An uptown family has two interesting children who are always getting into mischief. The boy, who is the older, is usually the instigator of the capades, and so though the small girl runs away with him and gives the cat coal oil and sets the plants on fire, and steals the eggs the cook expects to have for breakfast, "to beat with sand to make a nice creamy cake," she usually escapes with a lighter punishment than is meted out to the chief culprit.

Yesterday, however, the heir of the family got even. An uncle of the children had given each of them a beauti-A Massachusetts grandmother weigh-
