ian church at 2.30 o'clock P. M. to pay their last respects to the de ceased Judge. The services in the church were conducted by Rev. Joseph Mathers and Rev's. Camp bell and Dorwart.

The members of the Juniata County Bar met in the Court House at 11 o'clock A. M. on Saturday, for the purpose of paying a tribute of respect to the memory of Judge Jeremiah Lyons.

Robert McMeen Esq. was chosen President of the meeting and Jos. E. Neimond and A. J. Calhoun, Sisters. Esqs., were selected to act as secretaries.

The following preamble and resolution was adopted and ordered to be entered upon the record of the Court:

"The Bar of Juniata County to have a fish law passed that learned with a great shock and suits their small circle, and enables sincere grief of the sudden death them to wile away the time to catch of Judge Jeremiah Lyons, among now and then a few pounds of what strangers in the City of Philadelare called game fish. The one they phia, on Wednesday of this week. have had passed to protect the To the decree of Heaven, thus sudgame fish. But in the passage of denly and unpectedly entered, we bow in humble submission. With the game fish law they have deintent to do justice to his memory, these minutes are placed upon the records:-

the very incarnation of careful and thorough work, whose skill at the bar and forum was unquestioned, and whose success was complete. He was vigorous and original in thought, ready of utterance, learned in the law, clear in apprehen-sion, and sound in judgment; gif-ted in the art of advocate, carnest in his clients interests and true in the defence of legal principles, and zealous at all times of professional honor. On the bench, he was upright, impartial, and strong, patient in research, exhaustive in indusbroad question of the use of the try, with a thorough and comprewater of a stream for one purpose hensive grasp of facts and legal only, to the damage or loss of other interests. So then the principal principles.

As a man, a citizeu, a neighbor, and a friend, he stood with the best. His strong individuality may at times have brought him into conflict with his fellows, but in his great heart there was no malice. Let him but imagine that an injury has been done, and there was none so ready to bring the olive branch of peace. His genial, generous, warm-hearted sympathetic nature asserted itself in the man, and his fellows loved him and could not help loving him for what he was. His interests in the community, his active participation in the daily affairs of our lives, his ready efforts to promote our success in every way, had bound him to us with ties of affection and love; and in his death we have lost a triend and a brother.

Resolved that these minutes be entered on the records of the Courts, and that a copy thereof be published in the county papers."
