. Nervous prostration, excitability, fainting spells, dizziness, sleeplessness, loss of appetite and strength, all indicate serious trouble, which has been promoted by an over-taxed system. For the society queen and the dressmaker alike, there is nothing so reliable as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore strength, vigor, and happiness. Mrs. Lizzie Anderson, 49 Union St., Salem, N. J., writes:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM :- I feel it is my duty to write and tell you ho grateful I am to you for what your medicine has done for me. At one time I suffered everything a woman could. I had inflammation of the ovarios, falling of the womb, and leucorrhosa. At times could not hold a needle to sew. The first dose of your Vegetable Compound helped me so much that I kept on using it. I have now taken six bottles and am well and able to do my work. I also ride a wheel and feel no bad effects from it. I am thankful to the Giver of all good for giving you the wisdom of curing suffering women. I recommend your med-icine to every woman troubled with any of these

MRS. SARAH SWODER

Mrs. Sarah Swoder, 103 West St., La Porte, Ind., writes:

"DEAR Mrs. PINKHAM:—It gives me great pleasure to tell you how much good Lydis E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. "I had been a sufferer for years with female trouble. I could not sew but a few minutes at a time without suffering terribly with my head My back and kidneys also troubled me all the time. I was advised by a friend to take your med-icine. I had no faith in it, but decided to try it. After taking one bottle I felt so much better that I continued its use, and by the time I had taken six bottles I was cured. There is no other medicine for me. I recommend it to all my friends."

we are constantly publishing, we have will be paid to any person who will show that it is a special are not seen to any person who will show that it is a special are not seen to be seen t

REASON OF HER LONG LIFE. ucen Victoria's Longevity and Health

Due to Regularity.

An eminent physician of this city who the drawing-room the prince pointedly glanced at a small clock which stood on the mantel shelf. The duchess' suick eye observed the action and she tnew at once that a long time would slapse before she was ever again likely punctual people up to the mark."

Even in the Days of Yore.

"Where is the electrician?" yelled

There are lots of people who look as wharf waiting for their ships to

So long as a woman is not interested

Children and fools are very apt to seise upon unanswerable arguments.

come in.

as recently returned from London, 8 Plates of Soup, 10c. here he had opportunities of learning such of Queen Victoria's habits of life, of the opinion that not only her ongevity, but also her wonderful ex-A 10-ca can of Libby's Premier emption from the ills and aches to Soup makes eight plates of the best which humans are ordinarily subyou ever casted. If there was a way to make soun better, we would learn it - but life. Nothing makes a difference in there isn' :-Oxtail Mullagatawney by rule and compass, in a fashion Mock Turtle Turtle which no incidents whatsoever ever interfere with. The queen rises every Chicken Kidney or Giblet morning at the same hour and retires Tomato Ready-made Soups. at the same instant every night, her One can will make you a convert. meals are served to the second, while her drives and airings are regulated Libby, McNelli & Libby. Chicago with the same punctuality; indeed, the Write a postal for our free book. "How to Make Good Things to Eat." royal household of England far outdoes any great public business institution for scrupulous and perfect punctuality. This state of affairs has gone on, year in, year out, ever since the BEST $3.50 $3.00 SHOE. placed so high the expect more for than they can SHOE. THE REARDS ...

FOR FIFTY YEARS! MRS. WINSLOW'S

SOOTHING SYRUP has been used by millions of their children white Teething to Years. It soothes the children was a state of the children was a state of the best remedy for diarrane. Twenty-five Centan Fott

FOR WOMEN

AN ENTIRELY' NEW DI COVERY. brings happiness to thousands of anxious some. There is positively no other remarks known that will to the work so quickly and safely. Never had said to the work so quickly and safely. Never had said to. The most obstituate cases relieved in a few last. No pain, danger or interference with occupation, he most difficult cases treated through correspondence. I relieve hundreds whom I never see. Fee candidential advice. All letters are personally grounded sand confidentially answered. B. mailior office, E.M. Itts, Dr. Harold Remedy Co., Els N. 12th et., Phila.

tf afflicted with } Thompson's Eya Wald