

TOWN, COUNTY, AND VARIETY.

Judge Elwell, of Bloomsburg, is presiding at our court this week, in place of Judge Streeter. Rev. Asher Moore preaches at the Universalist church, Brooklyn, every Sunday morning and evening. Representative Falkenbury will please accept our acknowledgments for the receipt of valuable public documents from the State Capitol. The Union Prayer Meetings will be continued each afternoon this week, commencing at half past two o'clock, and closing at four o'clock. The Erie Company are building some new locomotives at the Susquehanna shops. It is the intention to turn out seven during the coming season. The Valley House, Scranton, has been leased by the several hotel keepers of that city, who will close it next week, and not allow it to be opened again as a hotel. The Wyoming M. E. Conference, which was to assemble in Binghamton on the 29th of March next, is postponed until April 5th.—Bishop Bowman is to preside. One of our new subscribers, while at our office last week, said that our agent, Mr. Weeks, didn't leave a man, woman or child in his neighborhood that hadn't THE DEMOCRAT read. The Harrisburg Patriot says that Hon Victor E. Piollet has refused his last year's salary as state lecturer of the Pennsylvania Patrons of Husbandry and, will serve gratuitously so long as he shall hold the position. S. J. Stauffer has sold his cigar manufactory, on Public Avenue, to E. V. Curry, of Philadelphia. Mr. Curry intends to carry on a first class establishment and certainly our tobacco connoisseurs should burn his cigars as well as others, if he makes the conditions the same. Burns & White, marble dealers, Tunkhannock, Pa., have a few good propositions to make to the public this week in an advertisement elsewhere. Mr. Burns is a native of this county, and the firm consider that their ability to satisfy customers is unsurpassed. The firm of Donly & Casey, Furniture dealers, Binghamton, N. Y., has been dissolved and P. J. Donly now conducts the business. Mr. Donly intends to make the undertaking business a speciality and between now and April first he intends to close out his furniture at factory prices and quit that part of the trade. Tramps are becoming numerous on the line of the Albany & Susquehanna Railroad, which has heretofore been remarkably free from them. The Bainbridge Republican says that on Wednesday night last, eleven were kept over night by the postmaster, and nearly every evening a party of them have to be furnished with food and lodgings. Our old friend, J. L. Burtis, drops us a copy of the Oneonta Commercial of which he is the editor and proprietor. This is no new field to Mr. Burtis for he has been in the harness all the way from a printer's "devil" to the editorial chair, and success is his watchword.—Mr. B. was foreman in the Democrat office, for nearly two years. We extend our hand as we place the Commercial on our exchange list. The canvasser for this paper was very handsomely entertained and made to feel very much at home by the family of D. Thomas, of Springville, last week. Mr. Thomas is a stirring farmer and has also been extensively engaged for a number of years in sending supplies to Scranton market. Mrs. Thomas and her daughter know how to set a first-class table. Many thanks to them. Bishop Huntington (Protestant Episcopal) of Central New York, at a recent Protestant Episcopal Convocation in Watertown, N. Y., spoke of the exclusion of the Bible from the public schools as "fore-doomed" by circumstances that are to be deplored, and said that religious instruction in such schools could be allowed only when there was a conformity of creeds. He suggested that, under the circumstances, the duty of his church was to provide for more comprehensive religious instruction in Sunday Schools, and to devote several hours of each Sunday for that purpose.—Evening Post. A correspondent of the American Grocer argues as follows in reference to the manner in which eggs are sold: "One thing I should like to see brought about in the manner of selling eggs; and instead of by the dozen, to see them sold and quoted by the pound. Now there is no more justice in the consumer or retail dealer being asked to pay a certain price for a lot of eggs that will only weigh 17 or 18 ounces (and even some lots as low as 14 ounces) when the next customer may get for the same price a lot that will weigh 23 to 24 ounces (and some times more), than there is in selling short weight canned goods or raisins. Can't the subject be agitated to the extent of bringing the attention of the trade strongly enough to the matter to create a change? I presume there is a standard weight for eggs, but if so I have never seen it." To prevent the accidents to which railroad trains are liable from one car jumping the track, the plan has been devised of applying to cars a kind of shoe, consisting of a clamplike arrangement which is affixed between the wheels of each truck. This runs about two inches from the rail, and if anything happens tending to throw the wheels from the track, the clamp at once grasps the rail, holds the car on the track, and brings the train to a speedy halt. Such a shoe will, it is claimed, prove a great saving to railroad rolling stock, and add greatly to the strength of the truck, it being constructed of iron and weighing some 500 pounds. Experiments made with cars provided with this device show that the arrangement accomplishes very effectively the object in view, and it is estimated that on account of the additional strength thus imparted to the car, it must last much longer.

The Catholics of Susquehanna Depot, have been holding a very successful Fair, netting the Society some $3,500 towards building their new church, which Father Slattery is pushing forward with great zeal. The Montrose Democrat at the beginning of the centennial year has been enlarged and greatly improved. It is now an eight page paper, well-filled, and presents a fine and creditable appearance.—Susquehanna Journal. The Montrose Democrat, one of our most valued exchanges, comes to us this week in a quarto form—a change but not an improvement, we think. The Democrat starts out with fine prospects for the Centennial year.—Susquehanna Gazette. The Montrose Democrat surprised its readers by coming out in its first issue for 1876, as an eight, instead of a four, page journal.—The change is an improvement, and shows that the proprietors' motto is advancement, and that they are alive to the wants of their patrons. May success crown their efforts.—Great Bend Reporter. We opened the Montrose Democrat, of last week, with fear and trembling. We had become so accustomed to a four page paper, that we were certain there was a mistake somewhere, when we opened an eight page paper. The editors are to be congratulated on the neat and improved appearance of their paper.—Union News. Benighted pedestrians will hereafter thank Mr. C. H. Smith and the Presbyterian society for throwing some genuine light upon the street lamp subject. Mr. Smith by planting a first class kerosene lamp and post in front of his residence on Turnpike street and the Presbyterian society by doing the same thing in front of their church. The family of Thomas Crago, of Dyerberry, Wayne county, Pa., has become nearly extinct by diphtheria. Mr. Crago lost four children in December. Himself and servant girl were taken sick last week, and died on Thursday. The wife died only a few months ago. Only two children are left of the family and they are reported dangerously ill with the same disease. Finding in the Montrose Democrat the statement that that paper had been "greatly enlarged" at the beginning of the present year, we took the pains to compare one of its issues in December, 1875, with its last issue, and found that the size remains exactly the same one way, and that the sheet issued in 1876 is a quarter of an inch larger the other way. A splendid enlargement truly!—Montrose Republican. E. L. Weeks is our only traveling agent and is authorized to canvass for the Democrat until further notice. During the last week he has added forty-two new subscribers to our list and it wasn't much of a week for subscribers either. We publish a list of credits elsewhere so that if any mistakes occur they can be at once rectified. All such should be forwarded to us at once for correction. Mrs. Shrimpton, for many years a resident of this place, died on Wednesday morning, Dec. 29th, at the house of Mr. James Bell. She was sixty-one years of age at the time of her death which was caused by acute pneumonia, her sickness lasting a little over a week. Mrs. Shrimpton was a devoted member of the Episcopal Church, and on her death bed gave to her two boys on Broad street. She will be long missed by her many friends.—Susquehanna Gazette. The second quarterly meeting of the churches of Bridgewater Association, will commence on Friday evening, Jan. 28th, at New Milford—preachers, Pastors Burroughs, and Jayne; at Warren Centre, Bradford county, at the same time—preachers, Pastors Post and Tilden. These meetings will continue over the Sabbath, Jan. 30th. A general invitation is extended to the people of the localities where the meetings are held to attend them. J. E. C., Cor. Sec. We were handed by Dr. D. A. Lathrop a copy of the Ulster County Gazette published at Kingston, Ulster county, N. Y., by Samuel Freer & Son, January 4th, 1876, being over seventy-six years old. This is the property of William Henstock. It is a very neatly printed four column paper, folio, 10 by 16 inches on very substantial paper and contains the announcement of the death of General George Washington and the action of Congress and the President, John Adams, in relation to it.—Some extracts from it will be found elsewhere, inpre of which we shall make hereafter. On Sunday a deaf and dumb boy named Moore, residing in a neighboring county, killed a bear while roaming in the woods not far from his father's house. The boy observed a movement at the mouth of a cave. Approaching an object resembling a bear became visible. He cautiously proceeded in the direction of the cave with an axe which he had in his possession and selected a position where he could deal the animal a blow as he emerged from the opening. When the coveted opportunity presented itself the boy raised the weapon and plunged it into the head of the bear, repeating the operation several times. He soon had the satisfaction of seeing the animal falling prostrate at his feet. The next day the bear which weighed 220 pounds, was taken to Altoona and sold.—Harrisburg Patriot. He who lessens the hardships of travel is as much entitled to thanks as one who increases it. The most marked improvement in railway travel since the introduction of the sleeping car, is certainly the hotel coach. The first of them was put on the Erie road two months ago, and now a train of six coaches leaves for the West daily, running through to Chicago in less than thirty-eight hours, which is about half the schedule time of eight or ten years ago. Each passenger has a lounge by day, a bed by night, and a dining table at meal hours, all compressed into the space occupied by the ordinary sleeping berth familiar to all. The traveler can order breakfast, dinner or tea at any hour, have his food cooked on the car and served smoking hot; all without leaving his car, losing his temper, and with less inconvenience than if he were on shipboard. A neatly printed bill of fare from one of the Pullman trains on the Erie shows that the prices for most articles, except oysters, are as low as at any first-class hotel, while the prices of game and wines are very much lower than those of our best restaurants. Why does not Wagner imitate or improve upon Pullman? Should the Erie have a monopoly of such comforts?—N. Y. Tribune. It is often said by those who do not consider how much more interest they should have in their own county paper, than in any other, "Why, I can get a larger paper than yours for the same money and some less." This is no news to us. We have known that for years. It is on the same principle that you can get a number eight hat for the same price that you can get a number six but when you have got a number six head it would be false economy in you to take only the one that fits you even if it cost you less. It is the same with your county paper compared with some city paper. There is that in your county paper which you cannot purchase at any price in any other, and often one number is of more value than the whole subscription for a year. The city paper taken, to the exclusion of your county paper is like a number eight hat on a number six head. It blinds your eyes with matters of no earthly importance to you about local matters in the city, and leaves you to stumble into the ditch in home matters. The advertisement of a community by its local paper with its thriving appearance and mention of happenings and improvements, is dollars in your pocket peculiarly, where any foreign city paper is cents. Strangers who go to buy stock, farms, produce or engage in business look first at the county paper. A VERY AGED RELIC.—Messrs. Editors: I noticed recently, in your paper, mention of a pork barrel 105 years old. I have three plates the history of which is as follows: Thomas Wireman was born in Mansfield, England, May 10th, 1510. Married Jan. 1st, 1535, when he bought his wife's crockery. Some of this fell into the hands of his son, John Wireman, in 1601. In 1680 they fell into Frederick Wireman's hands and Isarel Wireman received them in 1760. In 1800 they fell into the hands of William Wireman at Baltimore, and in 1865 they came into the possession of his daughter, Mary J. Wireman, now the wife of Elias H. Wellman, of New Milford this county, where they can be seen at any time. Hence from the above record, these plates are 341 years old the first of the present month. W. A WOMAN BURNED TO DEATH.—On Friday night last, between eight and nine o'clock, the terrible spectacle of a woman wrapped in flames, wildly running and shrieking through the street, was witnessed on Railroad Avenue. The poor woman ran from near Church street to Second, where a courageous and quick-minded citizen named Dennis Sullivan stopped her, and throwing his heavy overcoat over her burning body endeavored to extinguish the flames, which she succeeded at last in doing by throwing her upon the ground and rolling her in the mud. The woman proved to be Anna Hanstick, a Polander, living on Railroad Avenue, near Church. She was lighting a fire, and using kerosene, an explosion followed, setting fire to her clothing. Her injuries were of such a serious nature that death ensued the same night.—Elmira Gazette, Jan. 6. FAIRDALE.—The school at Fairdale is prospering finely under the management of Mr. Henry Nells, a young man from Leraville. George Sheip has bought one of his father's farms, consideration $3,100. Jacob Andre has just started a feed mill and we think it will be of great benefit to the community around about. J. B. McKeely is erecting a fine house on his farm near Fairdale. There is a large amount of bark that passes by here daily. We expect it goes to the large tannery of J. H. & E. P. Munger, Franklin Forks. Our worthy pastor, M. E. Bramhall, is holding a series of protracted meetings here and considerable interest is manifested. There has been some conversions—and it is still in progress. OSSENER. DIMOCK.—We saw on our way south last week our old friend, A. J. Ticknor, who was thrown from his horse last fall breaking his leg in two places. He is out with crutches and looks well considering his long confinement. Ernest Skibbe, of Parkvale, has rented the flouring mills built by Benjamin Parke and has repaired and put them in fine condition. He pays the highest price for grain and sells flour, meal and feed at very low prices. He is a first-class miller and business man and we saw but the one thing lacking and that was a house-keeper. A first-class girl of good looks and comely appearance might bring joy and happiness to that bachelor's fireside. A. W. Moody is now proprietor of the store so long and so successfully managed by William H. Thyre. We bespeak for Mr. Moody success in his new calling. LIBERTY.—Eugene Baxter died at Franklin Forks, Monday morning of this week. Mr. Fisk is to hold a series of meetings in the brick church, commencing on Monday evening next. Theron Smith had the misfortune to cut off one of his fingers Tuesday morning, while splitting a stick of wood. Mr. Ansel Ives, who has been absent from the place some thirty years, has returned to visit his friends bringing two of his sons with him. Mr. Estus' cancer has literally cropped out and he is in a fair way to recover. It has been a fearful thing and more painful from its being on the back part of his head. The lady by whom he has received treatment evidently understands her business. The donation at Franklin Forks for the benefit of the Rev. Mr. Fisk was largely attended, there being nearly six hundred present. He received over one hundred dollars in money. This is doing the fair thing in a fair way. D. C. Maryin, esq., has been very ill for some weeks with a disease of the lungs, but his physician says he will come through all right and we sincerely hope the prediction will prove a true one. Mrs. Laura Smith died last Saturday evening, Jan. 8, and was buried Monday morning. The funeral services were held in the Baptist church, the Rev. Mr. Burrows officiating. She leaves a husband and four little children to mourn her loss. ZOE. MARCY AND COOLVILLE.—Marcy and Coolville can each soon boast of a new steam saw mill. E. Harper of the former place has his mill up and engine in and nearly ready for business. His engine was built by the Susquehanna County Agricultural Works. E. L. Cool and Jared Deans, of the latter place, have their foundation commenced and have, on the road from Ohio, a large portable boiler and engine, which in a very short time they expect to have running. These places are about one mile apart and it is thought the two mills will be able to attend to all the business entrusted to them with promptness and dispatch. Jared Deans has also purchased the house and lot formerly owned by Hezekiah Bullard and is soon to erect a store for James Martin and a wagon shop for himself. LATHROP AND VICINITY.—Mr. J. M. Williams of Lathrop, is a successful bee keeper. He has on hand eighteen swarms of bees and they are just up in good shape and attract the attention of passers by. Rev. E. W. Breckinridge is holding revival meetings at the Lake Side church and a good degree of interest is manifested. He and layman, John Miller, have been traveling throughout the charge, getting subscriptions to pay off the balance of the old debt on the church, with prospect of success. This society has a beautiful country church at the foot of Tarbell Lake. Zopher Mackay is laying the foundation for a saw mill, just below the Lathrop R. O. Mr. Warren Lathrop is drawing lumber and stone preparatory to building a large dwelling house early in the spring. RELIGIOUS.—Messrs. Editors: I presume no item of current news will be of more present general interest to your readers than the present religious meetings in progress in our Borough. It was manifest to the pastors of the churches and the more active ones of the membership quite early in the fall that there was developing an interest which would, most certainly, consummate in a general religious awakening in our midst. A few young men, not exceeding a dozen, had for a long time held prayer meetings on Sabbath afternoon at four o'clock. These, early in December, began to increase in attendance and interest and last Sabbath 150—at least—persons, much the larger number being young men, assembled in the Chapel of the Baptist church participating in a meeting, its like seldom known. Special meetings held nightly were commenced in the M. E. church the first week in December which have been continued until the present time with increasing interest. About the middle of November Union religious meetings held on Monday evening taking the churches in order were commenced which have continued till now—Monday evening last being the eleventh held in the M. E. church, its large auditorium being crowded. Union meetings which were held each afternoon during the "week of prayer" continued last week and are to be held this week—also at the same time meetings nightly in the churches which are still unabated in interest. Such is the outline of mentionable facts relative to the almost unequalled religious interest in our midst. But the good accomplished, the spiritual influences felt and at work, the numbers reached, converted and quickened is beyond the power of human modes of announcement. Prayer earnest and in faith are being breathed to God for still greater manifestations and achievements. T. Business Locals. Oh! Its business, this smoking Curry's cigars. DORAN, Merchant Tailor and dealer in Ready Made Clothing, Dry Goods, Groceries and Provisional Main Street. Drugs and Medicine. WHAT IS GENUINE? It is a liquid Liniment for House and stable use. A valuable combination, discovered by a celebrated English Chemist and horse-farrier. Was introduced into the United States in the year 1856, and since that time, by its great success, in the cure of diseases, it has won for itself that world wide reputation to which it richly deserves, and now stands at the head of all liniments unrivalled. AS A FAMILY MEDICINE. It has already gained the confidence and admiration of thousands of householders for its many cures of diseases, and its external applications are of much importance. It is especially adapted as a family remedy for its peculiar chemical combination, possessing no harsh ingredients, like the tincture of Cayenne, Turpentine, or which cheap and valueless Liniments are largely composed of, which increase instead of diminish the inflammation, making it by nature a speedy cure. RHEUMATISM, HEADACHES, SORE THROAT, COLIC, COUGHS, CHOLERA, TOOTHACHE, BRUISES, SPRAINS, LUMBAGO, CRAMPS, COLDS, CHILLS, FROST, TIC DOLORÉUX, BURNS, CUTS, BITES OF POISONOUS INSECTS, &c. Purchasable at all Wholesale and retail stores in the County. Montrose, May 6th, 1875. AYRE'S CHERRY PECTORAL. For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Cough, Cold, Hoarseness, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption. The few compositions which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary qualities. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public about forty years, by a long continued series of successful cures that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Cough, Whooping Cough, and Consumption. It can be made by medical skill. Indeed the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects. The remedy is well founded; if the remedy be taken in season, every family should have it in their closet for the remedy and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The protection should not neglect it, and the wise will not keep it by for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks. PREPARED BY Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., Practical and Analytical Chemists. SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS AND DEALERS IN MEDICINE. Nov. 24, 1875. AYRE'S HAIR VIGOR. FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR. TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR. Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all tend to deprive the hair of either of them incline it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth, and always restores its color, when faded or gray. It stimulates the natural organs, to healthy activity and preserves both the hair and its beauty. This brassy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and established; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hair resumes its original color, and is as fresh and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all itching humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions, disease of the scalp is impossible. As a dressing for ladies' hair, the Vigor is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft luster and richness of tone it imparts. PREPARED BY Dr. J. C.
